Government of India, Home Department.

Port Blair.

Extracts from two demi-official letters from LIEUTENANT-COLONEL R. C. TYTLER, Superintendent of Port Blair, to E. C. BAYLEY, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,—(dated in June 1862.)

I. The road from Aberdeen to Phœnix Bay is now completed, and I am having Cocoanut trees planted in every suitable place on either side of the road—this road is very beautiful—the trees that line the sides are tall, festooned with gigantic creepers, and the intense blue of the Sea within a few yards of it, all add to the beauty of an undescribable scene.

I am now having a road made from Aberdeen to Navy Bay, the distance is about two and a half or three miles, the advantage of this road is obvious; it cuts off entirely a principal shoulder of land and will thus insure the Colony against sudden attacks from the aborigines, for I intend, as this work proceeds, to locate detachments of Convicts along the road, who will clear away and cultivate in front of them. Another great advantage to be gained by this road will be a short cut towards Viper Island, thus insuring an easy communication with that Island in boisterous weather, if desirable.

I have also begun another road from the Phœnix Bay Road to Haddoo and another to branch off from it to Navy Bay; this with any small branching of roads will assist us greatly in our future clearing, and keep up easy and short communications with our several posts.

The Europeans (I allude to the Naval Brigade, Clerks, &c., &c.,) are very much in want of a place to resort to for amusement, and as a certain degree of exercise is essentially necessary for the preservation of health, I have commenced a road which is to go all round Ross Island along the beach above high water mark. This will give an excellent road of nearly three miles in length, besides which it will be of great use for hackeries to assist in removing timber or conveying coral for lime or ballast for ships.

I am having all the Cocoanut and Nutmeg trees planted out; we have a great many, and it is necessary to do so during this rainy season if possible.

The Convict Hospital on Ross Island is progressing, but I fear much it will take some time before it is finished.

I find it necessary to establish a Bazar Chowdry on Ross Island, to regulate under my orders the sale of the Settlement produce; for this purpose I have selected a man from the Tootydars, and appointed another also on Viper Island.

The armed Police as well as the whole of the Convict Police require a European to look well after them, and to see that their arms, accoutrements, &c., are kept clean and in an efficient state. For this purpose I have placed one of the European Convicts in charge of them; it is impossible to trust Natives with this duty.

It is very necessary that proper sheds and houses should be built (as many as possible) for the Settlement. Bearing this object in view, I am devoting all I possibly can to this very important point, and trust to do a good deal.

I shall feel much obliged if more good European Convicts are sent to me; I desire them, for they afford me great assistance in looking after the several works. I find more is done under their superintendence than when Natives look after the labouring Convicts.

I should like more Native Convicts, male and female, to be sent, for as I go on clearing from Aberdeen to Navy Bay they will be required to clear spaces for cultivation as well as to occupy posts on the road.

I would feel much obliged if you would kindly direct a large supply of vegetable and other seeds to be sent to the Settlement; this would be very desirable; and if a good supply of the following fruit trees* were sent, it would be to the advantage of the place.

Leichees.
Umra.
Bare.
Jumrool, pink and white.
Date, Palm.
Tal, Palm.
Loquatt.

Rose Apple.
Alligott Pear.

I find that elephants are of the greatest importance, in fact the work cannot be satisfactorily done without them. The large logs are with the greatest difficulty moved by men, and are with the greatest ease dragged by elephants. I have written to you officially on this subject. With six or eight elephants the clearing of the ground would go on most rapidly. If a portable Saw Mill could be procured and sent to me it would be of great service, I mean one that could be dragged by one elephant; in this case planks and timber for various purposes could be cut without the trouble of sending them across to Chatham Island, which latter place could be employed for the heavier description of wood-work.

I beg you will not lose sight of the regularity requisite for our Mails, and if possible secure for us a communication with Calcutta twice every month. It would be of great importance in every way to the Settlement. I would dwell longer on this subject, but refrain from doing so, feeling assured that you are perfectly aware of the importance of the subject.

I am most anxious to establish model Farm, and to place a European in charge of it. I feel convinced that if properly arranged and managed, we will be able to render it of great use to the Settlement, and, perhaps the means of securing for us a good supply of meat of various kinds. I wish very much you would kindly send me a few pairs of the following live stock.† I would also like to introduce some sort of useful pony; if a stallion and a couple of mares of a good strong breed could be sent, I think we might soon get up a sufficient number for the use of the Settlement, and if a male and two female Asses of the breed which they have at ADEN and CAIRO could be procured, I am convinced they would do well here; the small Ass such as we have in Bengal is too inferior an animal to solicit, and should any be introduced the best should be sent; they would be of great use to the Islands, &c., &c.

† Turkeys.

Geese.

It is astonishing how well everything that is planted thrives here; the Cotton plants are most luxuriant and will soon be productive of abundance of Cotton; I will take every opportunity for increasing this valuable plant.

I intend to mark off a piece of ground for a garden expressly for the men of the Naval Brigade; this will give several of them good wholesome employment, and be the means no doubt of supplying them with a good stock of vegetables throughout the year.

* I find that where the Mungrove trees and other vegetable productions on the Sea beach have been cut down, that the Sea encroaches rapidly and destroys the land. In future, I will protect a belt of these trees, clearing spaces beyond a certain given number of yards from the beach.

In all my clearings, I shall do all I can to save the gigantic stately trees of these fertile Islands, clearing away all the brushwood and second class (in size) timber trees; this will prevent the unsightly barren appearance caused by a total clearing and cutting of timber trees.

I adopt the precaution of planting trees along the sides of the roads that are in process of making, particularly the Cocoanut, thus making this portion of our work doubly useful as well as ornamental.

The Convicts seem well behaved, obedient, respectful, and do all they can to work and give satisfaction; it is quite a pleasure to have such willing people to superintend and look after.

I attach a Statement from the five Convicts that escaped from Viper Island on the 10th of May and returned on the 22nd of May; these men came from Calcutta on the 2nd February 1862; they have had a good lesson; their personal appearance shews the miserable plight they have been in, and emaciated state they have been reduced to.

I trust some arrangement will be made for a Clergyman. We have now a great many Europeans and Christians in the Settlement, and I feel it my bounden duty to bring this prominently to your notice.

We have now in this Settlement 2,264 Native Convicts of all sorts, and it is hoped that more may be sent, for we need any number that can be spared, there being work in abundance for them.

From the Convicts we have I have selected eight boys and have made them over to the Carpenter and Blacksmiths' shops under charge of Lieutenant Hellard, with a view of having these boys taught and brought up in those trades for the future benefit of our Settlement, as well as for their own personal benefit, should they ever hereafter be released. Instead of being helpless outcastes they will have a profession to fall back on, and perhaps become useful members of society.

A Semaphore is ereeted on Ross Island, but then it is only a very temporary thing, and it would be advisable to have a good one not only on Ross Island but also on Chatham and Viper Islands. If any of the old Calcutta or Diamond Harbour Semaphore apparatus could possibly be obtained and sent to us, it would be of the greatest service to us; the distance and difficult means of communicating with the several islands in bad weather would then be entirely overcome.

We escaped from Viper Island on the 10th of May 1862, and returned in the state you see us on the 22nd of May, and we declare that the following statement is true. The way we escaped was this: we took three plantain trees, tied them together and thus made a raft of them; on this we placed our blankets and clothes and swam across to the main land pushing the raft before us; we took no food; we travelled about the jungle for seven days; we landed on the land to the north of Viper Island and went a short distance to the north, then struck off to the west, and on the seventh day reached the seashore; it was a dense jungle the whole way; we found great quantities of pann leaves to eat, and a yellow sub-acid fruit with two or three stones in each; we had nothing else to eat; when we reached the shore we found dried cocoanuts that had been washed ashore by the waves; we ate them, but they were very few; we went along the seashore in a northward direction for a day and a half, when we saw four canoes fastened to the shores; the tide was out, we saw no men near the canoes so we went to them, but the moment we reached the boats about twenty or twenty-five men armed with bows, arrows, and small knives rushed out on us threatening to destroy us; we did not attempt to fly, but stood with our hands in a supplicating position; they spared our lives, but tore our clothes off our backs; they snatched every thing we had away from us, throwing away most of the things but keeping all the iron they could get; they broke our rings with stones, then two, men pulled them open and off our feet; their women and children now gathered round us, we were then taken to their huts, they were very ordinary temporary looking sheds; they were near the canoes, and close to the beach, out of the jungle, but concealed from our view at first by high land; some women were cooking in curious shaped utensils, they brought us pounded meat to eat, but we would not eat it, on which they told us by signs that we were to go back the way we had come; they were all laughing and appeared very merry, and the men tried to jump on our backs; two of them got or rather tried to get on each of our backs; their weight threw us down; they then took us to the beach and motioned to us to return the way we had come. When we began to re-trace our steps they began to pelt us with stones; we now from fear ran, and they after us; we fell down in the water, but continued trying to escape; they followed pelting us with stones and laughing, and seemed to be enjoying a good joke. A little boy of about twelve years of age poked an arrow with his hand into Adjoodia's shoulder; he did it out of fun, they followed us about a hundred yards. We fell in with the Savages about 9 A. M. and left them in an hour. We now kept along the beach and the next morning entered the jungle, and in about five or six days reached the shore opposite Chatham Island and from there called for help.

the jungles are infested with blood sucking* insects, and were a source of great annoyance to us. On our return to the Settlement we came to a flat piece of ground considerably more than fifty beegahs in length; this flat land was surrounded by high land; it was clear of timber jungle, but covered with brushwood. We think this flat land is about twelve miles from here.

II. Many of the women prisoners sent to this Settlement, and not deterring to marry, have begged permission to maintain themselves in various ways, and to become self-supporting Convicts; they wish to become grain grinders, vegetable sellers, tailors, &c., &c. I see no objection to this arrangement, and I have granted them the same privileges that the male Convicts possess in this respect, and trust it may prove of benefit to the Settlement, and particularly so if any of them will rear poultry, the latter being of great importance.

2. I find it necessary to make a slight alteration in the present disposal of the Convicts at the Settlement, so as to establish a plain and simple plan for the management of the Settlement and easy to understand. The plan I will adopt is this,—to have a specified given number of men for each post with their proper proportion of Gangsmen, &c., &c.; these men to be permanent, and not to shift about from one place to another; by this means we shall know exactly the number of men at each post, and the exact quantity of work reasonably to expect from each. I will confine myself to 400 Convicts for each post, as this number of men constitute a gang according to the existing system, and allow of a certain proportion of Gangsmen, &c., &c.; thus Ross Island will have 800 men or two gangs; Aberdeen 400; Chatham and Huddoo 400; and Viper Island will be a sort of Depôt. I will keep each post distinct from the other, and not all clubbed up as they now exist, which renders it difficult to manage and difficult to understand; and as I go on clearing and can shelter my Convicts properly at other posts and can provide for and admit of another 400 men I will do so, and take them from Viper Island: this latter place will be, if I may so term it, a sort of Convict Depôt.

We require cloth for sale on our Island; the little sold sells at a very high price; people on small means cannot buy at all; how to overcome this evil I cannot tell, unless we open a Convict shop. I could indent on Calcutta for articles certain of selling, fix a price so as to insure against any loss, and adopt every precaution to prevent monopoly. I will give this subject every thought, and address you again on the matter.

The Steamer Arracan from Moulmein arrived at 11 A. M., 10th June. She has brought some of our letters from Moulmein. I will send by her some of our quarry stones or specimens for the Light-house now building on the Alguada Reef. I have sent men to cut three slabs for submission to Calcutta.

A good many marriages have taken place lately on the Island amongst male and female life Convicts, according to the rules of the Settlement, the man and woman solemnly declaring that, in the event of one or the other getting a remission of their sentence, they will not leave the Settlement on any consideration, nor desert their wives and families: these marriages are productive of much good and comfort to the Settlement, the married couple settling down to domestic peaceful occupation. I am therefore desirous of encouraging it as much as possible, seeing however that this great indulgence is not abused.

Peons to be furnished with belt and plate.

V. The Peons who are appointed and registered in the manner above prescribed, shall be furnished at the expense of the State with a uniform belt and plate, on which shall be inscribed the Court to which the Peon belongs and the number of the Peon in the Register.

VI. The Peons appointed and registered under this Act shall either receive fixed salaries, or be remunerated by fees for the service of the processes served or executed by them, as the local Government shall direct. The amount of salary shall be fixed by the local Government.

Remuneration of Peons.

VII. The cost of serving or executing processes shall be fixed by the Judge of each Court with due regard to the distance from the Court at which service or execution is to take place. The rates so fixed shall be subject to the sanction of the Zillah Judge, if the Judge fixing the same be subordinate to a Zillah Judge. A Table showing the amount chargeable for such service and execution shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of the Court.

Rates of serving or executing process.

VIII. On every process served or executed under this Act there shall be endorsed the name of the Peon deputed to serve or execute the same, the period within which the Peon is required to certify service or execution, the amount payable for the service or execution of the process, and the date of payment, and such endorsement shall be signed by the Nazir or Clerk of the Court.

Process to be endorsed by Nazir or Clerk.

IX. When the Peons appointed under this Act are remunerated by a fixed salary, the money paid under this Act for the service or execution of processes shall be carried to the credit of Government, and shall be formed into a fund out of which the salaries of such Peons shall be paid. Any surplus that may accrue from such fund, after paying the salaries of the Peons, shall be at the disposal of the local Government, and may be applied by such Government, subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, to the improvement of the administration of Civil Justice in the North-Western Provinces.

Disposal of subsistence money.

X. When the Peons appointed under this Act, are remunerated for their services by fees, the Nazir or Clerk of the Court shall, on delivering any process to be served or executed, pay to the Peon employed to serve or execute such process one-half of the fee deposited for the service or execution of the same, and on such Peon returning to the Nazir or Clerk of the Court such process duly served or executed, the Nazir or Clerk of the Court shall pay to such Peon half of the balance of the fee so deposited. The remaining half of such balance shall be carried to the credit of Government, and shall be added to the fund, if any, for which provision is made in the last preceding Section, and shall be appropriated as therein directed. If the process shall not have been served or executed, the Peon shall nevertheless be entitled to receive the half of such balance as aforesaid, if he shall show to the satisfaction of the Court in which he is employed, good and sufficient cause for the process not having been served or executed.

Payment of fees.

XI. A regular account of all moneys received into and paid out of Court under this Act shall be kept, and extracts from this account shall be forwarded to the local Government at such times and in such form as such Government shall direct.

Moneys received into and paid out of Court to be duly accounted for.

XII. Every process served or executed under this Act shall be held to be a process within the meaning of Sections 23 and 188 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Construction of process.

XIII. The Sudder Court shall have power to make rules not inconsistent with this Act, and from time to time to vary such rules, for carrying out the provisions of this Act in all Courts subordinate to the Sudder Court, as well as in the Courts of Small Causes established within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Sudder Court. The rules so made shall be affixed to the Table of Costs under Section VII of this Act.

Power of Sudder Court to make rules.

XIV. The term "Judge" in this Act shall denote the Presiding Judicial Officer in every Court of Civil Judicature, by whatever title he shall be designated.

Interpretation of "Judge."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to consolidate and amend the Law relating to the employment and remuneration of Peons for the service and execution of Civil process in the Courts of the North-Western Provinces of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

The Code of Civil Procedure (Section 2, Act XXIII of 1861) declares that "every process required to be issued under the Code shall be served at the expense of the party at whose instance it is issued, unless otherwise specially directed by the Court; and that the sum required to defray the costs of such service shall be paid into the Court before the process is issued, within a period to be fixed by the Court issuing the process." But the Code contains no rules for the appointment of the Peons to be employed in the service of the processes of the Civil Courts, for regulating the charges for such service, or for the remuneration of the Peons employed on this duty, and the Sections of the Regulations and the Act, quoted in the margin, which the Bill proposes to consolidate and amend, continue to be the rule of guidance in all matters relating to the appointment and remuneration of the persons employed to serve the processes of the Civil Courts. As regards the processes of the Criminal Courts, to which Section XIV, Regulation XXVI of 1814, also applies, it is sufficient to mention that the Code of Criminal Procedure authorizes no charge being made on the parties for the service or execution of such processes except in the single case for which provision is made in Section 228 of the Code. Under that Section a Magistrate may refuse to summon any witness for the defence whose evidence he considers unnecessary until a deposit is made to defray the expense of obtaining the attendance of such witness.

1814, Regulation XXVI, Section XIV.
1832, Regulation VII, Section V.
1845, Act XIV.

Under the Laws at present in force the Nazirs of the Civil Courts are allowed to appropriate to their own use, in addition to any fixed salaries received by them, one-fourth of the subsistence or diet money deposited for the service or execution of every process, the remaining three-fourths being paid to the Peon employed to serve or execute the process. The provision of Law, under which this appropriation takes place, applied originally only to the Nazirs of the Zillah Courts, but it has been extended by subsequent enactments to all the subordinate Civil Courts. The effect of the provision has been not only to raise the emoluments of the Nazirs of the Civil Courts generally much beyond what, looking to the position of these Officers and the nature of their duties, may be considered an adequate remuneration for their services and responsibilities, but frequently to give the Nazirs in the Courts of the Moonsiffs larger allowances than are received by the Moonsiffs under whom they are employed. This has led to abuses from which there can be no doubt the character of the Courts in which they have been practised has suffered.

The Bill, after laying down rules for the appointment of the Peons to be employed in the service of the processes of the Civil Courts, and for regulating the charges for such service, provides for the remuneration of the Peons either by fixed salaries or by fees. When the Peons receive fixed salaries, the sums paid into Court for the service of processes will be formed into a fund out of which the salaries of the Peons will be paid. When the Peons are remunerated by fees, three-fourths of the money, paid as above, will be given to the Peons employed to serve the process, and the remaining one-fourth will be carried to the credit of Government to cover any charges to which the Government may be put in connection with the department. Any surplus from this source, or from the fund before mentioned, will be at the disposal of the local Government, and it is proposed that it should be applied by such Government, subject to the approval of the Governor-General in Council, to the improvement of the administration of Civil Justice in the North-Western Provinces.

Though it has been thought necessary to make provision in the Bill for the payment of the Peons employed to execute the processes of the Civil Courts by fees as well as by fixed salaries, I deem it probable that the latter mode of payment will be generally observed. The system of paying the Peons of the Civil Courts fixed salaries, instead of remunerating them for their services by fees, has already been tried in the North-Western Provinces, to which alone the provisions of the present Bill are intended to apply, and it has been found to work well.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

No. 4170.

Fort William, the 15th August 1862.

Notification.—The following Despatch from the Secretary of State, on the subject of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated the 17th October 1861, regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the land revenue, together with the Circular instructions this day issued to the Governments of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab, are published for general information :—

INDIA OFFICE,
London, 9th July 1862.

REVENUE.
No. 14.

To HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,—Para. 1. The letter from your Excellency's predecessor in Council, dated 21st October last (No. 18), with which was forwarded a Resolution* which "had been made "public regarding the sale of waste lands in fee "simple, and the redemption of existing land re- "venue," has been under my consideration in Council.

* Dated 17th October 1861.

2. Her Majesty's Government have considered with the greatest care and deliberation the important questions which form the subject of that Resolution, and the still more important question which is necessarily raised by the consideration of them, namely, that of a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India, and I now proceed to communicate to you the conclusions at which they have arrived.

3. The first Section of the Resolution (paragraphs 8 to 37) relates to the grant or sale of waste lands not under assessment.

4. I have perused with the greatest satisfaction the observations contained in paragraph 6 of the Resolution, in which the Government state it to be their "firm conviction that, in order to obtain "permanently good results from" these "mea- "sures, it is indispensable, not only that no violence "be done to the long existing rights which, some- "times in a rude, sometimes in a complicated "form, are possessed by many of the humblest "occupants of the soil in India, but that these "rights be nowhere slighted or even overlooked. "Scrupulous respect for them is one of the most "solemn duties of the Government of India, as "well as its soundest policy, whatever may be "the mode in which that Government may think "fit to deal with rights of its own." Her Majesty's Government cordially participate in these sentiments, and I trust that you will carefully enforce their observance in all parts of India. The mode in which dormant claims on lands now uncultivated and apparently deserted are proposed to be dealt with will be referred to in a subsequent part of this Despatch.

5. The waste lands in different parts of India are found under such varying conditions that it would be difficult, if not impracticable, to deal with all in the same manner. In the greater part of the country no material objection to the proposed plan may perhaps be anticipated; but in distant and wild tracts the case will be widely different. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is confidently "anticipated that harmony of interests "between permanent European settlers and the "half-civilized tribes, by whom most of the waste "Districts and the country adjoining them are "thinly peopled, will conduce to the material and "moral improvement of large classes of the "Queen's Indian subjects, which, for any such "purposes, have long been felt by the Govern- "ment to be almost out of the reach of its ordi- "nary agencies." I cannot but fear that such anticipations are little likely to be realized in frontier Districts, such as the Huzara mountains, the Hilly tracts on our North-Eastern boundary, and other similar localities which are inhabited by warlike and predatory clans. It is assumed that half-civilized tribes will be ready to appreciate a community of interests between the European settlers and themselves. I apprehend, on the contrary, that, passionately attached as they are known to be to their ancestral lands, they might rather regard the intrusion of European strangers as an encroachment and a wrong inflicted on themselves. Differences and quarrels ending in affrays and bloodshed might arise, which would lead to the necessity of employing an armed force for their suppression. Such has been the result of our experience in many of our Colonial possessions, of which a signal example may be found in the recent unhappy occurrences in New Zealand. It is unfortunately the case that situations such as those referred to are, from their climate, the best adapted to European constitutions, and, therefore, not unlikely to attract British settlers; but placed as they are, to use the words of the Resolution, beyond the reach of the ordinary agencies of Government, the necessity of affording protection to such scattered Europeans as might settle on them would render their occupation by British subjects a source, in a political sense, rather of weakness than of strength to the Indian Government, and would certainly involve an amount of expenditure far outweighing any advantages which could be expected from it. I must, therefore, desire that the greatest caution be exercised in allowing grants of land in outlying Districts, where the arrangements for the protection of life and property are still imperfectly organized.

6. It is proposed (paragraph 29) that the price to be set upon waste lands "should not exceed "Rupees 2½ [five shillings] per acre for uncleared "land, or Rupees 5 [ten shillings] per acre for "land unencumbered with jungle, subject to "deduction of area for swamps or uncultivable "land."

7. It is apparently intended to apply this Rule to all lands throughout India, now unassessed and without immediate claimants, with the sole exception (paragraphs 23 and 24) of "special tracts," which, for the public interests, it may be necessary to reserve for future disposal, and of "reserves of "grazing land, or of land for the growth of forest "trees, or of firewood near Towns and Stations, "or for other special purposes, such as sites for "sanitaria, building lots, &c., &c.," which "are "not to be sold without the special sanction of "Government."

8. The proposal to divide all the unassessed and unclaimed lands throughout India into two classes, those which are "encumbered with jungle" and those which are not, and to sell the lands of each class at an uniform price per acre, without any regard to their situation or to their presumed fertility, appears to me to be untenable. A tract enjoying every advantage of soil, climate, and situation, placed perhaps close to a navigable river, or in the immediate vicinity of a projected Railway Station, is to be dealt with as if of no more value than a tract of sandy desert, far removed from all means of irrigation, and even from communication with other Districts. It cannot be supposed that land, although now uncultivated and unclaimed, on the banks, for instance, of the Baree Doab Canal, is worth no more than land situated at five or ten miles beyond its fertilizing influence. Even in the Sunderbuns, to which especial reference is made in the Resolution, I have reason to believe that the proposed Rule of an uniform price would be inapplicable. On the side bordering on the 24-Pergunnahs and Jessore the land is represented to be low, and to be constantly liable to inundation by salt water, rendering expensive embankments absolutely necessary; whereas on the Backergunge side the land is comparatively high, requiring less protection from the encroachments of the sea, and, in addition, is much more fertile. It cannot surely be contended that lands differing so entirely in their intrinsic value ought to be sold at the same price.

9. For these reasons, and others to which I shall not now refer in detail, Her Majesty's Government cannot approve of the proposal to fix an uniform price for all unassessed and unclaimed land throughout India without reference to locality or situation, and I have accordingly to request that your Excellency in Council will immediately take measures for withdrawing the offer made in paragraph 29 of the Resolution. The several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors should be instructed to fix, after communication with the chief Local Authorities, a minimum price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province, of which a public announcement should be made.

10. In regard to the mode of sale, I am of opinion that the course adopted in many of our Colonies should be pursued; and that the lands applied for should be put up to auction, at a minimum or upset price, and sold to the highest bidder. This plan has been followed in the Madras Presidency under the Rules promulgated in August 1859. It is true that, in paragraph 30 of the Resolution, provision is made for the sale by auction of any lot for which more than one intending purchaser may apply; but the proceeding is evidently meant to be exceptional, and the grant is, in all ordinary cases, to be made to the applicant at a fixed price.

11. I observe that, under paragraph 25, "when "the land is unsurveyed, immediate possession "may be given on payment of the Collector's es- "timate of the cost of survey". I am of opinion that this provision should be modified, and that the following course should be pursued. If the land should be unsurveyed the first step will be to survey it, the applicant, of course, depositing the estimated cost of that proceeding. On the completion of the survey, and at once in the case of surveyed land, the boundaries of the plot should be marked out, and an Advertisement should be issued, describing the land to be sold by auction, stating the upset price, and specifying the place and date of sale. At the sale the land will be assigned to the person offering the highest price, or, in the event of no competition, to the applicant at the upset price, the cost of Survey (if made) being added in both cases. The Advertisement should be posted on the land itself, as well as in the neighbouring Villages, and in all other usual places. I consider the previous marking out of the boundaries of the land applied for to be Absolutely indispensable, if only as a means of attracting the attention of the residents in the neighbourhood, by whom the mere issue of an Advertisement might probably pass unnoticed. Thirty days after the publication of that Advertisement, and subject to the considerations hereafter to be adverted to in regard to the necessity of a legislative enactment for disposing of the claims of third persons subsequently preferred, possession might be given to the purchaser.

12. I have also to point out to you that some alteration is required in the language used in the second clause of paragraph 10. It is there stated that, "at the grantee's option, a fixed annual sum "may be paid, at the rate of ten per cent. on any "unpaid portion of the price of the grant which "will thus be under hypothecation until the price "is paid in full." This provision is explained in paragraph 25 to mean that interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum is to be charged on any balance of the purchase money which may remain unpaid; but as it stands it is open to the interpretation that the purchase money may be paid off by ten yearly instalments without interest.

13. In order to carry out the provisions contained in paragraphs 17 to 19 of the Resolution legislative action is indispensably necessary. It is therein declared that if, within thirty days of the date of the application (or, as directed in paragraph 11, from the issue of the Advertisement), any prior claim of property or occupancy in the land applied for should be preferred, such claim is to be "disposed of," and, apparently, satisfied by the applicant himself. If, however, after the expiration of the thirty days, when the formal allotment of the land will have taken place, "any person shall "establish a right of property in the land so "allotted, the possession of the party to whom "the land has been granted bond fide shall not be "disturbed. But, provided the claim be made "within one year from the allotment, the "claimant, on proof of his right, and on shewing "good reason why his claim was not advanced "before the allotment was made, shall be entitled "to receive from the Government full compensa-"tion for the actual value of his interest in such "land. After the expiration of a year all rights "of third persons which have not been already "claimed will be altogether barred, as well in "regard to compensation as against the land," subject, however, to such exceptions as are admitted by the existing law of limitation.

14. It appears to me impossible that, in any country possessing regular tribunals a Resolution of the Executive Government would be held to override the existing law. Suppose that a man within the first year "establishes a right of property" in land which has been "allotted" by Government to another. He is not, however, according to the Resolution, to be put in possession of the land, because the possession of the party to whom the land has been granted must not be disturbed; he is only to receive full compensation for the actual value of his interest. But the man may decline the compensation, and demand the land. In such a case I apprehend the Courts would have no alternative but to decree possession. He may also fail to establish his right within the first year, but may succeed in establishing it ten years later. In this case, too, I presume, the Courts must uphold the existing law, and would refuse to recognize any arbitrary curtailment, by a Resolution of the Government, of the time of limitation which that law lays down.

15. It may be argued that such claims will seldom or never be preferred in respect to lands in such tracts of wild and uncultivated country as were mainly in view when the Resolution was under preparation. Even this supposition is very doubtful. Throughout the wilds of the Sunderbuns, as soon as the Government manifested a desire to dispose of the land to grantees, every acre of the forest was claimed by the Zemindars of the adjoining Districts, as included in their permanently-settled Estates, and a legislative enactment was required to dispose of these pretensions. In other parts of India much land that is now, and has long been, waste and unclaimed, was formerly, and within no remote period, populous and fully cultivated. The descendants of the old proprietors know their rights, although they may have allowed them to lie dormant while no object was to be gained by asserting them. They may have emigrated to distant Villages, and may not even hear of the allotment of their ancestral lands to strangers till long after the period prescribed in your Resolution. Whatever may be the strict letter of the law of limitation, as defined by the Act of 1859, the habits and feelings of the people are undoubtedly in favor of the rights derived from ancestral possession, however long the time may be during which they have remained unclaimed. Even, admitting that a suit for the recovery of land after twelve years' adverse possession would be barred by the existing law, I apprehend that the cause of action would be held to lie only from the date of allotment, and that the possession of the grantee would be at any time liable to disturbance until after that period had expired.

16. But the objection to the measure is much stronger when applied to ryotwarry Districts, in which, it is declared in paragraph 35, "lands "for which an assessment has been fixed, "but which have been uncultivated for five "years or upwards, and which are at the "absolute disposal of the Government, may be "sold under the same conditions as unassessed "waste land, excepting that the price shall be "twenty years' purchase of the assessment." If this provision be acted on there can be little question that claimants without number will spring up, possessing rights hitherto held to be indefensible under meerassee and other similar tenures in Madras and Bombay, or the jenmi tenures in Malabar, causing a most serious amount of embarrassment to the Local Governments.

17. The whole question requires deliberate and mature consideration. Under any circumstances I am of opinion that the greatest caution will be required in making grants of land, irrespective of claims which may subsequently be advanced by third parties, except within tracts of country in which there may be a reasonable approach to certainty that valid claims will not be put forward, or, at any rate, to no considerable extent. If it should be deemed expedient to bar by law the right of re-entry on the land after so short a period as thirty days, the right to compensation should, at all events, remain in force for a longer period. The necessary provision in both cases can obviously be effected only through the means of a legislative enactment. The mode of assessing the compensation to be awarded in such cases should, of course, be clearly laid down by law, and the amount should have reference only to the value of the interest at the date of allotment, irrespective of any increased value which might subsequently be given to the land by the labor or expenditure of the grantee.

18. The Rules contained in paragraphs 31 and 32 for reserving adjoining lands for grantees under certain conditions must, it appears to me, be abrogated, as inconsistent with the plan of auction sales now ordered. The actual possessor of any grant will be able to become the purchaser of any additional land which he may require simply by offering a higher price than any one else is willing to give.

19. The provisions for the commutation of existing grants into grants under the new Rules, and for the redemption of the rent on unassessed lands already granted, contained in paragraphs 33 and 50, obviously require revision. In the latter of these paragraphs it is stated that "grants which "have already been given for a term of years at "progressively increasing rents, such as those in "the Sunderbuns, will be treated as if the land "were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes "to redeem the future land revenue, at the high-"est rate fixed for any year during the currency

"of the grant, provided it shall not exceed the rate fixed in paragraph 29 of this Resolution, and if "there is no right of occupancy other than that of "the lessee or that derived from him.

20. It is evident from the letter under reply that this provision was not intended to include grants on the Neilgherry or Shervaroy Hills, or in Wynaad, as they are specially referred to as "lands which, being assessed at one Rupee per "acre, will not be purchaseable for less than "twenty Rupees an acre." The words, however, of the Rule are, as it appears to me, wide enough to include not only the holders of such grants, but also such cases as that of the land granted to Mr. Atherton at Kangra, which forms the subject of the second of Lord Stanley's Despatches referred to. He was permitted to purchase the proprietary right over 1,000 acres of land for the sum of Rupees 1,500, subject to an assessment of four annas an acre, which, at the expiration of the existing settlement, was liable to be raised to one Rupee per acre. In both cases it would seem that the grantees might claim to hold their lands discharged of all future payments by tendering the maximum price of Rupees 5 per acre, after deducting, in the latter, the balance already paid.

21. In order to prevent such a result, I have to desire that so much of paragraph 50 as provides that the price to be paid for the redemption of the land revenue on grants already made shall in no case exceed the rate fixed for lands newly granted may be withdrawn.

22. It is declared in paragraph 37 that "the "tenure of all waste lands granted under this "Resolution will be that of an heritable and trans-"ferable property, held in perpetuity, free from "all claims, either of the Government or of third "parties, prior to or inconsistent with the grant." It must be made perfectly clear by the terms of the grant that the "claims of Government" herein mentioned include only claims on account of land revenue, and do not extend to exempt the possessor of the grant from general taxes, such as those on income; nor from local rates which may hereafter be imposed throughout the District for the construction or maintenance of roads, or for other purposes.

23. I now proceed to that which is by far the most important portion of the Resolution, viz., the redemption of the land revenue.

24. This measure has generally been advocated with the object of promoting the settlement of Europeans in India. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is remarked that "the best results to "the people of India may be looked for from the "settlement of Europeans in climates in which "they can live and occupy themselves without "detriment to their health, and whence they may "direct such improvements as European capital, "skill, and enterprise can effect in the agriculture, "communications, and commerce of the surround-"ing country." I fully admit the advantages which have arisen, and which in future are likely to arise from the settlement of Europeans in many parts of India, by the introduction of new or improved processes of agriculture and manufactures, and by the moral influence of their example on the neighbouring population; and I am most anxious that every facility should be given to persons desirous of settling in India with that object in view.

25. It appears to me, however, that an extension of the practice which is pursued in some Districts, particularly in the Hilly tracts of the Madras Presidency, would amply provide for any extent of redemption with a view to such settlement which would be likely to take place. It does not seem probable that the permission to redeem would be taken advantage of, except in a comparatively small number of cases. The rate of interest which can be obtained in ordinary transactions so far exceeds that which an investment in the purchase of the land assessment would afford that few persons would be likely to adopt that course. The permission given to the settlers in the Neilgherry, Shervaroy, and Pulney Hills to redeem their land tax at twenty years' purchase has not, so far as I am informed, been acted on in a single instance; and the very inconsiderable extent to which the Inamdars of the Madras Presidency, and the owners of property within the Collectorates of Calcutta and Madras, have taken advantage of the power to redeem their quit-rents by a single payment, leads also to the conclusion that only a very few persons would be disposed to avail themselves of the offer.

26. If the power of redeeming was extended at the discretion of the local Governments so as to include lands required for dwelling houses, factories, gardens, plantations, and other similar purposes, it would probably meet every case for which provision need be made. This permission to redeem the land assessment should extend to portions of land comprised within Zemindarries, the jumma of which is not redeemed, a proportionate reduction being, of course, made in the jumma payable to Government.

27. Such a measure, however, would only be a narrow and partial character. The benefit of it would be confined to comparatively very few persons, even if some natives were found to avail themselves of it.

28. But the measure contemplated in Lord Stanley's Despatch, and in the Resolution under discussion, has a much wider scope, and larger and more serious questions arise in the consideration of it than would appear at first sight to be involved.

29. The redemption of the land revenue is authorized, both on lands permanently-settled and on lands temporarily-settled; and "the price "to be paid is fixed at twenty years' purchase of "the existing assessment," the only limitation being that in every District the permission of redemption shall, in the first instance, be restricted to such a number of Estates as shall, in their aggregate assessment, not exceed ten per cent. of the total land revenue.

30. As regards the former, viz., the permanently-settled Estates, no practical difficulty exists if redemption is to be allowed at all as a general measure, a question which will hereafter be considered. The only matter for discussion is the price to be demanded for it.

31. It is remarked in the Resolution that "justice to the public creditor and a due care for "the resources of the Government require that, "as long as the public revenue is no more than "sufficient to meet the current charges of the "Empire and the interest of its debt, no lower "terms of redemption of a permanent tax form-"ing the security for that debt should be accept-"ed than will, when the price is invested in the "public securities, afford a corresponding relief "in the payment of interest."

32. The words here used appear to refer to the instructions in Lord Stanley's Despatch of the 31st December (No. 2) 1858. But it is clear that the object avowedly in view would not be attained by pursuing the course proposed in the Resolution. So long as the Notes of the 5 per cent. loans are purchaseable at par, the extinction of a perpetual annuity may be effected without loss by the payment of twenty times its amount. If, however, as anticipated in that Despatch, a reduction of interest on the public debt should take place—such, for example, as would arise from the 4 per cent. loan becoming saleable at par—it is clear that the same purpose could only be accomplished by requiring a sum equivalent to twenty-five years' purchase of the perpetual annuity, or, in other words, of the jumma of the permanently-settled Estate. In this country the redemption of the land tax is, by the existing Acts of Parliament, permitted on the payment of a capital sum varying according to the actual price at the time of Government Stock, and for this purpose the 3 per cent. consolidated annuities, which constitute by far the largest portion of the public debt and bear the lowest rate of interest, are taken as the basis of calculation.

33. When, however, it is proposed to apply the measure to lands under temporary settlement, much more serious questions arise, involving the most important change in the tenure of land throughout the greater part of India.

34. It was stated in Lord Stanley's Despatch of December 1858, that the redemption of the land assessment must necessarily operate as a permanent settlement of the revenue on the lands to which it was applied at the amount of the present assessment, and it is obvious, on the slightest consideration, that this must be the case.

35. We must be prepared then to deal with the measure as effecting, to the extent to which it may be carried, a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India; and it becomes necessary to consider in all its bearings that most serious question which has for so many years been the subject of controversy, and has been viewed in such opposite lights by many of the ablest men who have given their attention to the most important matters of financial and social interest affecting that Empire. Whatever advantages or disadvantages are anticipated from a direct permanent settlement will be equally caused by the indirect mode of attaining the same object by a redemption of the land assessment.

36. Before entering, however, on the general considerations affecting such a measure, I will advert to those which are peculiar to the proposal of redeeming the assessment. Even if the measure be limited to the redemption of one-tenth of the assessment in any District, it appears to me that a very serious difficulty presents itself at the outset. Unless the fair and equal bearing of the assessment on the estates or classes of land which it comprises be first ascertained, it is almost inevitable that loss will be incurred by the State. In all revisions of settlement, even where no increase of the aggregate revenue is obtained, or even expected, it is generally found that, while some Estates or classes of land many fairly be subjected to an increased assessment, others will require an abatement, although the majority may probably be left at the existing rates. It is obvious that if a right of redeeming their assessment, by the payment of a capital sum be given to the landholders to the extent of one-tenth of the aggregate revenue of every District, the owners of those Estates will be most anxious to avail themselves of it in which the assessment is the lowest in proportion to the value of the land. On Estates where the assessment is so redeemed, the State will necessarily be precluded from raising it at any future period. On the other hand, the redemption being optional, the owners of land on which the assessment may now press unduly would of course decline to avail themselves of the permission, and they could not fairly be deprived of the relief for which they might reasonably look at the next revision of settlement, because others had taken advantage of it and redeemed their assessment. By this arrangement, therefore, the Government is clearly subjected to a prospective loss. Before redemption can be permitted in any District it is indispensable, therefore, to ascertain that the assessment bears equally on all the Estates or classes of land within it.

37. It is of course impossible to foresee to what extent the owners of land would be disposed to avail themselves of permission to redeem the assessment, but we must be prepared to meet the consequences of the disposition becoming general.

38. If the disposition to redeem should exist to any great extent, and if the power of so doing is to be held out as a boon to the landowners generally, it is difficult to see on what principle the permission could be restricted to such proportion of them only as pay one-tenth of the assessment in each District. The whole benefit of such a limited measure might be appropiated by a few wealthy landowners, and no advantage whatever would be derived from it by the great mass of the occupiers of land. The latter body would complain, and I think with good reason, of being unfairly and unjustly treated. It is this class, however, whose condition it is so manifestly the interest of the Government to raise, and whose attachment it is so desirable to secure. It seems to me, therefore, that if we go so far as to give a right to redeem to the extent of one-tenth of the assessment, it is impossible to stop at that point. We must go further and contemplate a general right to redeem the land assessment.

39. Now, even as regards redemption to the extent of one-tenth, there is a consequence which does not seem to have been foreseen, and which, if the redemption were to become general, would produce great difficulty. The amount of capital which would be required incalculably exceeds what can be supposed to be in the hands of the landowners. Nor, indeed, if they were in a condition to provide such a sum, would it be desirable that so large an amount should be placed at the disposal of the Government, which would find itself in the embarrassing position of having its treasury overflowing with money arising from the capitalization of its annual income, which it would have no adequate means of employing or investing.

40. The objection arising from capitalizing the income of the State and depriving it in future years of the steady and stable resource of the land revenue, on which it can, under all circumstances, confidently rely, is most serious. It is not a consideration of slight importance that of all sources of revenue none is so easily collected, and none more willingly paid. Her Majesty's Government would be sorry to deprive the Government of India in future years of this large and most unobjectionable portion of their income, which the people have been immemorially accustomed to contribute, and which, consequently, all the authority of prescription and tradition in its favor. These considerations seem to me to be fatal to a scheme of general, or even of a very extensive, redemption of the land revenue.

41. A direct permanent settlement of the land revenue is free from this objection, and it remains, therefore, to discuss this most important question, and to weigh with the greatest care all the considerations by which it ought to be determined.

42. The land revenue of India, as of all eastern countries, is less to be regarded as a tax on the landowners than as the result of a kind of joint ownership in the soil or its produce, under which the latter is divided, in unequal and generally undefined proportions, between the ostensible proprietors and the State. It is not only just but necessary for the security of the landowner that the respective shares in the produce should, at any given period, or for specified terms, be strictly limited and defined. The increase of population, the improvement of communications, and the accumulation of wealth have a tendency to increase the extent of cultivation and the value of the net produce or rent, and the Government may rightly claim to participate in those advantages which accrue from the general progress of society. This has hitherto been effected by means of periodical adjustments of the share, or at least of its value in money which belongs to the State.

43. By many persons great advantages have been anticipated from what is usually called a permanent settlement, that is, by the State fixing, once and for ever, the demand on the produce of the land, and foregoing all prospect of any future increase from that source. It has been urged that not only would a general feeling of contentment be diffused among the landholders, but that they would thereby become attached, by the strongest ties of personal interest, to the Government by which that permanency is guaranteed It is further alleged that by this means only can sufficient inducement be afforded to the proprietors to lay out capital on the land, and to introduce improvements by which the wealth and prosperity of the country would be increased.

44. In this country these views have been put forward mainly in reference to the settlement of Europeans in India, but they are clearly applicable to the occupiers of land generally throughout India. They have been entertained by many of our ablest Officers, and they have recently been advocated by he late lamented Colonel Baird Smith, in relation to their probable effect on the agricultural population of the North-West Provinces. In his Report on the remedial measures required in those Districts which had suffered most severely in the late famine, he strongly recommends that a permanent settlement should be accorded whenever the land revenue now assessed may reasonably be assumed to have reached its probable limit. That recommendation was based both on social and financial grounds, and was founded on his conviction of the great benefits which had accrued to the country from the demand of the Government having been declared unalterable for a period of thirty years. He desired to confirm and accelerate the improvement which he had witnessed by strengthening the motives which, in his opinion, had produced it. It was his belief that this object could be most effectually attained by the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity instead of only for a limited term.

45. On the other hand, it has been urged that the consequence of a permanent settlement of the land revenue is to preclude the Government from ever obtaining any future augmentation of income from this source; and, considering that the experience of all countries advancing in civilization demonstrates that the cost of administration is constantly tending to increase, it follows that the additional charge which will fall on the Government must of necessity be met by taxation in some shape, such as Customs, Excise, Salt, Stamp, or Income duties. Colonel Baird Smith, in the able paper already referred to, admits that this result will take place; but he argues (paragraph 64) that any sacrifice of public revenue involved in the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity would be more than compensated by the increased ability of the people generally to bear taxation, direct or indirect, which would necessarily follow on the improvement in their social condition. An "intelligent and powerful Government," he says, "could not fail to participate in these "advantages." "Its intelligence would direct "it to the least offensive and most effective "means of sharing in the general prosperity, and "its power would ensure the fair trial and ulti-"mate success of those means."

46. It is a serious and difficult question to determine by which course the interests of India will be best promoted. Before deciding on any step by which the prospect of any future increase of land revenue is given up it must be very carefully considered how far, on the whole, it is likely that the possible sacrifice of increased revenue from this source will be made up by the greater ability of the people to contribute in other ways to the public income, and whether it will be for the general interest to purchase at this price the social and political advantages which have been adverted to.

47. Her Majesty's Government entertain no doubt of the political advantages which would attend a permanent settlement. The security, and, it may almost be said, the absolute creation of property in the soil which will flow from limitation in perpetuity of the demands of the State on the owners of land, cannot fail to stimulate or confirm their sentiments of attachment and loyalty to the Government by whom so great a boon has been conceded, and on whose existence its permanency will depend.

48. It is also most desirable that facilities should be given for the gradual growth of a middle class connected with the land, without dispossessing the peasant proprietors and occupiers. It is believed that among the latter may be found many men of great intelligence, public spirit, and social influence, although individually in comparative poverty. To give to the intelligent, the thrifty, and the enterprising the means of improving their condition, by opening to them the opportunity of exercising these qualities, can be best accomplished by limiting the public demand on their lands. When such men acquire property, and find themselves in a thriving condition, they are certain to be well effected towards the Government under which they live. It is on the contentment of the agricultural classes, who from the great bulk of the population, that the security of the Government mainly depends. If they are prosperous, any casual outbreak on the part of other classes or bodies of men is much less likely to become an element of danger, and the Military Force and its consequent expense may be regulated accordingly.

49. The strongest opponents of a permanent settlement would probably admit the political and social advantages of such a measure. Their main argument against it is based on the financial consideration that, by means of temporary settlements, the land revenue might be raised, from time to time, according to the expected rise in the value of land, and that, by this means also, the loss might be avoided, which, in all cases of fixed money payments, must ensue if a depreciation of the value of the precious metals should take place.

50. It is indispensable, of course, that whether with a view to redemption, even to the extent of one-tenth of the revenue, or to a permanent settlement, the preliminary step of a revision of the present assessment must be taken. In the first instance, whichever course may be finally adopted, a full, fair, and equable rent must be imposed on all lands now under temporary settlement; and, when that has been accomplished, Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that a permanent settlement may be safely applied. This was the course recommended by one of the ablest and most distinguished men who ever was called on to bear a part in the administration of British India. In his celebrated Minute of the 31st December 1824, Sir Thomas Munro, then Governor of the Presidency of Madras, several times refers to this subject, and particularly in the following passage: "No survey assessment of a great Province," he says, "can ever at once be "made so correct as not to require future alteration; "when, therefore, it has been completed with as "much care as possible, a trial should always be "made of it for six or seven years. This period "will be sufficient to discover all defects in the "assessment. A general revision of it should then "be made, and wherever it might be found too high "it should be lowered, and it may then, with safety "to the revenue and benefit to the people, be made "permanent."

51. When once the rent has been properly fixed, any increase consequent on the natural progress of society will in all probability take place but slowly, and reach no great amount until after a considerable interval. It must be remembered that, in all the revisions of settlement which have taken place of late years, the tendency has been towards a reduction in the rates of assessment. Whenever the settlements have been carefully made, and the capabilities of the country have been well ascertained, the probability of any considerable increase of land revenue appears to be but slight.

52. The necessity for the reduction above noticed seems to have been caused mainly by the depreciation in the value of the crops from the increased production consequent on the greater tranquillity of the country under British rule. There are at present symptoms of a rise in the price of agricultural produce, caused probably, to a great extent, by the increased employment of labor in the construction of Railways and other public works. But the Railways, when completed, while they will contribute largely to the development of the resources of India, may, in some degree, counteract this tendency. The great differences in the price of food in Districts at no great distance from each other, so that while one was in a condition bordering on famine, others enjoyed comparative plenty, will cease to exist, at least to the same extent, when ready and cheap means of transport shall have been provided. Produce from the interior will be more readily brought to the centres of consumption or of exportation, and the value of land in the interior will be thereby increased; but, on the other hand, the value of the produce of land near large towns and the coast will be reduced by the competition of the produce of the interior. The probable effect of the Railroads would seem to be towards the equalization of the prices of produce in different parts of India, and a general improvement in the wealth of all classes of the country, rather than to give any peculiar advantage to the landholders.

53. That this general improvement will be accelerated by a permanent settlement Her Majesty's Government cannot entertain any doubt. A ready and popular mode of investment for the increasing wealth of the country will be provided by the creation of property in land, and all classes will benefit by the measure. On the agricultural population the effect will be, as pointed out by Colonel Baird Smith in the able paper already referred to, the elevation of the social condition of the people, and their consequent ability, not only to meet successfully the pressure occasioned by seasons of distress, but, in ordinary times, to bear increased taxation in other forms without difficulty; the feeling of ownership, or, in other words, the absolute certainty of the full enjoyment of the reward for all the labor and capital which they may invest in the land, will be sure to call out all their energies for its improvement. Her Majesty's Government confidently expect that a people in a state of contentment and progressive improvement will be able without difficulty to contribute to the revenue in other ways to such an extent as more than to compensate for the disadvantage of foregoing some prospective increase of that from land

54. The example of Tanjore may be cited in confirmation of this view. It has been for many years so moderately assessed that a feeling of private property in the soil has continued to exist among the people to such an extent that land sells, on an average, for twenty years' purchase. This District is eminently one in which a permanent settlement might properly be established; and that such a measure would lead to no loss of public income may be inferred from the fact that in it the receipts from Salt, Abkarry, and Stamps have in ten years risen from Rupees 6,54,500 to Rupees 9,50,500, or nearly 48 per cent.

Minutes by Sir C. E. Trevelyan, dated 18th and 28th January 1860.

55. It must also be remembered that all revisions of assessment, although occurring only at intervals of thirty years, nevertheless demand, for a considerable time previous to their expiration, much of the attention of the most experienced Civil Officers whose services can be ill spared from their regular administrative duties. Under the best arrangements the operation cannot fail to be harassing, vexatious, and, perhaps, even oppressive to the people affected by it. The work can only be accomplished by the aid of large establishments of native ministerial Officers, who must, of necessity, have great opportunities for peculation, extortion, and abuse of power. Moreover, as the period for re-settlement approaches the agricultural classes, with the view of evading a true estimate of the actual value of their lands, contract their cultivation, cease to grow the most profitable crops, and allow wells and watercourses to fall into decay. These practices are certainly more detrimental to themselves than to the Government, but their can be no question that they prevail extensively. The remedy for these evils, the needless occupation of the valuable time of the public Officers employed in the revision, the extortion of the subordinate officials, and the loss of wealth to the community from the deterioration of cultivation, lies in a permanent settlement of the land revenue.

56. The course of events which has been anticipated is, indeed, only that which has taken place in every civilized country. Experience shews that in their early stages nations derived almost the whole of their public resources in a direct manner from the produce of the soil, but that as they grew in wealth and civilization, the basis of taxation has been changed, and the revenue has been in a great degree derived indirectly by means of imposts on articles which the increasing means of the people, consequent on a state of security and prosperty, have enabled them to consume in greater abundance. I am aware that it has been stated as an objection to promoting such a course of things in India that, in most European countries, the advantages of this change have been mainly appropriated by the large landowners; but it must be remembered that in India, and especially in the Districts under ryotwarry settlement, the great bulk of the agricultural population are the proprietors, subject only to the payment of the assessment, of the lands which they till; and that, consequently, the benefit of a permanent settlement would be enjoyed, not by a narrow and limited class, but by the majority of the people.

57. The apprehension of a possible fall in the relative value of money, which has been previously noticed, though deserving consideration, does not seem to Her Majesty's Government to be of sufficient moment to influence their judgment to any material extent in disposing of this important question.

58. After the most careful review of all these considerations Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that the advantages which may reasonably be expected to accrue not only to those immediately connected with the land, but to the community generally, are sufficiently great to justify them in incurring the risk of some prospective loss of land revenue in order to attain them, and that a settlement in perpetuity in all Districts in which the conditions absolutely required as preliminary to such a measure are, or may hereafter be, fulfilled, is a measure dictated by sound policy, and calculated to accelerate the development of the resources of India, and to ensure, in the highest degree, the welfare and contentment of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects in that country.

59. They consider that the direct mode of making a permanent settlement is preferable to the indirect one of obtaining a similar result by conceding to the landholders the right to redeem their assessment. They do not believe that the power to redeem the land revenue is necessary to induce the landholders to incur expenditure in the improvement of their property. What is really required, in order to call into effective action their enterprise and capital, is not an exemption from all payments to the Government on account of their Estates, but the fixing those payments in perpetuity at a moderate and certain amount. In Bengal, where a permanent settlement was made with the Zemindars seventy years ago, the general progress of the country in wealth and prosperity, notwithstanding the depressed condition of the peasantry, caused by errors and omissions in the mode of making the settlement, has been most remarkable. Such errors in the existing state of our knowledge regarding the rights and interests of the subordinate occupants of the soil would not be permitted to recur.

60. It must be remembered that, with a view to attaining the objects aimed at, of improving the condition of the people, and enabling them to contribute in other ways to the public revenue, it is essential that the measure should be generally brought into operation. The improved condition of a limited number and of an exceptional class would add little to the contentment of the population or to the resources of the public treasury. No measure can be really effective for such purposes unless it can be brought to bear on the general mass of the population.

61. Although, therefore, the acquisition of a permanent tenure free from rent might be more acceptable to the European capitalist, it is certain that, to the native agricultural population of India, who do not possess capital, permanency of tenure, and fixity of rent will afford all that they require, or from which they could derive any benefit. To hold out to them as a boon the offer of redemption, of which hardly any one could avail himself, would be merely illusory, nor would the object be attained which is prescribed in Lord Stanley's Despatch, that in any recommendation which might be submitted the proposed benefits should be participated in by the agricultural community generally. By the Madras freehold rules it was at first directed that the sales should be made without any reservation of rent, but the Planters complained that the capital required for clearing the forest would be exhausted in paying the purchase money. The capital which would be absorbed in purchasing the fee simple and redeeming the land tax would be more profitably expended in improving the land.

62. In either case, whether the land revenue were redeemed, or its amount fixed in perpetuity, the benefit of all improvements would equally go into the pocket of the landholder, nor could he have any difficulty in paying the moderate rent which is now universally fixed on revising the assessments.

63. Her Majesty's Government have therefore determined to limit the power of redeeming the land revenue to such cases as are referred to above in paragraph 26; but they have resolved to sanction a permanent settlement of the land revenue throughout India. It will, however, still remain to be determined how far any particular District is in a condition to warrant the practical application of the measure at the present time.

64. There are doubtless parts of the North-Western Provinces, and probably of the Punjab, where so large a proportion of the soil was already under cultivation when the existing settlements were made, that, assuming the rates of assessment to have been fairly adjusted to the capabilities of the land, little or no increase can be expected in the revenue on the revision which will take place on the expiration of those settlements. Such Districts, provided that the assessment is not only adequate in amount, but also equally distributed, may be considered to be in a condition in which the introduction of a permanent settlement might properly be permitted.

65. In other parts of these Provinces a large proportion of the land is still uncultivated, and does not, consequently, yield to the public treasury a return commensurate with its prospective capabilities; while in recently acquired territories, such as Oudh and Nagpore, which are still unsurveyed, no means exist for determining either the adequacy of the amount, or the equality of the pressure of the present assessment.

66. In the ryotwarry Districts of Madras and Bombay the difficulties in the way of a permanent settlement appear to Her Majesty's Government to be the greatest.

67. In the former Presidency the revision of the assessment for the purpose of bringing it into accordance with the present circumstances of the people and the country has only recently been commenced. The existing settlement records, which determine the supposed extent of each holding, and, by consequence, the actual rate of assessment, are in many cases untrustworthy. It is true that by the increase of cultivation, which has ensued on the reduction of the assessment on the higher classes of land, a greater aggregate revenue has been obtained; and, although some increase may be found practicable in the rates on the lower classes, it is probable that the general result will be a reduction in the average rates. At all events there is ample evidence that the actual incidence of the assessment as regards particular fields or estates requires careful readjustment. It was with the view of equalizing the pressure of the assessment, and with no desire or expectation of increasing its amount, that the arrangements now in progress, estimated to cost at least three-quarters of a million sterling, were sanctioned by the Home Authorities.

68. In Bombay the revised assessment, though still in progress, has been, throughout a large portion of the Presidency, for many years in operation. It is well understood that the existing rates were adapted rather to the depressed circumstances of the agricultural population at the time when they were imposed than to the prospective capabilities of the soil. The measure has been in all respects successful, and it is believed that the condition of the people has advanced so rapidly that on its revision a very considerable increase may be effected in the rates without any undue pressure on the resources of the people.

69. Her Majesty's Government consider, therefore, that, although for different reasons, these two Presidencies are not at present generally in a condition which would warrant them in authorizing a permanent settlement of the land revenue on the assessed lands at the existing rates. In both Presidencies, however, as Districts are gradually brought under the revised assessment, and when there is no reason to believe that the land revenue has not only reached its probable limit, but that it is equitably distributed over the lands effected by it, this restriction will no longer be needed.

70. It is obvious that the process of introducing a permanent settlement must be very gradual, and this circumstance is not without its advantages. It would be impossible at one time to provide Establishments large enough for a general revision of the assessment throughout the whole of India, and the effect of the measure may be watched in its progress. If any unforeseen difficulties occur there will be time to take measures for obviating them. If the anticipations of a rise in the value of land, or of a depreciation in that of the precious metals, should be realized, any loss from these sources could be avoided in subsequent settlements, and the principal objections to the measure would be in great measure disposed of.

71. It is to be hoped that the greater interest which the influential classes would acquire in the preservation of peace and order might enable the Government to reduce its Military Establishments, at any rate to such an extent as to provide for the increased charge of civil administration, which improvements in civilization always render necessary.

72. I have therefore to announce to your Excellency in Council, as the result of the foregoing considerations, that, as regards all Districts or parts of Districts in which no considerable increase is to be expected in the land revenue, and where its equitable apportionment has already been, or may hereafter be, ascertained to your satisfaction, Her Majesty's Government will be ready to sanction, on your recommendation, or that of the local Government supported by you, the settlement, in perpetuity, of the assessment at the present or the revised rates.

73. I have accordingly to request that you will place yourselves in communication with the several local Governments, in order to ascertain from them the extent to which, in their judgment, it may be expedient to apply this important measure to the territories under their immediate administration. In the North-West Provinces, where the revision of the thirty years' settlement has already commenced, it is possible that several Districts are now in a condition to justify immediate action. In the Presidency of Madras the result of the survey and settlement operations which have been recently commenced will shew how far the Districts have yet attained the condition contemplated by Sir Thomas Munro, in the extract already quoted, as warranting the establishment of a settlement in perpetuity; while, in the revised portions of the Bombay Presidency, it will probably be deemed prudent to await the expiration of the thirty years' leases, which will begin to expire in three or four years, before taking any steps for giving permanency to existing arrangements.

74. I must remind you that, wherever a permanent settlement is made directly with individuals or communities for Estates in which other persons possess subordinate rites and interests, those rights and interests should be guarded with the greatest care, so as to avoid the errors which are now acknowledged to have been commited in respect to the permanent settlement of Bengal.

75. With regard to the investment of the amount which may be received by the Government from the sale of waste lands, or in commutation of land revenue, I observe that it is declared, in paragraph 56 of the Resolution, that, "with a "view to secure the Government and the public "creditor against any loss of existing sources of "Government income, provision will be made by "law that all sums paid in purchase of waste lands, "or in redemption of land revenue, or in otherwise forestalling the land revenue, shall be paid "to Commissioners, and periodically invested in "such manner as the law may direct;" and that the Reports of the Commissioners shall be regularly published. In reference to this arrangement I have to desire that all moneys received on these accounts should be invested, not periodically, but as soon as practicable, and, as a rule, in the 4 per cent. loan. The price of redemption should be variable according to the actual value at the time of that stock, so that the amount paid, when so invested, may produce a dividend equivalent to the annual revenue which will thereon cease to be received.

76. Your Excellency in Council will understand that the instructions contained in this Despatch supersede at once the provisions of the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 so far as they are inconsistent with them, and that fresh regulations must be prepared and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty's Government. It is not, however, intended that these orders should have retrospective effect, and if any arrangements, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of land revenue, have been actually completed under the provisions of the Resolution, they must, so far as is compatible with the law, be scrupulously carried into effect. You will, however, furnish me with a special report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements may have been made.

77. Copies of this Despatch will be forwarded for the information and guidance of the Governments of Madras and Bombay.

The 15th August 1862.

To the Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Sir,—With reference to the correspondence noted on the margin, I am desired to transmit, for the information and guidance of the Lieutenant-Governor, copy of a Despatch* received from the Secretary of State regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the existing land revenue.

* Revenue, No. 14, dated 9th July 1862.

2. It is desirable that Rules for regulating the sale of waste lands should be prepared, with as little delay as possible, in conformity with the modified provisions now prescribed by Her Majesty's Government; but it will be observed that all arrangements which have been already completed under the terms of the Resolution promulgated by the Government of India last October, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of the land revenue, are to be maintained, the present Despatch not being intended to have retrospective effect. Referring to the concluding words of the 76th paragraph of the Secretary of State's Despatch, I am desired to request that a Report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements have been made may be furnished as soon as possible.

3. As regards the sale of waste lands, the principal points upon which the provisions of the Resolution of October last must be modified, in conformity with the instructions now received, are as follows:—

4. Paragraph 29 of the Resolution, which fixed a uniform price throughout India of 2½ Rupees per acre for uncleared land, and of 5 Rupees per acre for land unencumbered with jungle, is cancelled; and it is ordered that the several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors shall fix, after communication with the Chief Local Authorities, a minimun price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province.

5. In modification of paragraph 30 of the Resolution, which prescribed the sale of the land by auction in the event of more purchasers than one being desirous to buy the same tract, it is ordered that in every case the land shall be put up to auction at an upset price and sold to the highest bidder.

6. The provision contained in paragraph 25 of the Resolution, admitting of possession being given to an applicant for land in anticipation of survey, will be modified as directed in paragraph 11 of the accompanying Despatch. In conformity with these directions the land applied for must, in every instance, be surveyed, and the boundaries marked out before it is advertised for sale. The applicant for the grant, it will be observed, is to be required to deposit the estimated cost of the survey, which will, of course, be restored to him if he should be eventually outbid for the land. It is of great importance that a ready agency should be provided for effecting the preliminary survey and marking out of boundaries, so that applicants for land may be subjected to no unnecessary delay.

7. The provision which is made in paragraph 31 of the Resolution for reserving adjoining lands at the requisition of those who take grants must be regarded as withdrawn, it being inconsistent with the general injunction for resort to sale by auction.

8. In the 21st paragraph of the Despatch, herewith enclosed, it is ordered that the provision in paragraph 50 of the Resolution, which limits the price to be paid in the commutation of a grant under the terms of that paragraph to 5 Rupees an acre, shall be withdrawn. It is also observed by the Secretary of State that the provisions generally which relate to the commutation of existing grants under the new Rules contained in paragraphs 33 and 50 of the Resolution require revision.

9. As it has already been found that some misunderstanding prevails in regard to the intention and scope of these paragraphs, it seems desirable that the present opportunity should be taken of stating what the Governor General in Council understands to have been their purpose. It appears to the Governor General in Council that it cannot reasonably be maintained that paragraph 33 of the Resolution was intended to include land the absolute sale of which has already been effected, but for which the purchase money has not been wholly paid up, being, by the terms of sale, payable by instalments. It is obvious that in such a case there could be no question of the applicability or the inapplicability of the limitation of the new Rules as to area, inasmuch as the owner has already purchased absolutely the whole area in his possession whatever it may be,

and, therefore, though he may not have paid the whole of the purchase money, it is manifest that the permission accorded by the concluding words of the paragraph to purchase absolutely as much or as little of the area as may suit him, has no application to and could not possibly have contemplated any such case. The 33rd paragraph of the Resolution cannot, therefore, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, be held applicable only to the case of those Grantees who hold their lands on terms which do not comprise the right of acquiring an absolute ownership in fee simple. Such Grantees, it is the object of the 33rd paragraph to declare, may obtain that right by commuting their grants under the Rules for the sale of land in fee simple.

10. Paragraph 50 of the Resolution declares the terms upon which commutation may be made in the case of one, and that a very large class of existing grants. This paragraph, when modified according to the instructions of Her Majesty's Government, will stand as in the margin.

Grants which have already been given for a term of years at progressively increasing rents, such as those in the Soondurbunds, will be treated as if the land were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes to redeem the future land revenue at the highest rate fixed for any year during the currency of the grant, provided there is no right of occupancy other than that of the Lessee, or that derived from him.

11. In the case of existing grants, which do not fall under the terms of paragraph 50, the conditions on which commutation under the new Rules will be allowed may be settled with reference to the average value obtainable for waste lands of the same description in the District when sold by auction.

12. As it is highly desirable that persons who wish to avail themselves of the resolution come to by the Government to dispose of waste lands by sale in fee simple should be enabled to carry their intentions into effect with the least avoidable delay, and as the directions now received from Her Majesty's Government are on most points clear and specific, the Governor General in Council will not require that the detailed Rules to be framed by the several Local Governments should be submitted for the sanction of the Government of India before they are acted on. A copy of the Rules should, however, be forwarded as soon as they are finally approved by the Lieutenant-Governor, and if on any point the intention of Her Majesty's Government should seem to the Lieutenant-Governor to be doubtful; the question should be referred to the Governor General in Council for determination. As legislation will be necessary to give legal effect to the provisions of paragraph 19 of the Resolution, a Bill for that object will be introduced, on the meeting of the Governor General's Council, for legislative purposes.

13. With respect to that part of the Secretary of State's Despatch which discusses the important questions of a redemption of the land revenue and of a permanent settlement, the Governor General in Council thinks it unnecessary at present to do more than point special attention to the conclusion which is announced in the 26th and the 69rd paragraphs as to the extent to which redemption of the existing land revenue is to be permitted, and to the 72nd paragraph, in which the conditions are finally stated, which, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Government, should be attained before a permanent settlement is conceded. It will be observed that this paragraph contemplates that the previous sanction of Her Majesty's Government should be obtained to the introduction of a permanent settlement in any District. Early steps should, therefore, be taken to obtain the information which will be required to enable the Local Government to submit the Report referred to in the 73rd paragraph as to the extent to which it may now be expedient to give effect to this important measure.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

New Lines of Steam communication to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

From Captain J. G. Reddie, Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Marine Department, to E. C. Bayley, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,—(No. 391, dated Fort William, the 8th August 1862.)

Sir,—I am directed to state, for your information, that, under the orders of the Governor General in Council, a Contract has been concluded with the Agents of the Calcutta and Burmah Steam Navigation Company, Limited, for running Lines of Steam communication, as specified in the margin, to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

Line I.

Calcutta to Rangoon direct once a month (leaving 24 hours after the receipt of the Home Mails viâ Bombay, usually arriving about the 5th of each month) thence to Kaligouk, Tavoy, Mergui, Penang, Malacca, and Singapore.

Line II.

By a branch Steamer once a month from Rangoon to Moulmein and Port Blair in connection with Line No. I., and leaving Rangoon within 12 hours of the arrival of the Steamer from Calcutta, returning from Port Blair to Moulmein and from thence to Rangoon direct.

Line III.

Calcutta to Chittagong, Akyab, Rangoon, Moulmein, on the 1st and 16th of each month, calling en route on the return voyage (as required) at Kyouk Phyoo and Sandoway. (It will be optional with the Company hereafter to connect Chittagong with all the other Ports by running a small Steamer thither from Akyab instead of by the larger Steamer calling there on going and returning as now proposed.)

2. I am desired to remark that Line No. 3, between Calcutta and Moulmein, calling at Chittagong, Akyab, Rangoon, Kyouk Phyoo, and Sandoway, and leaving this Port on the 1st and 16th of each month, is intended to supersede the bi-monthly Mail Line, now running between Calcutta and Moulmein, by the Vessels of the same Company, the Contract for which will shortly expire.

3. The date fixed for the commencement of the respective Lines is the 1st proximo; but owing to a difficulty experienced by the Company in the provision of suitable Vessels by that date for the performance of the service between Calcutta and Singapore, His Excellency in Council, in respect to that line, has been pleased to sanction till the 1st February 1863, the substitution of a six-weekly communication for the monthly service provided for in the Official Contract.

4. The fixed rates for Government freight and passage, conveyance of specie, &c., &c., on the three Lines, respectively, are shewn in the Statement accompanying herewith.

Notification.

THE following Resolution of the Government of India, in the Home Department, No. 3861, dated 31st July 1862, is published for the information and guidance of all Public Officers.

J. I. HARVEY,
Offg. Acct.-Genl. to the Govt. of India.

ACCTT.-GENL.'s OFFICE,
The 15th August 1862.

1. RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that the general receipt given by the Head of an Office on the back of a Pay Abstract is not liable to a Stamp Duty, the receipt being executed in this instance by an Officer of Government in his official capacity and acting on behalf of Government; but that when the amount of the Pay Abstract comes to be distributed the receipts of the payées for salaries exceeding Rupees 20 a month must have a Stamp of one anna affixed to each like other receipts given for the payment of money. The taking of such receipts on the back of a general Pay Abstract does not, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, form any ground of exemption.

2. The question may arise whether, the Law being as above stated, such receipts should be specially exempted from Stamp Duty. The Governor General in Council sees no reason why they should. The tax is one which has been purposely put at such a low uniform rate that it will hardly be felt as a burden by any one; and it therefore appears to His Excellency in Council to be very undesirable to admit of any exemptions from the tax other than those provided for by the Law.

(True Extract.)

(Sd.) A. M. MONTEATH,
Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Cultivation of the Neilgherry Nettle.

From the Government of Fort St. George, to the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India,—(No. 46, dated 25th July 1862.)

IN continuation of our letter dated 24th May 1862, No. 36, we forward the further papers noted in the margin respecting the Neilgherry Nettle.

Proceedings of Government, 12th June 1862, Nos. 177-79.
Proceedings of Government, 10th July 1862, Nos. 153-54

2. You will observe from our Proceedings of 12th June 1862, No. 1296, that the cultivation of the Nettle has been carried on by Mr. McIvor for a period of five years, and that the produce which has been submitted to Dr. Royle and Mr. Dickson, in England, has received favorable mention. Samples of the fibre have also been forwarded to the International Exhibition of 1862.

From W. G. McIVOR, Esq., Superintendent, Government Chinchona Plantation, to P P HUTCHINS, Esq., Acting Deputy Secretary to Government, Fort St. George,—(dated Ootacamund, 26th June 1862, No. 15.)

WITH reference to the Order of Government, No. 1296, I have the honor to inform you that I forwarded to the Board of Revenue, on the 12th April 1862, a brief Report on the cultivation of the Neilgherry Nettle, a copy of which I beg to enclose for the information of Government.

Report on the Neilgherry Fibre producing Nettle, Urtica Heterophylla.

IN compliance with the Order of Government, Revenue Department, under date the 28th February, No. 436, paragraph 3, I have the honor to submit the following brief remarks on the cultivation of the Neilgherry Nettle and preparation of the fibre.

2. Cultivation.—The Neilgherry Nettle has been described as an annual plant, it has, however, proved at least in cultivation to be a perennial, continuing to throw out fresh shoots from the roots and stems with unabated vigor for a period of three or four years; the mode of cultivation, therefore, best suited to the plant is to treat it as a perennial by sowing the seeds in rows at fifteen inches apart, and cutting down the young shoots for the fibre twice a year, viz., in July and January. When planted in rich, damp soil the shoots cut in July will generally average 4 feet in height, while the shoots cut in January will average from 5 to 6 feet in height. The soil best suited to the growth of this plant is found in ravines which has received for years the deposit of alluvial soils washed down from the neighbouring slopes. In cutting off the first shoots from the seedling crop about six inches of the stem is left above the ground, this forms "stools" from which fresh shoots for the succeeding crops are produced; after each cutting the earth is dug over between the rows to the depth of about eight inches, and where manure can be applied it is very advantageous, when dug into the soil between the rows with this operation; when the shoots have once begun to grow no farther cultivation can be applied, as it is quite impossible to go in among the plants owing to their stinging property. The plant is indigenous, or growing wild all over the Neilgherries, at elevations varying from 4 to 8,000 feet, and this indicates the temperature best suited to the perfect development of the fibre.

3. Produce per acre.—From the crop of July an average produce of from 450 to 500 lbs. of clear fibre per acre may be expected. Of this quantity about 120 lbs. will be of a very superior quality, this is obtained from the young and tender shoots, which should be placed by themselves during the operation of cutting. The crop of January will yield on an average 6 or 700 lbs.

per acre, but the fibre of this crop is all of a uniform and somewhat coarse quality owing to the shoots being matured by the setting in of the dry season in December. It might, therefore, be advantageous, where fine quality of fibre only was required, to cut the shoots more frequently, probably three or four times in the year, as only the finest quality of fibre is produced from young and tender shoots.

4. Preparation of the Fibre.—Our experiments being limited our treatment of the fibre has been necessarily very rude and imperfect, as in this respect only in extensive cultivation can efficient appliances be obtained.

5. The inner bark of the whole of the plant abounds in fibre, that of the young shoots being the finest and strongest, while that of the old stems is comparatively short and coarse, but still producing a fibre of very great strength, and of a peculiar silky and woolly-like appearance, and one which no doubt will prove very useful in manufactories.

6. For cutting down the crop fine weather is selected, and the shoots when cut are allowed to remain as they fall for two or three days, by which time they are sufficiently dry to have lost their stinging properties; they are, however, pliable enough to allow of the barks being easily pealed off the stems and separated from the leaves; the bark thus taken from the stems is tied up in small bundles and dried in the sun if the weather is fine, if wet, it is dried in an open shed with a free circulation of air; when quite dry the bark is slightly beaten with a wooden mallet, which causes the outer bark of that in which there is no fibre to break and fall off. The fibrous part of the bark is then wrapped up in small bundles and boiled for about an hour in water to which a small quantity of wood ashes has been added, in order to facilitate the separation of the woody matters from the fibre; the fibre is then removed out of the boiling water and washed as rapidly as possible in a clear running stream, after which it is submitted to the usual bleaching process employed in the manufacture of fibre from flax or hemp.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

No. 4170.

Fort William, the 15th August 1862.

Notification.—The following Despatch from the Secretary of State, on the subject of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated the 17th October 1861, regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the land revenue, together with the Circular instructions this day issued to the Governments of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab, are published for general information :—

INDIA OFFICE,
London, 9th July 1862.

REVENUE.
No. 14.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,—Para. 1. The letter from your Excellency's predecessor in Council, dated 21st October last (No. 18), with which was forwarded a Resolution* which "had been made "public regarding the sale of waste lands in fee "simple, and the redemption of existing land re- "venue," has been under my consideration in Council.

* Dated 17th October 1861.

2. Her Majesty's Government have considered with the greatest care and deliberation the important questions which form the subject of that Resolution, and the still more important question which is necessarily raised by the consideration of them, namely, that of a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India, and I now proceed to communicate to you the conclusions at which they have arrived.

3. The first Section of the Resolution (paragraphs 8 to 37) relates to the grant or sale of waste lands not under assessment.

4. I have perused with the greatest satisfaction the observations contained in paragraph 6 of the Resolution, in which the Government state it to be their "firm conviction that, in order to obtain "permanently good results from" these "mea- "sures, it is indispensable, not only that no violence "be done to the long existing rights which, some- "times in a rude, sometimes in a complicated "form, are possessed by many of the humblest "occupants of the soil in India, but that these "rights be nowhere slighted or even overlooked. "Scrupulous respect for them is one of the most "solemn duties of the Government of India, as "well as its soundest policy, whatever may be "the mode in which that Government may think "fit to deal with rights of its own." Her Majesty's Government cordially participate in these sentiments, and I trust that you will carefully enforce their observance in all parts of India. The mode in which dormant claims on lands now uncultivated and apparently deserted are proposed to be dealt with will be referred to in a subsequent part of this Despatch.

5. The waste lands in different parts of India are found under such varying conditions that it would be difficult, if not impracticable, to deal with all in the same manner. In the greater part of the country no material objection to the proposed plan may perhaps be anticipated; but in distant and wild tracts the case will be widely different. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is confidently "anticipated that harmony of interests "between permanent European settlers and the "half-civilized tribes, by whom most of the waste "Districts and the country adjoining them are "thinly peopled, will conduce to the material and "moral improvement of large classes of the "Queen's Indian subjects, which, for any such "purposes, have long been felt by the Govern- "ment to be almost out of the reach of its ordi- "nary agencies." I cannot but fear that such anticipations are little likely to be realized in frontier Districts, such as the Huzara mountains, the Hilly tracts on our North-Eastern boundary, and other similar localities which are inhabited by warlike and predatory clans. It is assumed that half-civilized tribes will be ready to appreciate a community of interests between the European settlers and themselves. I apprehend, on the contrary, that, passionately attached as they are known to be to their ancestral lands, they might rather regard the intrusion of European strangers as an encroachment and a wrong inflicted on themselves. Differences and quarrels ending in affrays and bloodshed might arise, which would lead to the necessity of employing an armed force for their suppression. Such has been the result of our experience in many of our Colonial possessions, of which a signal example may be found in the recent unhappy occurrences in New Zealand. It is unfortunately the case that situations such as those referred to are, from their climate, the best adapted to European constitutions, and, therefore, not unlikely to attract British settlers; but placed as they are, to use the words of the Resolution, beyond the reach of the ordinary agencies of Government, the necessity of affording protection to such scattered Europeans as might settle on them would render their occupation by British subjects a source, in a political sense, rather of weakness than of strength to the Indian Government, and would certainly involve an amount of expenditure far outweighing any advantages which could be expected from it. I must, therefore, desire that the greatest caution be exercised in allowing grants of land in outlying Districts, where the arrangements for the protection of life and property are still imperfectly organized.

6. It is proposed (paragraph 29) that the price to be set upon waste lands "should not exceed "Rupees 2½ [five shillings] per acre for uncleared "land, or Rupees 5 [ten shillings] per acre for "land unencumbered with jungle, subject to "deduction of area for swamps or uncultivable "land."

7. It is apparently intended to apply this Rule to all lands throughout India, now unassessed and without immediate claimants, with the sole exception (paragraphs 23 and 24) of "special tracts," which, for the public interests, it may be necessary to reserve for future disposal, and of "reserves of "grazing land, or of land for the growth of forest "trees, or of firewood near Towns and Stations, "or for other special purposes, such as sites for "sanitaria, building lots, &c., &c.," which "are "not to be sold without the special sanction of "Government."

8. The proposal to divide all the unassessed and unclaimed lands throughout India into two classes, those which are "encumbered with jungle" and those which are not, and to sell the lands of each class at an uniform price per acre, without any regard to their situation or to their presumed fertility, appears to me to be untenable. A tract enjoying every advantage of soil, climate, and situation, placed perhaps close to a navigable river, or in the immediate vicinity of a projected Railway Station, is to be dealt with as if of no more value than a tract of sandy desert, far removed from all means of irrigation, and even from communication with other Districts. It cannot be supposed that land, although now uncultivated and unclaimed, on the banks, for instance, of the Baree Doab Canal, is worth no more than land situated at five or ten miles beyond its fertilizing influence. Even in the Sunderbuns, to which especial reference is made in the Resolution, I have reason to believe that the proposed Rule of an uniform price would be inapplicable. On the side bordering on the 24-Pergunnahs and Jessore the land is represented to lie low, and to be constantly liable to inundation by salt water, rendering expensive embankments absolutely necessary; whereas on the Backergunge side the land is comparatively high, requiring less protection from the encroachments of the sea, and, in addition, is much more fertile. It cannot surely be contended that lands differing so entirely in their intrinsic value ought to be sold at the same price.

9. For these reasons, and others to which I shall not now refer in detail, Her Majesty's Government cannot approve of the proposal to fix an uniform price for all unassessed and unclaimed land throughout India without reference to locality or situation, and I have accordingly to request that your Excellency in Council will immediately take measures for withdrawing the offer made in paragraph 29 of the Resolution. The several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors should be instructed to fix, after communication with the chief Local Authorities, a minimum price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province, of which a public announcement should be made.

10. In regard to the mode of sale, I am of opinion that the course adopted in many of our Colonies should be pursued; and that the lands applied for should be put up to auction at a minimum or upset price, and sold to the highest bidder. This plan has been followed in the Madras Presidency under the Rules promulgated in August 1859. It is true that, in paragraph 30 of the Resolution, provision is made for the sale by auction of any lot for which more than one intending purchaser may apply; but the proceeding is evidently meant to be exceptional, and the grant is, in all ordinary cases, to be made to the applicant at a fixed price.

11. I observe that, under paragraph 25, "when "the land is unsurveyed, immediate possession "may be given on payment of the Collector's es- "timate of the cost of survey." I am of opinion that this provision should be modified, and that the following course should be pursued. If the land should be unsurveyed the first step will be to survey it, the applicant, of course, depositing the estimated cost of that proceeding. On the completion of the survey, and at once in the case of surveyed land, the boundaries of the plot should be marked out, and an Advertisement should be issued, describing the land to be sold by auction, stating the upset price, and specifying the place and date of sale. At the sale the land will be assigned to the person offering the highest price, or, in the event of no competition, to the applicant at the upset price, the cost of Survey (if made) being added in both cases. The Advertisement should be posted on the land itself, as well as in the neighbouring Villages, and in all other usual places. I consider the previous marking out of the boundaries of the land applied for to be Absolutely indispensable, if only as a means of attracting the attention of the residents in the neighbourhood, by whom the mere issue of an Advertisement might probably pass unnoticed. Thirty days after the publication of that Advertisement, and subject to the considerations hereafter to be adverted to in regard to the necessity of a legislative enactment for disposing of the claims of third persons subsequently preferred, possession might be given to the purchaser.

12. I have also to point out to you that some alteration is required in the language used in the second clause of paragraph 10. It is there stated that, "at the grantee's option, a fixed annual sum "may be paid, at the rate of ten per cent., on any "unpaid portion of the price of the grant which "will then be under hypothecation until the price "is paid in full." This provision is explained in paragraph 28 to mean that interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum is to be charged on any balance of the purchase money which may remain unpaid; but as it stands it is open to the interpretation that the purchase money may be paid off by ten yearly instalments without interest.

13. In order to carry out the provisions contained in paragraphs 17 to 19 of the Resolution legislative action is indispensably necessary. It is therein declared that if, within thirty days of the date of the application (or, as directed in paragraph 11, from the issue of the Advertisement), any prior claim of property or occupancy in the land applied for should be preferred, such claim is to be "disposed of," and, apparently, satisfied by the applicant himself. If, however, after the expiration of the thirty days, when the formal allotment of the land will have taken place, "any person shall "establish a right of property in the land so "allotted, the possession of the party to whom "the land has been granted bonâ fide shall not be "disturbed. But, provided the claim be made "within one year from the allotment, the "claimant, on proof of his right, and on shewing "good reason why his claim was not advanced "before the allotment was made, shall be entitled "to receive from the Government full compensa-"tion for the actual value of his interest in such "land. After the expiration of a year all rights "of third persons which have not been already "claimed will be altogether barred, as well in "regard to compensation as against the land," subject, however, to such exceptions as are admitted by the existing law of limitation.

14. It appears to me impossible that, in any country possessing regular tribunals a Resolution of the Executive Government would be held to override the existing law. Suppose that a man within the first year "establishes a right of property" in land which has been "allotted" by Government to another. He is not, however, according to the Resolution, to be put in possession of the land, because the possession of the party to whom the land has been granted must not be disturbed; he is only to receive full compensation for the actual value of his interest. But the man may decline the compensation, and demand the land. In such a case I apprehend the Courts would have no alternative but to decree possession. He may also fail to establish his right within the first year, but may succeed in establishing it ten years later. In this case, too, I presume, the Courts must uphold the existing law, and would refuse to recognize any arbitrary curtailment, by a Resolution of the Government, of the time of limitation which that law lays down.

15. It may be argued that such claims will seldom or never be preferred in respect to lands in such tracts of wild and uncultivated country as were mainly in view when the Resolution was under preparation. Even this supposition is very doubtful. Throughout the wilds of the Sunderbuns, as soon as the Government manifested a desire to dispose of the land to grantees, every acre of the forest was claimed by the Zemindars of the adjoining Districts, as included in their permanently-settled Estates, and a legislative enactment was required to dispose of these pretensions. In other parts of India much land that is now, and has long been, waste and unclaimed, was formerly, and within no remote period, populous and fully cultivated. The descendants of the old proprietors know their rights, although they may have allowed them to lie dormant while no object was to be gained by asserting them. They may have emigrated to distant Villages, and may not even hear of the allotment of their ancestral lands to strangers till long after the period prescribed in your Resolution. Whatever may be the strict letter of the law of limitation, as defined by the Act of 1859, the habits and feelings of the people are undoubtedly in favor of the rights derived from ancestral possession, however long the time may be during which they have remained unclaimed. Even, admitting that a suit for the recovery of land after twelve years' adverse possession would be barred by the existing law, I apprehend that the cause of action would be held to lie only from the date of allotment, and that the possession of the grantee would be at any time liable to disturbance until after that period had expired.

16. But the objection to the measure is much stronger when applied to ryotwarry Districts, in which, it is declared in paragraph 35, "lands "for which an assessment has been fixed, "but which have been uncultivated for five "years or upwards, and which are at the "absolute disposal of the Government, may be "sold under the same conditions as unassessed "waste land, excepting that the price shall be "twenty years' purchase of the assessment." If this provision be acted on there can be little question that claimants without number will spring up, possessing rights hitherto held to be indefeasible under meerassee and other similar tenures in Madras and Bombay, or the jenmi tenures in Malabar, causing a most serious amount of embarrassment to the Local Governments.

17. The whole question requires deliberate and mature consideration. Under any circumstances I am of opinion that the greatest caution will be required in making grants of land, irrespective of claims which may subsequently be advanced by third parties, except within tracts of country in which there may be a reasonable approach to certainty that valid claims will not be put forward, or, at any rate, to no considerable extent. If it should be deemed expedient to bar by law the right of re-entry on the land after so short a period as thirty days, the right to compensation should, at all events, remain in force for a longer period. The necessary provision in both cases can obviously be effected only through the means of a legislative enactment. The mode of assessing the compensation to be awarded in such cases should, of course, be clearly laid down by law, and the amount should have reference only to the value of the interest at the date of allotment, irrespective of any increased value which might subsequently be given to the land by the labor or expenditure of the grantee.

18. The Rules contained in paragraphs 31 and 32 for reserving adjoining lands for grantees under certain conditions must, it appears to me, be abrogated, as inconsistent with the plan of auction sales now ordered. The actual possessor of any grant will be able to become the purchaser of any additional land which he may require simply by offering a higher price than any one else is willing to give.

19. The provisions for the commutation of existing grants into grants under the new Rules, and for the redemption of the rent on unassessed lands already granted, contained in paragraphs 33 and 50, obviously require revision. In the latter of these paragraphs it is stated that "grants which "have already been given for a term of years at "progressively increasing rents, such as those in "the Sunderbuns, will be treated as if the land "were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes "to redeem the future land revenue, at the high-"est rate fixed for any year during the currency

" of the grant, provided it shall not exceed the rate " fixed in paragraph 29 of this Resolution, and if " there is no right of occupancy other than that of " the lessee or that derived from him."

20. It is evident from the letter under reply that this provision was not intended to include grants on the Neilgherry or Shervaroy Hills, or in Wynaad, as they are specially referred to as " lands which, being assessed at one Rupee per " acre, will not be purchaseable for less than " twenty Rupees an acre." The words, however, of the Rule are, as it appears to me, wide enough to include not only the holders of such grants, but also such cases as that of the land granted to Mr. Atherton at Kangra, which forms the subject of the second of Lord Stanley's Despatches referred to. He was permitted to purchase the proprietary right over 1,000 acres of land for the sum of Rupees 1,500, subject to an assessment of four annas an acre, which, at the expiration of the existing settlement, was liable to be raised to one Rupee per acre. In both cases it would seem that the grantees might claim to hold their lands discharged of all future payments by tendering the maximum price of Rupees 5 per acre, after deducting, in the latter, the balance already paid.

21. In order to prevent such a result, I have to desire that so much of paragraph 50 as provides that the price to be paid for the redemption of the land revenue on grants already made shall in no case exceed the rate fixed for lands newly granted may be withdrawn.

22. It is declared in paragraph 37 that " the " tenure of all waste lands granted under this " Resolution will be that of an heritable and trans- " ferable property, held in perpetuity, free from " all claims, either of the Government or of third " parties, prior to or inconsistent with the grant." It must be made perfectly clear by the terms of the grant that the " claims of Government" herein mentioned include only claims on account of land revenue, and do not extend to exempt the possessor of the grant from general taxes, such as those on income; nor from local rates which may hereafter be imposed throughout the District for the construction or maintenance of roads, or for other purposes.

23. I now proceed to that which is by far the most important portion of the Rresolution, viz., the redemption of the land revenue.

24. This measure has generally been advocated with the object of promoting the settlement of Europeans in India. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is remarked that " the best results to " the people of India may be looked for from the " settlement of Europeans in climates in which " they can live and occupy themselves without " detriment to their health, and whence they may " direct such improvements as European capital, " skill, and enterprise can effect in the agriculture, " communications, and commerce of the surround- " ing country." I fully admit the advantages which have arisen, and which in future are likely to arise from the settlement of Europeans in many parts of India, by the introduction of new or improved processes of agriculture and manufactures, and by the moral influence of their example on the neighbouring population; and I am most anxious that every facility should be given to persons desirous of settling in India with that object in view.

25. It appears to me, however, that an extension of the practice which is pursued in some Districts, particularly in the Hilly tracts of the Madras Presidency, would amply provide for any extent of redemption with a view to such settlement which would be likely to take place. It does not seem probable that the permission to redeem would be taken advantage of, except in a comparatively small number of cases. The rate of interest which can be obtained in ordinary transactions so far exceeds that which an investment in the purchase of the land assessment would afford that few persons would be likely to adopt that course. The permission given to the settlers in the Neilgherry, Shervaroy, and Pulney Hills to redeem their land tax at twenty years' purchase has not, so far as I am informed, been acted on in a single instance; and the very inconsiderable extent to which the Inamdars of the Madras Presidency, and the owners of property within the Collectorates of Calcutta and Madras, have taken advantage of the power to redeem their quit-rents by a single payment, leads also to the conclusion that only a very few persons would be disposed to avail themselves of the offer.

26. If the power of redeeming was extended at the discretion of the local Governments so as to include lands required for dwelling houses, factories, gardens, plantations, and other similar purposes, it would probably meet every case for which provision need be made. This permission to redeem the land assessment should extend to portions of land comprised within Zemindarries, the jumma of which is not redeemed, a proportionate reduction being, of course, made in the jumma payable to Government.

27. Such a measure, however, would only be a narrow and partial character. The benefit of it would be confined to comparatively very few persons, even if some natives were found to avail themselves of it.

28. But the measure contemplated in Lord Stanley's Despatch, and in the Resolution under discussion, has a much wider scope, and larger and more serious questions arise in the consideration of it than would appear at first sight to be involved.

29. The redemption of the land revenue is authorized, both on lands permanently-settled and on lands temporarily-settled; and " the price " to be paid is fixed at twenty years' purchase of " the existing assessment," the only limitation being that in every District the permission of redemption shall, in the first instance, be restricted to such a number of Estates as shall, in their aggregate assessment, not exceed ten per cent. of the total land revenue.

30. As regards the former, viz., the permanently-settled Estates, no practical difficulty exists if redemption is to be allowed at all as a general measure, a question which will hereafter be considered. The only matter for discussion is the price to be demanded for it.

31. It is remarked in the Resolution that " justice to the public creditor and a due care for " the resources of the Government require that, " as long as the public revenue is no more than " sufficient to meet the current charges of the " Empire and the interest of its debt, no lower " terms of redemption of a permanent tax form- " ing the security for that debt should be accept- " ed than will, when the price is invested in the " public securities, afford a corresponding relief " in the payment of interest."

32. The words here used appear to refer to the instructions in Lord Stanley's Despatch of the 31st December (No. 2) 1858. But it is clear that the object avowedly in view would not be attained by pursuing the course proposed in the Resolution. So long as the Notes of the 5 per cent. loans are purchaseable at par, the extinction of a perpetual annuity may be effected without loss by the payment of twenty times its amount. If, however, as anticipated in that Despatch, a reduction of interest on the public debt should take place—such, for example, as would arise from the 4 per cent. loan becoming saleable at par—it is clear that the same purpose could only be accomplished by requiring a sum equivalent to twenty five years' purchase of the perpetual annuity, or, in other words, of the jumma of the permanently-settled Estate. In this country the redemption of the land tax is, by the existing Acts of Parliament, permitted on the payment of a capital sum varying according to the actual price at the time of Government Stock, and for this purpose the 3 per cent. consolidated annuities, which constitute by far the largest portion of the public debt and bear the lowest rate of interest, are taken as the basis of calculation.

33. When, however, it is proposed to apply the measure to lands under temporary settlement, much more serious questions arise, involving the most important change in the tenure of land throughout the greater part of India.

34. It was stated in Lord Stanley's Despatch of December 1858, that the redemption of the land assessment must necessarily operate as a permanent settlement of the revenue on the lands to which it was applied at the amount of the present assessment, and it is obvious, on the slightest consideration, that this must be the case.

35. We must be prepared then to deal with the measure as effecting, to the extent to which it may be carried, a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India; and it becomes necessary to consider in all its bearings that most serious question which has for so many years been the subject of controversy, and has been viewed in such opposite lights by many of the ablest men who have given their attention to the most important matters of financial and social interest affecting that Empire. Whatever advantages or disadvantages are anticipated from a direct permanent settlement will be equally caused by the indirect mode of attaining the same object by a redemption of the land assessment.

36. Before entering, however, on the general considerations affecting such a measure, I will advert to those which are peculiar to the proposal of redeeming the assessment. Even if the measure be limited to the redemption of one-tenth of the assessment in any District, it appears to me that a very serious difficulty presents itself at the outset. Unless the fair and equal bearing of the assessment on the estates or classes of land which it comprises be first ascertained, it is almost inevitable that loss will be incurred by the State. In all revisions of settlement, even where no increase of the aggregate revenue is obtained, or even expected, it is generally found that, while some Estates or classes of land many fairly be subjected to an increased assessment, others will require an abatement, although the majority may probably be left at the existing rates. It is obvious that if a right of redeeming their assessment, by the payment of a capital sum be given to the landholders to the extent of one-tenth of the aggregate revenue of every District, the owners of those Estates will be most anxious to avail themselves of it in which the assessment is the lowest in proportion to the value of the land. On Estates where the assessment is so redeemed, the State will necessarily be precluded from raising it at any future period. On the other hand, the redemption being optional, the owners of land on which the assessment may now press unduly would of course decline to avail themselves of the permission, and they could not fairly be deprived of the relief for which they might reasonably look at the next revision of settlement, because others had taken advantage of it and redeemed their assessment. By this arrangement, therefore, the Government is clearly subjected to a prospective loss. Before redemption can be permitted in any District it is indispensable, therefore, to ascertain that the assessment bears equally on all the Estates or classes of land within it.

37. It is of course impossible to foresee to what extent the owners of land would be disposed to avail themselves of permission to redeem the assessment, but we must be prepared to meet the consequences of the disposition becoming general.

38. If the disposition to redeem should exist to any great extent, and if the power of so doing is to be held out as a boon to the landowners generally, it is difficult to see on what principle the permission could be restricted to such proportion of them only as pay one-tenth of the assessment in each District. The whole benefit of such a limited measure might be appropiated by a few wealthy landowners, and no advantage whatever would be derived from it by the great mass of the occupiers of land. The latter body would complain, and I think with good reason, of being unfairly and unjustly treated. It is this class, however, whose condition it is so manifestly the interest of the Government to raise, and whose attachment it is so desirable to secure. It seems to me, therefore, that if we go so far as to give a right to redeem to the extent of one-tenth of the assessment, it is impossible to stop at that point. We must go further and contemplate a general right to redeem the land assessment.

39. Now, even as regards redemption to the extent of one-tenth, there is a consequence which does not seem to have been foreseen, and which, if the redemption were to become general, would produce great difficulty. The amount of capital which would be required incalculably exceeds what can be supposed to be in the hands of the landowners. Nor, indeed, if they were in a condition to provide such a sum, would it be desirable that so large an amount should be placed at the disposal of the Government, which would find itself in the embarrassing position of having its treasury overflowing with money arising from the capitalization of its annual income, which it would have no adequate means of employing or investing.

40. The objection arising from capitalizing the income of the State and depriving it in future years of the steady and stable resource of the land revenue, on which it can, under all circumstances, confidently rely, is most serious. It is not a consideration of slight importance that of all sources of revenue none is so easily collected, and none more willingly paid. Her Majesty's Government would be sorry to deprive the Government of India in future years of this large and most unobjectionable portion of their income, which the people have been immemorially accustomed to contribute, and which, consequently, all the authority of prescription and tradition in its favor. These considerations seem to me to be fatal to a scheme of general, or even of a very extensive, redemption of the land revenue.

41. A direct permanent settlement of the land revenue is free from this objection, and it remains, therefore, to discuss this most important question, and to weigh with the greatest care all the considerations by which it ought to be determined.

42. The land revenue of India, as of all eastern countries, is less to be regarded as a tax on the landowners than as the result of a kind of joint ownership in the soil or its produce, under which the latter is divided, in unequal and generally undefined proportions, between the ostensible proprietors and the State. It is not only just but necessary for the security of the landowner that the respective shares in the produce should, at any given period, or for specified terms, be strictly limited and defined. The increase of population, the improvement of communications, and the accumulation of wealth have a tendency to increase the extent of cultivation and the value of the net produce or rent, and the Government may rightly claim to participate in those advantages which accrue from the general progress of society. This has hitherto been effected by means of periodical adjustments of the share, or at least of its value in money which belongs to the State.

43. By many persons great advantages have been anticipated from what is usually called a permanent settlement, that is, by the State fixing, once and for ever, the demand on the produce of the land, and foregoing all prospect of any future increase from that source. It has been urged that not only would a general feeling of contentment be diffused among the landholders, but that they would thereby become attached, by the strongest ties of personal interest, to the Government by which that permanency is guaranteed. It is further alleged that by this means only can sufficient inducement be afforded to the proprietors to lay out capital on the land, and to introduce improvements by which the wealth and prosperity of the country would be increased.

44. In this country these views have been put forward mainly in reference to the settlement of Europeans in India, but they are clearly applicable to the occupiers of land generally throughout India. They have been entertained by many of our ablest Officers, and they have recently been advocated by the late lamented Colonel Baird Smith, in relation to their probable effect on the agricultural population of the North-West Provinces. In his Report on the remedial measures required in those Districts which had suffered most severely in the late famine, he strongly recommends that a permanent settlement should be accorded whenever the land revenue now assessed may reasonably be assumed to have reached its probable limit. That recommendation was based both on social and financial grounds, and was founded on his conviction of the great benefits which had accrued to the country from the demand of the Government having been declared unalterable for a period of thirty years. He desired to confirm and accelerate the improvement which he had witnessed by strengthening the motives which, in his opinion, had produced it. It was his belief that this object could be most effectually attained by the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity instead of only for a limited term.

45. On the other hand, it has been urged that the consequence of a permanent settlement of the land revenue is to preclude the Government from ever obtaining any future augmentation of income from this source; and, considering that the experience of all countries advancing in civilization demonstrates that the cost of administration is constantly tending to increase, it follows that the additional charge which will fall on the Government must of necessity be met by taxation in some shape, such as Customs, Excise, Salt, Stamp, or Income duties. Colonel Baird Smith, in the able paper already referred to, admits that this result will take place; but he argues (paragraph 64) that any sacrifice of public revenue involved in the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity would be more than compensated by the increased ability of the people generally to bear taxation, direct or indirect, which would necessarily follow on the improvement in their social condition. An "intelligent and powerful Government," he says, "could not fail to participate in these "advantages." "Its intelligence would direct "it to the least offensive and most effective "means of sharing in the general prosperity, and "its power would ensure the fair trial and ulti-"mate success of those means."

46. It is a serious and difficult question to determine by which course the interests of India will be best promoted. Before deciding on any step by which the prospect of any future increase of land revenue is given up it must be very carefully considered how far, on the whole, it is likely that the possible sacrifice of increased revenue from this source will be made up by the greater ability of the people to contribute in other ways to the public income, and whether it will be for the general interest to purchase at this price the social and political advantages which have been adverted to.

47. Her Majesty's Government entertain no doubt of the political advantages which would attend a permanent settlement. The security, and, it may almost be said, the absolute creation of property in the soil which will flow from limitation in perpetuity of the demands of the State on the owners of land, cannot fail to stimulate or confirm their sentiments of attachment and loyalty to the Government by whom so great a boon has been conceded, and on whose existence its permanency will depend.

48. It is also most desirable that facilities should be given for the gradual growth of a middle class connected with the land, without dispossessing the peasant proprietors and occupiers. It is believed that among the latter may be found many men of great intelligence, public spirit, and social influence, although individually in comparative poverty. To give to the intelligent, the thrifty, and the enterprising the means of improving their condition, by opening to them the opportunity of exercising these qualities, can be best accomplished by limiting the public demand on their lands. When such men acquire property, and find themselves in a thriving condition, they are certain to be well effected towards the Government under which they live. It is on the contentment of the agricultural classes, who from the great bulk of the population, that the security of the Government mainly depends. If they are prosperous, any casual outbreak on the part of other classes or bodies of men is much less likely to become an element of danger, and the Military Force and its consequent expense may be regulated accordingly.

49. The strongest opponents of a permanent settlement would probably admit the political and social advantages of such a measure. Their main argument against it is based on the financial consideration that, by means of temporary settlements, the land revenue might be raised, from time to time, according to the expected rise in the value of land, and that, by this means also, the loss might be avoided, which, in all cases of fixed money payments, must ensue if a depreciation of the value of the precious metals should take place.

50. It is indispensable, of course, that whether with a view to redemption, even to the extent of one-tenth of the revenue, or to a permanent settlement, the preliminary step of a revision of the present assessment must be taken. In the first instance, whichever course may be finally adopted, a full, fair, and equable rent must be imposed on all lands now under temporary settlement; and, when that has been accomplished, Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that a permanent settlement may be safely applied. This was the course recommended by one of the ablest and most distinguished men who ever was called on to bear a part in the administration of British India. In his celebrated Minute of the 31st December 1824, Sir Thomas Munro, then Governor of the Presidency of Madras, several times refers to this subject, and particularly in the following passage: "No survey assessment of a great Province," he says, "can ever at once be "made so correct as not to require future alteration; "when, therefore, it has been completed with as "much care as possible, a trial should always be "made of it for six or seven years. This period "will be sufficient to discover all defects in the "assessment. A general revision of it should then "be made, and wherever it might be found too high "it should be lowered, and it may then, with safety "to the revenue and benefit to the people, be made "permanent."

51. When once the rent has been properly fixed, any increase consequent on the natural progress of society will in all probability take place but slowly, and reach no great amount until after a considerable interval. It must be remembered that, in all the revisions of settlement which have taken place of late years, the tendency has been towards a reduction in the rates of assessment. Whenever the settlements have been carefully made, and the capabilities of the country have been well ascertained, the probability of any considerable increase of land revenue appears to be but slight.

52. The necessity for the reduction above noticed seems to have been caused mainly by the depreciation in the value of the crops from the increased production consequent on the greater tranquillity of the country under British rule. There are at present symptoms of a rise in the price of agricultural produce, caused probably, to a great extent, by the increased employment of labor in the construction of Railways and other public works. But the Railways, when completed, while they will contribute largely to the development of the resources of India, may, in some degree, counteract this tendency. The great differences in the price of food in Districts at no great distance from each other, so that while one was in a condition bordering on famine, others enjoyed comparative plenty, will cease to exist, at least to the same extent, when ready and cheap means of transport shall have been provided. Produce from the interior will be more readily brought to the centres of consumption or of exportation, and the value of land in the interior will be thereby increased; but, on the other hand, the value of the produce of land near large towns and the coast will be reduced by the competition of the produce of the interior. The probable effect of the Railroads would seem to be towards the equalization of the prices of produce in different parts of India, and a general improvement in the wealth of all classes of the country, rather than to give any peculiar advantage to the landholders.

53. That this general improvement will be accelerated by a permanent settlement Her Majesty's Government cannot entertain any doubt. A ready and popular mode of investment for the increasing wealth of the country will be provided by the creation of property in land, and all classes will benefit by the measure. On the agricultural population the effect will be, as pointed out by Colonel Baird Smith in the able paper already referred to, the elevation of the social condition of the people, and their consequent ability, not only to meet successfully the pressure occasioned by seasons of distress, but, in ordinary times, to bear increased taxation in other forms without difficulty; the feeling of ownership, or, in other words, the absolute certainty of the full enjoyment of the reward for all the labor and capital which they may invest in the land, will be sure to call out all their energies for its improvement. Her Majesty's Government confidently expect that a people in a state of contentment and progressive improvement will be able without difficulty to contribute to the revenue in other ways to such an extent as more than to compensate for the disadvantage of foregoing some prospective increase of that from land.

54. The example of Tanjore may be cited in confirmation of this view. It has been for many years so moderately assessed that a feeling of private property in the soil has continued to exist among the people to such an extent that land sells, on an average, for twenty years' purchase. This District is eminently one in which a permanent settlement might properly be established; and that such a measure would lead to no loss of public income may be inferred from the fact that in it the receipts from Salt, Abkarry, and Stamps have in ten years risen from Rupees 6,51,000 to Rupees 9,50,500, or nearly 48 per cent.

Minutes by Sir C. E. Trevelyan, dated 18th and 28th January 1860.

55. It must also be remembered that all revisions of assessment, although occurring only at intervals of thirty years, nevertheless demand for a considerable time previous to their expiration, much of the attention of the most experienced Civil Officers whose services can be ill spared from their regular administrative duties. Under the best arrangements the operation cannot fail to be harassing, vexatious, and, perhaps, even oppressive to the people affected by it. The work can only be accomplished by the aid of large establishments of native ministerial Officers, who must, of necessity, have great opportunities for peculation, extortion, and abuse of power. Moreover, as the period for re-settlement approaches the agricultural classes, with the view of evading a true estimate of the actual value of their lands, contract their cultivation, cease to grow the most profitable crops, and allow wells and watercourses to fall into decay. These practices are certainly more detrimental to themselves than to the Government, but their can be no question that they prevail extensively. The remedy for these evils, the needless occupation of the valuable time of the public Officers employed in the revision, the extortion of the subordinate officials, and the loss of wealth to the community from the deterioration of cultivation, lies in a permanent settlement of the land revenue.

56. The course of events which has been anticipated is, indeed, only that which has taken place in every civilized country. Experience shews that in their early stages nations derived almost the whole of their public resources in a direct manner from the produce of the soil, but that as they grew in wealth and civilization, the basis of taxation has been changed, and the revenue has been in a great degree derived indirectly by means of imposts on articles which the increasing means of the people, consequent on a state of security and prosperty, have enabled them to consume in greater abundance. I am aware that it has been stated as an objection to promoting such a course of things in India that, in most European countries, the advantages of this change have been mainly appropriated by the large landowners; but it must be remembered that in India, and especially in the Districts under ryotwarry settlement, the great bulk of the agricultural population are the proprietors, subject only to the payment of the assessment, of the lands which they till; and that, consequently, the benefit of a permanent settlement would be enjoyed, not by a narrow and limited class, but by the majority of the people.

57. The apprehension of a possible fall in the relative value of money, which has been previously noticed, though deserving consideration, does not seem to Her Majesty's Government to be of sufficient moment to influence their judgment to any material extent in disposing of this important question.

58. After the most careful review of all these considerations Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that the advantages which may reasonably be expected to accrue not only to those immediately connected with the land, but to the community generally, are sufficiently great to justify them in incurring the risk of some prospective loss of land revenue in order to attain them, and that a settlement in perpetuity in all Districts in which the conditions absolutely required as preliminary to such a measure are, or may hereafter be, fulfilled, is a measure dictated by sound policy, and calculated to accelerate the development of the resources of India, and to ensure, in the highest degree, the welfare and contentment of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects in that country.

59. They consider that the direct mode of making a permanent settlement is preferable to the indirect one of obtaining a similar result by conceding to the landholders the right to redeem their assessment. They do not believe that the power to redeem the land revenue is necessary to induce the landholders to incur expenditure in the improvement of their property. What is really required, in order to call into effective action their enterprise and capital, is not an exemption from all payments to the Government on account of their Estates, but the fixing those payments in perpetuity at a moderate and certain amount. In Bengal, where a permanent settlement was made with the Zemindars seventy years ago, the general progress of the country in wealth and prosperity, notwithstanding the depressed condition of the peasantry, caused by errors and omissions in the mode of making the settlement, has been most remarkable. Such errors in the existing state of our knowledge regarding the rights and interests of the subordinate occupants of the soil would not be permitted to recur.

60. It must be remembered that, with a view to attaining the objects aimed at, of improving the condition of the people, and enabling them to contribute in other ways to the public revenue, it is essential that the measure should be generally brought into operation. The improved condition of a limited number and of an exceptional class would add little to the contentment of the population or to the resources of the public treasury. No measure can be really effective for such purposes unless it can be brought to bear on the general mass of the population.

61. Although, therefore, the acquisition of a permanent tenure free from rent might be more acceptable to the European capitalist, it is certain that, to the native agricultural population of India, who do not possess capital, permanency of tenure, and fixity of rent will afford all that they require, or from which they could derive any benefit. To hold out to them as a boon the offer of redemption, of which hardly any one could avail himself, would be merely illusory, nor would the object be attained which is prescribed in Lord Stanley's Despatch, that in any recommendation which might be submitted the proposed benefits should be participated in by the agricultural community generally. By the Madras freehold rules it was at first directed that the sales should be made without any reservation of rent, but the Planters complained that the capital required for clearing the forest would be exhausted in paying the purchase money. The capital which would be absorbed in purchasing the fee simple and redeeming the land tax would be more profitably expended in improving the land.

62. In either case, whether the land revenue were redeemed, or its amount fixed in perpetuity, the benefit of all improvements would equally go into the pocket of the landholder, nor could he have any difficulty in paying the moderate rent which is now universally fixed on revising the assessments.

63. Her Majesty's Government have therefore determined to limit the power of redeeming the land revenue to such cases as are referred to above in paragraph 26; but they have resolved to sanction a permanent settlement of the land revenue throughout India. It will, however, still remain to be determined how far any particular District is in a condition to warrant the practical application of the measure at the present time.

64. There are doubtless parts of the North-Western Provinces, and probably of the Punjab, where so large a proportion of the soil was already under cultivation when the existing settlements were made, that, assuming the rates of assessment to have been fairly adjusted to the capabilities of the land, little or no increase can be expected in the revenue on the revision which will take place on the expiration of those settlements. Such Districts, provided that the assessment is not only adequate in amount, but also equally distributed, may be considered to be in a condition in which the introduction of a permanent settlement might properly be permitted.

65. In other parts of these Provinces a large proportion of the land is still uncultivated, and does not, consequently, yield to the public treasury a return commensurate with its prospective capabilities; while in recently acquired territories, such as Oudh and Nagpore, which are still unsurveyed, no means exist for determining either the adequacy of the amount, or the equality of the pressure of the present assessment.

66. In the ryotwarry Districts of Madras and Bombay the difficulties in the way of a permanent settlement appear to Her Majesty's Government to be the greatest.

67. In the former Presidency the revision of the assessment for the purpose of bringing it into accordance with the present circumstances of the people and the country has only recently been commenced. The existing settlement records, which determine the supposed extent of each holding, and, by consequence, the actual rate of assessment, are in many cases untrustworthy. It is true that by the increase of cultivation, which has ensued on the reduction of the assessment on the higher classes of land, a greater aggregate revenue has been obtained; and, although some increase may be found practicable in the rates on the lower classes, it is probable that the general result will be a reduction in the average rates. At all events there is ample evidence that the actual incidence of the assessment as regards particular fields or estates requires careful readjustment. It was with the view of equalizing the pressure of the assessment, and with no desire or expectation of increasing its amount, that the arrangements now in progress, estimated to cost at least three-quarters of a million sterling, were sanctioned by the Home Authorities.

68. In Bombay the revised assessment, though still in progress, has been, throughout a large portion of the Presidency, for many years in operation. It is well understood that the existing rates were adapted rather to the depressed circumstances of the agricultural population at the time when they were imposed than to the prospective capabilities of the soil. The measure has been in all respects successful, and it is believed that the condition of the people has advanced so rapidly that on its revision a very considerable increase may be effected in the rates without any undue pressure on the resources of the people.

69. Her Majesty's Government consider, therefore, that, although for different reasons, these two Presidencies are not at present generally in a condition which would warrant them in authorizing a permanent settlement of the land revenue on the assessed lands at the existing rates. In both Presidencies, however, as Districts are gradually brought under the revised assessment, and when there is no reason to believe that the land revenue has not only reached its probable limit, but that it is equitably distributed over the lands effected by it, this restriction will no longer be needed.

70. It is obvious that the process of introducing a permanent settlement must be very gradual, and this circumstance is not without its advantages. It would be impossible at one time to provide Establishments large enough for a general revision of the assessment throughout the whole of India, and the effect of the measure may be watched in its progress. If any unforeseen difficulties occur there will be time to take measures for obviating them. If the anticipations of a rise in the value of land, or of a depreciation in that of the precious metals, should be realized, any loss from these sources could be avoided in subsequent settlements, and the principal objections to the measure would be in great measure disposed of.

71. It is to be hoped that the greater interest which the influential classes would acquire in the preservation of peace and order might enable the Government to reduce its Military Establishments, at any rate to such an extent as to provide for the increased charge of civil administration, which improvements in civilization always render necessary.

72. I have therefore to announce to your Excellency in Council, as the result of the foregoing considerations, that, as regards all Districts or parts of Districts in which no considerable increase is to be expected in the land revenue, and where its equitable apportionment has already been, or may hereafter be, ascertained to your satisfaction, Her Majesty's Government will be ready to sanction, on your recommendation, or that of the local Government supported by you, the settlement, in perpetuity, of the assessment at the present or the revised rates.

73. I have accordingly to request that you will place yourselves in communication with the several local Governments, in order to ascertain from them the extent to which, in their judgment, it may be expedient to apply this important measure to the territories under their immediate administration. In the North-West Provinces, where the revision of the thirty years' settlement has already commenced, it is possible that several Districts are now in a condition to justify immediate action. In the Presidency of Madras the result of the survey and settlement operations which have been recently commenced will shew how far the Districts have yet attained the condition contemplated by Sir Thomas Munro, in the extract already quoted, as warranting the establishment of a settlement in perpetuity; while, in the revised portions of the Bombay Presidency, it will probably be deemed prudent to await the expiration of the thirty years' leases, which will begin to expire in three or four years, before taking any steps for giving permanency to existing arrangements.

74. I must remind you that, wherever a permanent settlement is made directly with individuals or communities for Estates in which other persons possess subordinate rites and interests, those rights and interests should be guarded with the greatest care, so as to avoid the errors which are now acknowledged to have been commited in respect to the permanent settlement of Bengal.

75. With regard to the investment of the amount which may be received by the Government from the sale of waste lands, or in commutation of land revenue, I observe that it is declared, in paragraph 56 of the Resolution, that, "with a "view to secure the Government and the public "creditor against any loss of existing sources of "Government income, provision will be made by "law that all sums paid in purchase of waste lands, "or in redemption of land revenue, or in otherwise forestalling the land revenue, shall be paid "to Commissioners, and periodically invested in "such manner as the law may direct;" and that the Reports of the Commissioners shall be regularly published. In reference to this arrangement I have to desire that all moneys received on these accounts should be invested, not periodically, but as soon as practicable, and, as a rule, in the 4 per cent. loan. The price of redemption should be variable according to the actual value at the time of that stock, so that the amount paid, when so invested, may produce a dividend equivalent to the annual revenue which will thereon cease to be received.

76. Your Excellency in Council will understand that the instructions contained in this Despatch supersede at once the provisions of the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 so far as they are inconsistent with them, and that fresh regulations must be prepared and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty's Government It is not, however, intended that these orders should have retrospective effect, and if any arrangements, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of land revenue, have been actually completed under the provisions of the Resolution, they must, so far as is compatible with the law, be scrupulously carried into effect. You will, however, furnish me with a special report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements may have been made.

77. Copies of this Despatch will be forwarded for the information and guidance of the Governments of Madras and Bombay.

Revenue.

The 15th August 1862.

To the Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.
" " " N. W. Provinces.
" " " Punjab and its Dependencies.

Sir,—With reference to the correspondence noted on the margin, I am desired to transmit, for the information and guidance of the Lieutenant-Governor, copy of a Despatch* received from the Secretary of State regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the existing land revenue.

* Revenue, No. 14, dated 9th July 1862.

2. It is desirable that Rules for regulating the sale of waste lands should be prepared, with as little delay as possible, in conformity with the modified provisions now prescribed by Her Majesty's Government; but it will be observed that all arrangements which have been already completed under the terms of the Resolution promulgated by the Government of India last October, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of the land revenue, are to be maintained, the present Despatch not being intended to have retrospective effect. Referring to the concluding words of the 76th paragraph of the Secretary of State's Despatch, I am desired to request that a Report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements have been made may be furnished as soon as possible.

3. As regards the sale of waste lands, the principal points upon which the provisions of the Resolution of October last must be modified, in conformity with the instructions now received, are as follows:—

4. Paragraph 29 of the Resolution, which fixed a uniform price throughout India of 2½ Rupees per acre for uncleared land, and of 5 Rupees per acre for land unencumbered with jungle, is cancelled; and it is ordered that the several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors shall fix, after communication with the chief Local Authorities, a minimun price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province.

5. In modification of paragraph 30 of the Resolution, which prescribed the sale of the land by auction in the event of more purchasers than one being desirous to buy the same tract, it is ordered that in every case the land shall be put up to auction at an upset price and sold to the highest bidder.

6. The provision contained in paragraph 25 of the Resolution, admitting of possession being given to an applicant for land in anticipation of survey, will be modified as directed in paragraph 11 of the accompanying Despatch. In conformity with these directions the land applied for must, in every instance, be surveyed, and the boundaries marked out before it is advertised for sale. The applicant for the grant, it will be observed, is to be required to deposit the estimated cost of the survey, which will, of course, be restored to him if he should be eventually outbid for the land. It is of great importance that a ready agency should be provided for effecting the preliminary survey and marking out of boundaries, so that applicants for land may be subjected to no unnecessary delay.

7. The provision which is made in paragraph 31 of the Resolution for reserving adjoining lands at the requisition of those who take grants must be regarded as withdrawn, it being inconsistent with the general injunction for resort to sale by auction.

8. In the 21st paragraph of the Despatch, herewith enclosed, it is ordered that the provision in paragraph 50 of the Resolution, which limits the price to be paid in the commutation of a grant under the terms of that paragraph to 5 Rupees an acre, shall be withdrawn. It is also observed by the Secretary of State that the provisions generally which relate to the commutation of existing grants under the new Rules contained in paragraphs 33 and 50 of the Resolution require revision.

9. As it has already been found that some misunderstanding prevails in regard to the intention and scope of these paragraphs, it seems desirable that the present opportunity should be taken of stating what the Governor General in Council understands to have been their purpose. It appears to the Governor General in Council that it cannot reasonably be maintained that paragraph 33 of the Resolution was intended to include land the absolute sale of which has already been effected, but for which the purchase money has not been wholly paid up, being, by the terms of sale, payable by instalments. It is obvious that in such a case there could be no question of the applicability or the inapplicability of the limitation of the new Rules as to area, inasmuch as the owner has already purchased absolutely the whole area in his possession whatever it may be,

and, therefore, though he may not have paid the whole of the purchase money, it is manifest that the permission accorded by the concluding words of the paragraph to purchase absolutely as much or as little of the area as may suit him, has no application to and could not possibly have contemplated any such case. The 33rd paragraph of the Resolution can, therefore, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, be held applicable only to the case of those Grantees who hold their lands on terms which do not comprise the right of acquiring an absolute ownership in fee simple. Such Grantees, it is the object of the 33rd paragraph to declare, may obtain that right by commuting their grants under the Rules for the sale of land in fee simple.

10. Paragraph 50 of the Resolution declares the terms upon which commutation may be made in the case of one, and that a very large class of existing grants. This paragraph, when modified according to the instructions of Her Majesty's Government, will stand as in the margin.

Grants which have already been given for a term of years at progressively increasing rents, such as those in the Soonderbunds, will be treated as if the land were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes to redeem the future land revenue at the highest rate fixed for any year during the currency of the grant, provided there is no right of occupancy other than that of the Lessee, or that derived from him.

11. In the case of existing grants, which do not fall under the terms of paragraph 50, the conditions on which commutation under the new Rules will be allowed may be settled with reference to the average value obtainable for waste lands of the same description in the District when sold by auction.

12. As it is highly desirable that persons who wish to avail themselves of the resolution come to by the Government to dispose of waste lands by sale in fee simple should be enabled to carry their intentions into effect with the least avoidable delay, and as the directions now received from Her Majesty's Government are on most points clear and specific, the Governor General in Council will not require that the detailed Rules to be framed by the several Local Governments should be submitted for the sanction of the Government of India before they are acted on. A copy of the Rules should, however, be forwarded as soon as they are finally approved by the Lieutenant-Governor, and if on any point the intention of Her Majesty's Government should seem to the Lieutenant-Governor to be doubtful, the question should be referred to the Governor General in Council for determination. As legislation will be necessary to give legal effect to the provisions of paragraph 19 of the Resolution, a Bill for that object will be introduced, on the meeting of the Governor General's Council, for legislative purposes.

13. With respect to that part of the Secretary of State's Despatch which discusses the important questions of a redemption of the land revenue and of a permanent settlement, the Governor General in Council thinks it unnecessary at present to do more than point special attention to the conclusion which is announced in the 26th and the 63rd paragraphs as to the extent to which redemption of the existing land revenue is to be permitted, and to the 72nd paragraph, in which the conditions are finally stated, which, in the opinion of Her Majesty's Government, should be attained before a permanent settlement is conceded. It will be observed that this paragraph contemplates that the previous sanction of Her Majesty's Government should be obtained to the introduction of a permanent settlement in any District. Early steps should, therefore, be taken to obtain the information which will be required to enable the Local Government to submit the Report referred to in the 73rd paragraph as to the extent to which it may now be expedient to give effect to this important measure.

No. 798 of 1862.—His Excellency the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following extracts from a Despatch from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, No. 238 of the 2nd July 1862, notifying the future organization of the Staff of the Royal Artillery in India:—

Para. 8.—Her Majesty's Government have therefore come to the determination that the appointment of Commandant of Artillery in the several Presidencies shall be abolished, that there shall be four Inspectors of Artillery; two in Bengal, one in each of the other Presidencies.

9. These Officers, being Regimental Colonels belonging to Brigades serving in India, will be appointed by the several Governments at the recommendation of their respective Commanders in-Chief. The Officers selected for these duties must have served at least three years in India, and must possess the usual qualifications for Staff service in that country, the tenure of the appointment being limited to five years, during which period they will not be liable to removal on promotion to the rank of Major General.

10. The rank of Brigadier-General will be conferred upon these Officers, who will be placed in regard to pay and allowances on the footing of Brigadiers of the 1st Class.

11. A Brigade-Major, being an Officer of Artillery, will be attached to each Inspector of Artillery.

12. A Deputy Adjutant-General of the Artillery, being a Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel, will be attached to the Head Quarters of the Army in India.

13. The Officer nominated to this appointment must have served not less than three years India; in other respects the appointment will be made subject to all the conditions connected with the appointment of Staff Officers in India as to qualifications and tenure of office.

14. An Assistant Adjutant-General of the rank of Field Officer will be attached to Head Quarters of the Madras and Bombay Presidencies respectively, for the conduct of Artillery duties, under the immediate direction of the Local Commanders in-Chief.

15. The appointments of Assistant Adjutant General of Artillery in Bengal and Madras, and that of Brigade-Major in Bombay, will cease with that of Commandant of Artillery, or as soon after as the transfer of their records to the Adjutant General's Office can be effected.

16. The immediate effect of this measure will be the abolition of the following appointments:—

3 Brigadiers, 1st Class.
1 Brigadier, 2nd Class.
2 Assistant Adjutants General, Bengal.
1 „ „ „ Madras.
1 Brigade Major, Bombay.
1 Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Bengal; and the creation of the following appointments:—

2 Inspectors of Artillery, Bengal.
1 Inspector „ Madras.
1 „ „ Bombay.
4 Brigade-Majors.
1 Deputy Adjutant-General of Artillery at the Head Quarters of the Army in India.
1 Assistant Adjutant-General at Madras.
1 „ „ „ at Bombay.

17. As Artillery-men fit for duty and trained to the use of Armstrong Guns are now and will henceforward be despatched to India, instead of recruits, as heretofore, the Artillery Depôts of Instruction at the three Presidencies are no longer requisite.

18. These Depôts will, therefore, be broken up at once, and Artillery-men will, on landing, be sent to the General Receiving Depôts at the Presidencies, and thence forwarded, as speedily as possible, to the Head Quarters of their Brigades or Batteries, in the same manner as Drafts for Line Regiments.

In view to carrying out the above directions the Governor General in Council is pleased to notify that the new organization of the Staff of the Royal Artillery in India will come into effect from the 1st November next, from which date the appointments at present existing, as notified in paragraph 16, and the Artillery Depôts of Instruction will cease to exist and the new appointments have effect.

No. 799 of 1862.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following appointment :—

Colonel Lord Mark Kerr, C. B., 1st Battalion, Her Majesty's 13th Light Infantry, to be a Brigadier, temporarily, during the absence on sick leave of Brigadier S. T. Christie, C. B., Commanding at Delhi, or until further orders.

MARINE DEPARTMENT

New Lines of Steam communication to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

From CAPTAIN J. G. REDDIE, Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Marine Department, to E. C. BAYLEY, ESQ., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,—(No. 391, dated Fort William, the 8th August 1862.)

SIR,—I AM directed to state, for your information, that, under the orders of the Governor General in Council, a Contract has been concluded with the Agents of the Calcutta and Burmah Steam Navigation Company, Limited, for running Lines of Steam communication, as specified in the margin, to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

LINE I.

Calcutta to Rangoon direct once a month (leaving on or about the 7th, after the receipt of the Rome Mails viâ Bombay, usually arriving about the 5th of each month) thence to Kaligouk, Tavoy, Mergui, Penang, Malacca, and Singapore.

LINE II.

By a branch Steamer once a month from Rangoon to Moulmein and Port Blair in connection with Line No. 1., and leaving Rangoon within 12 hours of the arrival of the Steamer from Calcutta, returning from Port Blair to Moulmein and from thence to Rangoon direct.

LINE III

Calcutta to Chittagong, Akyab, Rangoon, Moulmein, on the 1st and 16th of each month, calling en route on the return voyage (as required) at Kyouk Phyoo and Sandoway. (It will be optional with the Company hereafter to connect Chittagong with all the other Ports by running a small Steamer thither from Akyab instead of by the larger Steamer calling there on going and returning as now proposed:)

2. I am desired to remark that Line No. 3, between Calcutta and Moulmein, calling at Chittagong Akyab, Rangoon, Kyouk Phyoo, and Sandoway, and leaving this Port on the 1st and 16th of each month, is intended to supersede the bi-monthly Mail Line, now running between Calcutta and Moulmein, by the Vessels of the same Company, the Contract for which will shortly expire.

3. The date fixed for the commencement of the respective Lines is the 1st proximo; but owing to a difficulty experienced by the Company in the provision of suitable Vessels by that date for the performance of the service between Calcutta and Singapore, His Excellency in Council, in respect to that line, has been pleased to sanction till the 1st February 1863, the substitution of a six-weekly communication for the monthly service provided for in the Official Contract.

4. The fixed rates for Government freight and passage, conveyance of specie, &c., &c., on the three Lines, respectively, are shewn in the Statement accompanying herewith.

Notification.

THE following Resolution of the Government of India, in the Home Department, No. 3861, dated 31st July 1862, is published for the information and guidance of all Public Officers.

J. I. HARVEY,
Offg. Actt.-Genl. to the Govt. of India.

ACCTT.-GENL.'s OFFICE,
The 15th August 1862.

1. RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that the general receipt given by the Head of an Office on the back of a Pay Abstract is not liable to a Stamp Duty, the receipt being executed in this instance by an Officer of Government in his official capacity and acting on behalf of Government; but that when the amount of the Pay Abstract comes to be distributed the receipts of the payées for salaries exceeding Rupees 20 a month must have a Stamp of one anna affixed to each like other receipts given for the payment of money. The taking of such receipts on the back of a general Pay Abstract does not, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, form any ground of exemption.

2. The question may arise whether, the Law being as above stated, such receipts should be specially exempted from Stamp Duty. The Governor General in Council sees no reason why they should. The tax is one which has been purposely put at such a low uniform rate that it will hardly be felt as a burden by any one; and it therefore appears to His Excellency in Council to be very undesirable to admit of any exemptions from the tax other than those provided for by the Law.

Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Government of Bengal.

Report on the Police Administration of the Suburbs of Calcutta for 1861-62.

From S. WAUCHOPE, Esq., C. B., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal,—(dated the 24th June 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to submit, for the information of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, the accompanying Statement of Crime reported to have been committed in the Suburbs of Calcutta during the year 1861-62.

2. The Suburbs extend from Balee Khal and Barnagore, on the north, to the Botanical Gardens and the end of Garden Reach, on the south, and from the Salt Water Lake, on the east, to a distance of one to two miles to the west of the River Hooghly, on the west.

3. I had charge of the Suburbs to the east of the River Hooghly during the whole year, but took over the Howrah Division only on the 9th July. I have reported so fully on the organization of the Police in my letter No. 172 of the 17th February last, to your address, that I shall not here allude further to the subject, but proceed at once to remark on the various descriptions of crime which occurred during the year.

4. MURDER.—There were two murders reported. The first was that of a woman, Mungla Dassee, aged about sixteen, by her husband, Modoosoodun Kurmokar. It appears he had an intrigue with his sister-in-law, a widow, and his wife having discovered it, watching her opportunity, locked him up with the widow. When the door was at length opened he seized a crow-bar, murdered his wife, and fled. This was on the 20th September 1861. The Police traced him out and arrested him, and he was executed on the 13th January 1862.

The second was that of a woman of the Town, who was murdered at Bhowanipore on the night of the 6th March 1862, and property stolen from her house valued at Rupees 73-12. From the circumstances of the case it was evident that she had been visited by some person during the night who had gagged and murdered her with a bill-hook. No trace has ever been found of the murderer. She was a woman of intemperate habits, and about three years previous had been drugged and robbed of all her property in the same house and no trace was obtained of the offender. I am afraid, as I have often before remarked, that the practice of murdering women of the Town for the sake of their ornaments is very common, perhaps more so than is generally supposed, and the Police are almost invariably unsuccessful in their efforts to bring the perpetrators to justice. The entry of strange persons to the houses of these women, and their departure at extraordinary hours, is not considered suspicious, and consequently long before the murder is discovered the murderer is far beyond the reach of the neighbouring Police.

5. CUTTING AND WOUNDING, ARSON.—The cases of "Cutting and Wounding" call for no particular remark, and in those of "Arson," where every person arrested was acquitted, I can only say that it is very doubtful if any of the fires were the work of incendiaries.

6. Dacoity.--I had one case of Dacoity during the year. It took place last September in the house of a Pawnbroker near Tallygunge, standing by itself and close to the boundary of the Suburbs. Property valued at Rupees 2,594, consisting almost entirely of pledged goods, was robbed: the owner of the house was wounded and the robbers got clear away. Mr. Mylan, the Superintendent of the Division, and some of my best Native Officers were set to work, and, although not one of them had ever before seen a house where a Dacoity had been committed, in the course of about a fortnight obtained a clue, by following which they arrested the greater portion of the gang, who belonged to Calcutta and to the Hooghly and Howrah Districts, and recovered a considerable part of the property. Fifteen men were concerned in this Dacoity, of whom ten were convicted. The rest made their escape out of the neighbouring Districts. In this case a very well known Calcutta Receiver, on whom I had had my eye for many years, was convicted on the clearest evidence and sentenced to sixteen years' imprisonment. There can be no doubt of some of the old Suburban Police, who had remained on the Establishment, conniving at this Dacoity; but, with this exception, I was well pleased with the result. This case proved the advantage of the union of the Calcutta with the Suburban Police. Before this took place there would have been considerable difficulty in arresting those of the Dacoits who lived in Calcutta, whereas, in the present instance, some of the best Calcutta Officers assisted those of the Suburbs, and the arrests were made without delay or difficulty.

7. While on the subject of this Dacoity, I may as well refer to another case, although it is more intimately connected with the Calcutta Police. I had for a long time been aware that there was a powerful gang of Dacoits which used to go every month from Calcutta and the neighbourhood on the river and into the Soonderbunds for the purpose of Dacoity. They were about eighty in number. I knew most of their names, and I discovered that some went to their houses in Furreedpore, and, while some went out to rob, the others remained in their lodgings looking out for fresh victims. The strange part of the matter was that, although I could always find out when they left Calcutta, I never could discover how or when they returned. At last I discovered that, instead of coming back by water, they were in the habit of engaging carriages at the Canal and, so returning unobserved, taking their booty at once to Balee and Cossipore, where it was immediately disposed of. My Police arrested a number of the gang, recovered a quantity of stolen property, and found their boats, which they had scuttled and sunk to prevent their being discovered by us. The case was made over to the Dacoity Commissioner, and I believe several have been convicted; but, before the proceedings of their gang were thus put a stop to, the injury caused by them to persons travelling by boat must have been immense.

8. Burglary.—I was perfectly startled on taking charge of the Suburbs to find the enormous number of Burglaries committed every where in the course of each month without the slightest success on the part of the Police in arresting the perpetrators, and the worst of the matter was that evidently many were never reported, and in those that were the majority of the persons robbed declined to prosecute. It is true that few of the Burglaries were of a very heavy nature, but still it was most discreditable to the Police that robbers should dig holes in houses large enough to carry out chests and convey them clear away. But the same state of things prevailed in Calcutta not many years ago; a dozen Burglaries in one night was then a common event whereas now they are almost unknown.

9. My great efforts were directed towards preventing the concealment of the crime, and during the year no less than 223 were reported, in which property, valued Rupees 6,893, was stolen, and Rupees 1,339, or one-fifth, recovered. Eighty men were convicted of Burglary, and sixty-six of lurking, nearly all of the latter being old offenders, about to commit Burglary.

10. In the Howrah Division alone 102 Burglaries were reported, in which Rupees 457, out of Rupees 1,266 stolen, were recovered. It is difficult to make a comparison with former years; but supposing the same number of Burglaries were committed the previous year as in this, and I cannot think they were less numerous, I have ascertained that of property valued at Rupees 3,006 only Rupees 457 were recovered and six persons convicted.

11. The old Police seemed to be utterly helpless with regard to this crime. Haneef Khan, the best Darogah in the Lower Provinces, told me he could do nothing with them, and that he could not make out where the Burglars came from, and where they went; that in fact they seemed to rise out of and sink into the ground.

12. But although we have not put down the crime of Burglary, I believe we have, to a certain extent, obtained the confidence of the people, and we have discovered a very curious state of affairs regarding the perpetrators of this crime, resembling, in many respects, what existed previous to the commencement of the Dacoity Commission in 1852.

13. I have no hesitation in saying, after very careful and diligent enquiry, that in those Districts where the Dacoity Commissioner has worked with the greatest vigor Burglary has increased in nearly the same proportion as Dacoity has decreased. Dacoits have become Burglars and taken to a trade which is much less dangerous and quite as profitable. The Gwallas of Jehanabad, in the Hooghly District, and the Nuddea Bedgas, men with whom I have been acquainted for many years as Dacoits, now come before me as Burglars. There are gangs of them in Calcutta and elsewhere constantly robbing and plundering, only, instead of being collected in twenties as formerly, they are now associated in small parties of two and three.

14. I am perfectly certain we shall be as successful in checking Burglary in the Suburbs as we have been in Calcutta. In the Chitpore Division alone Mr. Littlemore, who is a most energetic Officer, has, in forty six Burglaries, succeeded in procuring the conviction of forty-four Burglars, and in the other Divisions their haunts are tolerably well known to my Police Officers.

15. THEFT.—There is nothing among the cases of Theft which calls for any particular remark, except that about half of the whole of the property stolen was taken from houses within the premises of the Ex-King of Oude and in their immediate neighbourhood. In my letter No. 956, dated the 1st November 1861, I brought to the notice of the Lieutenant-Governor the discreditable state of affairs prevailing in Garden Reach. I am happy to state that the remonstrance addressed to the Ex-King has had the best effect. The dependants and others residing with him are kept in better order. Many of the scoundrels who lived there have quitted Garden Reach, and every assistance is given to the Police.

16. During the year 5,185 persons passed through the hands of the Suburban Police, of these twenty-six were convicted and eight acquitted at the Sessions; 4,160 convicted and 991 acquitted by the Magistrate. Property valued at Rupees 58,168-1-6 was robbed and stolen, of which Rupees 19,021-8-8, or nearly one-third, were recovered. I trust these results will be deemed satisfactory to the Lieutenant-Governor.

17. I have to express my obligations to the Magistrates of the 24-Pergunnahs and Howrah for the co-operation and assistance they have invariably afforded me in extending the Calcutta Police system to the Suburbs. It was looked on with disfavor at first by the people, and was opposed by the Officers of the Court, the Native Mocktears, and, I am sorry to say, by some of the subordinate Magisterial Officers. It is now liked by the people generally, as is proved by the enormous number of applications of every description made daily to the various Police Stations, and, with the aid of the District Magistrate, the whole machinery moves on without jar or hindrance.

18. My own impression is that my superintendence might be extended without difficulty and expense to the large Towns, such as Serampore and Hooghly, and even up both sides of the river for twenty or thirty miles. Calcutta is the Head-Quarters of nearly all the serious crime committed within that radius. There are hundreds of professional thieves, the swell mob of Calcutta, who go regular tours in the interior, and these men are quite unknown to the Mofussil Police. Indeed, they assume so many disguises, and many of them have such an air of respectability and wealth, as to be able to deceive all but the most experienced. Some months ago I sent three detective Officers to a great festival held near Calcutta, where they found more than sixty of this class who would, no doubt, have made a glorious harvest had they not been prevented. In the same manner they go where large bodies of people are congregated, besides travelling singly all over the country.

19. The success of this system of Police must, of course, depend much on the Superintendents of Divisions, and I attribute any which may have attended its introduction to the Suburbs to the exertions and good conduct of Superintendents Littlemore, Mylan, and Percy, who have all given me much satisfaction during the year. The European and Native Officers have generally conducted themselves well, but it is no easy matter to procure men fit to be Native Constables. Nearly the whole of the old Chowkedars have left the Suburbs, and, although I transferred a considerable number from Calcutta, there are many in the service who are raw and of very little use for Police purposes. Time, however, will overcome this, and in a year or two the men will learn their duties and become efficient Officers.

Notification.—The following Despatch from the Secretary of State, on the subject of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated the 17th October 1861, regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the land revenue, together with the Circular instructions this day issued to the Governments of Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab, are published for general information :—

INDIA OFFICE,
London, 9th July 1862.

REVENUE.
No. 14.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

My Lord,—Para. 1. The letter from your Excellency's predecessor in Council, dated 21st October last (No. 18), with which was forwarded a Resolution* which "had been made "public regarding the sale of waste lands in fee "simple, and the redemption of existing land re- "venue," has been under my consideration in Council.

* Dated 17th October 1861.

2. Her Majesty's Government have considered with the greatest care and deliberation the important questions which form the subject of that Resolution, and the still more important question which is necessarily raised by the consideration of them, namely, that of a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India, and I now proceed to communicate to you the conclusions at which they have arrived.

3. The first Section of the Resolution (paragraphs 8 to 37) relates to the grant or sale of waste lands not under assessment.

4. I have perused with the greatest satisfaction the observations contained in paragraph 6 of the Resolution, in which the Government state it to be their "firm conviction that, in order to obtain "permanently good results from" these "mea- "sures, it is indispensable, not only that no violence "be done to the long existing rights which, some- "times in a rude, sometimes in a complicated "form, are possessed by many of the humblest "occupants of the soil in India, but that these "rights be nowhere slighted or even overlooked. "Scrupulous respect for them is one of the most "solemn duties of the Government of India, as "well as its soundest policy, whatever may be "the mode in which that Government may think "fit to deal with rights of its own." Her Majesty's Government cordially participate in these sentiments, and I trust that you will carefully enforce their observance in all parts of India. The mode in which dormant claims on lands now uncultivated and apparently deserted are proposed to be dealt with will be referred to in a subsequent part of this Despatch.

5. The waste lands in different parts of India are found under such varying conditions that it would be difficult, if not impracticable, to deal with all in the same manner. In the greater part of the country no material objection to the proposed plan may perhaps be anticipated; but in distant and wild tracts the case will be widely different. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is confidently "anticipated that harmony of interests "between permanent European settlers and the "half-civilized tribes, by whom most of the waste "Districts and the country adjoining them are "thinly peopled, will conduce to the material and "moral improvement of large classes of the "Queen's Indian subjects, which, for any such "purposes, have long been felt by the Govern- "ment to be almost out of the reach of its ordi- "nary agencies." I cannot but fear that such anticipations are little likely to be realized in frontier Districts, such as the Huzara mountains, the Hilly tracts on our North-Eastern boundary, and other similar localities which are inhabited by warlike and predatory clans. It is assumed that half-civilized tribes will be ready to appreciate a community of interests between the European settlers and themselves. I apprehend, on the contrary, that, passionately attached as they are known to be to their ancestral lands, they might rather regard the intrusion of European strangers as an encroachment and a wrong inflicted on themselves. Differences and quarrels ending in affrays and bloodshed might arise, which would lead to the necessity of employing an armed force for their suppression. Such has been the result of our experience in many of our Colonial possessions, of which a signal example may be found in the recent unhappy occurrences in New Zealand. It is unfortunately the case that situations such as these referred to are, from their climate, the best adapted to European constitutions, and, therefore, not unlikely to attract British settlers; but placed as they are, to use the words of the Resolution, beyond the reach of the ordinary agencies of Government, the necessity of affording protection to such scattered Europeans as might settle on them would render their occupation by British subjects a source, in a political sense, rather of weakness than of strength to the Indian Government, and would certainly involve an amount of expenditure far outweighing any advantages which could be expected from it. I must, therefore, desire that the greatest caution be exercised in allowing grants of land in outlying Districts, where the arrangements for the protection of life and property are still imperfectly organized.

6. It is proposed (paragraph 29) that the price to be set upon waste lands "should not exceed "Rupees 2½ [five shillings] per acre for uncleared "land, or Rupees 5 [ten shillings] per acre for "land unencumbered with jungle, subject to "deduction of area for swamps or uncultivable "land."

7. It is apparently intended to apply this Rule to all lands throughout India, now unassessed and without immediate claimants, with the sole exception (paragraphs 23 and 24) of "special tracts," which, for the public interests, it may be necessary to reserve for future disposal, and of "reserves of "grazing land, or of land for the growth of forest "trees, or of firewood near Towns and Stations, "or for other special purposes, such as sites for "sanitaria, building lots, &c., &c.," which "are "not to be sold without the special sanction of "Government."

8. The proposal to divide all the unassessed and unclaimed lands throughout India into two classes, those which are "encumbered with jungle" and those which are not, and to sell the lands of each class at an uniform price per acre, without any regard to their situation or to their presumed fertility, appears to me to be untenable. A tract enjoying every advantage of soil, climate, and situation, placed perhaps close to a navigable river, or in the immediate vicinity of a projected Railway Station, is to be dealt with as if of no more value than a tract of sandy desert, far removed from all means of irrigation, and even from communication with other Districts. It cannot be supposed that land, although now uncultivated and unclaimed, on the banks, for instance, of the Baree Doab Canal, is worth no more than land situated at five or ten miles beyond its fertilizing influence. Even in the Sunderbuns, to which especial reference is made in the Resolution, I have reason to believe that the proposed Rule of an uniform price would be inapplicable. On the side bordering on the 24-Pergunnahs and Jessore the land is represented to lie low, and to be constantly liable to inundation by salt water, rendering expensive embankments absolutely necessary; whereas on the Backergunge side the land is comparatively high, requiring less protection from the encroachments of the sea, and, in addition, is much more fertile. It cannot surely be contended that lands differing so entirely in their intrinsic value ought to be sold at the same price.

9. For these reasons, and others to which I shall not now refer in detail, Her Majesty's Government cannot approve of the proposal to fix an uniform price for all unassessed and unclaimed land throughout India without reference to locality or situation, and I have accordingly to request that your Excellency in Council will immediately take measures for withdrawing the offer made in paragraph 29 of the Resolution. The several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors should be instructed to fix, after communication with the chief Local Authorities, a minimum price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province, of which a public announcement should be made.

10. In regard to the mode of sale, I am of opinion that the course adopted in many of our Colonies should be pursued; and that the lands applied for should be put up to auction at a minimum or upset price, and sold to the highest bidder. This plan has been followed in the Madras Presidency under the Rules promulgated in August 1859. It is true that, in paragraph 30 of the Resolution, provision is made for the sale by auction of any lot for which more than one intending purchaser may apply; but the proceeding is evidently meant to be exceptional, and the grant is, in all ordinary cases, to be made to the applicant at a fixed price.

11. I observe that, under paragraph 25, "when "the land is unsurveyed, immediate possession "may be given on payment of the Collector's es- "timate of the cost of survey." I am of opinion that this provision should be modified, and that the following course should be pursued. If the land should be unsurveyed the first step will be to survey it, the applicant, of course, depositing the estimated cost of that proceeding. On the completion of the survey, and at once in the case of surveyed land, the boundaries of the plot should be marked out, and an Advertisement should be issued, describing the land to be sold by auction, stating the upset price, and specifying the place and date of sale. At the sale the land will be assigned to the person offering the highest price, or, in the event of no competition, to the applicant at the upset price, the cost of Survey (if made) being added in both cases. The Advertisement should be posted on the land itself, as well as in the neighbouring Villages, and in all other usual places. I consider the previous marking out of the boundaries of the land applied for to be Absolutely indispensable, if only as a means of attracting the attention of the residents in the neighbourhood, by whom the mere issue of an Advertisement might probably pass unnoticed. Thirty days after the publication of that Advertisement, and subject to the considerations hereafter to be adverted to in regard to the necessity of a legislative enactment for disposing of the claims of third persons subsequently preferred, possession might be given to the purchaser.

12. I have also to point out to you that some alteration is required in the language used in the second clause of paragraph 10. It is there stated that, "at the grantee's option, a fixed annual sum "may be paid, at the rate of ten per cent., on any "unpaid portion of the price of the grant which "will then be under hypothecation until the price "is paid in full." This provision is explained in paragraph 28 to mean that interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum is to be charged on any balance of the purchase money which may remain unpaid; but as it stands it is open to the interpretation that the purchase money may be paid off by ten yearly instalments without interest.

13. In order to carry out the provisions contained in paragraphs 17 to 19 of the Resolution legislative action is indispensably necessary. It is therein declared that if, within thirty days of the date of the application (or, as directed in paragraph 11, from the issue of the Advertisement), any prior claim of property or occupancy in the land applied for should be preferred, such claim is to be "disposed of," and, apparently, satisfied by the applicant himself. If, however, after the expiration of the thirty days, when the formal allotment of the land will have taken place, "any person shall "establish a right of property in the land so "allotted, the possession of the party to whom "the land has been granted bond fide shall not be "disturbed. But, provided the claim be made "within one year from the allotment, the "claimant, on proof of his right, and on shewing "good reason why his claim was not advanced "before the allotment was made, shall be entitled "to receive from the Government full compensa-"tion for the actual value of his interest in such "land. After the expiration of a year all rights "of third persons which have not been already "claimed will be altogether barred, as well in "regard to compensation as against the land," subject, however, to such exceptions as are admitted by the existing law of limitation.

14. It appears to me impossible that, in any country possessing regular tribunals a Resolution of the Executive Government would be held to override the existing law. Suppose that a man within the first year "establishes a right of property" in land which has been "allotted" by Government to another. He is not, however, according to the Resolution, to be put in possession of the land, because the possession of the party to whom the land has been granted must not be disturbed; he is only to receive full compensation for the actual value of his interest. But the man may decline the compensation, and demand the land. In such a case I apprehend the Courts would have no alternative but to decree possession. He may also fail to establish his right within the first year, but may succeed in establishing it ten years later. In this case, too, I presume, the Courts must uphold the existing law, and would refuse to recognize any arbitrary curtailment, by a Resolution of the Government, of the time of limitation which that law lays down.

15. It may be argued that such claims will seldom or never be preferred in respect to lands in such tracts of wild and uncultivated country as were mainly in view when the Resolution was under preparation. Even this supposition is very doubtful. Throughout the wilds of the Sunderbuns, as soon as the Government manifested a desire to dispose of the land to grantees, every acre of the forest was claimed by the Zemindars of the adjoining Districts, as included in their permanently-settled Estates, and a legislative enactment was required to dispose of these pretensions. In other parts of India much land that is now, and has long been, waste and unclaimed, was formerly, and within no remote period, populous and fully cultivated. The descendants of the old proprietors know their rights, although they may have allowed them to lie dormant while no object was to be gained by asserting them. They may have emigrated to distant Villages, and may not even hear of the allotment of their ancestral lands to strangers till long after the period prescribed in your Resolution. Whatever may be the strict letter of the law of limitation, as defined by the Act of 1859, the habits and feelings of the people are undoubtedly in favor of the rights derived from ancestral possession, however long the time may be during which they have remained unclaimed. Even, admitting that a suit for the recovery of land after twelve years' adverse possession would be barred by the existing law, I apprehend that the cause of action would be held to lie only from the date of allotment, and that the possession of the grantee would be at any time liable to disturbance until after that period had expired.

16. But the objection to the measure is much stronger when applied to ryotwarry Districts, in which, it is declared in paragraph 35, "lands "for which an assessment has been fixed, "but which have been uncultivated for five "years or upwards, and which are at the "absolute disposal of the Government, may be "sold under the same conditions as unassessed "waste land, excepting that the price shall be "twenty years' purchase of the assessment." If this provision be acted on there can be little question that claimants without number will spring up, possessing rights hitherto held to be indefeasible under meerassee and other similar tenures in Madras and Bombay, or the jenmi tenures in Malabar, causing a most serious amount of embarrassment to the Local Governments.

17. The whole question requires deliberate and mature consideration. Under any circumstances I am of opinion that the greatest caution will be required in making grants of land, irrespective of claims which may subsequently be advanced by third parties, except within tracts of country in which there may be a reasonable approach to certainty that valid claims will not be put forward, or, at any rate, to no considerable extent. If it should be deemed expedient to bar by law the right of re-entry on the land after so short a period as thirty days, the right to compensation should, at all events, remain in force for a longer period. The necessary provision in both cases can obviously be effected only through the means of a legislative enactment. The mode of assessing the compensation to be awarded in such cases should, of course, be clearly laid down by law, and the amount should have reference only to the value of the interest at the date of allotment, irrespective of any increased value which might subsequently be given to the land by the labor or expenditure of the grantee.

18. The Rules contained in paragraphs 31 and 32 for reserving adjoining lands for grantees under certain conditions must, it appears to me, be abrogated, as inconsistent with the plan of auction sales now ordered. The actual possessor of any grant will be able to become the purchaser of any additional land which he may require simply by offering a higher price than any one else is willing to give.

19. The provisions for the commutation of existing grants into grants under the new Rules, and for the redemption of the rent on unassessed lands already granted, contained in paragraphs 33 and 50, obviously require revision. In the latter of these paragraphs it is stated that "grants which "have already been given for a term of years at "progressively increasing rents, such as those in "the Sunderbuns, will be treated as if the land "were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes "to redeem the future land revenue, at the high-"est rate fixed for any year during the currency

" of the grant, provided it shall not exceed the rate " fixed in paragraph 29 of this Resolution, and if " there is no right of occupancy other than that of " the lessee or that derived from him."

20. It is evident from the letter under reply that this provision was not intended to include grants on the Neilgherry or Shervaroy Hills, or in Wynaad, as they are specially referred to as " lands which, being assessed at one Rupee per " acre, will not be purchaseable for less than " twenty Rupees an acre." The words, however, of the Rule are, as it appears to me, wide enough to include not only the holders of such grants, but also such cases as that of the land granted to Mr. Atherton at Kangra, which forms the subject of the second of Lord Stanley's Despatches referred to. He was permitted to purchase the proprietary right over 1,000 acres of land for the sum of Rupees 1,500, subject to an assessment of four annas an acre, which, at the expiration of the existing settlement, was liable to be raised to one Rupee per acre. In both cases it would seem that the grantees might claim to hold their lands discharged of all future payments by tendering the maximum price of Rupees 5 per acre, after deducting, in the latter, the balance already paid.

21. In order to prevent such a result, I have to desire that so much of paragraph 50 as provides that the price to be paid for the redemption of the land revenue on grants already made shall in no case exceed the rate fixed for lands newly granted may be withdrawn.

22. It is declared in paragraph 37 that " the " tenure of all waste lands granted under this " Resolution will be that of an heritable and trans- " ferable property, held in perpetuity, free from " all claims, either of the Government or of third " parties, prior to or inconsistent with the grant." It must be made perfectly clear by the terms of the grant that the " claims of Government" herein mentioned include only claims on account of land revenue, and do not extend to exempt the possessor of the grant from general taxes, such as those on income; nor from local rates which may hereafter be imposed throughout the District for the construction or maintenance of roads, or for other purposes.

23. I now proceed to that which is by far the most important portion of the Resolution, viz., the redemption of the land revenue.

24. This measure has generally been advocated with the object of promoting the settlement of Europeans in India. In paragraph 4 of the Resolution it is remarked that " the best results to " the people of India may be looked for from the " settlement of Europeans in climates in which " they can live and occupy themselves without " detriment to their health, and whence they may " direct such improvements as European capital, " skill, and enterprise can effect in the agriculture, " communications, and commerce of the surround- " ing country." I fully admit the advantages which have arisen, and which in future are likely to arise from the settlement of Europeans in many parts of India, by the introduction of new or improved processes of agriculture and manufactures, and by the moral influence of their example on the neighbouring population; and I am most anxious that every facility should be given to persons desirous of settling in India with that object in view.

25. It appears to me, however, that an extension of the practice which is pursued in some Districts, particularly in the Hilly tracts of the Madras Presidency, would amply provide for any extent of redemption with a view to such settlement which would be likely to take place. It does not seem probable that the permission to redeem would be taken advantage of, except in a comparatively small number of cases. The rate of interest which can be obtained in ordinary transactions so far exceeds that which an investment in the purchase of the land assessment would afford that few persons would be likely to adopt that course. The permission given to the settlers in the Neilgherry, Shervaroy, and Pulney Hills to redeem their land tax at twenty years' purchase has not, so far as I am informed, been acted on in a single instance; and the very inconsiderable extent to which the Inamdars of the Madras Presidency, and the owners of property within the Collectorates of Calcutta and Madras, have taken advantage of the power to redeem their quit-rents by a single payment, leads also to the conclusion that only a very few persons would be disposed to avail themselves of the offer.

26. If the power of redeeming was extended at the discretion of the local Governments so as to include lands required for dwelling houses, factories, gardens, plantations, and other similar purposes, it would probably meet every case for which provision need be made. This permission to redeem the land assessment should extend to portions of land comprised within Zemindarries, the jumma of which is not redeemed, a proportionate reduction being, of course, made in the jumma payable to Government.

27. Such a measure, however, would only be a narrow and partial character. The benefit of it would be confined to comparatively very few persons, even if some natives were found to avail themselves of it.

28. But the measure contemplated in Lord Stanley's Despatch, and in the Resolution under discussion, has a much wider scope, and larger and more serious questions arise in the consideration of it than would appear at first sight to be involved.

29. The redemption of the land revenue is authorized, both on lands permanently-settled and on lands temporarily-settled; and " the price " to be paid is fixed at twenty years' purchase of " the existing assessment," the only limitation being that in every District the permission of redemption shall, in the first instance, be restricted to such a number of Estates as shall, in their aggregate assessment, not exceed ten per cent. of the total land revenue.

30. As regards the former, viz., the permanently-settled Estates, no practical difficulty exists if redemption is to be allowed at all as a general measure, a question which will hereafter be considered. The only matter for discussion is the price to be demanded for it.

31. It is remarked in the Resolution that " justice to the public creditor and a due care for " the resources of the Government require that, " as long as the public revenue is no more than " sufficient to meet the current charges of the " Empire and the interest of its debt, no lower " terms of redemption of a permanent tax form- " ing the security for that debt should be accept- " ed than will, when the price is invested in the " public securities, afford a corresponding relief " in the payment of interest."

32. The words here used appear to refer to the instructions in Lord Stanley's Despatch of the 31st December (No. 2) 1858. But it is clear that the object avowedly in view would not be attained by pursuing the course proposed in the Resolution. So long as the Notes of the 5 per cent. loans are purchaseable at par, the extinction of a perpetual annuity may be effected without loss by the payment of twenty times its amount. If, however, as anticipated in that Despatch, a reduction of interest on the public debt should take place—such, for example, as would arise from the 4 per cent. loan becoming saleable at par—it is clear that the same purpose could only be accomplished by requiring a sum equivalent to twenty five years' purchase of the perpetual annuity, or, in other words, of the jumma of the permanently-settled Estate. In this country the redemption of the land tax is, by the existing Acts of Paliament, permitted on the payment of a capital sum varying according to the actual price at the time of Government Stock, and for this purpose the 3 per cent. consolidated annuities, which constitute by far the largest portion of the public debt and bear the lowest rate of interest, are taken as the basis of calculation.

33. When, however, it is proposed to apply the measure to lands under temporary settlement, much more serious questions arise, involving the most important change in the tenure of land throughout the greater part of India.

34. It was stated in Lord Stanley's Despatch of December 1858, that the redemption of the land assessment must necessarily operate as a permanent settlement of the revenue on the lands to which it was applied at the amount of the present assessment, and it is obvious, on the slightest consideration, that this must be the case.

35. We must be prepared then to deal with the measure as effecting, to the extent to which it may be carried, a permanent settlement of the land revenue of India; and it becomes necessary to consider in all its bearings that most serious question which has for so many years been the subject of controversy, and has been viewed in such opposite lights by many of the ablest men who have given their attention to the most important matters of financial and social interest affecting that Empire. Whatever advantages or disadvantages are anticipated from a direct permanent settlement will be equally caused by the indirect mode of attaining the same object by a redemption of the land assessment.

36. Before entering, however, on the general considerations affecting such a measure, I will advert to those which are peculiar to the proposal of redeeming the assessment. Even if the measure be limited to the redemption of one-tenth of the assessment in any District, it appears to me that a very serious difficulty presents itself at the outset. Unless the fair and equal bearing of the assessment on the estates or classes of land which it comprises be first ascertained, it is almost inevitable that loss will be incurred by the State. In all revisions of settlement, even where no increase of the aggregate revenue is obtained, or even expected, it is generally found that, while some Estates or classes of land many fairly be subjected to an increased assessment, others will require an abatement, although the majority may probably be left at the existing rates. It is obvious that if a right of redeeming their assessment, by the payment of a capital sum be given to the landholders to the extent of one-tenth of the aggregate revenue of every District, the owners of those Estates will be most anxious to avail themselves of it in which the assessment is the lowest in proportion to the value of the land. On Estates where the assessment is so redeemed, the State will necessarily be precluded from raising it at any future period. On the other hand, the redemption being optional, the owners of land on which the assessment may now press unduly would of course decline to avail themselves of the permission, and they could not fairly be deprived of the relief for which they might reasonably look at the next revision of settlement, because others had taken advantage of it and redeemed their assessment. By this arrangement, therefore, the Government is clearly subjected to a prospective loss. Before redemption can be permitted in any District it is indispensable, therefore, to ascertain that the assessment bears equally on all the Estates or classes of land within it.

37. It is of course impossible to foresee to what extent the owners of land would be disposed to avail themselves of permission to redeem the assessment, but we must be prepared to meet the consequences of the disposition becoming general.

38. If the disposition to redeem should exist to any great extent, and if the power of so doing is to be held out as a boon to the landowners generally, it is difficult to see on what principle the permission could be restricted to such proportion of them only as pay one-tenth of the assessment in each District. The whole benefit of such a limited measure might be appropiated by a few wealthy landowners, and no advantage whatever would be derived from it by the great mass of the occupiers of land. The latter body would complain, and I think with good reason, of being unfairly and unjustly treated. It is this class, however, whose condition it is so manifestly the interest of the Government to raise, and whose attachment it is so desirable to secure. It seems to me, therefore, that if we go so far as to give a right to redeem to the extent of one-tenth of the assessment, it is impossible to stop at that point. We must go further and contemplate a general right to redeem the land assessment.

39. Now, even as regards redemption to the extent of one-tenth, there is a consequence which does not seem to have been foreseen, and which, if the redemption were to become general, would produce great difficulty. The amount of capital which would be required incalculably exceeds what can be supposed to be in the hands of the landowners. Nor, indeed, if they were in a condition to provide such a sum, would it be desirable that so large an amount should be placed at the disposal of the Government, which would find itself in the embarrassing position of having its treasury overflowing with money arising from the capitalization of its annual income, which it would have no adequate means of employing or investing.

40. The objection arising from capitalizing the income of the State and depriving it in future years of the steady and stable resource of the land revenue, on which it can, under all circumstances, confidently rely, is most serious. It is not a consideration of slight importance that of all sources of revenue none is so easily collected, and none more willingly paid. Her Majesty's Government would be sorry to deprive the Government of India in future years of this large and most unobjectionable portion of their income, which the people have been immemorially accustomed to contribute, and which, consequently, all the authority of prescription and tradition in its favor. These considerations seem to me to be fatal to a scheme of general, or even of a very extensive, redemption of the land revenue.

41. A direct permanent settlement of the land revenue is free from this objection, and it remains, therefore, to discuss this most important question, and to weigh with the greatest care all the considerations by which it ought to be determined.

42. The land revenue of India, as of all eastern countries, is less to be regarded as a tax on the landowners than as the result of a kind of joint ownership in the soil or its produce, under which the latter is divided, in unequal and generally undefined proportions, between the ostensible proprietors and the State. It is not only just but necessary for the security of the landowner that the respective shares in the produce should, at any given period, or for specified terms, be strictly limited and defined. The increase of population, the improvement of communications, and the accumulation of wealth have a tendency to increase the extent of cultivation and the value of the net produce or rent, and the Government may rightly claim to participate in those advantages which accrue from the general progress of society. This has hitherto been effected by means of periodical adjustments of the share, or at least of its value in money which belongs to the State.

43. By many persons great advantages have been anticipated from what is usually called a permanent settlement, that is, by the State fixing, once and for ever, the demand on the produce of the land, and foregoing all prospect of any future increase from that source. It has been urged that not only would a general feeling of contentment be diffused among the landholders, but that they would thereby become attached, by the strongest ties of personal interest, to the Government by which that permanency is guaranteed: It is further alleged that by this means only can sufficient inducement be afforded to the proprietors to lay out capital on the land, and to introduce improvements by which the wealth and prosperity of the country would be increased.

44. In this country these views have been put forward mainly in reference to the settlement of Europeans in India, but they are clearly applicable to the occupiers of land generally throughout India. They have been entertained by many of our ablest Officers, and they have recently been advocated by the late lamented Colonel Baird Smith, in relation to their probable effect on the agricultural population of the North-West Provinces. In his Report on the remedial measures required in those Districts which had suffered most severely in the late famine, he strongly recommends that a permanent settlement should be accorded whenever the land revenue now assessed may reasonably be assumed to have reached its probable limit. That recommendation was based both on social and financial grounds, and was founded on his conviction of the great benefits which had accrued to the country from the demand of the Government having been declared unalterable for a period of thirty years. He desired to confirm and accelerate the improvement which he had witnessed by strengthening the motives which, in his opinion, had produced it. It was his belief that this object could be most effectually attained by the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity instead of only for a limited term.

45. On the other hand, it has been urged that the consequence of a permanent settlement of the land revenue is to preclude the Government from ever obtaining any future augmentation of income from this source; and, considering that the experience of all countries advancing in civilization demonstrates that the cost of administration is constantly tending to increase, it follows that the additional charge which will fall on the Government must of necessity be met by taxation in some shape, such as Customs, Excise, Salt, Stamp, or Income duties. Colonel Baird Smith, in the able paper already referred to, admits that this result will take place; but he argues (paragraph 64) that any sacrifice of public revenue involved in the concession of a demand fixed in perpetuity would be more than compensated by the increased ability of the people generally to bear taxation, direct or indirect, which would necessarily follow on the improvement in their social condition. An "intelligent and powerful Government," he says, "could not fail to participate in these "advantages." "Its intelligence would direct "it to the least offensive and most effective "means of sharing in the general prosperity, and "its power would ensure the fair trial and ulti-"mate success of those means."

46. It is a serious and difficult question to determine by which course the interests of India will be best promoted. Before deciding on any step by which the prospect of any future increase of land revenue is given up it must be very carefully considered how far, on the whole, it is likely that the possible sacrifice of increased revenue from this source will be made up by the greater ability of the people to contribute in other ways to the public income, and whether it will be for the general interest to purchase at this price the social and political advantages which have been adverted to.

47. Her Majesty's Government entertain no doubt of the political advantages which would attend a permanent settlement. The security, and, it may almost be said, the absolute creation of property in the soil which will flow from limitation in perpetuity of the demands of the State on the owners of land, cannot fail to stimulate or confirm their sentiments of attachment and loyalty to the Government by whom so great a boon has been conceded, and on whose existence its permanency will depend.

48. It is also most desirable that facilities should be given for the gradual growth of a middle class connected with the land, without dispossessing the peasant proprietors and occupiers. It is believed that among the latter may be found many men of great intelligence, public spirit, and social influence, although individually in comparative poverty. To give to the intelligent, the thrifty, and the enterprising the means of improving their condition, by opening to them the opportunity of exercising these qualities, can be best accomplished by limiting the public demand on their lands. When such men acquire property, and find themselves in a thriving condition, they are certain to be well effected towards the Government under which they live. It is on the contentment of the agricultural classes, who from the great bulk of the population, that the security of the Government mainly depends. If they are prosperous, any casual outbreak on the part of other classes or bodies of men is much less likely to become an element of danger, and the Military Force and its consequent expense may be regulated accordingly.

49. The strongest opponents of a permanent settlement would probably admit the political and social advantages of such a measure. Their main argument against it is based on the financial consideration that, by means of temporary settlements, the land revenue might be raised, from time to time, according to the expected rise in the value of land, and that, by this means also, the loss might be avoided, which, in all cases of fixed money payments, must ensue if a depreciation of the value of the precious metals should take place.

50. It is indispensable, of course, that whether with a view to redemption, even to the extent of one-tenth of the revenue, or to a permanent settlement, the preliminary step of a revision of the present assessment must be taken. In the first instance, whichever course may be finally adopted, a full, fair, and equable rent must be imposed on all lands now under temporary settlement; and, when that has been accomplished, Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that a permanent settlement may be safely applied. This was the course recommended by one of the ablest and most distinguished men who ever was called on to bear a part in the administration of British India. In his celebrated Minute of the 31st December 1824, Sir Thomas Munro, then Governor of the Presidency of Madras, several times refers to this subject, and particularly in the following passage: "No survey assessment of a great Province," he says, "can ever at once be "made so correct as not to require future alteration; "when, therefore, it has been completed with as "much care as possible, a trial should always be "made of it for six or seven years. This period "will be sufficient to discover all defects in the "assessment. A general revision of it should then "be made, and wherever it might be found too high "it should be lowered, and it may then, with safety "to the revenue and benefit to the people, be made "permanent."

51. When once the rent has been properly fixed, any increase consequent on the natural progress of society will in all probability take place but slowly, and reach no great amount until after a considerable interval. It must be remembered that, in all the revisions of settlement which have taken place of late years, the tendency has been towards a reduction in the rates of assessment. Whenever the settlements have been carefully made, and the capabilities of the country have been well ascertained, the probability of any considerable increase of land revenue appears to be but slight.

52. The necessity for the reduction above noticed seems to have been caused mainly by the depreciation in the value of the crops from the increased production consequent on the greater tranquillity of the country under British rule. There are at present symptoms of a rise in the price of agricultural produce, caused probably, to a great extent, by the increased employment of labor in the construction of Railways and other public works. But the Railways, when completed, while they will contribute largely to the development of the resources of India, may, in some degree, counteract this tendency. The great differences in the price of food in Districts at no great distance from each other, so that while one was in a condition bordering on famine, others enjoyed comparative plenty, will cease to exist, at least to the same extent, when ready and cheap means of transport shall have been provided. Produce from the interior will be more readily brought to the centres of consumption or of exportation, and the value of land in the interior will be thereby increased; but, on the other hand, the value of the produce of land near large towns and the coast will be reduced by the competition of the produce of the interior. The probable effect of the Railroads would seem to be towards the equalization of the prices of produce in different parts of India, and a general improvement in the wealth of all classes of the country, rather than to give any peculiar advantage to the landholders.

53. That this general improvement will be accelerated by a permanent settlement Her Majesty's Government cannot entertain any doubt. A ready and popular mode of investment for the increasing wealth of the country will be provided by the creation of property in land, and all classes will benefit by the measure. On the agricultural population the effect will be, as pointed out by Colonel Baird Smith in the able paper already referred to, the elevation of the social condition of the people, and their consequent ability, not only to meet successfully the pressure occasioned by seasons of distress, but, in ordinary times, to bear increased taxation in other forms without difficulty; the feeling of ownership, or, in other words, the absolute certainty of the full enjoyment of the reward for all the labor and capital which they may invest in the land, will be sure to call out all their energies for its improvement. Her Majesty's Government confidently expect that a people in a state of contentment and progressive improvement will be able without difficulty to contribute to the revenue in other ways to such an extent as more than to compensate for the disadvantage of foregoing some prospective increase of that from land.

54. The example of Tanjore may be cited in confirmation of this view. It has been for many years so moderately assessed that a feeling of private property in the soil has continued to exist among the people to such an extent that land sells, on an average, for twenty years' purchase. This District is eminently one in which a permanent settlement might properly be established; and that such a measure would lead to no loss of public income may be inferred from the fact that in it the receipts from Salt, Abkarry, and Stamps have in ten years risen from Rupees 6,54,500 to Rupees 9,50,500, or nearly 48 per cent.

Minutes by Sir C. E. Trevelyan, dated 18th and 28th January 1860.

55. It must also be remembered that all revisions of assessment, although occurring only at intervals of thirty years, nevertheless demand, for a considerable time previous to their expiration, much of the attention of the most experienced Civil Officers whose services can be ill spared from their regular administrative duties. Under the best arrangements the operation cannot fail to be harassing, vexatious, and, perhaps, even oppressive to the people affected by it. The work can only be accomplished by the aid of large establishments of native ministerial Officers, who must, of necessity, have great opportunities for peculation, extortion, and abuse of power. Moreover, as the period for re-settlement approaches the agricultural classes, with the view of evading a true estimate of the actual value of their lands, contract their cultivation, cease to grow the most profitable crops, and allow wells and watercourses to fall into decay. These practices are certainly more detrimental to themselves than to the Government, but their can be no question that they prevail extensively. The remedy for these evils, the needless occupation of the valuable time of the public Officers employed in the revision, the extortion of the subordinate officials, and the loss of wealth to the community from the deterioration of cultivation, lies in a permanent settlement of the land revenue.

56. The course of events which has been anticipated is, indeed, only that which has taken place in every civilized country. Experience shews that in their early stages nations derived almost the whole of their public resources in a direct manner from the produce of the soil, but that as they grew in wealth and civilization, the basis of taxation has been changed, and the revenue has been in a great degree derived indirectly by means of imposts on articles which the increasing means of the people, consequent on a state of security and prosperty, have enabled them to consume in greater abundance. I am aware that it has been stated as an objection to promoting such a course of things in India, that, in most European countries, the advantages of this change have been mainly appropriated by the large landowners; but it must be remembered that in India, and especially in the Districts under ryotwarry settlement, the great bulk of the agricultural population are the proprietors, subject only to the payment of the assessment, of the lands which they till; and that, consequently, the benefit of a permanent settlement would be enjoyed, not by a narrow and limited class, but by the majority of the people.

57. The apprehension of a possible fall in the relative value of money, which has been previously noticed, though deserving consideration, does not seem to Her Majesty's Government to be of sufficient moment to influence their judgment to any material extent in disposing of this important question.

58. After the most careful review of all these considerations Her Majesty's Government are of opinion that the advantages which may reasonably be expected to accrue not only to those immediately connected with the land, but to the community generally, are sufficiently great to justify them in incurring the risk of some prospective loss of land revenue in order to attain them, and that a settlement in perpetuity in all Districts in which the conditions absolutely required as preliminary to such a measure are, or may hereafter be, fulfilled, is a measure dictated by sound policy, and calculated to accelerate the development of the resources of India, and to ensure, in the highest degree, the welfare and contentment of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects in that country.

59. They consider that the direct mode of making a permanent settlement is preferable to the indirect one of obtaining a similar result by conceding to the landholders the right to redeem their assessment. They do not believe that the power to redeem the land revenue is necessary to induce the landholders to incur expenditure in the improvement of their property. What is really required, in order to call into effective action their enterprise and capital, is not an exemption from all payments to the Government on account of their Estates, but the fixing those payments in perpetuity at a moderate and certain amount. In Bengal, where a permanent settlement was made with the Zemindars seventy years ago, the general progress of the country in wealth and prosperity, notwithstanding the depressed condition of the peasantry, caused by errors and omissions in the mode of making the settlement, has been most remarkable. Such errors in the existing state of our knowledge regarding the rights and interests of the subordinate occupants of the soil would not be permitted to recur.

60. It must be remembered that, with a view to attaining the objects aimed at, of improving the condition of the people, and enabling them to contribute in other ways to the public revenue, it is essential that the measure should be generally brought into operation. The improved condition of a limited number and of an exceptional class would add little to the contentment of the population or to the resources of the public treasury. No measure can be really effective for such purposes unless it can be brought to bear on the general mass of the population.

61. Although, therefore, the acquisition of a permanent tenure free from rent might be more acceptable to the European capitalist, it is certain that, to the native agricultural population of India, who do not possess capital, permanency of tenure, and fixity of rent will afford all that they require, or from which they could derive any benefit. To hold out to them as a boon the offer of redemption, of which hardly any one could avail himself, would be merely illusory, nor would the object be attained which is prescribed in Lord Stanley's Despatch, that in any recommendation which might be submitted the proposed benefits should be participated in by the agricultural community generally. By the Madras freehold rules it was at first directed that the sales should be made without any reservation of rent, but the Planters complained that the capital required for clearing the forest would be exhausted in paying the purchase money. The capital which would be absorbed in purchasing the fee simple and redeeming the land tax would be more profitably expended in improving the land.

62. In either case, whether the land revenue were redeemed, or its amount fixed in perpetuity, the benefit of all improvements would equally go into the pocket of the landholder, nor could he have any difficulty in paying the moderate rent which is now universally fixed on revising the assessments.

63. Her Majesty's Government have therefore determined to limit the power of redeeming the land revenue to such cases as are referred to above in paragraph 26; but they have resolved to sanction a permanent settlement of the land revenue throughout India. It will, however, still remain to be determined how far any particular District is in a condition to warrant the practical application of the measure at the present time.

64. There are doubtless parts of the North-Western Provinces, and probably of the Punjab, where so large a proportion of the soil was already under cultivation when the existing settlements were made, that, assuming the rates of assessment to have been fairly adjusted to the capabilities of the land, little or no increase can be expected in the revenue on the revision which will take place on the expiration of those settlements. Such Districts, provided that the assessment is not only adequate in amount, but also equally distributed, may be considered to be in a condition in which the introduction of a permanent settlement might properly be permitted.

65. In other parts of these Provinces a large proportion of the land is still uncultivated, and does not, consequently, yield to the public treasury a return commensurate with its prospective capabilities; while in recently acquired territories, such as Oudh and Nagpore, which are still unsurveyed, no means exist for determining either the adequacy of the amount, or the equality of the pressure of the present assessment.

66. In the ryotwarry Districts of Madras and Bombay the difficulties in the way of a permanent settlement appear to Her Majesty's Government to be the greatest.

67. In the former Presidency the revision of the assessment for the purpose of bringing it into accordance with the present circumstances of the people and the country has only recently been commenced. The existing settlement records, which determine the supposed extent of each holding, and, by consequence, the actual rate of assessment, are in many cases untrustworthy. It is true that by the increase of cultivation, which has ensued on the reduction of the assessment on the higher classes of land, a greater aggregate revenue has been obtained; and, although some increase may be found practicable in the rates on the lower classes, it is probable that the general result will be a reduction in the average rates. At all events there is ample evidence that the actual incidence of the assessment as regards particular fields or estates requires careful readjustment. It was with the view of equalizing the pressure of the assessment, and with no desire or expectation of increasing its amount, that the arrangements now in progress, estimated to cost at least three-quarters of a million sterling, were sanctioned by the Home Authorities.

68. In Bombay the revised assessment, though still in progress, has been, throughout a large portion of the Presidency, for many years in operation. It is well understood that the existing rates were adapted rather to the depressed circumstances of the agricultural population at the time when they were imposed than to the prospective capabilities of the soil. The measure has been in all respects successful, and it is believed that the condition of the people has advanced so rapidly that on its revision a very considerable increase may be effected in the rates without any undue pressure on the resources of the people.

69. Her Majesty's Government consider, therefore, that, although for different reasons, these two Presidencies are not at present generally in a condition which would warrant them in authorizing a permanent settlement of the land revenue on the assessed lands at the existing rates. In both Presidencies, however, as Districts are gradually brought under the revised assessment, and when there is no reason to believe that the land revenue has not only reached its probable limit, but that it is equitably distributed over the lands effected by it, this restriction will no longer be needed.

70. It is obvious that the process of introducing a permanent settlement must be very gradual, and this circumstance is not without its advantages. It would be impossible at one time to provide Establishments large enough for a general revision of the assessment throughout the whole of India, and the effect of the measure may be watched in its progress. If any unforeseen difficulties occur there will be time to take measures for obviating them. If the anticipations of a rise in the value of land, or of a depreciation in that of the precious metals, should be realized, any loss from these sources could be avoided in subsequent settlements, and the principal objections to the measure would be in great measure disposed of.

71. It is to be hoped that the greater interest which the influential classes would acquire in the preservation of peace and order might enable the Government to reduce its Military Establishments, at any rate to such an extent as to provide for the increased charge of civil administration, which improvements in civilization always render necessary.

72. I have therefore to announce to your Excellency in Council, as the result of the foregoing considerations, that, as regards all Districts or parts of Districts in which no considerable increase is to be expected in the land revenue, and where its equitable apportionment has already been, or may hereafter be, ascertained to your satisfaction, Her Majesty's Government will be ready to sanction, on your recommendation, or that of the local Government supported by you, the settlement, in perpetuity, of the assessment at the present or the revised rates.

73. I have accordingly to request that you will place yourselves in communication with the several local Governments, in order to ascertain from them the extent to which, in their judgment, it may be expedient to apply this important measure to the territories under their immediate administration. In the North-West Provinces, where the revision of the thirty years' settlement has already commenced, it is possible that several Districts are now in a condition to justify immediate action. In the Presidency of Madras the result of the survey and settlement operations which have been recently commenced will shew how far the Districts have yet attained the condition contemplated by Sir Thomas Munro, in the extract already quoted, as warranting the establishment of a settlement in perpetuity; while, in the revised portions of the Bombay Presidency, it will probably be deemed prudent to await the expiration of the thirty years' leases, which will begin to expire in three or four years, before taking any steps for giving permanency to existing arrangements.

74. I must remind you that, wherever a permanent settlement is made directly with individuals or communities for Estates in which other persons possess subordinate rites and interests, those rights and interests should be guarded with the greatest care, so as to avoid the errors which are now acknowledged to have been commited in respect to the permanent settlement of Bengal.

75. With regard to the investment of the amount which may be received by the Government from the sale of waste lands, or in commutation of land revenue, I observe that it is declared, in paragraph 56 of the Resolution, that, "with a "view to secure the Government and the public "creditor against any loss of existing sources of "Government income, provision will be made by "law that all sums paid in purchase of waste lands, "or in redemption of land revenue, or in other-"wise forestalling the land revenue, shall be paid "to Commissioners, and periodically invested in "such manner as the law may direct;" and that the Reports of the Commissioners shall be regularly published. In reference to this arrangement I have to desire that all moneys received on these accounts should be invested, not periodically, but as soon as practicable, and, as a rule, in the 4 per cent. loan. The price of redemption should be variable according to the actual value at the time of that stock, so that the amount paid, when so invested, may produce a dividend equivalent to the annual revenue which will thereon cease to be received.

76. Your Excellency in Council will understand that the instructions contained in this Despatch supersede at once the provisions of the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 so far as they are inconsistent with them, and that fresh regulations must be prepared and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty's Government. It is not, however, intended that these orders should have retrospective effect, and if any arrangements, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of land revenue, have been actually completed under the provisions of the Resolution, they must, so far as is compatible with the law, be scrupulously carried into effect. You will, however, furnish me with a special report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements may have been made.

77. Copies of this Despatch will be forwarded for the information and guidance of the Governments of Madras and Bombay.

I have, &c.,

No. 4206.

Revenue.

The 15th August 1862.

To the Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.
" " " N. W. Provinces.
" " " Punjab and its Dependencies.

Sir,—With reference to the correspondence noted on the margin, I am desired to transmit, for the information and guidance of the Lieutenant-Governor, copy of a Despatch* received from the Secretary of State regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the existing land revenue.

* Revenue, No. 14, dated 9th July 1862.

2. It is desirable that Rules for regulating the sale of waste lands should be prepared, with as little delay as possible, in conformity with the modified provisions now prescribed by Her Majesty's Government; but it will be observed that all arrangements which have been already completed under the terms of the Resolution promulgated by the Government of India last October, in regard either to the purchase of waste lands or the redemption of the land revenue, are to be maintained, the present Despatch not being intended to have retrospective effect. Referring to the concluding words of the 76th paragraph of the Secretary of State's Despatch, I am desired to request that a Report shewing the extent to which any such arrangements have been made may be furnished as soon as possible.

3. As regards the sale of waste lands, the principal points upon which the provisions of the Resolution of October last must be modified, in conformity with the instructions now received, are as follows:—

4. Paragraph 29 of the Resolution, which fixed a uniform price throughout India of 2½ Rupees per acre for uncleared land, and of 5 Rupees per acre for land unencumbered with jungle, is cancelled; and it is ordered that the several Governments and Lieutenant-Governors shall fix, after communication with the chief Local Authorities, a minimum price suited to the circumstances of the various descriptions of land which they may find to be at their disposal in each District of their Presidency or Province.

5. In modification of paragraph 30 of the Resolution, which prescribed the sale of the land by auction in the event of more purchasers than one being desirous to buy the same tract, it is ordered that in every case the land shall be put up to auction at an upset price and sold to the highest bidder.

6. The provision contained in paragraph 25 of the Resolution, admitting of possession being given to an applicant for land in anticipation of survey, will be modified as directed in paragraph 11 of the accompanying Despatch. In conformity with these directions the land applied for must, in every instance, be surveyed, and the boundaries marked out before it is advertised for sale. The applicant for the grant, it will be observed, is to be required to deposit the estimated cost of the survey, which will, of course, be restored to him if he should be eventually outbid for the land. It is of great importance that a ready agency should be provided for effecting the preliminary survey and marking out of boundaries, so that applicants for land may be subjected to no unnecessary delay.

7. The provision which is made in paragraph 31 of the Resolution for reserving adjoining lands at the requisition of those who take grants must be regarded as withdrawn, it being inconsistent with the general injunction for resort to sale by auction.

8. In the 21st paragraph of the Despatch, herewith enclosed, it is ordered that the provision in paragraph 50 of the Resolution, which limits the price to be paid in the commutation of a grant under the terms of that paragraph to 5 Rupees an acre, shall be withdrawn. It is also observed by the Secretary of State that the provisions generally which relate to the commutation of existing grants under the new Rules contained in paragraphs 38 and 50 of the Resolution require revision.

9. As it has already been found that some misunderstanding prevails in regard to the intention and scope of these paragraphs, it seems desirable that the present opportunity should be taken of stating what the Governor General in Council understands to have been their purpose. It appears to the Governor General in Council that it cannot reasonably be maintained that paragraph 33 of the Resolution was intended to include land the absolute sale of which has already been effected, but for which the purchase money has not been wholly paid up, being, by the terms of sale, payable by instalments. It is obvious that in such a case there could be no question of the applicability or the inapplicability of the limitation of the new Rules as to area, inasmuch as the owner has already purchased absolutely the whole area in his possession whatever it may be,

and, therefore, though he may not have paid the whole of the purchase money, it is manifest that the permission accorded by the concluding words of the paragraph to purchase absolutely as much or as little of the area as may suit him, has no application to and could not possibly have contemplated any such case. The 33rd paragraph of the Resolution can, therefore, in the opinion of the Governor General in Council, be held applicable only to the case of those Grantees who hold their lands on terms which do not comprise the right of acquiring an absolute ownership in fee simple. Such Grantees, it is the object of the 33rd paragraph to declare, may obtain that right by commuting their grants under the Rules for the sale of land in fee simple.

10. Paragraph 50 of the Resolution declares the terms upon which commutation may be made in the case of one, and that a very large class of existing grants. This paragraph, when modified according to the instructions of Her Majesty's Government, will stand as in the margin.

Grants which have already been given for a term of years at progressively increasing rents, such as those in the Soonderbunds, will be treated as if the land were permanently-settled, if the holder wishes to redeem the future land revenue at the highest rate fixed for any year during the currency of the grant, provided there is no right of occupancy other than that of the Lessee, or that derived from him.

11. In the case of existing grants, which do not fall under the terms of paragraph 50, the conditions on which commutation under the new Rules will be allowed may be settled with reference to the average value obtainable for waste lands of the same description in the District when sold by auction.

12. As it is highly desirable that persons who wish to avail themselves of the resolution come to by the Government to dispose of waste lands by sale in fee simple should be enabled to carry their intentions into effect with the least avoidable delay, and as the directions now received from Her Majesty's Government are on most points clear and specific, the Governor General in Council will not require that the detailed Rules to be framed by the several Local Governments should be submitted for the sanction of the Government of India before they are acted on. A copy of the Rules should, however, be forwarded as soon as they are finally approved by the Lieutenant-Governor, and if on any point the intention of Her Majesty's Government should seem to the Lieutenant-Governor to be doubtful, the question should be referred to the Governor General in Council for determination. As legislation will be necessary to give legal effect to the provisions of paragraph 19 of the Resolution, a Bill for that object will be introduced, on the meeting of the Governor General's Council, for legislative purposes.

13. With respect to that part of the Secretary of State's Despatch which discusses the important questions of a redemption of the land revenue and of a permanent settlement, the Governor General in Council thinks it unnecessary at present to do more than point special attention to the conclusion which is announced in the 26th and the 63rd paragraphs as to the extent to which redemption of the existing land revenue is to be permitted, and to the 72nd paragraph, in which the conditions are finally stated, which, in the opinion of He Majesty's Government, should be attained before a permanent settlement is conceded. It will be observed that this paragraph contemplates tha the previous sanction of Her Majesty's Govern ment should be obtained to the introduction of a permanent settlement in any District. Early steps should, therefore, be taken to obtain the information which will be required to enable the Local Government to submit the Report referred to in the 73rd paragraph as to the extent to which it may now be expedient to give effect to this important measure.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 3A.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, under date the 20th August 1862.

Read again Financial Resolution No. 1577, dated 28th February 1862, which, in relief of the dearth of Copper Coin in many parts of the Country, directed that, in every District, the Collector be authorized to sell pice at the rate of 66 for the Rupee, and half pice at the rate of 132 for the Rupee, in quantities of not less than 5 Rupees' worth at a time; and that, where there is a palpable deficiency in the Copper Currency, these coins be sold at the rate of 68 and 136 for the Rupee, respectively, until the deficiency is corrected.

Read again Financial Resolution No. 2307, dated 28th March 1862, authorizing the Mint Master to clear the large accumulations of Copper Coin in the Mint by selling pice and half pice at 66 and 132, respectively, for the Rupee to all comers, and at 68 and 136 for the Rupee to Licensed Vendors.

Read letter No. 493 of 16th June 1862, from the Officiating Deputy Auditor-General and Accountant-General, North-Western Provinces, reporting that, under the Resolution of 28th February 1862, the total issues of Copper Coin in April and May amounted to nearly 6 lacs, and the net issue (throwing out receipts) to 5 lacs of Rupees; that the probable charge or loss on the issue at 3·0303 will amount to Rupees 18,000; that the stock having been reduced to little above 4 lacs the further sale of Copper Coin at a discount had been stopped; that Bridge Tolls and the proceeds of Stamp and Opium sales, which formerly were always paid in in Silver (having been converted by the persons who made the collections), are now forwarded to the Treasuries in Copper; and that, if the issue of Copper on favorable terms is continued, it will not be possible to prevent the return into Government Treasuries of say ½ a lac in value each month, representing a bonâ fide loss to the extent of Rupees 1,500 a month.

Read letter No. 26 of 26th May 1862, from the Mint Committee, recommending that the rate of discount in favor of Licensed Vendors in Calcutta be reduced to 66 pice per Rupee.

Read letter No. 36 of 23rd June 1862, from the Mint Committee, covering one from the Mint Master, stating that the existing rate of discount is too favorable; that, on the other hand, less than half a pice would not ensure the free circulation of Copper Coin at par; and that he would have supported an applicant for a license who solicits a batta of only one pice per Rupee did not other considerations dispose him to advise the sale of a certain number of licenses to such Poddars as may tender at the lowest rates of discount.

Resolution.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes that the object of the Resolution, dated 28th February 1862, was to keep Copper Coin in circulation, whereas the Officiating Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General shews that it has had the effect of causing a quick return of the Coin to the Treasuries. The letters of the Mint Committee likewise shew that the exceptional rates of discount in favor of Licensed Vendors and others in Calcutta, established by the Resolution of 28th March 1862, are no longer needed to stimulate the issue of Copper Coin from the Mint. Wherever, therefore, the issue of Copper Coin under the above Resolution has sufficed to satisfy the legitimate demand and re-payment commences into the Treasury, the sale of Copper Coin at a discount may be temporarily held in abeyance, the discount at the Calcutta Mint being reduced for the present to one pice per Rupee.

In Districts where receipts of Copper Coin are unavoidably large the District Receivers should be instructed never to remit to the Sudder Treasury except in Silver, which they may obtain by selling the Copper on the spot at a discount not exceeding one or two pice per Rupee.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

New Lines of Steam communication to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

From Captain J. G. Reddie, Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Marine Department, to E. C. Bayley, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,—(No. 391, dated Fort William, the 8th August 1862.)

Sir,—I am directed to state, for your information, that, under the orders of the Governor General in Council, a Contract has been concluded with the Agents of the Calcutta and Burmah Steam Navigation Company, Limited, for running Lines of Steam communication, as specified in the margin, to the Ports on the East Coast of the Bay of Bengal and Singapore.

Line I.

Calcutta to Rangoon direct once a month (leaving on or about the 7th, after the receipt of the Home Mails vid Bombay, usually arriving about the 5th of each month) thence to Kaligouk, Tavoy, Mergui, Penang, Malacca, and Singapore.

Line II.

By a branch Steamer once a month from Rangoon to Moulmein and Port Blair in connection with Line No. 1., and leaving Rangoon within 12 hours of the arrival of the Steamer from Calcutta, returning from Port Blair to Moulmein and from thence to Rangoon direct.

Line III.

Calcutta to Chittagong, Akyab, Rangoon, Moulmein, on the 1st and 16th of each month, calling en route on the return voyage (as required) at Kyouk Phyoo and Sandoway. (It will be optional with the Company hereafter to connect Chittagong with all the other Ports by running a small Steamer hither from Akyab instead of by the larger Steamer calling there on going and returning as now proposed.)

2. I am desired to remark that Line No. 3, between Calcutta and Moulmein, calling at Chittagong Akyab, Rangoon, Kyouk Phyoo, and Sandoway, and leaving this Port on the 1st and 16th of each month, is intended to supersede the bi-monthly Mail Line, now running between Calcutta and Moulmein, by the Vessels of the same Company, the Contract for which will shortly expire.

3. The date fixed for the commencement of the respective Lines is the 1st proximo; but owing to a difficulty experienced by the Company in the provision of suitable Vessels by that date for the performance of the service between Calcutta and Singapore, His Excellency in Council, in respect to that line, has been pleased to sanction till the 1st February 1863, the substitution of a six-weekly communication for the monthly service provided for in the Official Contract.

4. The fixed rates for Government freight and passage, conveyance of specie, &c., &c., on the three Lines, respectively, are shewn in the Statement accompanying herewith.

Nynee Tal, the 8th August 1862.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 4792, dated the 14th of July 1862, is published for general information :—

No. 4792

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated the 14th July 1862.

Read the undermentioned papers regarding the grant of travelling allowance to Public Officers.

Resolution No. 5092 passed in this Department on the 10th September 1858.

Endorsement of Civil Pay Master, Fort William, No. 1398, dated the 1st March 1862

Letter to Civil Pay Master, Punjab, No 2235, dated the 20th March 1862.

Endorsement from Home Department, No. 2006, dated the 26th May 1862, and enclosure.

Letter to Civil Pay Master, Fort William, No. 4042, dated the 19th June 1862.

Letter from Civil Pay Master, Fort William No. 20, dated the 24th June 1 62.

Resolution.—It was ruled in this Department on the 10th September 1858, that travelling allowance at the usual rates should be granted to Public Officers transferred from one Station to another for the convenience of the Public Service, but not to those transferred on promotion or at their own request.

On an enquiry from the Civil Pay Master in the Punjab, it was decided in March last that the rule was applicable to Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains, and that before bills from these Officers for travelling allowance are passed, they should be required to produce Certificates that they are not transferred at their own request, if the Gazette be not sufficiently clear on this point.

With reference to this decision, the Venerable the Archdeacon now solicits orders as to the construction of the rule in the case of a Chaplain who expresses a wish for a Station the duties of which he is competent to fulfil, and is posted to it on the occurrence of a vacancy ; and the Government of Bengal in submitting the question observes, that though in such cases the prohibition against the grant of travelling allowance would not apply, it would still be impossible to grant the Chaplain a Certificate that he had not been transferred at his own request.

From the correspondence to which this reference has given rise, it appears that although the rule regarding the grant of travelling allowance to Officers removed from one appointment to another is clear, there is at present no arrangement for keeping the Civil Pay Master informed of the cause of removal in every case. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is therefore pleased to determine that whenever an Officer is transferred from one Station to another, any claim for travelling allowances shall be supported by a Certificate that the transfer is for the benefit of the Public Service, irrespective of the wishes of the Officer transferred.

This rule, His Excellency in Council remarks, will remove the difficulty brought to notice by the Government of Bengal by avoiding the necessity of testifying that Officers are not transferred at their own request ; but His Excellency in Council trusts that due discretion will be exercised in granting the Certificates now prescribed, and that no Certificates will be given in cases where the Officer is transferred to meet his own convenience only.

Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Home Department for information and further orders, with a copy of the papers received from that Department, under endorsement No. 2006 of the 26th May last.

Ordered also, that copies of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded, for information and guidance, to the Departments, Governments, and Officers noted below :—

Government of India, Public Works Department.

Public Works Budget for 1862-63.

Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, under date the 31st July 1862.

READ the following Papers:—

Read the Budgets of the Department of Public Works for 1862-63 from Madras, Bombay, Bengal, North-Western Provinces, Punjab, Straits Settlements, Oudh, Central Provinces, British Burmah, Hyderabad, Mysore, the Minor Administrations (Ajmere, Coorg, Central India, Rajpootana, and Port Blair), and the Budget Estimate of the Post Office and Electric Telegraph Department for Public Works expenditure.

Financial Department Extract No. 11950, dated 26th September 1861.

Public Works Department Circular No. 97, dated 30th October 1861.

Public Works Department No. 4252, dated 2nd December 1861, to Resident, Hyderabad.

Public Works Department No. 254, dated 18th January 1862.

Financial Department Extract No. 3602, dated 27th May 1362.

Report No. 833½ of the Military Finance Department on expenditure on Military Works in the Public Works Budgets.

The original Imperial assignment for the year 1862-63, on account of Public Works (Financial Resolution No. 11950, dated 26th September 1861,) was 367½ lakhs. To this has since been added 20½ lakhs, making in all 388 lakhs. But, besides the charges for Public Works proper, this sum has to meet, first, the cost of land supplied for Guaranteed Railway and other Companies, and the charge for Government control; second, the outlay for construction of the Electric Telegraph, and certain Post Office charges may also have to be provided for.

2. The charges for these Railway purposes amount approximately to 13½ lakhs; for the Telegraph and Post Office to 9½ lakhs; in all 23 lakhs. This leaves for actual distribution for Public Works 365 lakhs from Imperial Funds, exclusive of the grants from the 1 per cent. Income Tax Fund, and of the Local Funds, which will be separately referred to hereafter.

3. The original distribution of the first assignment of 367½ lakhs, (Department Public Works Circular No. 97, dated 30th October 1861,) was as follows:—

Madras ...	68	lakhs.
Bombay ...	53	,,
Bengal ...	52½	,,
North-Western Provinces	64½	,,
Punjab ...	50	,,
Oudh ...	16	,,
Nagpore ...	9	,,
Pegu ...	10½	,,
Tenasserim ...	2	,,
Alguada Lighthouse ...	2	,,
Straits ...	4	,,
Hyderabad, British ...	4½	,,
Minor Administrations ...	1¾	,,
Railway purposes ...	20	,,
Telegraph ...	6½	,,
Reserve ...	3½	,,
Total ...	367½	lakhs.

Subsequent to this allotment, however, several territorial changes were made in the various Governments, which led to a re-adjustment of some of these amounts.

4. Saugor and Jubbulpore were added to Nagpore, forming the Central Provinces. In consequence of this it was ordered that a transfer of 5 lakhs should be made from the North-Western Provinces to the Central Provinces, leaving the former with 59½ lakhs, and the latter with 14 lakhs.

5. Again, Pegu and Tenasserim were fused into British Burmah; and the allotments of the whole of these Provinces, with that for the Algiada Lighthouse, amounted to 14½ lakhs. But Arracan also was taken from Bengal and added to Burmah. For this no special alteration has been ordered in the allotments. It may however be held that the transfer should have been 1½ lakhs.

6. North Canara also was transferred from Madras to Bombay. The transfer that would have been equitable may be taken at 2¾ lakhs. No change of allotment was however ordered.

7. An additional allotment was further made to Hyderabad (Imperial) of 1¼ lakhs. More recently it has been determined in the Financial Department that the allotments for Public Works in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, which hitherto have been treated as Foreign, should appear in the Imperial Budget. This will call for the provision of a further sum of 1¼ lakhs from the general assignment.

8. After the adjustments above noted have been made, the assignments first given would have become as follows:—

Madras	...	68 — 2¾ = 65¼	lakhs.
Bombay	..	53 × 2¾ = 55¾	„
Bengal	.	52½ — 1¼ = 51¼	„
N. W. Provinces	...	64½ — 5 = 59½	„
Punjab	...	... 50	„
Oudh	...	... 16	„
Central Provinces	.	9 × 5 = 14	„
British, Burmah	...	14½ × 1¼ = 15¾	„
Straits	....	... 4	„
Hyderabad, British		4¼ × 1¼ = 5½	„
Hyderabad Assigned Districts		... 1¼	„

9. It may here be noticed that the Governments that lost territory have in no instance drawn out their Budgets to suit the reduced assignment due to them; while all those that have gained territory have been careful to enter at least as much as they were fairly entitled to on an equitable re-adjustment.

10. Before dealing with the Budget totals in detail, it becomes necessary to explain that a rather serious misconception had effected almost the whole of them. It has fortunately been possible in great measure to meet the disturbing effects thus produced, by help of the additional grants that have been made from the 1 per cent. Income Tax Fund; but still a considerable modification in several of the Budgets has become essential.

11. The original assignment of 367½ lakhs having been made when the financial position of the Government was supposed to be less favorable than it afterwards was shown to be, it was declared that this assignment for 1862-63 was to be held to include the sum that should be appropriated for remunerative works under the Income Tax Act, from the 1 per cent. of that Tax. Later, however, when the improved state of the finances was placed beyond doubt, a special grant of 38 lakhs was made on account of the 1 per cent. Income Tax Fund, over and above the Imperial assignment for 1861-62. (Financial Resolution No. 14694, dated 26th December 1861) In distributing this sum it was laid down in the orders issued from this Department (Department Public Works Circular, No. 5, dated 8th January 1862,) that the assignment was to be considered absolute, and that it was not to lapse at the end of the financial year, as ordinary grants lapse.

12. This last order, which tended to increase the complication, was rendered necessary by the compulsory clauses of the Act, and by the Income Tax year not coinciding with the financial year; the former ending in July, the latter in April. The proper amount of the grant for 1861-62 could not be determined before December 1861, when the result of the actual collections was known. It therefore became practically impossible that the grant could be spent before the end of the financial year 1861-62; and the same state of things would of course always recur.

13. Under these circumstances, it was natural for the Local Governments to suppose, as they all have done in preparing their Budgets, with the exception of Bengal, that their assignments for 1862-63 were to cover the works to be paid for from the 1 per cent. Income Tax Fund of 1862-63; and that they were not called on to take any special notice of the portion of the 1 per cent. Income Tax grant of 1861-62, that remained unspent at the end of the financial year.

14. But as the Budget is in its essence a financial Estimate, the expenditure from the Income Tax grant of 1861-62, that was expected to take place in 1862-63, should have appeared in the Budget of 1862-63; and in like manner, that portion of the grant for 1862-63 which would probably not have been spent in 1862-63, should have been excluded from that year's Budget.

15. The unspent portion of the 1 per cent. grant for 1861-62 has been estimated at 30 lakhs out of the original 38 lakhs. The Budget of 1862-63 should therefore have included Income Tax works to be paid for from the 1861-62 grant to this amount; and assuming that the proportions of the grant, and of the expenditure, continued the same in 1862-63, the Budget should further have provided for Income Tax works to the value of 8 lakhs from the grant of 1862-63.

16. All of these difficulties, however, have now been got over. The Government has stated its intention of making good the balance of the Income Tax grant for 1861-62 from the surplus revenue of that year, so that it will not appear at all as expenditure of 1862-63. Further, the Income Tax grant for 1862-63 is to be considered as made in advance, and as payable on the 1st May 1862, instead of later in the year, after the Income Tax accounts are made up. It is moreover decided that the Income Tax grant shall henceforth be handed over to the Local Governments to be dealt with as a portion of their Local Funds, so that works constructed from it will not hereafter appear in any way in the Imperial Budget of Public Works.

17. It will now be understood how, in dealing with the Budgets for 1862-63, it has become necessary to consider that the whole of the expenditure is Imperial. At the same time it will be seen that wherever it has been found necessary in re-adjusting the assignments to exclude works of the remunerative class from the Imperial Budget, which originally had a place there, the several Governments will, in addition to their Imperial grant, still have the whole of their Income Tax grant from which to provide for such works. And in fact it is certain that no real disappointment can take place in consequence of such changes, as the additional grant made from the Income Tax Fund to the Local Governments, over and above the sum first assigned by the Government of India, is no less than 38 lakhs.

18. The necessity above alluded to, of excluding some of the proposed works from the Budgets as they have been submitted, arises from the large amount of the excess in these Budgets over the proper assignments as before set down. The excess amounts are as follows:—

Madras	... ...	5¼ lakhs.
Bengal	... ...	1¼ „
N. W. Provinces	... ...	5 „
Punjab	... ...	0½ „
Central Provinces	...	4 „
Total	...	16 lakhs.

It is obvious that such an excess cannot be met unless by dealing with the body of some of the Budgets rather freely.

19. The general result of the modifications that have been made, on all the abovementioned grounds, is shown in the annexed figures—

Original assignment	...	367½ lakhs.
Additional	...	20½ „
Total	...	388 lakhs.

20. This has been finally distributed as follows:—

Madras	... ...	68 lakhs.
Bombay	... ...	58 „
Bengal	... ...	52½ „
N. W. Provinces	...	60½ „
Punjab	... ...	51 „
Oudh	...	17 „
Central Provinces	...	17½ „
Hyderabad, British	...	5½ „
Hyderabad Assigned Districts (say)	... ...	1¼ „
Burmah	... ...	16¾ „
Straits Settlements	...	4 „
Minor Administrations—
Coorg ... Rs. 25,000
Ajmeer ... „ 8,000
Rajpootana ... „ 25,000
Central India ... Nimar ... „ 1,75,000 „ Iron Works		say 2¾ lakhs.

21. The whole of the Budgets have been submitted in good time, and, on the whole, in proper form, in accordance with the new Rules which were issued during the last year. All things considered, the advance made in this branch of finance must be considered to be very satisfactory, and to reflect much credit on the Public Works Officers who have been engaged in drawing out the voluminous and intricate documents included in these Budgets. If it be added that there is still room for improvement in some particulars, this need not be understood as in any way detracting from the merit due for what has already been accomplished; and it will naturally be remembered that the greatest difficulty is always felt on the first introduction of any new system.

22. In the orders on the Budget for 1861-62, the Government of India remarked on the numerous entries of Works for which Estimates had not been sanctioned, and stated its intention of insisting on greater strictness in enforcing this Rule for the future. The caution has had good effect, but even now many projects have been so entered, and still more care must be given to this point in future. On the present occasion it will be understood that all allotments for projects for which Estimates have not been duly sanctioned by the Local Governments being within their powers, or have not been submitted to the Government of India if beyond those powers, before the 1st September next, shall be held to have lapsed, and such works cannot be taken up again under the Budget sanctions unless under special authority of the Government of India. A special Report will be submitted from every Government, stating how far this order applies to the sanctions now given.

23. The warning that the Government of India will henceforth reserve to itself the right of entirely rejecting from the Budget any project for which its sanction is necessary, unless the project has been submitted with the Estimate before the Budget, is now also repeated.

24. Greater attention is likewise necessary to Rule 13 of the Budget Rules, relative to the sanction of Military works. In several instances Estimates are entered as sanctioned by Local Governments for the provision of accommodation of European Troops at Stations for the occupation of which no sufficient authority can be traced.

25. So also Rule 14, "Projects which are essentially incomplete without extensions which would exceed the powers of the Local Governments must not be sanctioned by the latter," is frequently infringed. In the matter of roads, a main line is broken up into portions, each of which is brought within the powers of sanction of the Local Governments; or the earth-work is provided for in one place, the metalling in a second, and the bridges in a third. In Barrack buildings the Estimate for a Cantonment, involving the outlay of many lakhs, is broken up into the elementary portions, each of which is within the powers of the Local Government, though, as a whole, the project is far beyond those powers. Buildings for Civil Administrative purposes are in like manner entered in lump sums as sanctioned, the elementary portions being within the competence of the Local Governments, though the aggregate amount may be far beyond it.

26. His Excellency the Governor General in Council appeals to the heads of the Local Administrations fairly to carry out the Rules that have been laid down for their guidance in the sense in which they were framed. He feels confident that it will be sufficient to remind them that these Rules have been drawn out in a liberal spirit, and to state that the Government of India has no desire to add in any way to the restraints that they impose, and then to leave it to them to see that all proper care is paid to the submission of the Budget and the Estimates in strict accordance with those Rules.

27. In explanation of what may appear to be an excessive interference with minor items of Military charge, in dealing with the Budgets of this year, it may be as well to explain that the grave financial considerations that led the Government of India to constitute the Military Finance Department has unavoidably resulted in the strict examination by that Department of all proposed Military expenditure, and in the necessary interposition of this Department to support retrenchments which a proper economy seems to demand, even though in matters apparently trifling. The certainty of this rigorous supervision will doubtless have a useful effect in enforcing the strictest economy, and in leading to a careful consideration of the real necessity for all outlay before it is proposed.

28. His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes that the aggregate of Public Works Military outlay (including repairs) as passed amounts to about 49½ lakhs, say ½ a million sterling. The distribution of the Military charge to the various Provinces, as proposed and as sanctioned for the present and past year, will be as follows:—

	1862-63.		1861-62.
	Proposed.	Passed.	Proposed.	Passed.

Total ...	47,07,318	49,47,608	76,09,386	43,09,621

The above sums include both heads, Army and Navy. For Bombay an extra grant of 5 lakhs has been given for the Harbour Defences, for which no provision was made in the Budget. Last year the sum given for this object was 2 lakhs. The charges for the Central Provinces for the two years are not properly comparable, the sum for 1861-62 being for Nagpore alone; with less force this remark will apply to the North-Western Provinces, which has lost the Stations added to Nagpore.

29. The sums necessary to meet the requirements of the European Force are still large, and several years more must elapse before any very sensible diminution of this outlay can be anticipated; though at the same time, as a whole, the men are at present very fairly provided with accommodation. The assignments for the current year will, it is believed, prove sufficient to carry out all really necessary works as rapidly as is practicable. The great reduction in the proposed allotments of this year, as compared with the very heavy demands made last year, is a matter for congratulation. His Excellency in Council observes that the Estimates, in the Report of the Military Finance Department on the Public Works Budgets of the current year (paragraphs 117—121), of the probable cost of housing the whole of the European Troops in India, are based on erroneous data as to cost, and cannot be accepted even as approximately correct.

30. The proposed outlay on Civil Buildings is sensibly less than that on Military Works; being, including repairs about 36 lakhs, distributed as follows:—

	Sums passed.
	1862-63.	1861-62.
	Rs.	Rs.
Madras ...	2,80,379	2,78,899

31. The demands for buildings of this class is of course heavy in the newly acquired Provinces, and the Estimates for the North-Western Provinces are unduly exaggerated by the necessity for making good the destruction that took place at the time of the Mutiny. The high Bengal allotment is mainly due to work for the Mint and a New Church at Calcutta. But the amount of this element of charge will obviously depend greatly on the character of the Civil Administration; and it must be expected to be higher where there are many European functionaries than where there are few.

32. A large sum has every where been made available for works of Public Improvement, amounting in all to 156¾ lakhs, say 1½ millions. The proposed outlay on Irrigation Works and Communications may usefully be contrasted for the several Provinces.

33. The allotments for Agricultural Works which include Irrigation and Embankment Works are, including repairs, about 46 lakhs, say ½ a million, distributed as follows:—

	1862-63.	1861-62.
	Rs.	Rs.
Madras ...	16,86,574	13,38,481

Punjab ..	8,69,196	10,09,171
All others ...	8,130	13,767
Total ..	46,28,769	45,51,145

34 Works of this class hardly exist in any of the other Provinces. In Madras the outlay is divided between the Tanks and the Canals of the Deltas. In Bombay it is chiefly for Canals, and the larger share is for Sindh. In Bengal the expenditure is entirely for Embankments to keep out the Rivers and Sea from the low lands. In the North-Western Provinces and Punjab it is all for Irrigation Canals.

35. The sums allowed for communications, including repairs, will be 101½ lakhs, or more than one million sterling, viz. :—

36. Under Madras 4 lakhs of the allotment is for the Godavery Navigation, last year 2 lakhs was the sum; the rest is nearly all for Roads. In Burmah about Rs. 60,000 is allotted to Navigation Works also; otherwise the whole of the remainder of the above sums may be considered as available for Roads.

37. The above figures, however, which show the assignments from the Imperial funds, do not give by any means a complete view of the actual outlay on Roads in British India. The Income Tax 1 per cent. and the Local Funds are mainly devoted to this class of work, and make a very large addition to the available amount.

38. The gradual growth of Roads over the British Provinces, lending as it must do of necessity to the application of a constantly increasing sum for their maintenance, will soon demand from the Government of India some arrangement, under which the allotment of the funds available for such purposes may be made in a more systematic manner than at present, and so as to ensure a distribution of the limited sum available from the Imperial funds, in a way that shall be equitable to the several Provinces, and at the same time as beneficial as possible to the community at large. The subject is one which will demand mature consideration, but the general direction in which the Government of India is disposed to move has been indicated in the statement made on the publication of the Budget of India for 1862-63, viz., that the Imperial Government should gradually divest itself of the function of supplying either the money or the management for the mass of the Roads of the country, and that some means of local taxation and administration should be created to supplement, and perhaps eventually to supersede, the present more centralized system. His Excellency would impress on the various Local Governments the importance of considering these observations, having special reference to the probability of the Government of India undertaking to subsidize in some form Companies proposing to make Railways in various parts of the country. All such subsidies, which will commonly have to be provided from the annual income of the State, must very sensibly diminish the fund available for other Public Works, and being in truth a contribution of the State for Roads, they would most fairly be met by a corresponding reduction of the present large assignments for these works, and this result must be looked forward to as very probable.

39. His Excellency the Governor General in Council further finds it necessary to direct special attention to the manner in which in many Provinces it has in too many cases been proposed to diffuse the available funds over a multitude of works, the completion of a very small portion of which can be anticipated within the year. In preparing the Public Works Budget, it is most essential to consider in what manner the money to be disposed of can produce on the whole the best result in a limited period. It is obvious that a Road, until it is passable throughout a definite length, is useless to the public, and that it is a much better way of going on, to complete as quickly as possible, small, but definite portions of Road projects, in a systematic manner, than to keep the whole work generally in hand, over a large extent of country, for a number of years. In the end, so far as the total number of miles of Road made goes, the one plan is at least as good as the other, and the first has the manifest advantage of bringing the outlay into use at the earliest possible date, while the other delays it as much as possible. The same general observations will apply equally to all sorts of constructions, and it should be the great object of the Public Works Officers on all occasions, so to arrange their plans that every work when begun should be executed in the smallest possible time, compatible with good and economical work and proper supervision. Not only will the work be more quickly brought into use, but the dead weight of the Establishment charges, which have till now been so heavy, will be reduced as far as possible. The Government of India specially commends these remarks to the attention, not only of the several Governments, but of all Public Works Officers in every grade.

40. The examination of the proposed charges for Repairs shows that much greater care is called for in dealing with this branch of Expenditure. It is no doubt an exceedingly difficult thing to check the Estimates for Repairs, and a great deal must be left to the discretion of subordinate Officers in such matters. But it is a truth not to be lost sight of, that even without any desire to spend money extravagantly, it is very easy to go into vast expense in making Repairs, which are really not by any means necessary. In this class of work the strictest economy—let it even be called parsimony,—should be insisted upon. And it will be for consideration whether some useful system of check may not be established, by help of which both the Local Officers and the Government of India may be enabled to ascertain with some sense of certainty that the proposed charges are reasonable.

41. The Military Finance Department has desired that it may be furnished with the whole of the details of the proposed repairs to Military Buildings; but the trouble that this would involve would certainly not be compensated by any corresponding good result. That Department cannot be in a position to form any definite opinion on the details of such charges.

42. A plan more likely to be of practical effect would be to obtain for each Department an Estimate of the value of the Buildings or works of various classes; of the number of miles of Road of various characters; of the number of miles of Canal or Irrigation Channel; and so forth. A little experience would doubtless give a fair power of judging of the proper charge for Repairs on each class of work, either as a percentage on its value, or as a mileage rate, or otherwise. By comparing the strength of the Military Force of various arms in the several Provinces, and the total charges of this nature, a further check might be brought to bear on the economy

f the Military branch of the Department; and some analogous comparison might possibly be made in the Civil Department.

43. At the same time the Government of India feels that in introducing any such system of check, it must, to be of real use, work from within, and it has no desire to arrive at the result at which it aims by calling for Returns or Reports. The more proper plan will be to consider carefully how such a system might be best practically worked, and to invite the Local Governments to co-operate in arriving at some conclusion; for they in truth are far more directly interested than the Government of India in the proper application of their funds.

44. His Excellency in Council is glad to be able to observe that the Agency of the Civil Departments in the execution of petty items of work is beginning to be more freely used than it has been heretofore.

45. The special class of Repairs in the Madras Presidency, called for by the numerous Irrigation Works, has attracted the attention of the Madras Government, and His Excellency the Governor General in Council hopes that means will be found to carry them out on an improved footing of economy.

46. From an imperfection in the form in which Part III. of the Budget Establishments has been ordered to be submitted, and from the variations in the organization of the Department in the different Provinces, a simple comparison of the proposed charges for Establishments can lead to no very satisfactory conclusion as to their relative economy or costliness.

47. After some rather arbitrary transpositions in the charges—and they are essential to admit of any comparison at all being made—the Establishment charges in the larger Provinces are found to be as follows:—

Nature of Charges.	Madras.	Bombay.	Bengal.	N. W. Provinces.	Punjab.
	Lakhs.	Lakhs.	Lakhs.	Lakhs.	Lakhs.
Direction ...	1¼	1¾	2½	2½	2
Accounts ...	¾	¾	1½	1	¾
Engineering ...	9½	7	6½	5½	6½
Offices ...	2¼	1	¾	1	1¼
Travelling Allowances ...	1¼	1	1	1	1
Collection ...	..	...	¾	¾	1
Contingencies ...	¼	¼	¼	¼	¼
Total charge for Establishments	16½	11¾	13¼	12	13½
Total Budget Allotment	68	58	67	60½	51

NOTE.

Direction includes Chief Engineers and Superintending Engineer and their Offices and Travelling charges.
Accounts includes the Central Office of Account.
Engineering includes Executive and Subordinate Officers directly employed in construction of works.
Offices includes Office Establishments of such Officers.
Travelling Allowances includes Travelling charges of such Officers.
Collection includes Establishments employed to collect Tolls or Revenues.

48. It is necessary to explain, with reference to these figures, that the charge shown for Bengal includes a portion of the Establishment employed on works charged to Local Funds; and, as a set off, the Budget allotment has been increased by the approximate sum thus disbursed. As regards the Punjab the charge set down is that claimed in the Budget; in fact only 12½ lakhs have been sanction.

49. The first thing that is obvious on inspecting these figures is the very high charge for the Madras Establishments, which cost about 3 lakhs more than those of Bengal for an approximately equal outlay. On examining further it is plain that the cause of this excess is mainly to be found in the heavy charge for Engineering and Office Establishments. This again is at once explained by the different organization of the Public Works Department at Madras. There is a large class of District Engineers combining some of the functions of the Executive Engineer in Bengal with some of the Superintending Engineer; hence while the charge for Engineering is higher, that for Direction is lighter, in Madras. The different system of the Central Account Office in Bengal sufficiently explains the higher charge for Accounts in that Province, but the extra cost, as compared to Madras, three quarters of a lakh, is more than met by the saving on the Office Establishments, which are extremely high in Madras. The high rate of charge for travelling allowance in Madras is remarkable, and deserves special attention. There is reason to think that there is considerable laxity of practice in the grant of such allowances at the Madras Presidency.

50. As regards the cost of Accounts both in Madras and Bombay, there is also reason to think that the system of Audit and Account is very much less elaborate than in Bengal; and the smaller charge is thus partly explained.

51. The recent orders of the Secretary of State, directing a complete re-organization of the Madras Public Works Establishments, something on the model adopted in Bengal, will doubtless lead to great economy. His Excellency the Governor General in Council will look forward to the results of this change of system with interest.

52. The high rate of charge in the Punjab has received special notice, and a reduction of one lakh has been ordered on the amount entered in the Budget. But a still larger reduction must be made, and the Government of India has recently received proposals on this subject, which will require early attention.

53. The general charge for the Establishments as sanctioned in this part of the Budget for the larger Provinces for the present year may be taken at about 20 per cent. on the aggregate outlay, or 25 per cent on the net cost. of works. His Excellency in Council believes that with attention a sensible reduction may be made on this rate of charge, and he trusts that the Local Governments will every where co-operate with the Government of India in endeavouring to bring down to the lowest amount compatible with real efficiency this unproductive element of charge.

54. The attention of the Inspector-General of Public Works Accounts should continue to be directed to this important matter, and he should consider what modifications can most conveniently be made in the form of the Budget to make it exhibit in a complete and really comparable manner the main elements of charge under the head of Establishments.

55. His Excellency in Council further remarks that under the last orders on this subject, all Establishment charges of every description will henceforth appear in this part of the Budget. This has not till now been done, and a sensible proportion of the Public Works Establishment have till quite recently been systematically charged directly against works. It must therefore be anticipated that in future years the apparent charge for Establishments will be much higher than it has been hitherto. But it is hoped that the charges will thus all become far more fairly comparable with one another, and that a strong check will be brought to bear on a portion of Public Works Expenditure which is too apt to run to very irregular lengths.

56. With these observations His Excellency the Governor General in Council concludes his remarks on the Imperial Budget of Public Works Proper.

57. The estimated outlay by the State on account of guaranteed Railway works, not including guaranteed interest, is Rs. 11,79,502. The elements of this charge are as follows:—

	Madras.	Bombay and Central Provinces.	Bengal.	N. W. P.	Punjab.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

58. For the Madras Irrigation Company the charge is as follows:—

Land	Rs.	1,07,900
Control	,,	34,300
Total ...	Rs.	1,42,200

Estimated outlay 27½ lakhs.

59. The total of these charges is Rs. 13,21,702. Last year the allotment was Rs. 23,85,208.

60. In connexion with these figures it will be convenient to note the present general result of Railway operations in British India.

The aggregate approximate outlay by guaranteed Railway Companies (including the Indus Flotilla) was, up to 1st May 1862, £40,611,337. The gross guaranteed interest payable for the current year will be £2,200,000. The estimated net Income is £700,000, leaving a net balance against the Government on account of interest of £1,500,000.

The estimated expenditure from Capital for the year has been already separately considered by the Government of India. It may be generally put down at 5¼ millions. Last year the Estimate was taken at 5¾ millions, and very nearly that amount was expended. The sum still likely to be required to complete lines as at present guaranteed is not less than £16,000,000.

The aggregate number of miles open up to 1st May was 1,619, and of miles under construction 2,290.

61. The estimated outlay from Local Funds is not yet generally submitted to the Government of India in a form that admits of any satisfactory comparative analysis, and in fact this branch of Public Works Expenditure, though of great importance, is still in most instances dealt with, financially speaking, in a rather questionable manner. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that the subject may better be dealt with separately, but he trusts that some means will be found to enable the Government of India to obtain a general but sufficient insight into the character of the outlay, without imposing on the Local Governments under which the expenditure takes place any inconvenient restraint.

62. The Government of India having determined to add the proceeds of the Income Tax one per cent. fund to the Local Funds, for expenditure under the direction of the Local Governments, the amount thus placed at their disposal will this year be unusually large; and His Excellency in Council therefore deems it necessary to give a general caution to the Heads of Administrations to prevent any thing like extravagant or wasteful expenditure.

63. The orders for the allotment of the Income Tax 1 per cent. fund for the year 1862-63 have already been issued. (Public Works Resolution, Circular No. 67, dated 8th July 1862).

64. The whole sum available under Local Funds, so far as is known, will be about 1½ million sterling, viz.:—

65. In consequence of the incorporation of the Budget of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts with the Imperial Budget, the only item of foreign outlay to be mentioned on the present occasion is the Budget of Mysore, which has been passed to the extent of 12¾ lakhs.

66. In conclusion His Excellency observes that the aggregate sum estimated to be spent on Public Works in the Provinces administered by the British Government during the year 1862-63 is £11,002,900, of which very nearly one-half is raised in India, while the other half is English Capital invested under guarantee, viz.:—

No. 6G.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, under date the 29th August 1862.

Read again Financial Resolution No. 84, dated the 13th May 1862.

Read also Financial Resolution No. 3772, dated the 5th June 1862, calling on all Heads of Offices of Account and Audit to submit Reports as to the effects of the Resolution of 13th May last on their Subordinates.

Read Reports submitted in obedience to the orders passed in the abovementioned Resolution.

Resolution—His Excellency the Governor General in Council observes that a general impression seems to exist that the prospects of Clerks will be injuriously affected by the Resolution of last May, and that they will no longer be eligible to the higher posts to which they have hitherto looked forward. This impression is erroneous. All Clerks who may be able to qualify themselves for higher employment will continue to possess the same title as hitherto to such advancement as they may deserve. The Chief Assistants in the several Offices are admitted into classified grades, and the Resolution provides that the Report of the Head of the Office in which a vacancy occurs shall be considered before such vacancy be filled up. It will thus be in the power of the Head of an Office to recommend any of his Clerks for promotion to the Chief Assistantship and for admission into the classified grades.

It remains to review the classification of the several appointments of the Financial Department. The Governor General in Council remarks that, while the existing salaries are proportionate to the duties of the several Offices, the admission into the present classes of some Offices will involve a considerable progressive increase of pay, whereas the general scope of the Resolution is the reduction of allowances. The Governor General in Council considers 600 Rupees a month to be a sufficient maximum for the grade of Chief Assistants in the Principal Local Offices. His Excellency in Council further remarks that, under the Resolution of May last, an Officer in any but the First Class must serve in each Class two or three years before he gains any increase of salary. His Excellency in Council considers that in India, where service is so much shorter than in England, the increase of salary may be allowed to commence earlier.

The Governor General in Council is accordingly pleased to modify the distribution of emoluments by dividing Classes III. and IV. into Classes III., IV., and V. The appointments will be classified thus:—

Class I.—Salary 1,500 Rupees a month, rising 100 Rupees a month after each year of service in the Class to a maximum of 2,000 Rupees a month, some extra personal allowance being admissible when the Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General at Madras or Bombay is required to fulfil the additional duty of acting as Sole or Senior Government Director of the Presidency Bank.

" " " " Punjab.

Junior Assistant, Central Office.

It is to be observed, however, that the salaries of the Head Assistants in the Offices of Civil Pay-Masters will not be allowed to rise beyond 500 Rupees a month.

Unless otherwise expressly provided present incumbents will be considered to have entered the Classes to which their appointments belong on the 1st May 1862. For those whose salaries are at the minimum of their Class increase of salary will commence on the 1st of May 1863. Increase will not be given to others until such period elapse as would have entitled them to further increase had they entered the Class at the minimum salary on the 1st May 1862. The first year of service in a Class will commence from the 1st of May next after the date of promotion to that Class.

For the future an Officer, on his promotion to a higher Class, will enter at the minimum salary of that Class.

An Officer holding an appointment in one Class and appointed to officiate in a higher Class, if entitled under the Rules to acting allowance, will draw no more than the minimum salary of the higher Class; provided, however, that an Officer drawing the maximum salary of his Class and appointed to officiate in the next higher Class will be entitled, whilst so officiating, to the yearly increase of salary allowed to those permanently appointed to the Class.

Order.—Ordered, that a copy of the above Resolution be forwarded to the Officiating Auditor-General of India, the Officiating Accountant-General to the Government of India, and to the Deputy Auditors and Accountants-General and the Civil-Pay Masters at the several Presidencies.

Govt. of India, Public Works Department.

MADRAS BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. The Madras Budget has been submitted in excellent form and in good time.

2. The original assignment was 68 lakhs, of which 4 lakhs were specially allotted to the Godavery Works. But under the circumstances more fully explained in my Note dated 24th April, considerable changes have been rendered necessary in the distribution of the funds proposed by the Government of Madras. In the first place the removal of the District of North Canara relieves the Budget of at least 3 lakhs of Rupees. The Estimate for this District for 1861-62 was Rs. 2,92,000. The Budget prepared by the Madras Officers, and submitted by the Bombay Government, amounts to Rs. 4,11,351.—Next the grant of the full amount of the 1 per cent. on the Income Tax, in addition to the Imperial assignment first made, gives to Madras a fund of about 5 lakhs, to which a great many of the works set down in the Budget may fairly be charged as originally proposed by the Madras Government, when it was understood that the assignment of 68 lakhs was intended to include the Income Tax Fund.

3. The Government of Madras, pleading the small sum that would virtually be placed at its disposal for works of improvement by the assignment of 68 lakhs, has not included in that amount the sum of 2½ lakhs at which stores to be received from England during the year are estimated. This amounts to submitting a Budget of 70½ lakhs. Considering, however, the relief given by the separation of Canara of say 3 lakhs, the additional grant of Income Tax for this year of say 5 lakhs, and the balance of last year's Income Tax Fund of say 3 lakhs, an additional sum of 11 lakhs in excess of the original assignment has, in fact, been made available for expenditure in the Madras Territories; and under these circumstances that Government may reasonably be called upon to make good the cost of the stores it will obtain from England. The value of these stores is roughly set down at 2½ lakhs. To provide for this it is proposed to strike out of Part I. of the Budget Income Tax Works to the extent of Rs. 2,08,543; and from Part II., Repairs to the extent of Rs. 41,457; in all 2½ lakhs. If the actual cost of stores is more than the amount named, the difference must be made good from the Reserve or savings from other services; and vice versâ. Further, though for convenience special works have been dealt with in this re-distribution of the charges, it is not intended to interfere with the discretion of the Madras Government in making any modifications of details that shall leave the general financial result unchanged. A list of the Income Tax Works thus dealt with is appended.

4. The Imperial assignment then to be disposed of is 68 lakhs. The distribution will be considered under the Budget Heads.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. MILITARY.

5. The amount of Military charges is moderate, and may generally be admitted.

Items Nos. 1 to 6.—Expenditure under these heads, "Restoration of the Works of Fort St. George at Madras," appears under a variety of different Estimates, each of them within the powers of sanction of the Local Government, but in the aggregate amounting to Rs. 3,97,310. It is plain that this in truth is one scheme, and should be dealt with as a whole when it has been brought to maturity and well considered in its Military and Political aspects. Under Item No. 1 it is proposed to give Rs. 2,000; this may be sanctioned, as probably intended, to complete some work nearly finished. But on all the other items (some marked A) it might be intimated that no expenditure will be allowed until the Government of India is more completely satisfied of its expediency.

6. The previous history of these proposed improvements of Fort St. George may be taken as a warning of what the future is likely to bring forth, if a very definite idea is not got of what is really wanted, and of how that want is best to be supplied, before going further.

7. The Estimates for these works were first submitted to the Government of India in November 1857, after the Mutiny, and when men's minds were still in an excited state by that catastrophe. Three Estimates for restoring the Sea Face of the Fort, amounting to Rs. 1,12,000, were sanctioned for immediate execution. The remainder were sent to the Home Government, which decided that a further allowance of Rs. 1,64,260 on three other Estimates for works on the Land Front might also be granted at once; but that the remainder of the work, amounting to Rupees 11,60,950, must await further orders and called for further consideration.

8. In 1859 the Madras Government, on its own responsibility, totally altered the project as sanctioned, and directed that the restoration of the Sea Face should be made on a quite different design from that settled in 1857. The old Estimates for the Sea Face, of Rs. 1,12,000, were put aside, and new ones, amounting to Rupees 2,38,642, were substituted. At the same time the proposed work on the Land Face was entirely remodelled, and Estimates, amounting to Rs. 7,98,400, subtituted for the unpassed Estimates of Rs. 11,60,950 above noticed. The unauthorized action of the Madras Government was censured by the Secretary of State, and further reports and re-consideration were called for.

9. In 1860 the Madras Government reported that the last proposals for the Sea Face would amount to Rs. 3,47,082, an addition of Rs. 58,440 to the proposal of 1859. At the same time for the Land Face it is declared that the really necessary expenditure need not exceed 4½ or 5 lakhs, the Garrison Engineer putting the cost as low as 3 lakhs. In one item alone 3 lakhs of Rs. was struck out in this revision. The reply of the Government of India to this was not given till June 1861. It consisted entirely of professional suggestions as to details. Nothing more has been heard from Madras on the subject since.

10. Now, within the last few years, the art of fortification has been entirely revolutionized, and, with the introduction of the far more powerful Artillery and Musketry of the present day, is certainly doomed to still further and greater change. Can it then be right to re-construct the works which, the Madras Government informs us, were built "after Lally's last memorable Siege in 1747," on their old trace and design? The Government of India is not satisfied that a Fortress such as Fort St. George, with a multitude of small out-works, suitable, perhaps, to a time when a musket ball could not be relied on to hit an enemy at 100 yards' distance, is a proper thing to be maintained and restored. Will it not be far better to spend ten times the money and produce a work that shall be up to the requirements of the times, if such a work be really necessary, than to dole out smaller sums in order to restore a remnant of antiquity which would probably enough be as defensible now as after the restorations were completed? Does the history of the last great Siege, that of Sebastopol, teach that costly masonry works and elaborately traced ramparts are necessary to a vigorous and successful defence?

11. Items Nos. 8, 9, and 11.—Erecting Temporary Quarters for Married Soldiers, aggregating Rs. 55,000.—It is not understood on what ground it can be right to erect temporary buildings if the Troops are permanently quartered at the Stations named, which seems certainly the case. It would surely be better to build permanent quarters at once, at say double the expense, Rs. 1,000 per man, which is believed to be sufficient, and to spend half the money this year and half next. Special attention is also necessary to determine that the number of quarters provided is in fact essential. It is not necessary to provide quarters for the full complement of married men allowed by Regulation, unless, in fact, they are present and must be housed. It is understood that in practice the number of married men is not more than 5 per cent. of total strength instead of 12 per cent. These remarks should be made to apply to item No. 7, Married Quarters at Bellary, as well. Under these provisos the sums set down for these items may be held available, but not otherwise.

Items Nos. 10 and 20.—Before this outlay can be authorized the Government of India should be satisfied of the necessity of maintaining the European Detachments in Malabar. Is not the Police sufficient to maintain order?

Item No. 15.—Where so large a sum remains to be expended to complete the New Dragoon Barracks at Bangalore it seems doubtful policy to lay out such a small sum as Rs. 75,000. The sum disallowed under item 2 might be added to this, giving Rs. 98,325 for this work.

At the same time it will be proper to caution the Madras Government to see that the buildings are limited to the strict requirements of a Dragoon Regiment of the new strength of six Troops.

Item No. 17.—Married Quarters for Dragoons.—The remarks made above with reference to item 8, &c., apply here also.

Item No. 21.—Store Room for Malt Liquor at Madras, Rs. 8,640.—This is objected to by the Military Finance Department. The special necessity for the work might be explained before it is begun.

12. On the whole, the total sum under this head is passed, viz., Rs. 2,57,597.

2.—Civil Administration.

13. The amount entered under this head is very moderate also.

Item No. 39.—Erecting an Engineer Store Yard and Workshop.—Estimated to cost Rs. 76,390, of which Rs. 30,000 proposed for the current year. It might be remarked that, after some years' experience at Calcutta, the Government is now on the point of abolishing a similar Yard here, and of having the work done at the Cossipore Gun Foundry. It seems worth suggesting to the Government of Madras whether a better and cheaper Factory might not be obtained there too by increasing the Gun Carriage Factory and letting it do the Engineer work. This is not intended, however, to interfere with their freedom of action.

Item No. 49.—Addition to General Hospital at Madras.—Estimate Rs. 1,01,066; proposed Rs. 15,000 to complete works.

14. The entire sum, Rs. 86,441, may be passed. It may here be noted that the application from the Madras Government for an additional assignment of funds to meet the cost of buildings for Police, to the extent of about 1½ lakhs, has been rejected; and that it has been stated that the charge so far as necessary must be met by economy in other services.

3.—Public Improvement.

H. Municipal.

15. Item No. 51.—Madura Water Supply.—This is struck out as an Income Tax Work. Such a work could not be accepted as properly charged to the Imperial Funds.

I. Marine.

16. Item No. 52.—Improvement of Coconada Harbour.—A small sum, Rs. 16,250, is brought forward to complete some specific work; but it is not understood that this is by any means really all that is proposed.

Item No. 53.—Improvement of Nagapatam Harbour.—Estimate Rs. 1,89,300. No expenditure. It seems obvious that the provision of a good Harbour for Madras on either Coast, if such a thing can be got by help of money, would be a work of Imperial interest, and it is suggested that the Madras Government might be encouraged to go into the question fully by receiving the assurance of the Government of India that a sum of 20 or 30 lakhs, or even more, would not be grudged for such an object.

Items Nos. 54 and 56.—Removed as Income Tax Works.

In future the expenditure of the Madras Pier will appear under this head; it is not clearly known what will be the amount for the current year.

K. Agricultural.

17. Under this head fall the great Irrigation Works. It may be noticed that several of these items are entered as proposed to be charged against the Income Tax Fund. But it is very questionable how far works from which a large direct pecuniary profit accrues to Government can with propriety be constructed from the funds set aside by Law to be devoted to works of local improvement. At all events, as Imperial Funds are forthcoming, there can be no reason, in most cases, for doing it now; and all the Government Irrigation Works marked as Income Tax Works have been purposely retained in the Imperial Budget.

Item No. 60.—Raising the Godavery Anicut.—Estimate Rs 2,82,540, now before the Government of India; proposed outlay Rs. 80,000. This work is to increase the supply of water for which the demands exceed the supply. Approved.

The aggregate of the Godavery Irrigation Works, Nos. 60 to 67, is estimated Rs. 8,37,611; expended Rs. 4,47,112; proposed Rs. 1,47,260.

Items Nos. 68 to 77.—Kistna Irrigation Works.—Estimates aggregating Rs. 11,58,669; expended Rs. 0,66,562½; proposed outlay Rs. 1,79,035. May be approved.

Items 87 and 88.—Palar Anicut.—Estimate Rs. 3,66,142½; expended Rs. 5,69,[illegible]; proposed outlay Rs. 1,65,000, [illegible] be approved.

Item 89.—[illegible] Anicut.—Estimates Rs. 1,53,283; expended [illegible] 11,550; proposed outlay Rs. 50,000.

18. The total amount of Estimates for Irrigation Works begun is 34½ lakhs, of which 19 lakhs has been laid out, and on which 6½ lakhs is proposed for expenditure this year. The progress seems fair, as 2½ years' outlay at the same rate may be expected to complete the whole.

19. Items Nos. 106 and 107 for Embankments, and Nos. 108 and 109 for Drainage Works, have been struck out as Income Tax Works.

L. Communications.

20. The aggregate amount of the Estimates for metalled roads is 19½ lakhs, of which 7½ lakhs is spent, and 4 lakhs proposed for the year. This is fair progress. On the unmetalled roads the aggregate of Estimates is Rs. 2,98,439; expended Rs 29,361; proposed Rs. 66,865. This is not so good. For Bridges the Estimates are 4½ lakhs; spent 2½ lakhs; proposed 1¼ lakhs. Satisfactory. The Road projects seem so broken up into fragments that it is not possible to offer a general idea of their scope.

21. The only remark that here seems specially called for is to note the desire of the Madras Government to have the Bombay Mail brought by Mail Carts by way of Sholapoor and Bellary, instead of, as at present, by Belgaum and Bangalore. This is approved and may involve some modification of the Road expenditure, or lead to some special appropriation of the Reserve to meet the demand.

22. Several of the items for Roads and Bridges are struck out as fairly chargeable against the Income Tax Fund.

23. For Navigable Canals there are proposals to spend in all Rs. 50,210. The only large project is now awaiting the orders of the Government of India. It is for works on the Lower Godavery, and amounts in Estimate to Rs. 4,20,000. The works have not yet been begun. A trifling sum is put down for the year, Rs. 23,760.

24. The only other works calling for notice in this part of the Budget are the River Improvements on the Godavery. The Estimates, as noted, aggregate 12½ lakhs, the money spent is 1¼ lakhs; and the proposed outlay already granted by the Government of India is 1 lakhs.

25. It may be convenient to state concisely the present position of these operations. The Godavery, in its course from the Central Provinces to the sea, though for the most part flowing in a fairly even bed, in certain places passes through so rugged a country that rapids occur which render it, at those places, quite impracticable for navigation. There are three great obstacles of this nature, which have been termed the First, Second, and Third Barriers. The first is at Sinterala, 108 miles from the sea; the second at Enchampalli, 172 miles from the sea; and the third at Diwalamury, 238 miles from the sea. It is admitted by all that whatever is done to render the River navigable throughout at any season will involve the formation of a system of Lockage at these Barriers; and a general approval has been given to the construction of such works. Measures are now in progress to carry out this part of the scheme, the works at the First Barrier being already begun, and shewing an expenditure, up to the present time, of 3 lakhs of Rupees.

26. Next, as the Locks and Canals to carry boats round these Barriers will take some time to complete, it has been determined to construct tramways for immediate use, by which goods arriving by boat at one side of the Barrier may rapidly and easily be conveyed to the other side and re-shipped. The work on the three tramways is in progress. It is hoped that two of these may be completed before the rains, and that the other will have reached the condition of a good cart road.

27. Further, boats are in course of construction at various parts of the River to supply the means of transport. Arrangements have been made by the Madras Government to have a Traffic Manager ready when the River rises in the rains and the navigation becomes possible in the upper part of its course.

28. The probable expenditure of this part of the scheme may be taken at 30 lakhs, including a certain outlay on clearing away rocks and isolated shoals or obstructions; and by this the River might be considered as fairly opened out for the rainy monsoon navigation.

29. But beyond this the system to be followed in dealing with the River is unsettled. The difficulties in the way of the permanent navigation of the Godavery throughout the year are two-fold. First, the want of a permanent supply of water; Second, the excessive fall in the bed of the River. This, following the natural law that regulates the condition of a River so circumstanced, has caused the profile of the bed to assume the character of a series of pools and rapids, and has made the navigation difficult, dangerous, or impracticable, except when the water is at a high level during the wet months.

30. As to the first difficulty, it is proposed to meet it by constructing Reservoirs or Tanks in the upper part of the River's basin, in which water should be collected in large quantities in the rainy season, so as to afford a supply that may be gradually let off into the River in the drier months to keep up a sufficient depth for navigation. There are, however, two distinct methods suggested of applying this stored water, dependent on the means taken to get over the second difficulty, the excessive fall.

31. Captain Haig proposes to meet the excessive fall by keeping up a very full supply of water from extensive Reservoirs, so as to prevent the River from ever falling to a less depth than five feet at its shallowest parts. To increase the depth of the water over the bars or shallows, where the breadth of the River will also probably be excessive, he proposes to construct a system of longitudinal walls to contract the channel. This way of dealing with Rivers has been found successful in many other places. He estimates the cost of such a system at about one million sterling.

32. The Governor of Madras, Sir W. Denison, has suggested, as an alternative plan, a system of dams across the River itself, converting the River in fact into a great canal, with still water-pools connected by Locks. This system would obviously require a far smaller supply of water; but, on the other hand, the cost of the dams would be very large. Captain Haig estimates the expense of this at 2¼ millions.

33. This is not the place to discuss the merits of these two plans; and it may be asked whether a third way might not also be found to deal with the question, viz., the construction of an ordinary navigable canal. And the Government of India need here only remark that the experiment of opening out the River during the rainy season should first be fairly tried and proved to be successful before any of the larger schemes are actually put in hand.

34. The total amount proposed for expenditure under the head Public Improvement is Rs.17,90,069; from this will be deducted, as before explained, Rs. 2,08,543 for Income Tax Works, to be executed from the additional grant, leaving the sum of Rs. 15,81,526 to be approved.

35. Lastly has to be provided a sum of 2½ lakhs for stores from England, susceptible of modification, as before explained. It is to be understood also that the sum set aside in this manner is only intended to meet the actual disbursements for the purchases during the year 1862-63, and that it is not necessary to cover transactions in account by which stores previously paid for are now charged off to works on which they are employed.

36. The total for Part I. will therefore be Rs. 21,75,564.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

37. The aggregate amount is Rs. 23,81,393. For last year the sum, deducting North Canara, was Rs. 23,31,174, shewing an increase of Rs. 50,219.

The amount of Military Repairs is Rs. 1,29,210 this year as against Rs. 1,90,918 last year. Entries for Military Repairs have been observed for the following Stations, at which Troops are supposed not to be quartered:—Ganjam, Tinevelly, Coimbatore, Salem; also in the Kistna and Godavery Civil Districts. It is necessary to look to these items, and generally to revise the incidence of the charges, taking care that no improper debit is placed against the Military heading. For Civil Buildings Rs. 1,33,938 against Rs. 1,40,900 last year. Irrigation Works shew an increase of Rs. 30,579; Communications an increase of Rs. 67,907. This calls for no special remark.

38. To reduce the aggregate amount of the Budget within the sum of 68 lakhs Rs. 41,457 will be struck off the total for Repairs, leaving Rs. 23,39,936 as the sum to be approved.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

39. The aggregate amount set down is Rs. 16,44,500. This is a very large sum, and greatly in excess of the amount allowed to any other part of the Empire. After the remarks that have already been made on this subject generally it is only necessary to add here that a considerable reduction in the total cost of Establishments might be reasonably insisted upon, say 2 lakhs of Rupees annually. But to prevent any sudden disorganization the change might be allowed to be carried out gradually, so as to take effect fully next year, when the maximum charge should certainly not be permitted to exceed 14 lakhs, though it may fairly be expected to be reduced still lower. The alterations of system recently ordered by the Secretary of State will virtually place the Madras Public Works Establishments on the same footing as those Establishments of the rest of India, and will facilitate this reduction of charge which, under any circumstances, the Government of India would have prescribed as essential.

40. This completes the review of the Imperial expenditure, which, as before remarked, will amount in all to 68 lakhs.

41. The Madras Imperial Budget, after the modifications above indicated, will stand as follows:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.

42. No Budget of Local Funds has been received. This Budget should now deal with the allotments that have been made from the Income Tax Fund both for 1861-62 and for 1862-63. If it be prepared before orders on this subject have reached Madras, the Government should be requested to prepare a Supplementary Budget shewing the proposed manner of disposing of these Funds.

43. The Madras Local Funds Proper may be taken at about 3 lakhs; the unspent balance of last year's Income Tax may be put down at 3 lakhs, and the new grant will be about 5 lakhs. In all 11 Lakhs will be available under this head.

44. The charges on the Imperial Revenues for Guaranteed Companies are as follows:—

	Rs.	Rs.
Railway, Controlling Establishment ...	42,750

Total ... 7¼ lakhs.

Guaranteed Capital ... 87 „

BOMBAY BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. The Bombay Budget was received in good time and is clearly drawn out. A supplementary Budget for North Canara has also been sent up; and, with the help of the Report drawn up by Colonel Turner and Mr. Hope after their visit to the District on its transfer to Bombay, which has lately come to hand, the information before the Government of India is all that could be desired.

2. The original assignment on which the Budget is framed was 53 lakhs. Considerable modifications in the distribution of this sum, as proposed in the Budget, will, however, be necessary. No provision is made for the Bombay Harbour Defences; the North Canara Budget is sent up in addition to the 53 lakhs; and a sufficient allotment is not made for the Bombay and Agra Road, the early completion of which for the passage of Mail Carts is a necessity. It is contemplated to re-adjust the distribution of funds by help of an additional grant of 5 lakhs, already specially promised for the Harbour Defences, by certain transfers of Income Tax Works from the Imperial Budget, and by certain actual retrenchments. The net increase of funds will be 5 lakhs, making the entire sum available for Imperial Public Works outlay 58 lakhs.

3. The general result of these modifications will be as follows:—In Part I. Military Works will be increased by 5 lakhs and reduced by Rs. 81,312, being a net increase of Rs. 4,18,688. Civil Works will be reduced Rs. 13,014 in the principal Budget, and Rs. 46,052 in the Canara Budget, leaving a net addition to the principal Budget from Canara of Rs. 8,892, and a general net reduction of Rs. 4,122. Works of improvement will be reduced Rs. 2,91,974 by transfer of Income Tax Works from the principal Budget, and increased by the transfer from Canara of Rs. 1,60,828, and an additional allotment of Rs. 1,36,000 for the Bombay and Agra Road, being a net increase of Rs. 4,854. In Part II. there will be a deduction of Rs. 52,155 from Military Repairs. Civil will remain unchanged in the principal Budget, but receive a net addition of Rs. 4,800 for Canara. Public Improvement will receive a net addition of Rs. 75,200 for Canara, a sum of Rs. 21,002 having been struck out of the demand. In Part III. Establishments may be increased by Rs. 52,735 on account of Canara and additional work generally. Stores are allowed to stand for Rs. 10,215. The Reserve will remain as before at Rs. 5,30,000, it not being necessary to hold a reserve on the special allowance for the Harbour Works.

Part I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—Military.

A. Army.

4. Item No. 1.—Harbour Defences.—The total probable outlay is put put down at 25 lakhs. Five lakhs is allowed for the year under special provisions that have already been communicated to the Bombay Government. For convenience it may here be mentioned generally that the operations were ordered to be carried out only to such an extent as would not interfere with the power of the Government of India to alter the details of the works, if it be so determined, on the submission of the complete designs, which have been called for at the earliest possible date. For the present, however, the work has been generally suspended, in the uncertainty that now prevails as to proper mode of defending Harbours, whether or not it should be entirely undertaken by Iron-plated Ships.

Item No. 3.—Filling up holes in Native Infantry Lines, Rs. 2,468.—Such a work, it is thought, might be done by the Soldiers themselves.

Item No. 4.—Road to connect Ahmedabad Cantonment with Railway Station, Rs. 5,301.—It seems doubtful whether this should be a Military charge.

Item No. 5.—Bridge near Neemuch, Rs. 2,869.—The same remark applies.

Item No. 14.—Guard-room for sundry Departments at Poonah, Rs. 1,207.—The propriety of such a building is not admitted. Military Guards for such purposes are understood to be no longer allowed.

Item No. 19.—Family Quarters at Kirkee.—Estimate Rs. 1,15,400; spent Rs. 46,000; proposed Rs. 46,000. Approved, on the understanding that the number of quarters built does not exceed the actual present requirements of the Troops, which is almost certainly far within the regulation allowance.

Item No. 20.—Barracks at Kirkee.—Estimate Rs. 95,085; proposed Rs. 40,000. Passed.

Item No. 22.—Tiled roof in lieu of thatch to Native Hospital at Ahmednugger.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. Should be allowed to prevent risk of Fires; Rs. 2,705.

Item No. 23.—Improving Barracks at Ahmednugger, Rs. 21,344.—Completes the whole Objected to by Military Finance Department. Should be allowed.

Item No. 28.—Materials for Lines for Native Regiment at Malligaum, Rs. 11,312.—Should be disallowed. Such expenditure for Sepoys' Lines has repeatedly been refused by the Government of India. The grant of hutting money is the proper way of meeting such cases.

Items Nos. 29, 30, and 31.—Barracks, &c., at Asseerghur, Rs. 15,346.—Before this money is laid out it should be finally determined by proper authority that the Post is to be maintained at the strength of a full Company of European Infantry.

Item No. 33.—Dragoon Barracks at Mhow.—Estimate Rs. 3,25,941; proposed expenditure Rs. 2,00,000; 1½ lakhs may be allowed for this year. The Estimates are now before the Military Finance Department, and special orders on details will be given in usual course.

The questions put by the Military Finance Department regarding the subsidiary Force paid by Holkar do not concern this Department and should be dealt with in the Military Department. There seems no doubt, at all events, that the Dragoons will remain at Mhow, and suitable Barracks may better be provided as early as practicable.

Item No. 35.—Canteen at Indore, Rs. 2,170.—The Military Finance Department considers that this should not be allowed without explanation; it may be asked for.

Item No. 40.—Married Quarters at Neemuch, Rs. 12,000.—The same remarks apply as to No. 19.

Item No. 44.—European Guard Room at Neemuch, Rs. 2,099.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. May be allowed; some such building will no doubt be necessary.

Item No. 46.—Hospital for European Infantry at Khundalla, Rs. 20,000.—This should be disallowed until authority is shewn for the establishment of a European Depôt at this place. The Government of India has more than once stated its strong objection to the introduction of new Military Stations for Europeans, as being quite certain to lead to great ultimate expense of all sorts. The necessity for a permanent Station at Khundalla is not understood to have been admitted by the Government of India, and till it has been so allowed this expenditure should not take place. The former correspondence on this subject shews that the Government of Bombay desired the arrangement, but not that the Government of India had sanctioned it.

Item No. 47.—Barracks at Aden.—Estimate Rs. 1,21,823; proposed to spend Rs. 20,000. May be allowed.

Item No. 49.—Hospital at Steamer Point.—Rs. 14,661 to complete. May be allowed.

Item No. 53.—Cells for Lunatics at Kurachee, Rs. 1,207.—Objected to by Military Finance Department, not being a usual arrangement.

Item No. 56.—Fittings in Gun Carriage Factory, Bombay, Rs. 19,540.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. May be allowed.

Item No. 61.—Verandah Sheds for Guns.—Estimate Rs. 19,664; proposed Rs. 10,000. Objected to by Military Finance Department. Explanation required.

5. This completes the review of the Military works. On the whole, an addition is made of Rs. 5,00,000 on item No. 1, and Rs. 81,312 are struck off on other items, leaving a total of Rs. 9,21,310 to be passed. The expenditure of this sum will, however, be subject to satisfactory explanation being given on all points to which exception has been taken, or on which enquiry has been made.

B. Navy.

6. The proposed outlay is Rs. 47,092. The Military Finance Department objects to a portion of this; but, considering that Her Majesty's Ships are henceforth to take up the service of the Indian seas without charge against the Revenues of this country, it will be essential for the Government to keep up proper Dock-Yards at suitable places, and the Establishments at Bombay will certainly require to be maintained. The whole sum might, therefore, be allowed with a caution to the Bombay Government not to permit any outlay on any object, the permanent utility of which after the change of system is not assured.

2.—Civil Administration.

7. Item No. 80.—Postal Emergencies, Rs. 6,000.—This amount is not properly entered here. It will manifestly form part of the Reserve retained specially to meet petty unforeseen charges. The Bombay Government can have no more reason for wishing to deal specially with this charge than with any other appertaining to any other Department administered by the Government of India.

Item No. 82.—Additions to house of Political Superintendent of Thurr and Parkur, Rs. 1,713.—It does not appear on what grounds this Officer is supplied with a house at Government expense. Should be disallowed.

Item No. 85.—Additions to Mint at Bombay.—Estimate Rs. 82,301; expended Rs. 30,000; proposed Rs. 52,301. Approved.

Item No. 87.—Church at Steamer Point, Aden, Rs. 10,000.—Approved.

Items Nos. 89 and 90.—Pendalls for Police in Belgaum and Sindh, Rs. 2,787; Rs. 2,514.—The propriety of these charges seems doubtful, and explanation must be given. Disallowed.

Item No. 91.—Court House, Ahmedabad.—Estimate Rs. 43,135; proposed Rs. 30,000. Approved.

The above are in the principal Budget. In that of Canara the following call for notice:—

Items Nos. 1 and 2.—Cutcherries at Sirsy and Soopah, Rs. 28,450.—It seems likely that the transfer of the District to Bombay will lead to change of management. This expenditure may be deferred. Disallowed.

Item No. 5.—Jail at Honore, Rs. 17,602.—The same remark applies. Disallowed.

8. After these deductions the amount to be passed will be, on the principal Budget, Rs. 1,39,956; for Canara Rs. 8,892; in all Rs. 1,48,848.

3.—Public Improvement.

H. Municipal.

9. Item No. 94.—Discretionary allowances for petty works, Rs. 38,643.—Transferred to Income Tax.

I. Marine.

10. Item No. 95.—Apollo Pier, widening, Rs. 24,378.—Transferred to Income Tax.

Item No. 96.—Reclaiming Apollo Bay from the sea.—Estimate Rs. 6,00,118; proposed to spend Rs. 1,50,000. Transferred to Income Tax.

Item No. 97.—Improvements of Kurrachee Harbour.—Estimates Rs. 13,70,000; spent Rs. 5,16,533; proposed Rs. 3,50,000. Approved.

11. And for Canara:—

Item No. 6.—Pier at Beitkool.—Proposed Rs. 33,000. It is stated that there are no approved designs for this work. Colonel Turner having visited the place it is to be hoped that a definite project may be submitted. The suggestions made in his Report may be considered unobjectionable so long as the operations are confined to merely tentative proceedings and do not exceed in cost the sum here set down. But for anything more than this a well arranged and carefully considered design should be prepared. A Coast such as that on which Beitkool is situated is not one on which the sea can be trifled with. The subject will no doubt be properly taken up by the Government of Bombay; but it is necessary to declare that the Government of India, though quite disposed to co-operate heartily in establishing a cotton port at Beitkool, will not grant larger funds until it has been thoroughly satisfied that the money will be well applied.

K. Agricultural.

12. The Irrigation Works are generally proposed to be dealt with on the principle stated in the Note on the Madras Budget. Those works from which the Government is likely to receive direct profit will continue to be charged against the Imperial Funds. Others, apparently of local advantage, have been transferred to be charged to the Income Tax Fund. It has been necessary to select certain of the works for transfer in this manner, but the Bombay Government may use its discretion in altering the arrangements in detail so long as the general financial result is not disturbed. A list of the Income Tax Works to be transferred from the Imperial Budget is annexed.

Items Nos. 98 to 100.—Irrigation Works in Dharwar.—Estimates Rs. 1,29,687; spent Rs. 19,755; proposed Rs. 24,968. Approved.

Items Nos. 101 to 103.—Irrigation Works in Nassick.—Transferred to Income Tax.

Items Nos. 104 to 112.—Irrigation Works in Candeish.—Proposed Rs. 26,391, and approved. Transferred to Income Tax, Rs. 17,150.

Item No. 114.—Mitrow Canal.—Estimate Rs. 4,22,937; spent Rs 1,85,600; proposed Rs. 80,000. Progress seems slow. May be approved.

Item No. 115.—Kulalie River Improvements.—Estimate Rs. 1,16,328; spent Rs. 45,871; proposed Rs. 25,000. May be approved, but slow progress.

Item No. 116.—Canal from Sukkur on right bank of Indus.—Estimate Rs. 7,29,820. No progress. No proposed expenditure.

Item No. 117.—Tanks in Sattara, Rs. 6,461.

Item No. 118.—Embankments in Surat, Rs. 13,100.—These two transferred to Income Tax.

13. The aggregate amount remaining under the head Agricultural after the above changes will be Rs. 1,56,359. It will be observed that there is nothing of importance in active progress under this heading, and it seems necessary to draw the attention of the Bombay Government to the propriety of finishing off the larger incomplete works before taking in hand any more of the smaller class; and generally of not taking up minor works until it is seen that they may be completed out of hand without delay.

L. Communications.

14. Of metalled roads the following are noted:—

Items Nos. 119 and 120.—Main line, Poonah to Madras, vid Bangalore.—Estimate Rs. 2,84,172; spent Rs. 20,000; proposed Rs. 20,000.

Items Nos. 122, 123, and No. 9 Canara (unmetalled) Road from Bellary to Beitkool.—Estimates Rs. 4,24,125; spent Rs. 1,19,668; proposed Rs. 1,15,330. This is the main line of road across the ghâts to Beitkool. It equally serves for Dharwar. This line should apparently be made the great road, and all other passages of the ghâts in this vicinity should be left alone until this is satisfactorily completed to a first class road. The sum made available for it is comparatively small.

Item No. 126.—Road from Vingorla to Belgaum.—Estimate Rs. 5,60,110; spent Rs. 25,630; proposed Rs. 30,000.

Items Nos. 127 and 128.—Road over Koombarlee Ghât to Chiploon.—Estimates Rs. 7,38,934; spent Rs. 4,98,789; proposed Rs. 30,000.

Item No. 132.—Road from Gogo to Ahmedabad.—Estimate Rs. 2,90,945; spent Rs. 3,05,430; proposed Rs. 10,000.

Item No. 8 Canara.—Road over Unsky Ghat to Beitkool.—Estimate Rs. 1,26,460; spent Rs. 40,805; proposed Rs. 25,595. This probably should be discontinued till the main line is done.

15. On the whole, the Estimates for all the metalled roads put forward being Rs. 23,71,161, the money spent is Rs. 9,90,517, and proposed for expenditure this year Rs. 2,16,469. At this rate it would take seven years to complete the lines now in hand It is obvious that this is not a satisfactory state of things, and that it would be better policy to concentrate work on the most essential lines, leaving the less important for the future. The Bombay Government cannot have any reason for expecting a larger assignment for Public Works in coming years, and it should re-consider generally the allotments made for its roads with a view to dropping some of the less, and reinforcing those of greater importance. To assist in this further transfers of works still left in the Imperial Budget to the Income Tax Fund might be made.

16. Of the unmetalled roads the most important is—

Items Nos. 139 to 143.—Bombay and Agra Road.—Estimates Rs. 8,95,991; spent Rs. 4,29,074; proposed Rs. 1,49,696. This sum will be increased by an additional grant of Rs. 1,36,000, making for expenditure this year Rs. 2,85,696. This will leave about 2 lakhs to complete the work estimated for.

Of the unmetalled Roads the total of the Estimates brought forward is Rs. 13,35,795; spent Rs. 5,93,368; proposed Rs. 4,15,709, including the extra allowance on the Bombay and Agra Road. These figures are more satisfactory than in the other section of Road works

For Bridges the total of the Estimates is Rs. 3,35,427; spent Rs. 1,20,994; proposed Rs. 1,70,291. Satisfactory

A large Estimate for improvements to the Indus between Sukkur and Rukkur, Rs. 2,05,984 is put down, but no funds are available for it.

17. The total amount under the head of Communications that will be passed will be Rs. 8,34,526.

M. Telegraph.

18. Aggregate sum proposed Rs. 23,649. May be passed.

19. On the whole, the aggregate sum that may be passed for Public Improvement will be Rs. 13,73,885.

20. Allowing Rs. 10,215 for stores, the total of Part I. will be Rs. 25,01,350.

Part II.—Repairs.

21. The aggregate amount asked for is Rs. 16,61,672 including Canara, or Rs. 15,60,670 without Canara. Last year the sum asked was Rs. 15,52,388; the sum allowed was Rs. 14,81,266.

22. The Military Repairs, amounting to Rs. 3,02,155, seem high; and a sum of Rs. 2,50,000 is considered to be sufficient, any absolutely necessary deficiency being made good by economy in other repairs. This will effect a reduction of Rs 52,155.

23. The Military Finance Department here, too, remarks on charges for repairs at Stations supposed not to be occupied by Troops, as Nassick, Rs. 1,959. The details of these charges must be again examined to see that no erroneous entries are made.

24. The Bombay Government specially refer to the reduction made last year in the amount set down for repairs, remarking that it will lead to ruinous results if buildings are not kept in proper order, and that the climate on the West Coast is very destructive. They also refer to the Sind Canal clearances, amounting to 3½ lakhs, as an item of charge peculiar to their Provinces.

25. As to the general representation it is of course true that works need a certain quantity of repair absolutely, and the climate of Bombay may be more trying than that of some other parts of India. But the demand made by Bombay is about 2½ lakhs more that either Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, or the Punjab, in the first of which the rain is more generally excessive than at Bombay, and in which there are heavy embankment works and important navigation channels. In the North-Western Provinces and the Punjab are Irrigation Canals on quite as large a scale, to say the least of it, as at Bombay. There is every reason to think that the charges for repairs at Bombay are really excessive, and that they might be reduced to nearly the same as Bengal or North-Western Provinces, that is, to about 13 lakhs.

26. The aggregate allowed will be Rs. 15,88,515, a reduction being made, besides the sum before noticed, of Rupees 21,002 for Canara, in which the demand is excessive, and an item of Rs. 10,000 for Road discretionary allowance, and Rs. 232, Coompta Streets, being transferable to Income Tax Fund.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

27. The proposed expenditure is Rs. 11,27,400 exclusive of Canara, or Rs. 11,80,842 with Canara. Last year, without Canara, the demand was Rs. 11,67,088. On the whole, considering the enlarged amount of the Budget, Rs. 11,80,135 will be allowed as a maximum charge.

28. This concludes the review of the Bombay Imperial Budget, aggregating 58 lakhs, and distributed as follows :—

29. The Budget of Local Funds available for Public Works has been sent up by Bombay in a fairly complete form, but it seems to apply to the year 1861-62 rather than to 1862-63. It may be, however, that the Funds have been allowed to accumulate till now, and that the expenditure will really occur in the current year 1862-63, though the assets are those derived from income of the period anterior to 1st May 1861.

30. The aggregate balance of Local Funds in hand (including Canara) on the 1st May 1861 is stated to have been Rs. 11,08,900. But in this is an item regarding which there is a doubt whether it should be 1½ lakhs, more or less. There is also some question about old balances stated to have been illegally paid into the Imperial Treasuries by District Officers in past years. No doubt if any of these Funds are constituted by law for special objects the amounts thus disposed of, when ascertained, should be made good; but it may be doubted whether it is otherwise expedient to stir up the old accounts of these transactions. These points will be referred to the Financial Department for consideration.

31. The Funds available are as follows :—

The Bombay Port Fund ...	Rs.	3,48,155
Ferry and Toll Fund (general)	,,	4,51,962
Fine and Stray Cattle Fund (general) ...	,,	2,63,618
Other Funds (Sindh) ...	,,	33,665
Ditto (Canara) ...	,,	1,1500
Total ...	Rs.	11,08,900

32. The purely Municipal Funds of Bombay are not included in these Returns, they being entirely at the disposal of the Local Commissioners. Hereafter a Memorandum of the operations of the Municipality will be sent up for information. This seems correct.

The proposed expenditure is—

34. In addition to the above, however, will be the allotments of the Income Tax Fund. The balance of the sum given in 1861-62 may be estimated at 6 lakhs, and the amount for 1862-63 at 8 lakhs, in all 14 lakhs. The proposed distribution of these Funds must be revised entirely in consequence of the changes made in the Imperial Budget.

35. On the whole, the sum available under this head is likely to be—

Local Funds, say	...	...	9 lakhs.
Income Tax, 1861-62	...	...	6 „
„ 1862-63	...	...	8 „
		Total ...	23 lakhs.

36. The charges on the Imperial Revenues for Guaranteed Companies will be as follows:—

Railway Controlling Establishment	Rs.	93,700
„ Cost of land...	„	2,00,000
Total ...	Rs.	2,93,700

This amount makes provision for all land required within the Bombay Territory. A special allotment is made in the Central Provinces Budget for the land required for the Great Indian Peninsula Railway in those Districts.

37. The estimated expenditure of Guaranteed Capital is—

G. I. P. Railway Company ...	Rs.	150,00,000
Bombay and Baroda Railway Co. „		47,00,000
Sindh Railway Company ... „		9,50,000
Total ...	Rs.	206,50,000

These figures do not agree exactly in detail with Colonel Goodwyn's Estimate, but the total amount is the same as allowed by him.

A portion of this expenditure will take place beyond the limits of the Bombay Territory, but the amount not having been separated it cannot be properly shewn now. The defect may be corrected in future years.

38. The aggregate estimated outlay on Public Works of all sorts then under Government control, and excluding Municipal expenditure, will be nearly three millions Sterling, viz.,—

Government of India, Home Department.

Stamping of Documents.

From E. C. BAYLEY, ESQ., Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, to SIR GEORGE COUPER, BART. & C. B., Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces,—(dated Fort William, the 17th July 1862.)

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 133A., dated the 19th ultimo, referring, for the decision of the Government of India, a question raised by the Deputy Commissioner of Jhansi respecting the value of the Stamp necessary for Plaints in suits for certain lands in the Jhansi Division, the proprietors of which have terminable maafee rights expiring at the end of the twenty years' settlement.

2. In reply I am desired to state that the Governor General in Council believes that the provisions of Clause d of the Note to Article 11, Schedule B. of Act X. of 1862, have been always understood as applying to Estates permanently exempted from the payment of Revenue, or claimed to be so held, and not to Estates the rent-free holding of which is of a temporary nature, terminable at a certain time, or on the occurrence of a certain contingency.

3. The Governor General in Council considers that the latter class of tenures must be held to fall under the general rule contained in Clause "e" of the same Note, and that the Plaintiffs should be allowed to estimate their claims for the purpose of the Stamp Act at what they consider the claim would bring if sold, or at its selling price or market value.

4. It seems improbable to the Governor General in Council that any Judge would rule the point otherwise than in accordance with this view, and until there shall be a contrary ruling by a competent Court, he does not consider it desirable that the Government should interfere. If a contrary ruling should be adopted, His Excellency in Council will be prepared to consider whether a declaratory Act should be passed, or whether an order should be issued in the exercise of the discretionary power vested in the Governor General in Council by the 33rd Section of the Act.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 31st July 1862.

READ a Telegram from the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated 11th June last, enquiring whether each receipt given on the Pay Abstract of a Government Establishment when the sum for which the receipt is given exceeds Rupees 20 should bear a one anna Stamp.

Read a letter from the Advocate-General, dated 3rd July 1862, stating that such receipts require a one anna Stamp.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that the general receipt given by the Head of an Office on the back of a Pay Abstract is not liable to a Stamp Duty, the receipt being executed in this instance by an Officer of Government in his official capacity and acting on behalf of Government; but that, when the amount of the Pay Abstract comes to be distributed, the receipts of the payees for salaries exceeding 20 Rupees a month must have a Stamp of one anna affixed to each like other receipts given for the payment of money. The taking of such receipts on the back of a general Pay Abstract does not, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, form any ground of exemption.

2. The question may arise whether, the law being as above stated, such receipts should be specially exempted from Stamp duty. The Governor General in Council sees no reason why they should. The tax is one which has been purposely put at such a low uniform rate that it will hardly be felt as a burden by any one; and it therefore appears to His Excellency in Council to be very undesirable to admit of any exemptions from the tax other than those provided for by the Law.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 1st August 1862.

READ a letter No. R. 4975, dated 16th June last, from the Accountant-General to the Government of India, and its enclosure, received under cover of a docket from the Financial Department No. 4348, dated 13th idem, relating to the question of affixing Stamps to receipts for interest due on Government Promissory Notes.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that no Stamp under Article 61 of Schedule A. appended to Act X. of 1862 is required either on the endorsement for interest which is made on the back of a Government Promissory Note, or on the receipt given upon an interest draft which is an order for the payment of money, executed on behalf of Government by a Government Officer.

2. The principal instruments being exempted from Stamp duty, the receipts endorsed on them must, His Excellency in Council thinks, be regarded as coming within the following general exemption under Article 61 of Schedule A., namely—"Receipt or discharge written upon any Promissory Note, Bill of Exchange, Draft or Order for payment of money duly stamped."

3. The case of an audited Salary Bill is different. The Bill is not a draft or order for the payment of money, nor is it an instrument expressing a consideration, or whereby any principal sum is charged. The auditing of the Bill by the Civil Pay-Master merely amounts to a statement of account between the Government and the person who sent in the Bill.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 4th August 1862.

READ a letter from the Officiating Accountant-General to the Government of India No. 279, dated 3rd July 1862, received under cover of a docket from the Financial Department No. 4485, dated 8th idem, relative to the Stamp duty to be levied on Emigration Bonds.

Read the correspondence which the Officiating Accountant-General had on the subject with the Solicitor to Government, as also the Standing Counsel's opinion to the effect that "this Bond "not falling within the general exemption at "the end of Schedule A. of the Stamp Act "requires an optional Stamp, and that the proper "Stamp will be one which would cover the amount "of the penalty, i. e., in the present case, "Rupees 35."

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 7th August 1862.

READ a letter dated the 25th of July 1862, No. 322, from the Officiating Accountant-General to the Government of India, and its enclosure, received under cover of a docket from the Financial Department No. 4985, dated the 31st idem, relating to the question of affixing Stamps to Receipts on Supply Bills and Public Service and Privilege Transfer Receipts.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council observes that the opinion given in the Resolution dated the 1st instant, as to the exemption from the payment of Stamp duty of receipts for interest due on Government Promissory Notes applies to receipts written upon unstamped Supply Bills and Public Service and Privilege Transfer Receipts.

2. In these cases, as in the former case, the principal instruments being exempted from Stamp duty must be dealt with, quoad the receipt or discharge endorsed on them, in the way in which they would have been dealt with if by law a Stamp had been required and had accordingly been affixed.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 11th August 1862.

Read again Act No. X. of 1862.

Read a letter No. 254, dated 27th ultimo, from the Officiating Accountant-General to the Government of India, and its enclosure, received under cover of a docket from the Financial Department No. 4434, dated 5th instant, soliciting orders as to whether a guarantee tendered for the adjustment of demands existing on the Public Books against Mr. R. J. Wigram, of the Civil Service, proceeding to England on Furlough, is liable to the payment of Stamp duty under Act X. of 1862.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council has no doubt that guarantees of the kind referred to by the Officiating Accountant-General, being in the nature of obligations for the conditional payment of money, are liable to Stamp duty under Schedule A. of Act X. of 1862.

2. His Excellency in Council, however, believes that in the great majority of cases such guarantees prove merely nominal, no action being ever required to be taken upon them; and, having regard to the circumstances under which such guarantees are taken, it seems to him that they may very properly be exempted from Stamp duty. A Notification will accordingly be issued under the provisions of Section XXXIII. of Act. X. of 1862, exempting from the payment of Stamp duty all guarantees for the due adjustment of public claims or demands required from public Officers on occasions of transfer of office or of leave of absence or of retirement.

3. The Governor General in Council sees no ground for extending this exemption to the case of guarantees furnished for the refund of salaries or pensions over or wrongly drawn, such salaries and pensions are not claimable, and are not properly payable until they have been audited, and until it has been duly certified that the person in whose behalf the salary or pension is drawn was alive during the period embraced by the salary or pensions so drawn and continued entitled to the same. The payment by the Government of the salary or pension in a case such as that supposed before the usual life certificate is furnished is a matter of indulgence or favor, and as the Government, in order to save itself from loss, is obliged to take a guarantee conditioning the refund of any part of the amount paid which may be shewn not to have been payable, the party enjoying the indulgence or favor has no just ground to complain of being made to pay the Stamp prescribed by law for such guarantee.

4. The Stamp on a guarantee of the kind under notice will be given under Article 17, Schedule A., but it should be of such a value as would, if calculated according to Article 12, suffice for the amount of the payment or payments which the guarantee is intended to cover, it being understood that, beyond the amount so covered, payments will not be made except for periods for which the life of the person entitled to the pension or salary, or absentee allowances, has been duly certified.

Notification No. 4128, dated the 11th August 1862.

UNDER the provisions of Section XXXIII. of Act X. of 1862, the Governor General in Council is pleased to exempt from the payment of Stamp duty all guarantees for the due adjustment of public claims or demands required from public Officers on occasions of transfer of office or of leave of absence or of retirement.

Report on Specimens of Cotton sent to the International Exhibition from India.

From A. M. DOWLEANS, Esq., Special Agent for the Government of India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Home Department,—(dated London, the 26th July 1862.)

I HAVE the honor to report that the several specimens of Raw Cotton forwarded from India to the International Exhibition of 1862 have been most minutely examined by the Jurors, as well as by persons practically conversant with the staple, and that the various samples have been valued as follows, viz. :—

No.	1.	Cotton from Hazareebaugh, raised from New Orleans seed	12¼	d. per lb.
„	2.	Cotton from Arrah, Shahabad, the produce of Egyptian seed ...	13½	„ „
„	3	Cotton from Jugdispore, from New Orleans seed ...	12½	„ „

„	7.	Cotton from Packergunge ...	8¼	„ „
„	8.	Cotton from the Jora District ..	8¼	„ „
„	9.	Cotton from the Punjab ...	8¼	„ „
„	10.	Cotton from Seebee (Sindh) ...	9	„ „
„	11.	Cotton from Sutwaree (seed unknown) ...	11	„ „
„	12.	Cotton from Sutwaree, Egyptian seed	17	„ „
„	13.	Cotton from Ahmedabad, Nurma Native Cotton ...	10½	„ „
„	14.	Cotton from Poonah, from Egyptian seed ...	14	„ „
„	15.	Cotton from Poonah, from Indigenous Cotton ...	11½	„ „
„	16.	Cotton from Belgaum, from Egyptian seed ...	12	„ „
„	17.	Cotton from Ahmedabad, Nurma Cotton	10½	„ „
„	18.	Cotton from Ahmedabad, Lalia Cotton ...	9	„ „

„	20.	Cotton from Madras, Bourbon seed	12½	„ „
„	21.	Cotton from Chingleput, Egyptian seed ...	11½	„ „

No. 22.	Cotton from Tinnevelly, (seed not stated)	...	11⅓	d. per lb.
„ 23.	Cotton from Nellore, (seed not stated)	...	9⅓	„
„ 24.	Cotton from Chingleput (Gossypium arboreum)	...	8½	„ „
„ 25.	Cotton from Arracan, Egyptian seed		13	„ „
„ 26.	Cotton from Singapore, Government House Gardens	...	13	„ „
„ 27.	Cotton from Singapore, Sea Island Cotton	...	14	„ „
„ 28.	Cotton from Singapore (seed not stated)	...	12½	„ „
„ 29.	Cotton from Singapore, Malacca Cotton	...	12⅓	„ „
„ 30.	Cotton from Wellesley, Washington seed	...	14	„ „
„ 31.	Cotton from Penang, Pernambucco seed	...	18	„ „
„ 32.	Cotton from Glagu estate, from Sea Island Cotton	...	24	„ „
No. 33.	Cotton from Mysore, Nuggur Division	...	10⅓	d. per lb.
„ 34.	Cotton from Mysore, Chittledroog	...	12⅓	„ „
„ 35.	Cotton from Mysore, Bangalore	...	8¾	„ „
„ 36.	Cotton from Hingenghaut	..	9	„ „

2. From these valuations it would appear that Cotton raised from Sea Island and Egyptian seed are considered the best among all Indian staples, and it is perhaps worthy of notice that these identical Cottons appear to be produced in localities either close to places of export by sea, or within range of Railway communication.

3. To fifteen out of the abovementioned specimens Medals have been awarded at the International Exhibition; but, as the Juries are revising their awards, it would be premature to submit at present a detailed list of the successful Exhibitors of Indian Raw Cottons.

The following Rules, sanctioned by the Government of Bengal, in a Notification dated 9th ultimo, for the guidance of the Superintendent of Stationery, and of all Public Officers who are authorized to indent upon the Government Stationery Office, are to be held applicable to the North-Western Provinces, and are re-published for general information :—

RULES FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.

I. The Superintendent of Stationery, under the general supervision of the Board of Revenue for the Lower Provinces, has the entire charge and management of the Stationery Office.

II. The Superintendent, with the approval of the Board, enters into contracts for the supply of Stationery to this Store. All articles, not included in the contracts, which it may be necessary to procure, are purchased by the Superintendent at his own discretion, and he is responsible for the quality of such articles.

III. To enable the Superintendent to make purchases he is supplied monthly, on application to the Accountant-General, with letters of credit on the Bank of Bengal. He submits monthly, for the Board's audit, a Statement of his expenditure, together with the Bills of purchase.

IV. The Superintendent is responsible for the due care and preservation of the Stationery Stores. He is allowed a Store-keeper, and Deputy Store-keeper or Packer, from whom he may require Security, for his own protection, to the extent of Rupees 20,000 from the former, and Rupees 2,000 from the latter.

V. The Superintendent corresponds directly with all Officers who receive supplies from the Stationery Office. But Circular Letters containing general instructions are submitted for the Board's approval previous to issue. All differences which may arise between the Superintendent and Indenting Officers are referred for the decision of the Board.

VI. The Indents from Public Officers upon the Stationery Office are to be drawn out by Indenting Officers, and supplied by the Superintendent according to the scale approved by Government and in conformity with the following Rules :—

RULES FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS INDENTING UPON THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STATIONERY.

VII. The following Officers are authorized to indent upon the Government Stationery Office :—

All Officers in charge of independent Offices whose appointments are published in the Government Gazette. Also, the following Officers of the Supreme Court :—

Administrator-General.
Master and Registrar.
Clerk of the Crown and Prothonotary.
Sworn Clerk.
Receiver.
Chief Interpreter.
Clerks to the Judges.
Crier.
Coroner.
Taxing Officer.
Chief Clerk of Insolvent Court.
Sheriff of Calcutta.

Commanders of Government Vessels.

Officers specially authorized to draw supplies of Stationery from this Store.

NOTE.—All Public Officers not authorized to indent on the Stationery Office may be supplied with Stationery by the Superintendent at a charge of 5 per cent above the cost of the articles supplied.

Form of Indents and directions for forwarding them.

VIII. A scale has been drawn out (A.) for regulating the supply of Stationery for all Public Offices, in accordance with which Indents must be framed and submitted in the Form prescribed (B), the certificate at the foot of the latter being duly signed.

No other than printed Forms of Indent, which can be obtained from the Superintendent's Office, should be used; nor should a transmitting letter be sent with the Indent, except when explanation is required to be given, which cannot be written on the Indent.

IX. The abovementioned scale is intended to apply to Public Offices of all Departments, except the Hospital Department, for which a separate scale (C.) is sanctioned.

X. In cases where the full quantity and superior description of Stationery allowed by the scale is not necessary, it will be the duty of the Indenting Officer to modify his Indent accordingly.

XI. Mofussil Officers indenting will be careful to fill up accurately the label on the form of Indent, designating the address to be attached to the cases. When this is omitted the responsibility of non-receipt or delay in the arrival of the Stores wil rest with the Indenting Officer.

XII. As a general rule, all Indents will be for the calendar year, and all the columns in the Form must be duly filled up. In emergent Indents, for which the same Form is to be used, the 3rd, 5th and 6th columns only need be filled up. But emergent Indents should be resorted to as seldom as possible, and the explanation of their necessity should be full. Where the explanation is not satisfactory the Superintendent of Stationery is authorized to disallow the Indent.

3rd. Balance in hand.
5th. Quantity now indented for.
6th. Number of Assistants, &c.
NOTE.—All Indents for paper required for printing purposes must be submitted separately from those for the ordinary use of the Office.

XIII. Annual Indents from all Offices above Allahabad should be despatched, so as to reach the Superintendent's Office on or before the 1st of August of the year preceding that for which the supply is required. From all other Offices they should be sent so as to reach him by the 1st of October.

XIV. Indents are to be forwarded direct to the Superintendent by all Officers, except those named below, who, on account of the expensive and professional nature of the articles required by them, and because the scale is no guide to the proper supply, must submit theirs through their Official superiors, who will examine, countersign, and forward them to the Stationery Office, that is to say,—

NOTE.—Indents for Mathematical Instruments, not being common Compasses and Parallel Rulers, are to be forwarded to the Superintendent of the Mathematical Instrument Department.

Officers of the Departments of Public Works through the Superintending Engineer of the Division.

Officers attached to the Great Trigonometrical Survey through the Surveyor-General.

Officers of the Revenue Survey through the Deputy Surveyor-General.

Officers of the Canal and Roorkee College Departments through the Local Head of those Departments.

XV. The Superintendent of the Alipore Jail Press will obtain paper from the Stationery Office for all Forms required from him for the Public Service. Officers indenting on the Alipore Jail Press for Forms should apply through the Stationery Office, but should not forward to the Press paper for the Forms which they may require.

XVI. Should the Superintendent of the Press consider that the documents indented for can be supplied upon paper of a smaller size, or less expensive description than that specified in the Indent, it will be his duty to submit a proposition to that effect to the Head, at the Presidency, of the Department to which the Indenting Officer belongs, who will decide upon the point in question.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BE ATTENDED TO IN RECEIVING SUPPLIES OF STATIONERY.

XVII. The Superintendent of Stationery will advice the Indenting Officer when and how his supply of Stationery is despatched, noting particularly the address (which will be copied from the label on the Indent) to which it is consigned. Should there be any error in the address so notified, or should the despatch not reach its destination in due course, the Indenting Officer must take such steps as may be necessary for the correction of the error in the address, and for securing the receipt of the supply despatched, communicating at the same time with the Superintendent of Stationery if he considers it necessary.

XVIII. On the arrival of the supply the Indenting Officer should have the packages placed in a dry and properly protected place prior to their being opened and counted out as soon as can conveniently be done.

XIX. The packages must be carefully opened and their contents counted out in the presence of the Head of the Indenting Office, who is required to watch the process, certifying the same at the foot of the receipt. The receipt must then be signed and immediately transmitted to the Superintendent with a detail of such articles as ought to be in the case according to the list received from the Superintendent, but which are not found in it. The transmission of the receipt must not be delayed pending the reference to the Stationery Office regarding such short receipts, which will form the subject of a separate correspondence.

XX. Officers who have Covenanted Assistants may employ those Assistants to supervise the unpacking and counting of the supply, and in the Government Secretariats, Boards, and Sudder Courts, this duty may be performed by the Registers. In all other Offices in case of the absence on duty of the Head of the Office, or other sufficient cause, the packages may be opened by the Head Clerk or principal Uncovenanted Assistant. In all these cases the Certificate must be signed by the person who opens the packages, and countersigned by the Head of the Office.

ADJUSTMENT OF SHORT RECEIPTS.

XXI. The liabilities for short receipts will be adjusted as follows.—

The Superintendent of Stationery will submit to the Board, annually, a Statement of short receipts classed under three heads, A., B., and C.

The value of trifling deficiencies contingent upon excusable accident will be included in A. and passed by the Board to be written off to Profit and Loss in the accounts of the Superintendent.

The liability for short receipts where the supplies are certified to have been opened and duly examined in the presence of the Head of the Office will come under head B. and rest with the Superintendent of Stationery and his employés.

For the value of short receipts where the provisions of these Rules shall not have been strictly observed, which will be shewn under head C., the Receiving Officer will be held responsible.

XXII. The above Statements, with the Board's orders on them, will then be sent to the Accountant's Office for adjustment.

In cases where the Stationery Office is held responsible, the amount will stand at the personal debit of the Superintendent until recovered by him from the party responsible to him.

When the Indenting Officer is held liable, as under head C., an Extract from the Statement will be sent to the Civil Auditor's, Military Auditor-General's, or Accountant's Offices, as the case may be, with a view to the necessary steps being taken for the recovery of the amount under the general Rules in force in those Offices for the recovery of other dues to Government.

XXIII. Whenever the Receiving Officer may have reason to consider that the packing or transport of the cases has been improperly or carelessly performed, he is required to intimate the same, whether actual injury has resulted or not, to the Superintendent of Stationery, mentioning the reasons for his opinion, with suggestions for future prevention. The Superintendent will take steps to obviate a recurrence of the neglect pointed out.

XXIV. On receiving an Indent from an Office at the Presidency, the Superintendent will fix a day for the delivery of the Stationery. Wednesdays and Saturdays being expressly set aside for the delivery of Stationery to Presidency Offices. At the time fixed an Assistant from the Indenting Office will attend at the Stationery Office to take charge of the supplies. Objections must be made before the supplies leave the Office, and bottles, baskets, &c., belonging to the Stationery Office must be returned.

COMPLAINTS.

XXV. Complaint as to the quality of supplies received should be accompanied by an average sample of the article complained of, duly attested by the complaining Officer, as being part of the supply furnished by the Stationery Office on such a date, and the marks on the articles or covering of the packages should be carefully ascertained and reported. To prevent fraudulent substitution of other than the Government supplies, these complaints can only be admitted when preferred within seven days of the opening of the cases. Complaints of good articles being damaged in transit should be accompanied by the Officer's opinion, and the grounds of it as to whether the damage was caused by bad soldering, careless packing, or from mal-treatment of the package in the Post Office, Steamer, or other mode of conveyance.

CONTINGENT BILLS.

XXVI. In consequence of the arrangements now made for the timely Indent for, and supply of, Stationery from the Government Office to Public Offices in all parts of the country, the necessity for purchasing supplies on the spot will rarely occur. Such purchases may occasionally be indispensable, but will only be admitted where the case is shewn to be one of great emergency, and the declaration, upon honor, at the foot of the Bill is duly signed. Public Officers are desired to borrow from other Offices, pending the arrival of their own supplies, rather than resort to local purchase, giving early advice to the Superintendent.

XXVII. The actual expenditure on account of such articles as are not supplied on Indent by the Superintendent of Stationery will be included monthly in a Contingent Bill (Form of which will be supplied from the Stationery Office) and forwarded in duplicate to the Superintendent of Stationery, whose countersignature will be sufficient authority for the expenditure being charged in the Cash Account of the Office transmitting it.

NOTE.—Serampore Paper can always be supplied and should be indented for in the Annual Indents.

The Contingent Stationery Bill of any Office which has no Treasury of its own will be payable, when countersigned by the Superintendent, at the Treasury from which the salaries of the Office are disbursed. The above Rule is intended to apply only to Officers located at Sudder Stations, and not to Moonsiffs, Darogahs of Police, of Salt Chowkeys, and similar Mofussil Officers.*

* NOTE.—It applies to all Joint Magistrates as well as to Sub-Deputy Opium Agents.

XXVIII. In cases where the Superintendent of Stationery finds that he can supply any article of Stationery at a lower rate than that charged in the Contingent Bill of any Office, he will intimate the same to the Head of that Office, who will then abstain from making local purchases and indent upon the Stationery Office for the articles indicated by the Superintendent.

The Superintendent can supply Country Paper of good quality at Rs. 2-8 per ream.

XXIX. In the Stationery Bill above described will be included all charges for Vinegar, Glue, Paste, Country Ink, Twine, Thread, Stamping Ink, Stamping Inkstand, Tale, Cloth for binding Records.

XXX. Every Officer in charge of an independent Office should submit monthly one Stationery Contingent Bill, shewing, under distinct heads, the charges for the several Departments in his Office. Every Bill should contain all the charges incurred during the month for which it purports to be drawn. Any item charged on account of previous months to be disallowed.

PREVENTION OF ABUSES.

XXXI. Care must be taken by the Head of every Office to prevent the use of the Government Stationery in any other than the Public Service. The Stores of Stationery should be placed in charge (under lock and key) of a responsible Writer or Assistant in the Office. A Book (which is to be sent, when required for inspection, to the Superintendent) is to be kept by him of all issues of Stationery in the Form prescribed and supplied by the Stationery Office, and such issues are to be acknowledged in it by the signature (in initials) of the Officer or Assistant who takes the articles. Any abuse apparent to the Assistant in charge of the Stationery is to be brought to the immediate notice of the Head of the Office.

XXXII. Packing cases received from the Stationery Office are to be sold, and the proceeds credited to the Superintendent of Stationery in the Cash Accounts of the Office, the amount so credited being communicated to the Superintendent.

1. The Bengal Budget is submitted in a complete and satisfactory form, and owing to the Income Tax Works having been entirely excluded from the Imperial Budget, such large modifications as have been found necessary in other Provincial Budgets will here not be called for.

2. The original assignment was 52½ lakhs. The Lieutenant-Governor sends up two schemes for disposing of this sum: First, on the supposition that it will include the 1 per cent Income Tax allotment, which he takes at 11 lakhs; and Second, on the supposition that the Income Tax grant will be in addition to the 52½ lakhs. As it has happened, the last of these is the truth, and it is the Imperial Budget for 52½ lakhs which has to be considered.

3. The relief given by the separation of Arracan from Bengal may be taken at 1½ lakhs, and it is of course equivalent to an increase of assignment to the same amount.

4. The modifications proposed to be made in the Budget allotments will be as follows:—In Part I, Military, there will be a reduction of Rs. 51,338 and an addition of Rs. 50,000; in all a net reduction of Rs. 1,338. In Civil there will be no change. In Public Improvement, an addition of Rs. 50,000, or in all a net addition of Rs. 98,662. In Part II, Repairs, there will be a reduction of Rs. 24,550 Military; of Rs. 31,200 Civil; of Rs. 11,833 Public Improvement; of Rs. 50,000 Special Repairs. In all a reduction of Rs. 1,17,583. In Part III, Establishments, an addition of Rs. 35,000. In the Reserve (Rs. 5,41,079) a reduction of Rs. 16,079. This will give additions of Rs. 1,83,662 and deductions of the same amount, leaving the total as before 52½ lakhs.

5. It is however contemplated to set aside for certain works which the Government of India desires to see begun, but for which Estimates have not yet been submitted, or Designs approved, a further sum of 4½ lakhs, which will for the present remain as a part of the general Reserve at the disposal of this Department, though held available for transfer to the credit of Bengal, when it is seen that the works can really be taken up in the current year. In dealing with the Budget, therefore, it will be convenient to separate the consideration of the disposal of this extra 4½ lakhs from that of the 52½ lakhs, which may still be taken as the total of the Imperial Budget of this Province.

6. The works for which the extra special allotments are proposed are as follows:—

Item No. 1.—New Post Office at Calcutta.—This building has long been considered necessary, and its construction has been sanctioned. A Design has been drawn out with much care, and is understood to be now nearly ready for submission in a definite form, after revision. It is proposed to allot for it 1½ lakhs.

Item No. 2.—Public Offices.—For the preliminary outlay on this account a sum of ½ lakh will be set apart.

Item No. 3.—Public Museum.—For this object it is proposed to set aside 1 lakh.

Item No. 4.—Presidency College.—For this building, the Designs for which are now before the Government of India, will be set aside 1½ lakhs.

It may be remarked that it does not appear necessary at present to provide any special allotment for University Buildings.

The first three of these works are for Imperial, rather than Local purposes, and absorb 3 lakhs. The fourth is specially for Bengal, and the assignment for it will virtually add 1¼ lakhs to the sum allowed for the Bengal Provinces. The whole virtual addition to the assignment is therefore equivalent to 2¾ lakhs.

Part I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. Military.

A. Army.

7. Item No. 1.—Extension of Debrooghur Cantonment, Rs. 6,000.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. But there seems little question as to the necessity of providing Barracks at this Station, and the charge may be admitted; subject, however, to the final decision that may be come to as to the disposition of the Force in Assam, on the consideration of a Report that is expected to be made to Government, in the Military Department, on this subject, by Major-General Showers.

Item No. 5.—Cells at Dum-Dum, Rs. 1,338.—Disallowed. The Station being hardly occupied, this cannot be necessary.

Items Nos. 8. and 9.—Partitions in Married Barracks, Barrackpore and Dum-Dum, Rs. 3,331 and Rs. 1,000.—May be passed, contingent on the Barracks being actually in occupation, and the work essential now.

Item No. 10.—Barracks at Debroogurh—Estimate Rs. 63,000; spent Rs. 3,000; proposed Rs. 25,000. Objected to by Military Finance Department, on the ground that the temporary buildings are good enough. But it seems to be certain that the Barracks are required. The work in this case should rather be pushed on as fast as practicable, and the allotment may be increased to Rs. 55,000; under the same proviso, however, as Item No. 1.

Item No. 13. B—arracks at Dehree.—Proposed Rs. 50,000. Disallowed. No more money should be spent here. The sum set down will be transferred Rs. 30,000 (as above) to Debroogurh, and Rs. 20,000 may be given for Barracks at Shillong, which are entered in the supplementary list, and which it is thought may be advantageously undertaken; the latter allotment also conditionally as in Item No. 1.

Item No. 14.—Works at Parisnath, Rs. 19,000.—The charge for the road up the hill seems to be doubtful as a Military charge. Half of the cost might fairly be charged to "Military," and the other half to "Public Improvement." This however will only involve a transfer of credits, and the allotment need not be disturbed here.

Item No. 15.—Officers' Quarters at Ranegunge, Rs. 1,737.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. But the outlay is understood to be essential if the Cantonment is kept up another year. Pass.

Item No. 16.—Lightning Conductors, Fort William, Rs. 6,120.—There is an excess on Estimate, which however will be dealt with in ordinary course. Pass.

Item No. 17.—Additions to Cossipoor Foundry, Rs. 19,226.—Allowed.

8. This concludes the Army Works. Navy calls for no remark. The whole sum to be passed under Military is Rs. 1,59,769.

2. Civil Administration.

9. The items worthy of notice are—

Item No. 26.—Collector's Cutcherry, Chuprah.—Rs. 29,016 to complete the building.

Item No.—29. Copper Mint.—Estimate Rs. 2,66,934; spent Rs. 1,50,000; proposed Rs. 1,16,934. Pass.

Item No. 32.—St. James's Church, Calcutta.—Estimate Rs. 3,50,000; spent Rs. 25,000; proposed Rs. 1,00,000. The Government of India has declared that it will not give more than 2 lakhs for this work. As it is desirable, however, to complete whatever is taken in hand as expeditiously as possible, another ½ lakh is proposed to be given to the year's grant for this work, making 1½ lakhs in all.

Item No. 36.—College at Berhampoor, Rs. 15,000.—This is the Government grant to meet a corresponding sum privately subscribed. Approved.

Item No. 43.—Cutcherry at Mutlah, Rs. 15,000.—Approved.

Item No. 47.—Court-houses in Cachar, Rs. 12,000.—Approved.

Item No. 51.—Judge's Court-house, Chuprah, Rs. 26,042.—Approved.

Item No. 54.—Great Jail, Calcutta, Rs. 40,000.—Approved.

Item No 56.—Hajut Ward, Mutlah, Rs. 12,000.—May be passed.

Item No. 63.—Jail, Sumbulpoor, Rs. 13,584.—Approved.

10. The whole of the proposed charges under the head Civil Administration are approved, with an addition of Rs. 50,000 for St. James's Church, amounting in all to Rs. 5,33,809.

3. Public Improvement.

K. Agricultural.

11. Item No. 67.—Embankments, Hidgellee.—Estimate Rs. 4,70,490; spent Rs. 1,50,000; proposed Rs. 1,75,000. Approved. Whatever sum is not applied to St. James's Church from the grant of 1½ lakhs may be given to this work, the importance of which is great.

Item No. 68.—Sluices on Mahanuddy.—Rs. 13,268 to complete. Approved.

12. The total passed under Agricultural is Rs. 2,14,943.

L. Communications.

13. The entries of the various Sections of Road are not made in a very lucid manner; and the main lines often seem to have been broken up into portions by which the several parts are brought within the limits of sanction of the Local Government in a manner that has some appearance of evading the rules on this subject. Entries marked with an asterisk are open to remark in this respect.

Metalled Roads.

14. * Items Nos. 72 to 75.—Main Assam Road.—Metalling portions in vicinity of Gowhatty and Debroogurh; 16 miles in all. Four Estimates, Rs. 1,04,393; proposed Rs. 45,000.

Items Nos. 76 and 77.—Road from Nulhatty to Jeeagunge and Bugwangola.—Estimate Rs 2,79,119; spent Rs. 2,00,000; proposed Rs. 79,119. This is the line on which the "Light Railway Company" propose to operate.

Item No. 78.—Road from Moorshedabad to Berhampoor, Rs. 15,000.

* Item No. 79.—Road from Bowaee to Bhaugulpoor.—Estimate Rs. 2,03,265; proposed Rs. 20,000 to complete.

* Items Nos. 80 to 82.—Darjeeling Road.—Estimate Rs. 3,81,781; proposed Rs. 1,34,000.

Item No. 83.—Gya and Patna Road.—Estimate Rs. 3,38,338; proposed Rs. 1,00,000.

Item No. 85.—Road from Dinapoor to E. I. Railway Station, 3¼ Miles.—Estimate Rs. 54,216; proposed Rs. 15,000. This is the Government half share of the cost, the Railway Company paying for the other half. The cost is excessive, being upwards of Rs. 16,000 per mile. Explanation must be given.

Item No 86.—Road from Hazareebagh to Burhee.—Proposed Rs. 15,000.

Item No. 87.—Midnapoor and Raneegunge Road.—Proposed Rs. 15,000.

* Items Nos. 89 to 91.—Oolabariah Road.—Three Estimates, Rs. 90,889; proposed Rs. 26,668.

15. The total of Metalled Roads is Rs. 4,69,125. The rate of progress is satisfactory, as one year's work more at the same rate would finish all the estimated work.

UNMETALLED ROADS.

16. Item No. 92.—Berhampoor to Synthia.—Estimate Rs. 75,000; proposed Rs. 35,000. The sum exceeds the powers of the Local Government to sanction, though the work is stated to have been begun by order of the Bengal Government. Explanation is required.

* Items Nos. 93 and 94.—Darjeeling Road from Titalyah to Darjeeling.—Estimates Rs. 1,80,000; proposed Rs. 96,000.

* Item No. 95.—Sooree and Bhaugulpoor Road, Rs. 16,567.

Item No. 96.—Branch from Grand Trunk Road in Ramgurh, Rs. 27,387.

* Item Nos. 97 to 99.—Cuttack and Pooree Road.—Estimates Rs. 50,000; proposed Rs. 40,000.

Items Nos. 100 and 101.—Cuttack and Sumbulpoor Road.—Proposed Rs. 19,200. No Estimate submitted, though half the money is stated to have been spent. Explanation is required.

Item No. 102.—Cotton Roads, Sumbulpoor.—Proposed Rs. 32,000.

17. On the whole, for Unmetalled Roads, the Estimates being Rs. 5,05,544, the sum spent is Rs. 1,89,390, and proposed for the year Rs. 2,66,154, which is satisfactory, leaving less than half a year's expenditure at the same rate to complete all projects.

BRIDGES.

18. Item No. 103.—Calcutta and Jessore Road Culverts, Rs. 30,000.

Item No. 104.—Culverts, Chittagong Road, Rs. 12,412.

* Item No. 105.—Culverts, Assam Road, Rs. 10,000.

* Item No. 107.—Culverts, Sooree and Bhaugulpoor Road, Rs. 27,000.

Items Nos. 108 to 111.—Bridges on Grand Trunk Road—Leelajan Bridge, Rs. 60,000. To this an extra grant of Rs. 50,000 can be given; in all Rs. 1,10,000.

Morkur and Booryah Bridge, Rs. 1,50,000.

Khoormabad Bridge, Rs. 15,000.

Burrakur Bridge, Rs. 1,25,000.

* Items Nos. 112 to 117.—Bridges on Cuttack and Pooree Road, Rs. 45,874.

19. The total for Bridges is as follows:—

Estimated Rs. 16,74,247; spent Rs. 5,91,672; proposed Rs. 5,28,436. This leaves about one year's expenditure at the same rate to complete, and is approved.

Item No. 119.—Soane Bridge Causeway.—Estimate Rs. 2,10,544; spent Rs. 1,43,000; proposed Rs. 40,000.

20. It appears that only one bridge more on the Grand Trunk Road remains in addition to those now in hand to complete that line. It is the Botanah Bridge, and its estimated cost is 2 lakhs of Rs. It may therefore be hoped that in two years more the stigma that has attached to this Department from the great delay in the completion of these bridges may finally be removed.

If preferred by the Lieutenant-Governor the extra grant of Rs. 50,000 above set down for the Leelajan Bridge might be applied to this work.

21. The entire sum under Communications is Rs. 13,13,972.

The total for Public Improvement being Rs. 15,28,915.

And of Part I, Original Works, Rs. 22,22,583. All these sums are passed.

PART II.—REPAIRS.

22. The aggregate sum asked for is Rs. 14,20,000 against Rs. 14,67,000 claimed last year, the latter sum however providing for Arracan now separated from Bengal. Considering that on the Local Fund Budget the charge for repairs exceeds 4 lakhs, the sum must be considered very high, and may be reduced without doubt.

23. The Military Repairs are taken at Rs. 2,99,550 against Rs. 2,80,000 last year. The charge of Rs. 95,000 in the Barrackpore Division for Military Repairs seems very excessive. The charges at Berhampoor, Dinapoor, and Ramgurh are also high. Further small amounts are set down in some of the Civil Divisions, where it is understood that there are no Military Works. This should be again carefully looked at, and errors remedied. The doubtful Stations are—

Bhaugulpoor.
Dinagepoor.
Patna.
Midnapoor.
1st and 2nd Division, G. T. Road.
Raipoor Road.

24. On the whole the allotment for Repairs must be reduced as follows:—

Military to Rs. 2,75,000, being a reduction of Rs. 24,550; Civil to Rs. 2,75,000, being a reduction of Rs. 31,200; Public Improvement to Rs. 7,52,417, being a reduction of Rs. 11,833. The sum of Rs. 50,000 set down for Special Repairs is also struck out, as it should be considered to be provided for in the Reserve. This will leave the aggregate allowed for Repairs in the Imperial Budget at Rs. 13,02,417.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

25. The sum entered under this head is Rs. 11 65,000. In order to provide for proper supervision of the additional expenditure that is contemplated, the credit under this head will be increased to Rs. 12,00,000; but of course the allotment will only be disbursed under the regular checks and on properly sanctioned objects.

26. It is necessary to observe here that a large sum, Rs. 1,60,000, appears under the head of Establishments subordinate to Local Funds. These Establishments are a portion of the Regular Public Works Establishments of Bengal, though employed in disbursing so called Local Funds. The system of dividing the Establishment charges arbitrarily, and removing a portion of them to the debit of the Local Funds, is objectionable, and likely to lead to irregularity, and will require change of system when the method of dealing with the Local Funds, now under consideration, shall be settled. Meanwhile it may be allowed to stand as now proposed.

27. Lastly, the Bengal Reserve is set down at Rs. 5,41,079, besides the addition of Rs. 50,000 for Repairs, noted above, to be disallowed, and Rs. 22,300 for Establishments, which will also be held to be covered by the total of 12 lakhs. The Reserve should be reduced to the specified sum $\frac{1}{10}$th of the entire allotment, viz., Rs. 5,25,000. It is not the desire of the Government of India to admit of a larger sum than that now fixed for the unappropriated Fund.

28. This concludes the review of the Imperial Budget of 52½ lakhs, the revised distribution of which is shewn in the following table:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

29. The aggregate sum available for expenditure in the current year under the head of "Local Funds" in Bengal is about 39 lakhs.

30. The accounts of this part of the Public Works outlay are presented in a form that conceals, in a great measure, the sources of Income and the nature of the Expenditure. But sufficient can be made out to get some general idea of the main facts. Under old orders the Net Proceeds of the Tolls on the Nuddea Rivers and the Calcutta Canals are handed over to the Bengal Government for expenditure on works of improvement generally in the Bengal Provinces. As, however, the cost of maintenance of these Rivers and Canals is not brought forward in the Imperial Budget, it will evidently be the proper system to look upon the Gross Receipts from these Tolls as a part of Local Income and the Gross Expenditure for maintenance as a part of the Local outlay; the financial result will be identical. Besides these Funds are sundry others of really local character. The exact amounts derived from the various sources are not clearly shewn, but the following is some approximation to the truth:—

Gross Income, Local Funds.

	Rs.
Tolls on Nuddea Rivers and Calcutta Canals ...	6,57,605
„ on Roads (net) ...	44,002
„ on Ferries (net) ...	3,79,281

Port Funds ...	10,000
Former Balances ...	4,33,853
Doubtful ...	80,000
Total ...	20,04,720

The doubtful item of Income corresponds to the outlay by Public Works Officers for Ferries and Roads, &c., Rs. 80,000, and its nature is obscure.

31. The proposed outlay is as follows:—

	Rs.	Rs.
Maintenance of Nuddea Rivers and Canals ...		6,03,200
Maintenance of Suburban Roads ...		1,03,200
Special grants for Ferries and Roads, &c., for expenditure by Public Works Officers ...		80,000
Disbursements for Embankments ...		85,800
Works at Mutlah and Balasore ...		10,000

For E. I. Railway ...	1,20,000
„ Mutlah „ ...	50,000
„ Eastern Bengal Railway ...	2,20,000
		3,90,000
Grants for District Roads ...		7,20,813
Balance ...		11,687
Total ...		20,04,720

32. The confused manner in which the Local Fund Expenditure is dealt with may usefully be remarked upon, and an improved system of account called for. The matter will require some consideration however, and will be better dealt with in connexion with the general question of the Local Funds which has been submitted for consideration separately.

33. In addition to the above portion of the Local Funds, the residue of the Income Tax for last year will be available, say to the amount of 8 lakhs, as well as the new allotment for 1862-63 which may be estimated at 11 lakhs as last year. The disposal of the 8 lakhs for 1861-62 has already been settled and approved by the Government of India. The proposed distribution for 1862-63 is stated in the Budget now submitted, and seems generally satisfactory, and is confirmed.

Its chief features are as follows:—

Item No. 1.— Water Supply for Calcutta, 3 lakhs. —This sum to be made over to the Municipal Commissioners in addition to the similar grant made last year.

Item No. 2.—Public Market at Howrah, 1½ lakhs.

Items 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, Railway Feeders, viz:—

For the E. I. Railway—		Rs.
To Pancegur Station	...	90,000
,, Singarun Branch	...	5,000
,, Bhaugulpoor Station	...	47,000
,, Barh Station	...	50,000
,, Behar Road	...	1,34,000
,, Pakoor and Moradoi	..	28,000
Total	...	3,54,000

For the E. B. Railway—		Rs.
To Bagolah Station	...	25,000
,, Ranaghat Station	...	20,000
,, Kooshtee Station	...	55,000
Total	...	1,00,000

Items Nos. 14 and 15.—Roads in Chota Nagpoor, Rs. 24,000.

Item No. 16.—Roads in Cuttack, Rs. 27,000.

Items Nos. 17 to 19.—Roads and Bridges in Dacca and Chittagong, Rs. 1,17,500.

Item No. 7.—Draining Marshes at Purneah, Rs. 8,000.

Item No. 20.—Works in Assam, Rs. 18,000.

Item No. 21.—Works at Darjeeling, Rs. 1,500.

34. It is here necessary to draw attention to a Minute of the late Lieutenant-Governor on the subject of the appropriation of the 1 per cent. Fund of the Income Tax, in which he argues that the amount thus collected is by Law specially ordered to be devoted to works of local improvement, and should not be confounded with the Imperial Funds available for Public Works of a more general character. The view of the Lieutenant-Governor has however been virtually adopted by the Government of India spontaneously, and no special remarks seem now called for on the matter.

35. The aggregate outlay from Local Funds, including the Income Tax for the year 1862-63, may then be taken at 39 lakhs, distributed generally as follows:—

		Rs.
MUNICIPAL.
Markets ...	...	3,00,000
Water Supply ...	...	6,00,000
AGRICULTURAL.
Embankments ...	...	86,000
Drainage ...	...	8,000
COMMUNICATIONS.
Metalled Roads ...	...	13,96,000

Ferries ...	...	80,000
Navigable Canals ...	...	2,64,000
River Improvements	...	4,06,000
Total	...	39,00,000

36. The charges on the Imperial Funds for Guaranteed Companies are as follows:—

		Rs.
Railway Controlling Establishment ...	...	95,052
Railway Cost of Land	...	2,50,000
Total	...	3,45,052

37. The expenditure of Guaranteed Capital in Bengal is estimated at—

	Rs.
E. I. Railway ...	... 141,76,000
Eastern Bengal Railway	... 21,81,818
Calcutta and South-Eastern Railway	3,50,000
Total	... 167,07,818

38. The aggregate estimated outlay on Public Works of all sorts in Bengal under Government supervision, and not including Municipal outlay, will then be rather more than 2½ millions Sterling as follows:—

	Lakhs.
Imperial outlay on Public Works proper	52½
Imperial for works of Guaranteed Companies	3½
Total ...	56
Add Special Works reserved ...	4½
Total ...	60½

FORT WILLIAM,
The 23rd May 1862.

NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

The Budget of the North-Western Provinces has been received in a complete and satisfactory form; it is accompanied by a full and lucid Resolution, clearly explaining the objects of the Lieutenant-Governor in bringing forward the various proposed works.

2. The original assignment on which the Budget has been framed was 64½ lakhs. This was before the separation of the Jubbulpoor Division, which has now been added to the Central Provinces. The Government, North-Western Provinces, estimated the amount to be transferred to the Central Provinces on account of Jubbulpoor at Rs. 3,37,000, but the Government of India shewed that this was not a fair allowance, and decided that 5 lakhs must be fixed as the sum to be made over. This would have reduced the assignment to 59½ lakhs. The Government, North-Western Provinces, however, has sent up a Budget to the full amount of 64½ lakhs, stating that it had been considered that the assignment of 4½ lakhs for public buildings, Civil and Military, at Allahabad, might fairly be held to be a special grant, and that the final orders of the Government of India, regarding the sum to be transferred to the Central Provinces, did not reach the Lieutenant-Governor till it was too late to make a change.

3. Further, the Imperial Budget, as thus submitted, is made to contain a complement of Income Tax Works, amounting to Rs. 5,67,000. As elsewhere explained, the Income Tax grant is now to be made in addition to the Imperial assignment, so that at first sight it might have been thought that this sum of 5½ lakhs might have been struck out of the appropriations of the Imperial Budget, and made available for the transfer of 5 lakhs to the Central Provinces. But this has not been possible. In fact, so large a proportion of the works set down to be provided for from the Income Tax Fund are essentially Imperial in their character, that it has been thought better to retain most of them, and to make good the reduction in other ways. An additional grant of 1 lakh will be given to assist the operation, so that a net reduction of only 4 lakhs will be carried out, leaving 60½ lakhs as the sum to be finally fixed for the Imperial assignment for 1862-63.

4. The general scope of these reductions will be as follows :—In Part I., Military Works will be reduced by Rs. 1,02,099; Civil Works by Rs. 95,000; Public Improvement, including Income Tax Works struck out, Rs. 82,201. In Part II., Military Repairs will be reduced by Rs. 24,425; Civil by Rs. 12,120; Public Improvement by Rs. 61,275. Part III., Establishments will be reduced Rs. 22,880. In all, making a reduction of Rs. 4,00,000. The Reserve may remain, as originally set down, at 6 lakhs.

Part I. ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. Military.

A. Army.

5. Item No. 4.—Pucka Drains in Shajehanpoor Cantonment, Rs. 5,000.—Must be disallowed in the present uncertainty as to the continuance of the European Force at the Station.

Item No. 8. Guard-room, Agra, Rs. 8,540.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. Its necessity must be established before it is undertaken.

Item No. 10.—New Hospital, Agra, Rs. 30,000.—This work should not be undertaken until it is fully established that the proposed arrangement is the best possible. It seems questionable whether the whole system of the Agra Cantonment drainage does not require revision, and possibly the destruction of some of the Bazars might be desired, and such an alteration might enable suitable Hospital accommodation to be provided at a less expense than now proposed.

Items Nos. 11 and 12.—Works at Muttra.—Rs. 20,000 may be allowed in a round sum for essential works during the remainder of the period of the occupation of this Station.

Items Nos. 18, 19, and 20.—Buildings at Gwalior.—In like manner may be allowed Rs. 30,000 as a round sum, until a definitive arrangement is come to as to the occupation of Morar.

Item No. 21.—Cells in Fort at Allahabad, Rs. 35,168.—It cannot be understood how so large an expenditure can be necessary for such an object. Disallowed, pending explanation.

Item No. 23.—New works in connexion with the Fort Allahabad—Proposed Rs. 99,111. Of this it will be sufficient to allow Rs. 33,000 for the current year. The proposal of the Military Finance Department to reduce the allotment to Rs. 40,000 does not seem worthy of adoption if the works are essential and can be carried out in the year.

Item No. 32.—Guard House in Chunar Fort, Rs. 3,900.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. Must be disallowed, pending special explanation.

Item No. 34.—Plunge Bath, Cawnpoor, Rs. 9,823.—Objected to by Military Finance Department as an excessive charge. Explanations were called for on this item, which are not satisfactory. Similar conveniences elsewhere are estimated at Rs. 3,500. As special difficulties are said to exist in emptying the Bath, Rs. 4,000 might be allowed, the rest struck off.

Item No. 35.—Bath in Entrenchment at Cawnpoor, Rs. 2,685. Disallowed: the work will not be maintained as a quarter for Troops.

Items Nos. 37 to 40.—Buildings at Futtehgurh, Rs. 53,006.—These Estimates being for parts of a system of buildings, the entire cost of which is in excess of the Lieutenant-Governor's powers, ought to be submitted for sanction, with a clear and detailed Statement of existing accommodation, and what remains to be provided. The documents that have been sent up are not sufficient in themselves.

Item No. 42.—Verandah in rear of Married Quarters, Bareilly, Rs. 2,162.—Seems in excess of Regulation. Must be disallowed.

Item No. 45.—Female Hospital, European Lines, Bareilly, Rs. 11,739.—May be allowed.

Item No. 47.—Soldiers' Workshops, Bareilly, Rs. 9,314.—Will be disallowed till a Standard Plan has been sanctioned. It will be dangerous to allow, without due consideration, the commencement of these buildings, which will obviously involve a very large outlay if constructed at all Stations for European Troops.

Item No. 51.—Buildings at Shajehanpoor.—Lump sum of Rs. 10,000 only allowed, the maintenance of the Station being doubtful.

Items Nos. 52 and 53.—Additions to Barracks at Moradabad, Rs. 2,838.—Disallowed for like cause.

Items Nos. 55 to 62.—Barracks, &c., at Nynee Tal, Rs. 88,380.—The Estimates should be submitted for sanction for the reason given under Item 37. In doing this, complete information on the present state of the buildings, and the accommodation they afford, should be given. The Military Finance Department doubts the propriety of admitting this expenditure without further proof for its necessity. But with the contemplated Railway to the foot of the Hills near Nynee Tal, there can be no doubt that this place will become the sanitarium for Oudh as well as of Rohilkund, and there need be no hesitation in carrying out the proposed works.

Item No. 63.—Out-offices to European Hospital at Goruckpoor, Rs. 1,744. Disallowed, the Station being understood to be about to be given up for European Troops.

Item No. 67.—Gun-sheds in Fort Agra, Rs. 14,063.—May be passed.

Item No. 69.—Gun-shed at Gwalior, Rs. 1,581.—Disallowed, pending uncertainty as to occupation. The round sum allowed should cover the smaller amounts really essential.

Item No. 71.—Altering old Cutcherries into Commissariat Store Rooms. Estimate Rs. 15,016; proposed Rs. 7,500.—Seems expedient.

Item No. 72.—Commissariat Store Room, Lohoogghat, Rs. 1,285.—Sanction will be withheld until it is positively known that the European Detachment will continue at this post.

Item No. 73.—Bakery, Benares, Rs. 5,721.—Must be disallowed, pending the submission of the Report of the Commissariat Commission recently appointed.

6. This completes the review of the Military Works, the total amount allowed being Rs. 4,59,260.

2. CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.

7. Under the head of Revenue, various Cutcherries and Tehseel buildings are proposed to be completed; those already begun may generally be passed. The buildings of this sort proposed but not yet put in are as follows:—

Items Nos. 81, 92, 83, 84, and 86, in Agra Division, amounting in all to Rs. 22,057.

Items No. 87, 88, and 89, in Allahabad Division, amounting to Rs. 22,756.

Item No. 94, in Jhansir, Rs. 9,184.

The Lieutenant-Governor represents that all of these buildings are urgently required, and as in themselves they are quite unobjectionable, they may be passed to the Imperial allotment, the requisite reduction in the Budget Total being taken from the Road allotments, which can be made good from the Income Tax grant for 1862-63.

Of the other items passed, may be noticed—

Item No. 96.—Deputy Commissioner's Cutcherry, Jhansie, Rs. 16,000.

For buildings for the Customs, Rs. 23,730 may be passed in full; also for Opium Rs. 11,039, and Post Office Rs. 2,340.

8. Regarding the Opium expenditure, the Lieutenant-Governor has remarked in a separate letter, received after the Budget, that it seems to him objectionable to insert charges for Opium in the N. W. P. Budget, because the Revenue is held to be a part of that of Bengal, and appears in the accounts of that Province. But in truth the charges for Opium are Imperial charges, and must be held to be a contingency to which the Government of the N. W. P. is liable, just as it is liable to provide for the Troops, or for such an item as the Residency at Gwalior. It will however be desirable that the probable charge for all Opium buildings in all Provinces shall be ascertained from the Bengal Government, which administers the Department, before the Public Works assignments for the year are made to the various Governments, so that the special demands on them for such Imperial purposes may be considered in making the allotments. But beyond this nothing seems called for in this respect. Special orders will be issued for the better check of this class of expenditure.

9. The whole sum to be passed under Revenue will be Rs. 1,68,190.

10. Among the Items to be passed under General may be named—

Item No. 106. Restoring Residency at Gwalior, Rs. 16,218.

Item No. 107.—New Public Offices at Allahabad, Rs. 3,50,000.—This allotment has been already sanctioned; but pending the approval of Designs, can only be applied to the preparation of materials.

Item No. 108. Metcalfe Monument at Jhansie, Rs. 4,500.

Item No. 109. Metcalfe Monument at Cawnpoor, Rs. 42,000 to complete it. This is understood to include the formation of the Garden and a watercourse to supply it.

Item No. 110.—Laying out new Station at Allahabad.—Rs. 14,000 to complete it. Information may be called for as to the whole outlay that has taken place for this purpose, and the present results.

11. Total under General, Rs. 4,26,718.—Passed in full.

12. Under Ecclesiastical in full Rs. 41,099; the only item calling for notice being No. 114, Church at Bareilly, Rs. 12,600 to complete it.

13. Under Educational is a sum of Rs. 1,501.

14. Under Judicial we have—

Item No. 124.—Police Buildings generally.—Estimates Rs. 4,19,478; spent Rs. 1,00,600; proposed Rs. 1,50,000. It may be assumed that, to a great extent, at least, the quarters of the old Police should be available for the new Force, and the Inspector-General of Police for India might usefully take up the question of its real requirements in this respect. This Department is of course not in a position to enter upon the consideration of such questions, and they will be referred to the Home Department for the issue of orders on the general subject, large demands for Police Buildings having been made by several Governments. Pending farther orders, no additional expenditure for new Police Buildings is to be permitted; though a sum of Rs. 75,000 is allowed to stand to cover any eventual outlay that may be authorized.

Item No. 127.—Central Prison at Meerut.—Estimate Rs. 1,15,050; spent Rs. 79,396; proposed Rs. 20,000.—May be passed.

Item No. 129.—Central Prison at Bareilly.—Estimate Rs. 1,65,526; spent Rs. 32,500; proposed Rs. 20,000.—May be passed.

Item No. 133.—Central Prison at Agra; additions.—Estimate Rs. 67,937; proposed Rs. 20,000.—May be passed.

Item No. 135.—Central Prison at Allahabad.—Estimate Rs. 2,75,663; spent Rs. 45,000; proposed Rs. 20,000.—May be passed.

Item No. 136.—Central Prison, Benares.—Estimate Rs. 1,61,980.—Not begun. Proposed Rs. 20,000. Considering the large sum proposed to be devoted to Civil buildings this year, this will be disallowed.

The Estimate for this Jail has been received since the Budget came in, but orders have not yet been passed upon it. It will require revision in reference to recent orders on the subject of Solitary Cells.

15. On the whole, the sum that will be passed under Judicial is Rs. 1,85,377.

16. This completes the review of Civil Administration under which the total to be given will be Rs. 8,26,155. This is a very large sum, but is probably not excessive, considering the necessity that has arisen for the re-construction of so many buildings since the mutiny, and the change of the Head-quarters of the Government to Allahabad.

3. PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

K. AGRICULTURAL.

17. Item No. 130.—Permanent Works at the head of the Ganges Canal.—Estimate Rs. 3,00,000; spent Rs. 1,00,000; proposed Rs. 1,50,000. No design for these works has yet been received. Colonel Randall, of the Madras Engineers, when lately in this Presidency, was sent to Roorkee to see the Ganges Canal Works. He is an Officer of much experience in the Madras Delta Works, and among other reasons for permitting him to go, it was thought his advice might be of value, as the Dam required at Hurdwar will have a considerable analogy to some of the Madras Delta Works, though it will be on a shingle-bed instead of a sandy one. Colonel Randall's suggestions will be valuable. They were communicated to the Officers on the spot, and are contained in a Memorandum which has been placed before the Government of India. As regards this work, the orders given last year should stand, viz., that no actual work (beyond provision of materials) should go on until the project has been approved by the Government of India. The material, it is believed, will include a good deal of cut stone flooring, and some progress might be made in quarrying and preparing this. But the submission of the matured project should not be delayed.

Item No. 140.—Futtehgurh Branch Ganges Canal.—Proposed Rs. 1,00,000.

Item No. 141.—Boolundshuhur Branch Ganges Canal.—Proposed Rs. 50,000.

The orders on these works appear to be judicious. A section of 80 miles excavation on the former, and one of 43¼ miles on the latter, are completed, or nearly so. The money will be spent in finishing the masonry works and Rajbuhas (irrigation channels), so as to develop the irrigation before further extension of the main channels. These items were marked as Income Tax Works, but being Imperial Works, and the returns from them going into the Imperial Treasury, it does not seem proper that the Income Tax Funds should be applied to them. They may be passed as Imperial.

Item No. 142.—Boat Docks at Cawnpoor, Rs. 8,086.—Needed on account of the crowding of the narrow channel there.—May be passed.

Item No. 144.—Rajbuhas for the Ganges Canal—Rs. 3,73,919 in addition to Rs. 21,70,000 already spent. It is stated that the Rajbuhas in the three upper divisions will be completed during the current year. Considering the very large sum involved in these subsidiary works, it is necessary for more complete information regarding it to be submitted to the Government of India. A full Report on the subject of the past expenditure and of the ultimate probable outlay on this score should be called for without delay.

The above projects, from Nos. 139 to 144, amounting in all to Rs 6,86,865, are all portions of the Ganges Canal Works.

Items Nos. 146 and 147.—Canals from the Bugool River in Rohilkund.—Year Rs. 6,007. These works, estimated to cost Rs. 36,007, were commenced from the Famine grants. The proposed allotment provides for their completion.

Item No. 148.—Kylas Canal.—Estimate Rs. 97,727; spent Rs. 56,500; proposed Rs. 15,000. Another small Canal in Rohilkund. A revised Estimate has just been passed by the Government of India.

Item No. 149.—Jakhun Canal.—Estimate Rs. 99,651; proposed Rs. 18,850. For the completion of the work, which is designed for the irrigation of waste land in the Eastern Dhoon at Dehra, begun in 1856.

Items Nos. 150 and 151.—Irrigation Works in the Agra District.—Estimate Rs. 72,342; spent Rs. 45,065; proposed Rs. 27,277. The chief of these, the Khyragurh Canal, is the subject of a revised Estimate sent up with the Budget, which will require separate consideration.

Items Nos. 146 to 151 are all entered as to be provided from Income Tax Funds; but this is objectionable, for the reasons given in the case of the Ganges Canal. The grants must be Imperial, and may all be passed as such.

Item No. 152.—Bundelkhund Irrigation Works, Rs. 10,000.—The separate Establishment for these works has lately been broken up, with the approval of this Government, as it was disproportionate to the Revenue derived from them at present, or likely to be derived from their extension.

18. The total sum to be passed under Agricultural is Rs. 7,70,399.

I. Communications.

19. Item No. 155.—Second coat of metal on the Road from Meerut to Roorkee.—Estimate Rs. 1,00,967; spent Rs. 31,500; proposed Rs. 69,467. There can be no doubt of the necessity, but the cost for one coat of metal, not much less than Rs. 4,000 a mile, is most extravagant. The Estimate should have been submitted to this Government. It is said, "submitted 15th November 1860," but it does not appear to have come before the Government of India.

Item No. 156.—Roorkee and Dehra Road.—The details on this subject in the Lieutenant-Governor's Resolution may be referred to; they are interesting.

20. The Road to Dehra and to the great Hill Sanitaria of Landour and Mussooree runs up the Mohun or Kheree Pass, which is in fact the bed of a torrent issuing from the outer range of Hills. The difficult nature of the ground on either side, the high bluffs and precipices of boulder beds that flank the Pass, and the innumerable tributary torrents, has always prevented the formation of a proper road, which would have been very costly, and which appeared liable to inevitable accident. In 1861 a plan was suggested by Mr. T. Login, of the Ganges Canal, and Mr. Williams, the Commissioner of Meerut, for avoiding the difficulties to be met with in following the sides of the Pass, by making a causeway up the centre of the torrent, and so dividing it in fact into two parts. The danger of landslips and the multiplicity of bridges would, it was hoped, have been avoided in this way. It was undertaken as a famine work, and had made some progress, when in June last, a flood did it great damage, and destroyed a considerable number of the work-people engaged on it. The fresh work once breached could not stand the after assaults of the torrent, and it is now stated that little of the causeway remains. Such a project was hardly suited to be taken up as a famine work; it was one that required great care and thought as to the manner in which it was to be carried out; and from what has been reported of the style of the actual execution, this cannot have been given to it. A Committee assembled by the Lieutenant-Governor's order in the beginning of last cold weather re-considered the whole scheme. The result of their observation is to recommend, as far as can be understood without detailed Drawings, a road which shall be for the most part a hill-side road, but in some places will be on a causeway at one side of the Pass, not in the centre. The Executive Engineer has been authorised to cut out a 7 or 8 feet track on the line recommended, and when this has been done, a complete project will be formed. The Lieutenant-Governor has reserved Rs. 1,20,000 for this work, but nothing beyond the track will be attempted until the whole is completely estimated. The report is too general to afford means of judging how far the difficulties which suggested the central causeway may be mitigated. But the difficulties, one way or the other, must be met and overcome. The access to these important Stations cannot be left in its present state.

It is observed that the money likely to be spent up to 30th April is put down at Rs. 52,000, but it is not known what this represents. The money spent from the Famine Funds on the destroyed work must have been very much more than this. It is best always to know the truth in such cases, and a complete account ought to be asked for.

21. In order to bring the Budget allotment within proper bounds, it will be necessary to make a reduction from some of the grants for these works, and the requisite sum, Rs. 73,954, will be taken from this, leaving Rs. 46,046 to be passed to the Imperial Budget; the balance wanted must be made up from the Income Tax Funds. The Lieutenant-Governor, however, may be informed that he may adjust this reduction by a transfer from any other works instead, if he desires to do so, only maintaining the same financial general result.

22. Item No. 157.—Agra and Bombay Road.—This is the annual allotment of 2½ lakhs. The Government of India has pressed the completion of this Road by a fixed date (letter No. 4476 of 23rd December 1861), and promised what money may be needful. The balance may probably be provided from the sums available from Sindiah's contributions, or something may be added from the Income Tax Fund. The Lieutenant-Governor is requested to bear in mind that, in the prospect of a Weekly Mail from England vid Bombay passing over this Road by the end of the present year, its early completion will be of the greatest importance to the N. W. P. and the Punjab.

Item No. 159.—Cawnpoor and Saugor (Malthone) Road, Rs. 1,25,000.—A special report on this Road is expected from Major-General Boileau, who, at the Lieutenant-Governor's request, was allowed to be employed exceptionally as a Superintending Engineer to take charge of it. It has not yet been submitted, though it is overdue. Some particulars are given by the Lieutenant-Governor, who has lately marched over the line.

From Cawnpoor to Kalpee on the Jumna is almost completely metalled; but three considerable bridges are wanted.

From Kalpee to Oraie—26 miles, of which 15 metalled; it is bridged throughout.

Oraie to Jhansie—72 miles. No metal; bridged throughout.

Jhansie to Lullutpoor—57 miles. Red gravel prevails. Well bridged, except at the Betwa River.

This account is encouraging. Metalling and one large bridge seems all that is wanted south of the Jumna.

Item No. 160.—Rohilkund Imperial Roads, Rs. 2,00,000.—The progress does not seem to be very satisfactory.

Item No. 162.—Metalling the Sohagee Pass, Rs. 52,141.—This is on the Road between Allahabad and Rewa. This is the subject of an Estimate requiring separate notice and orders.

Item No. 164, Rs. 4,500, will be transferred to Income Tax to adjust the amount of the Budget.

Item No. 165.—Bridges over Kharee and Ootungun Rivers, on Agra and Gwalior Road.—Estimate Rs. 81,871; spent Rs. 66,000; proposed Rs. 35,000. It does not appear how far these are advanced, but it is intimated that the Estimates will be largely exceeded.

23. Item No. 167.—Re-building Bridge over the Hindun at Ghazeeoodeennuggur near Delhi.—Estimate Rs 56,000; spent Rs. 22,000; proposed Rs. 20,000. There was a suspension bridge here of several spans. The chains were broken by an accident, and the whole bridge went. This was in 1858. A Design has been submitted, adapting the piers and abutments to a masonry bridge. Further information has been considered necessary as to certain details. The Lieutenant-Governor doubts whether more than the allotment of Rs. 20,000 can be spent this year; how this can be is not understood.

The Government of India must express its disapprobation of the practice, which too often is allowed to prevail, of permitting such gaps as that occasioned by the fall of this bridge to be left unrepaired from year to year. Whether a bridge is built where one has never been before is a question of the means available, and the claims of competing objects. But when a bridge has existed and has failed we are bound in honor to re-build it as quickly as possible, and every day's delay should be felt as a discredit. If further progress can be made with this work, the Lieutenant-Governor will no doubt find the means to give the additional money necessary; it is not a large sum.

It should here be remarked that Item No. 173, Diversion of the Hindun River, is an essential part of the bridge project, and should have been dealt with in connexion with it. The Estimate is Rs. 48,755; spent Rs. 35,050; proposed Rs. 13,705. The sub-division of this Estimate seems to have brought the work wrongly within the Lieutenant-Governor's power of sanction. The Estimate should be submitted. This work has partly been carried out as a Famine work; but its cost, which was originally roughly estimated at Rs. 18,000, and apparently begun with this idea, now turns out nearly four times that sum. It is another lesson of the value of rough estimates.

24. Item No. 169.—Bridges on Cawnpoor and Lucknow Road, Rs. 10,000.—It is said that these are required in consequence of the old bridges having failed from insufficient foundations. It may be asked who designed, who approved and executed these works.

Item No. 171, Rs. 3,747, will also be transferred to Income Tax Funds for the reasons above given.

Item No. 172.—Conservancy of Ganges River, Rs. 20,000.—This sum may be passed, to be disbursed in such manner as may hereafter be found expedient, in consequence of the transfer of the Superintendent of the Works to the control of the Marine Department.

25. The total amount to be passed under Communications will be Rs. 8,94,156.

26. This will make the aggregate for Public Improvement Rs. 16,64,555; and the total of Part I. Rs. 29,50,000.

Part II.—Repairs.

27. The extra amount proposed for Repairs is Rs. 13,97,820 against Rs. 13,56,592 last year, the latter sum including the Jubbulpoor Division. The charge therefore is very considerably in excess of that proposed last year, and is generally very high. It must be reduced, and a sum of 13 lakhs will be allowed. The demands originally made by the Public Works Officers were for upwards of 22½ lakhs. The Lieutenant-Governor himself remarks in his Minute that "he has no hesitation in saying that past experience has shewn that, with due economy, the diminished allotments will amply suffice for the requirements of the Department." It seems obvious that no reliance whatever can be placed on such extravagant Estimates.

28. Military Repairs, proposed at Rs. 3,74,425, will be reduced to Rs. 3,50,000. The Military Finance Department points out that as compared to Bombay, in which the Military Force is very nearly the same as in N W. P., the proposed charge for this class of Repairs is most excessive. The sum allowed for Bombay is 2½ lakhs. No doubt the state of the buildings in the N. W. P. is in many respects far from satisfactory; but a great deal of the work is quite new, and there seems no sufficient reason for any extraordinary charge on this account.

As regards Stud buildings, there is, it is believed, some confusion, a part of the expenditure hitherto having appeared in the Stud Accounts.

29. Civil Repairs will be reduced from Rs. 2,12,120 to 2 lakhs.

30. Communications, from Rs. 5,07,132 to Rs. 4,45,857. Any thing more required must be made up from Local Funds and Income Tax.

31. It is remarked that the Lieutenant-Governor alludes in his Minute to the restoration of the tomb of the Emperor Akbar at Sikundra, near Agra, which is going on under his orders. The object is a most proper one; but it is exceedingly questionable whether such a work should be entered as a Repair. By a Repair is meant the ordinary work necessary from time to time to maintain a building in a proper condition. The sum at which these so-called Repairs are estimated is Rs. 42,570, which shews that the operations are not of the character abovementioned. The item should have been brought forward as an Original Work.

Part III.—Establishments.

32. The proposed allotment is Rs. 12,22,880 against Rs. 11,57,446 from last year, which, however, included the Jubbulpoor Circle. No allusion is made to this circumstance, though it is pointed out that new charges have been incurred, amounting to about 1 lakh. On the whole, an aggregate of 12 lakhs is deemed sufficient, and may be passed, though it is confidently hoped that a considerable reduction will before long be found possible, and will set free a further sum for application to really useful work.

33. This concludes the review of the Imperial Budget, amounting in all to 60½ lakhs, and distributed as follows:—

	Rs.	18,62,146

36. It is not clear whether the Account of expenditure refers to the past year, or to the present, but it may at all events be looked on as an approximation to the outlay for the present year. It is as follows:—

Establishments ...	Rs.	2,46,385
Roads ...	,,	6,85,304
Bridges and Culverts ...	,,	2,75,520
Serais, &c. ...	,,	66,220
Conservancy and Drainage ...	,,	1,17,742
Streets ...	,,	82,034
Tanks and Wells ...	,,	75,763
Total ...	Rs.	15,48,968

Leaving an unexpended balance of Rs. 3,13,178.

37. A detailed list of the main elements of the expenditure for 1862-63 is given, amounting to Rs. 8,40,691; but its connexion with the estimated expenditure above noted is not explained, and nothing can be ascertained from the figures themselves. The allotments are almost exclusively small ones, and nothing is entered specially calling for notice.

38. The allotments of the Income Tax for 1861-62 and 1862-63 will be available for Local expenditure, in addition to the above sum. The allotment for 1861-62, amounting to 5½ lakhs, has already been approved, and calls for no special remark now. The allotment for 1862-63, which may be taken at 6 lakhs, must be altogether redistributed, in consequence of the manner in which the Budget has been dealt with.

39. On the whole, the amount available for Local Public Works for the year will be—

Local Funds Proper, say	...	18½ lakhs.
Income Tax, 1861-62	...	5½ „
„ „ 1862-63	...	6 „
Total		30 lakhs.

40. The charges on the Imperial Revenues for the Guaranteed Railways will be—

Controlling Establishment	...	Rs. 43,000
Cost of land	...	„ 1,10,000
Total		Rs. 1,53,000

This makes provision for the land in the N. W. P. A separate entry is made for that required in the Central Provinces in the Budget of that Administration.

41. The estimated expenditure of Guaranteed Capital is—

E. I. Railway, Main Line	...	Rs. 45,00,000
„ Jubbulpoor Line	...	„ 12,00,000
Total	...	Rs. 57,00,000

A portion of this outlay will take place beyond the N. W. P. boundaries, but for the present year the exact amount of this cannot be ascertained.

42. The aggregate outlay for all Public Works under Government control in the N. W. Provinces, excluding Municipal expenditure, will therefore be about 1½ Million Sterling, viz.—

Imperial outlay on Public Works Proper		60½ lakhs.
Imperial outlay for works of Guaranteed Companies	...	1½ „
Total	...	62 lakhs.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 10th June 1862.

PUNJAB BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. The Punjab Budget has been submitted in proper time and form. The original assignment was 50 lakhs; the Budget as sent up provides for an expenditure of Rs. 50,57,975.

2. The general cast of the Budget has called for considerable changes. Having in view the still large requirements of the Military Department, an addition has been thought necessary to the proposed allotment under this head, though several of the projects originally entered have been disallowed for the present. Some large reductions have also been made under the head of Civil Administration. The sum set down for repairs was erroneously swelled by the exhibition of about Rs. 1,75,000 as the cost of maintenance of Ferries and Boat Bridges, which it has been ruled should appear as a charge against the Tolls, the balance only being shewn in the Public Works Accounts, either as a receipt or a charge. The charges for Establishment have been considered most excessive, and an immediate reduction of rather more than 1 lakh has been thought possible.

The savings thus obtained have been applied to make good the additional grant for Military works, and to add to the allotments for the great Roads and Irrigation works, the completion of which is so essential.

3. The general scope of these modifications will be as follows:—Under Original Works, Military, a reduction will be made of Rs. 50,000 and an addition of Rs. 1,22,318, being a net addition of Rs. 72,318. Under Civil a reduction of Rs. 70,000 and an addition of Rs. 10,000, being a net reduction of Rs. 60,000. Under Public Improvement a reduction of Rs. 53,533 and an addition of Rs. 3,78,425, being a net increase of Rs. 3,24,892. For Repairs there will be a reduction of Rs. 15,400 for Military and of Rs. 1,75,000 for Public Improvement, in all a reduction of Rs. 1,90,400. For Establishments a reduction of Rs. 1,16,117. To the Reserve an addition of Rs. 11,332 will be made to adjust the total assignment. This will give a net increase of Rs. 42,025, which, added to the Budget total submitted, will give a total of 51 lakhs, being 1 lakh in addition to the original assignment.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. MILITARY, ARMY.

4. Item No. 1.—Fort at Abbottabad.—Estimate Rs. 1,00,000; proposed Rs. 50,000. A Plan for a Fort at Abbottabad with a Native Garrison was sanctioned in 1859, at a cost of Rs. 53,013. It is now proposed to have a Garrison of 100 European Infantry, and 30 Artillery, and increased and modified accommodation will be wanted. The Estimate is said to be under preparation. Ample time will be required to consider this, and the Estimate not being yet submitted, the Project must be struck out.

5. A number of entries follow, but most of them are marked A., as only admissible with a larger Budget grant. This system last year's experience shewed to be a troublesome complication, and it will be discontinued hereafter. In one case an item, No. 27, marked A. appears. New N. I. Lines at Kohat, Rs. 10,906, with the note, that the Lieutenant-Governor has sanctioned the collection of material. And somewhat the same occurs in other cases. Hence expenditure seems to have been authorized, although no funds have been appropriated for such works. This is an obvious contravention of the Budget system, and must be arrested.

6. Item No. 10.—Clearances in Palace, Delhi. Spent Rs. 63,000; proposed Rs. 42,000. This is a supplementary item, marked A; but it is, on all accounts, important to complete the operation begun, and the extra sum may be passed.

Item No. 13.—Plunge Bath for Artillery, Rs. 3,462; No. 14, Hospital for European Troops, Rs. 12,272; No. 16, Plunge Bath for Infantry, Rs. 3,465; marked A., may also be passed.

Item Nos. 21 and 23.—Completion of unfinished Barracks for Workshops, each Rs. 7,120, marked A.; these should not be undertaken until it is ascertained that no other buildings already existing can be made available.

Item No. 27.—Native Infantry Lines, Kohat; Rs. 10,906.—Marked A. It may be enquired whether this signifies the Public buildings, such as Guard Rooms, &c., or the huts for the Sepoys; and if the latter, what sort of accommodation is proposed to be given.

Items Nos. 34, 35, and 36.—Buildings in Govindgurh Fort;

Privies and Wash Houses ...	Estimate Rs.	11,540;	proposed Rs.	5,770
Cook Rooms	„	2,329;	„	2,329
Hospital	„	16,148;	„	16,148
	Total Rs.			24,247

May be passed. The objection of the Military Finance Department that this is not a Military Post is an error.

Item No. 37.—Restoring and completing the Barracks at Jullundur.—Estimate Rs. 1,28,949; proposed Rs. 50,000. His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief having raised objections to the re-occupation of this Station, some delay has occurred in dealing with this work. It had recently been settled that the Barracks shall be thoroughly repaired; but within the last few days doubts have again been raised whether the buildings are good enough to be worth any repair on a large scale, and whether they should not be reconstructed. Meantime, however, the allotment may stand as proposed.

Item No. 43.—Barrack at Bhagsoo, Dhurmsala.—Estimate Rs. 25,000; year Rs. 15,000. This provides accommodation for one Company, and may be passed

Item No. 44.—New Barracks, Delhi Palace.—Proposed Rs. 20,000. This may be passed on the distinct understanding that no further outlay is to take place, excepting for preparation of materials; or finishing off the work in hand at the end of April last.

Items Nos. 46 to 48.—Barrack buildings at Dugshai.—Marked A., viz:—

Hospital	Rs.	20,000
Fives' Court	„	1,500
Coffee Room	„	1,800
Total	Rs.	23,300

May be passed for expenditure on sanction of proper Estimates.

Items Nos. 49 to 51.—Barrack buildings at Subathoo.—Marked A., viz:—

Quarters for School Master ...	Rs	6,000
Fives' Court	„	1,500
Coffee Room	„	1,800
Total	Rs.	9,300

May also be passed as above.

Item No. 54.—Restoring Barracks at Kussowlee.—Estimate Rs. 57,560; to complete Rs. 30,000. This was urgently required by the Commander-in-Chief, and has been sanctioned for prosecution.

Items Nos. 58 and 59.—Rent Houses for European Troops on Lahore and Peshawur Road and Grand Trunk Road; Rs. 11,340.—These items are marked A., and no allotment is proposed. But there seems no authority for the provision of such buildings, and the object of them is not understood. During the mutiny, when most extraordinary arrangements were called for with a view of expediting the transit of the European Soldiers to Upper India, such buildings were constructed; but how they can now be required is not perceived. No expenditure for such works is to take place without special authority.

7. Lastly, a further addition of Rs. 28,519 will be made available in addition to the sum set down in the Budget for the further buildings that will be necessary at Subathoo for the provision of accommodation for a complete Regiment now that the detachment is to be removed from Jutogh. This makes the total sum passed under Military Rs. 3,00,000.

8. The Punjab Government, remarking on the large number of Military Works still required, the aggregate of the items marked A. being no less than Rs. 4,73,894, suggests that a defined amount of the Budget assignment may hereafter be fixed for expenditure on Military Works, and that it be left to the Commander-in-Chief to decide which shall have the preference. This is in substance nearly what has been proposed in regard to Oudh and Burmah, and the system is recommended for adoption here also. There is so much still to be done that no good will result from keeping the amount so low as it was in the Budget of this year, and it has therefore been increased to 3 lakhs, and this sum might be fixed to be devoted annually to original Military Works for the next three years.

2. Civil Administration.

9. Items Nos. 65 and 66.—Salt Mines—

Gallery at Buggy Mine.—Estimate Rs. 28,427; proposed Rs. 3,000.

Machinery.—Estimate Rs. 14,950; proposed Rs. 5,000.

The latter entry is marked A. The first item may be passed, and Rs. 10,000 additional given for the Salt works generally. A special reference has been made on the subject of these Salt Mines. It will obviously be most unwise not to improve to the utmost the Mechanical appliances required for the economical working of the Salt Mines. The subject is one that seems to call for a special enquiry, having reference to the Fiscal as well as to the Engineering aspect of the question, and the Lieutenant-Governor is requested to cause a thorough investigation to take place, and submit a Report for consideration, first in the Civil Department as to the Revenue question, and afterwards in this Department as to the practical means of carrying out what the Government considers to be really advisable in an administrative point of view.

The total under Revenue will be Rs. 14,600.

10. Item No. 68.—Medical College.—Proposed Rs. 25,000. No Estimates yet received. Must be disallowed, and attention directed to the remarks in the orders on last year's Budget on this proposal, when it was said that there was no information, a want which still remains unsupplied.

The entry should have been under Educational.

11. Items Nos. 69 to 72.—Rs. 30,106 for Churches at Kangra, Abbottabad, Attok, and Nowshera. There is not a satisfactory entry about the Estimates of one of these Churches. The Lieutenant-Governor's attention must again be called to the remarks in admitting his projects for building Churches at small Stations, in the orders on the Budget for 1860-61. There is no class of works for which the Estimates are so apt to be dealt with in an unsatisfactory manner. If private subscriptions aid, well and good. But let them be secured, and the Estimate adapted to the whole amount honestly known to be available. The P. W. Officers should not be permitted to frame loose Estimates on a peradventure of private subscriptions to eke out deficiencies; the certain result of such a system is eventual demands on the Government which it is difficult to resist. It should be distinctly understood that these sums remain in the Budget as approved, on the condition that a complete Estimate and Design is drawn out before the work is undertaken.

The total under Ecclesiastical will be Rs. 37,134.

12. Under Educational will be passed Rs. 13,355, part of which is—

Item No. 74.—Hospital for Sunawur School; Rs. 10,675.

13. Under Judicial may be remarked—

Items Nos. 82 to 85.—Rest Houses for Police Officers on tour, &c.—Estimates Rs. 77,461; proposed Rs. 60,000. On a reference to the Home Department, the necessity for such buildings is not admitted, and, as was ordered in the N. W. P., the whole expenditure for the New Police will be arrested till definite orders on the subject have been issued. The sum of Rs. 45,000 will be absolutely disallowed on these items, and Rs. 15,000 only left to stand to meet any essential want.

Several items, Nos. 87, 88, 89, 99, seem wrongly entered under the head of Police and Court Houses that should have been under Jails. Making allowance for these, the sum passed under Police will be Rs. 18,337, and under Court Houses, Rs. 13,252.

Under Jails may be passed Rs. 28,818, including—

Item No. 100.—Central Jail, Lahore.—Estimate Rs. 1,00,589; spent Rs. 80,589; proposed Rs. 20,000.

14. This completes Civil Administration, for which will be passed Rs. 1,25,496.

3. Public Improvements.

15. Municipal.—Item No. 102.—Tunnel for Water at Simla; Rs. 3,000.

The prosecution of this, on which Rs. 2,000 has already been spent, is recommended by Mr. Medlicott, of the Geological Survey. Its utility is not doubted, but it is not fairly chargeable against Imperial Funds, and may be disallowed, to be made good from Income Tax or Local Funds.

16. Marine.—The entry under this head should be "River Improvements," under which it will be considered.

17. Under Industrial may be passed—

Item No. 104.—Saw Mills on the Chenab, Rs. 20,000, already promised.

18. Under Agricultural the following call for notice:—

Item No. 106.—Completing Regulators on Baree Doab Canal; Rs. 15,000.

Item No. 109.—Rajbahas for Baree Doab Canal.—Estimate Rs. 17,45,000; spent Rs. 3,00,000; proposed Rs. 2,50,000. The progress of the Irrigation Channels being very important, an additional grant of Rs. 50,000 may be made to this item, making 3 Lakhs in all. Enquiry may usefully be made as to the system on which these works are going on, as the estimated outlay is very large.

This is all the expenditure on original works for the Baree Doab Canal for this year.

Items Nos. 110 and 111.—Extension of Sohag and Kutora (Sutlej Inundation) Canals.—Estimates Rs. 2,48,870; proposed for the year Rs. 25,000. If these works are not yet in hand, it seems doubtful policy to begin operations on a scale that will require ten years and more to complete the work. The allotment may stand, but explanation should be given on this point.

Item No. 114.—Dhoondee Canal.—Estimate Rs. 88,849; proposed Rs. 44,425, marked A. Half the cost is said to have been contributed by the Zemindars. Such acts should be countenanced, and the another half may be given by Government. The Estimate must, however, be submitted for sanction, and the nature of the arrangements with the Zemindars as to the use of the water should be explained.

Item No. 115.—Regulating Bridge, Dungee Canal.—Rs. 4,000, marked A. This is for an Irrigation work said to have been excavated by the Chief of a Tribe at Dera Ghazee Khan. This too may be passed.

Item No. 116.—New line of Western Jumna Canal between Indree and Kurnaul; Estimate Rs. 1,68,063; proposed Rs. 50,000.—This was sanctioned last year, partly as a famine work, but as a great improvement also. Certain remarks were made on it which have not been replied to. A year nearly should not have been allowed to pass without reply to those remarks. The sanction of the allotment proposed should be contingent on an immediate report and submission of the revised Estimate and Design.

Item No. 120.—Plantations, Baree Doab Canal.—Proposed Rs. 10,000, marked A. This may be granted.

19. The total under Agricultural will then be Rs. 4,53,250.

20. Under Communications may be noticed—

Items Nos. 121 to 124.—Lahore and Peshawur Road—

	Estimates. Rs.	Spent Rs.	Proposed. Rs.
Formation of Road ...	32,03,197	8,00,000	98,716
Metalling ditto ...			3,50,000
Bridges ...			99,175
Railings ...	73,913	...	20,514
Total Rs.	33,37,110	8,00,000	5,67,905

Considering how much there is still to do, and how considerable an Establishment is maintained on this road, more money should be given to it, especially to the Bridges. One lakh additional has accordingly been assigned to it, making a total of Rs. 6,67,905.

Item No. 125.—Indus Tunnel. Experimental Gallery.—Proposed Rs. 5,000. On a late reference the attention of the Punjab Government has specially been called to this work. Though originally estimated at only Rs. 10,000, the expenditure to the end of last year (30th April) is put down at Rs. 35,880. Further, a revised Estimate for the Drift Gallery has come in, shewing that the cost of its completion will be Rs. 51,000, and besides this that Rs. 36,000 will have been spent on Establishment, and that three Companies of Pioneers have been at work on it for two years. The whole actual outlay has probably been not short of 3 or 4 lakhs already. The Government of India has requested an early report to be made to enable a final decision to be come to regarding this undertaking.

Item No. 126.—Road from Lahore to Ferozepore.—Estimate Rs. 2,10,346; spent Rs. 1,34,000; proposed Rs. 45,000.—May be passed.

Item (without a number).—8th Division, Grand Trunk Road. Compensation for Land in Putiala, taken up for Kunkur; Rs. 10,500.—Pass.

Item No. 128.—Road from Umballa to Kalka; Rs. 50,000.—May stand, subject to the submission of the Estimate in due time.

Item No. 129.—Road from Delhi to Muttra.—Estimate Rs. 1,50,000; proposed Rs. 40,000. This was begun as a Famine work, but only Rs. 31,000 appears to have been spent on it. No Estimate has been submitted, and none is spoken of. Must be disallowed.

Item No. 130.—Road from Rawul Pindee to Murree.—Estimate Rs. 42,263; spent Rs. 24263; proposed Rs. 10,000.—Pass.

Item No. 131.—Road from Kalabagh to Attok; Rs. 25,000.—This work is undertaken in connexion with the Steamers recently put upon the Upper Indus, and the allotment may be allowed to stand with a caution as to the necessity for care in keeping down the expenditure, pending the sanction of an Estimate.

Item No. 132.—Improvement of incomplete Kohat and Khooshyalgurh Road; Rs. 6,000.—May be passed.

Items Nos. 135 and 136.—Hazara Main Road; Rs. 7,356.—May be passed.

Items Nos. 137, 138, 140, 141, and 142. These Items provide for the improvement of various roads in the Himalaya, amounting to Rs. 65,000. A definite and comprehensive plan should be drawn out for the main lines of communication in the Mountain Districts which the Government of the Punjab would desire to be undertaken from Imperial Funds, and after submission to the Government of India and approval, they should then be worked out by degrees and on a system. The more difficult the country, the more necessary are such precautions; and it is out of the question to admit of the indefinite application of the Imperial Funds to such works. On the above understanding the general allotment may stand.

Item No. 147.—Permanent Bridges on the Grand Trunk Road in the Umballah Division; Rs. 1,00,000.—Much more than a lakh should be spent on these Bridges. If every other road were stopped money should be given to these Bridges and to the Lahore and Peshawur Road. The aggregate Estimates of these Bridges are about 8 Lakhs of Rupees. Even allowing for a considerable quantity of brick long prepared an expenditure of one lakh is totally inadequate for real progress. A further grant of 1½ lakhs is added to the sum proposed, making in all 2½ lakhs.

Item No. 148.—Renewal of superstructure for Bridge of Boats on Jhelum River; Rs 10,533. This seems to be a charge for the maintenance of the Bridge of Boats, and as such should be debited against the Receipts. It will therefore be disallowed and struck out of the Budget for execution from the gross income.

Item No. 103.—Buildings for River Navigation at Mithunkote; Rs. 20,000.—This Item is transposed from Marine. Details are not given, but no doubt buildings of some sort will be necessary, and this allotment may be given, pending a more accurate Estimate. If the cost of the whole of the works required falls within the Lieutenant-Governor's powers of sanction he will dispose of it, otherwise the Estimates must be submitted for approval to the Government of India.

21. The total for Communications will therefore be Rs. 11,91,772.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

22. The total sum set down for Repairs for the year is Rs. 14,38,550, or deducting the charges for Boat, Bridge, and Ferry Maintenance, Rs. 12,63,550. Last year the sanctioned sum was Rs. 11,44,649. The excess in the present year is attributed partly to the expense of additional white-washing of Barracks, and partly to an increase of charge for clearance of the irrigation canals, amounting to upwards of one Lakh. The total for the Irrigation Works under the Punjab Government for the year is upwards of 4 lakhs, which seems a very large sum, but in the absence of any means of checking it, it must be passed, as it is declared to be essential. The total sum proposed to be allowed will be Rs. 12,48,150, of which Rs. 2,00,000 will be for Military, and Rs. 87,104 for Civil, and Rs. 9,61,046 for Public Improvement.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

23. The proposed charge is Rs 13,66,117 against Rs. 11,57,092 for last year. This increase is very serious and will not be admitted. It has been ascertained from Major Chesney's recent visit to the Punjab that important reductions are possible, and pending the receipt of his report, and the expression of the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor, a reduction of Rs 1,16,117 may be made, bringing down the charge to Rs. 12,50,000. This however is still very large, and it is confidently hoped that a further reduction may be found possible on a large scale, probably to the extent of more than a lakh additional.

24. In the Punjab a very sensible proportion of the Public Works outlay is managed by the Civil District Officers, amounting apparently to nearly 4 lakhs out of the whole 51 lakhs to be given. The actual outlay on works managed by the Public Works Officers therefore will be reduced to 34½ lakhs, for which 12½ lakhs of Establishment is now proposed to be given, or about 36 per cent. This however manifestly cannot be permitted to continue, and the large sum named above is now authorized only because the reductions will of necessity require some little time to carry out. As at first demanded, the charge for Establishment would have been just 40 per cent. on the actual outlay on works.

25. As specimens of the state of things in the Punjab may be given the following Statement of the estimated expenditure for the year:—

Rawul Pindee Division—Establishments Rs	60,625,	Works Rs	51,770
Peshawur	,,	,,	,,	45,750	,,	85,182

Lower Sirhind	,,	,,	,,	20,728	,,	30,650
Delhi	,,	,,	,,	21,198	,,	38,950

26. The Establishments on the Canals also are exceedingly heavy, amounting to Rs 4,09,309 against Rs. 7,50,571 of expenditure. It is true that the entire duty of the Canal Officers is not to superintend expenditure, and that the charge for Collections, Rs. 97,504, may fairly be set off against the Revenue; but notwithstanding this, the cost is certainly excessive.

27. It is needless to follow the Punjab Government into its explanation of the causes of the increase of charge for Establishments over last year's allowance. A complete re-arrangement seems requisite, and no comparisons in such circumstances are of the least value.

28. This concludes the review of the Imperial outlay, amounting to 51 lakhs, proposed to be distributed as follows :—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
MILITARY.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Reserve			5,11,232
Establishment			12,50,000
Grand Total			51,00,000

29. The amount at the disposal of the Punjab Government from Local Funds is large, amounting to nearly 18 lakhs. The Local Budget has been submitted in a form that exactly agrees with that given to the Imperial Budget, though some needless complication has been made, and the Punjab Government thus is entitled to the credit of being the first to bring this branch of its expenditure into real order.

30. The sources of the Income from which these Funds are supplied are not very clearly shewn, but the main elements seem to be as follows :—

Local Funds, probably in a large degree derived from Town Duties	Rs.	13,68,034
Amalgamated Road Fund ...	,,	3,10,983
Educational Cess Fund ...	,,	1,02,802

For Civil Administration the total outlay is Rs. 2,09,980; of which Rs. 12,101 is for repairs; and Rs. 1,97,879 for Original Works.

The Delhi Institute, combining College, Museum, &c., estimated to cost Rs. 80,000, receives Rs. 30,000, one-third as Museum, one-third as College, one-third as Town Hall.

For New Kotwalee at Delhi, Rs. 20,000.

For Municipal Works the outlay is Rs. 4,71,112, of which Rs. 70,039 for repairs, and for new works Rs. 4,01,073.

Under Communications we find Rs. 8,07,884, of which Rs. 1,58,022 is for Road repairs, and for new works Rs. 6,49,862. Of this Rs. 2,32,734 is for Metalled Roads, the larger items being—

For Bridges, including Road culverts, &c., is given in small sums, Rs. 1,05,879.

For Accommodation to Travellers, for Serais and Dâk Bungalows, Rs. 1,04,046.

32. The charge under the head of Establishments is Rs. 2,33,237. A large portion of it should hardly have been reckoned as Public Works outlay at all, viz., Conservancy and Lighting in Towns, Rs. 47,357; Maintenance (custody?) of Dispensaries Rs. 16,027; Serais and Dâk Bungalows, Rs. 24,754. Another large portion is for Establishment employed on work, viz., for Repairs Rs. 9,461 and for Plantations Rs. 28,186? On the whole, the unproductive outlay for supervision would seem to be but little over 1 Lakh, or not much more than 6 or 7 per cent. on the gross outlay, which is quite satisfactory, and gives an illustration of the different spirit that animates the administration of the Local Funds as compared with the Imperial.

33. His Excellency the Governor-General in Council desires to express his satisfaction at the great progress already shewn in the Punjab towards the development of a system of Local provision for Local wants, to the importance of which public attention has recently been drawn in the Statement made on the announcement of the general financial arrangements for the year.

34. In addition to the Local Funds proper will be the Income Tax Fund, viz., 1 Lakh for the year 1861-62, and 1 Lakh for the year 1862-63. The allotment for the former year has already been appropriated with the approval of the Government of India, Rs. 75,000 to various roads; and Rs. 25,000 to Irrigation Works. The proposals for the fresh allotment have not yet been submitted.

35. On the whole, the sum available for Local Public Works for the year will be—

Local Funds proper	...	17¾ Lakhs.
Income Tax, say	...	2 „
		19¾ Lakhs.

36. The charges on the Imperial Revenues for the Guaranteed Railways are estimated at—

Controlling Establishment	Rs. 20,000
Cost of land ...	„ 75,000
Total	Rs. 95,000

37. The estimated expenditure of the Guaranteed Capital may be taken at Rs. 21,00,000; this is considerably less than the sum named by the Punjab Government, but is believed to be as much as is likely to be spent.

It may be remarked that the Secretary of State has recently announced that he has authorized the Punjab Railway Company to raise Capital for the execution of the Railway from Delhi to Umritsur; the commencement of operations on this line may consequently be anticipated in the coming cold season, and some additional expenditure on this score may eventually have to be met. The Estimate for cost of land allows Rs. 70,000 only for this purpose.

38. The aggregate outlay for all Public Works under Government control in the Punjab may then be estimated at about 1 Million Sterling, distributed as follows:—

Imperial outlay on Public Works proper		51 Lakhs.
Ditto for works of Guaranteed Companies		1 „
	Total	52 Lakhs.
Local Funds, including Income Tax		19¾ „
Guaranteed Capital		21 „
Grand Total		92¾ Lakhs.

LEGISLATIVE.

FORT WILLIAM, THE 4TH SEPTEMBER 1862.

THE following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information by order of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council:—

No. 52 OF 1862.

A Bill to constitute Recorders' Courts for the Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein in British Burmah, and to establish Courts of Small Causes in the said Towns.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Resolution of the Governor-General in Council, dated the 31st January 1862, declares that, instead of a Judicial Commissioner for the whole Province of British Burmah, whose ordinary business can well be undertaken by the Chief Commissioner, and who, as Judge of a Special Court sitting at the Head-Quarters of each Division, could not possibly dispose of the causes arising at each place in a manner that would satisfy the suitors, or be consistent with the prompt and regular administration of Justice, there shall be established at Rangoon and Moulmein a Court to be presided over by a Barrister or Advocate of not less than five years' standing, with full powers of Civil and Criminal jurisdiction, analogous to those now exercised by the Recorders of Prince of Wales' Island and Singapore, with the exception of the power to try cases in which European British subjects are charged with capital offences; and whereas it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of such Court and of a similar Court for the Town of Akyab and also for the establishment of a Court of Small Causes in each of the said Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein, and to prescribe the procedure for the said Courts respectively; It is enacted as follows:—

Establishment of Recorders' Courts.

I. It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to establish Courts of Judicature for the Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein in British Burmah, or for any of the said Towns, which Courts, when so established, shall be called respectively the "Court of the Recorder of Akyab," "the Court of the Recorder of Rangoon," and "the Court of the Recorder of Moulmein." Such Courts shall be Courts of Record.

Appointment of Recorder.

The said Courts respectively shall be held before a Judge who shall be called "The Recorder" thereof, and who shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and shall be a Barrister of not less than five years' standing. days on which he intends to hold his Court at the said Towns respectively during the then next ensuing twelve months; and a copy of such Notification shall be stuck up in a conspicuous part of the Court Houses in the said Towns respectively.

If Recorder be unable to hold Court at time and place notified.

VII. If the Recorder shall be unable to hold his Court at the time and place fixed in any Notification issued under the last preceding Section, he shall fix another period for holding his Court at such place, and shall publish notice of the same in the same manner, so far as circumstances will permit, in which a Notification under the said Section is directed to be published.

The Stamp Duties prescribed by Schedule B annexed to Act X of 1862 (to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Stamp Duties) for Instruments and Writings in the Sudder Court shall be chargeable on Instruments and Writings in the Courts of the Recorders established under this Act, if the amount or value of the claim exceed 1,000 Rupees, or if the case be an appeal. The foregoing limitation as to amount shall not extend to petitions of plaint. For such petitions whether the suit be tried by the Recorder or the Registrar of the Court, and for Certificates granted under Act XXVII of 1860 the duty prescribed by the said Schedule B shall be chargeable. For copies of decrees in suits in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed 1,000 Rupees, as well as for copies of judgments and orders, the same duty shall be chargeable as prescribed by the said Schedule B for copies of decrees, judgments, and orders passed or made by a Court below the Sudder Court. On Instruments and Writings in all other cases, as well in the Recorders' Courts as in the Courts of Registrars in cases cognizable by those Officers, on which a duty of 8 annas is prescribed by the said Schedule B, the duty chargeable shall be 8 annas.

Commissioners of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein to be ex-officio Judges of the Recorders' Courts.

XLV. The Commissioners of the Divisions within which the said Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein are respectively situated, shall be ex-officio Judges of the Recorders' Courts at the said Towns respectively. If there shall for the time being be no Recorder, or if the Recorder of any of the said Courts shall at any time from sickness or from being absent on leave or other cause be unable to attend to the duties of his Office, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the Town wherein such Court is situate to sit in such Court and to exercise all the powers vested by this Act in the Recorder, but subject to all the rules, provisions, and limitations herein prescribed and declared. Provided that no Commissioner shall act as Recorder or exercise any authority under this Section without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner first obtained.

Registers and Books, &c., to be kept by the Recorder.

XLVI. The Recorder shall keep such Registers and Books and Accounts, and submit to the Chief Commissioner such Statements and Returns of the work done in his Court on the Civil and Criminal sides, as may be prescribed by the said Chief Commissioner with the approval of the Governor-General in Council. The Recorder shall also comply with such requisitions as may be made by the Governor-General in Council, or by the Chief Commissioner for records.

Interpretation of the word "Barrister."

XLVII. The word "Barrister" in this Act shall be deemed to include Barristers of England or Ireland or Members of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland, or Advocates of any High Court or Colonial Supreme Court authorized by Royal Charter to admit Advocates.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to give effect to that part of the Resolution of the Governor-General in Council, dated the 31st January last, relating to the administration of British Burmah, which declares that, instead of a Judicial Commissioner for the whole Territory, as had been proposed, there shall be established at Rangoon and Moulmein a Court, to be presided over by a Barrister or Advocate of not less than five years' standing, with full powers of Civil and Criminal jurisdiction analogous to the powers now exercised by the Recorders of Prince of Wales' Island and Singapore, with the exception of the power to try cases in which European British subjects are charged with capital offences.

The Resolution of the date abovementioned contemplates the establishment of a Recorder's Court only for the Towns of Rangoon and Moulmein; but it is considered advisable to give the Governor-General in Council power to establish a similar Court at Akyab, if he should think proper to do so. The Town of Akyab has a large European mercantile community which seems likely to increase rapidly, and the arrangements which have recently been made for regular and frequent communications by Sea between that place and Rangoon and Moulmein will enable the Recorder to pay periodical visits to Akyab, and hold sittings there without difficulty, and with little inconvenience as regards his duties at other places.

The Bill empowers the Governor-General in Council to appoint a Recorder to each of the three Courts, which may be established under its provisions, or to any two of those Courts, or to appoint a single Recorder to the three Courts; and it provides for the manner in which the Recorder is to regulate his sittings in the Courts of the different Towns when he is the Recorder of the three Courts or of any two of them.

At first it is probable that only one Recorder will be appointed, whether his jurisdiction is confined to the Towns of Rangoon and Moulmein, as proposed in the Resolution of the 31st January last, or extended to the Town of Akyab also, and it appeared to be necessary, therefore, to make some provision for carrying on the current business in the several Courts during the absence of the Recorder on duty elsewhere. This consists amongst other things, of the execution of decrees, the reception of plaints, and of any documents connected therewith which the parties may desire to file, the issue of notice to the Defendants and of summonses to witnesses, and the fixing of days for the trial of causes which will be necessary in order that, on the arrival of the Recorder, there may be always cases ready for hearing to the disposal of which he may immediately apply himself.

For the conduct of the current duties, inclusive of those above described, in each of the Recorders' Courts, the Bill empowers the Governor-General in Council to appoint a Registrar who is to be the Chief Ministerial Officer of the Court to which he is appointed. But as the current business would not be sufficient to give this Officer full employment, it is proposed that he shall be a Judge of Small Causes within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Recorder's Court of which he is Registrar, and that he shall in that capacity, subject to the control of the Recorder, determine all small causes of the nature described in Act XLII of 1860, in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed the sum of 200 Rupees, a power being given to the Governor-General in Council to enlarge the jurisdiction of any Registrar in cases of the like description as far as 500 Rupees. It is further proposed that the Recorder shall have power to refer for trial and decision to the Registrar any suit other than suits falling under the Act abovementioned, in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed 100 Rupees. The decisions passed by the Registrar in the cases so transferred to him will be open to appeal to the Recorder, under the rules relating to appeal contained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The effect of these provisions will be to relieve the Recorder of a good deal of work which may very well be performed by an Officer receiving a smaller salary, and give him time for the disposal of the more important cases coming before him; they will also afford a speedy remedy in cases of small amount and generally of a simple character which is very desirable.

The Code of Civil Procedure will regulate the proceedings in all Civil cases instituted under the Bill, subject to the provisions of the Acts relating to Small Cause Courts, in cases of the nature described in those Acts, and the Law to be administered will be the Law administered in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal in the exercise of its ordinary original Civil jurisdiction.

On the Criminal side the Recorder will, within the local limits of his Civil jurisdiction, have all the powers of a Court of Sessions, as defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure, for the trial of persons not being European British subjects, and of the High Courts of Judicature for the trial of European British subjects charged with offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code except offences punishable with death. For such offences, when committed by European British subjects, the commitment will be made, as at present, to the High Court at Fort

William in Bengal. The procedure on trials held before the Recorder will be the procedure contained in Act XXV of 1861 (the Code of Criminal Procedure). In cases in which the Recorder may sentence any person to suffer death, the sanction of the Chief Commissioner will be necessary before the sentence can be carried into execution. It is proposed that the Chief Commissioner shall have power in any such case to commute a sentence of death to a sentence of transportation for life, or for any shorter period not less than seven years.

It will be in the discretion of the Recorder to reserve any point of Law arising in the course of a trial held before him for the opinion of the High Court at Calcutta, and on any point so reserved, or on its being certified by the Advocate-General that in his judgment there is an error in the decision of a point of Law decided by the Recorder, or that a point of Law which has been decided by the Recorder should be further considered, the High Court will have power to review the case and to pass such judgment and sentence as to it shall seem right.

The foregoing are the only provisions of the Bill which seem to call for particular notice.

Public Works Budget for 1862-63.

OUDH BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

The amount provisionally assigned to Oudh was 16 lakhs. After the Budget was drawn out the Chief Commissioner received notice of the grant of 2¼ lakhs from the 1 per cent. of the Income Tax, and this has induced him to propose some modifications in the Budget, which are stated in his Secretary's letter. They will be noticed in detail in their proper places.

2. Provision has not been made in the Budget for the Opium Buildings required in the Province, and for these an extra grant of 1 lakh will be given.

3. The general result of the modifications made will then be as follows:—In Part I. an addition of Rs. 40,000 under Military; an addition of Rs. 1,46,000 under Civil; a reduction of Rs. 76,000 under Public Improvement, in works to be carried out by means of the 1 per cent. Fund; a reduction of Rs. 10,000 on Repairs, making a net addition of 1 lakh, and giving a total of 17 lakhs for the whole Budget allotment.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—MILITARY.

A. ARMY.

4. The Estimates for the whole requirements in Barrack and subsidiary buildings at Lucknow, Seetapore, Fyzabad, and Rae Bareilly were Rs. 63,12,784. Gonda is excluded from this calculation, as it will not be occupied after the 27th Regiment (just gone there) leaves. The above sum provided for—

1 Regiment, European Cavalry.
5 „ „ Infantry.
6 Batteries, Artillery.

About Rs. 46,60,000 has been spent, and it is estimated that 14 lakhs more will be required, making a total of Rs. 60,60,000. Instead of five Infantry Regiments, as at first proposed, however, there will be only four, one being divided between Seetapore and Rae Bareilly. This should make a reduction of from 7 to 8 lakhs, being the charge for a Regiment, whereas the reduction anticipated by Major Crommelin is less than 3 lakhs. It is true that the accommodation of two Wings will cost more than that of one Regiment; and some buildings, not in the original Estimates, will have to be sanctioned. But the reduction should apparently be more than 3 lakhs. It is observed that the Chief Engineer has allowed something for the contingency of Gonda being kept up, and the buildings there completed, which probably will not be necessary, so that the reduction may be carried further than the sum he gives, and the amount necessary for the completion of the Military Buildings may fairly be taken at 10 or 12 lakhs.

5. The requisitions made by the Military Committees amount to 8 lakhs, of which 6¼ are termed indispensable. But the Chief Engineer states distinctly that the men are at present very fairly provided for, and that the proposed assignment in the Budget of Rs. 3,60,000, to which the Chief Commissioner, in his letter, proposes to add Rs. 40,000, will very nearly provide all that is essential. There is not much good in deferring the expenditure which must be incurred, and the best way to treat the matter is, as is proposed for Burmah, to fix a sum to be spent on Military Works for each of the next three years, and to leave the Military Authorities some discretion in making their own selection of the order in which the buildings should be taken up. It has consequently been already ordered that the allotments shall be as follows :—

1862-63	...	Rs. 4,00,000
1863-64	...	„ 3,00,000
1864-65	...	„ 2,50,000

This, it is hoped, may provide for all really necessary buildings.

6. It will still be necessary, however, to call attention to the recent reductions of the strength of Regiments and Batteries, and to insist on the existing accommodation being completely utilized before additions for subsidiary purposes are carried out; also to pay strict attention to the necessity for not building more Family Quarters than are at the time actually required for the married men present with Regiments.

7. Nothing was entered in the Budget for the Lucknow demolition and clearance. It is very desirable that this should go on, and something may be given for it out of the additional grant of Rs. 40,000. Orders on most of these points have already been issued by the Government of India.

8. The total sum to be passed under Military will be Rs. 4,00,000.

2.—Civil Administration.

9. Item No. 10.—Lucknow Central Jail.—Estimate Rs. 3,20,911; spent Rs. 80,000; proposed Rs. 80,000.

The Judicial Commissioner presses for additional Jail accommodation, and for the completion of the Central Jail on the original plan with two Circles; this has already been authorized.

Item No. 11.—Divisional Jails at Fyzabad and Seetapoor.—Estimates each Rs.1,44,510; spent Rs. 60,000; proposed Rs 80,000.

The Chief Commissioner, in his letter, desires to add Rs. 20,000 for the enlargement of the District Jails or Hawalats, which are used as Jails for short-term prisoners.

Item No. 12.—Civil Buildings, Rs. 20,000.—Cutcherries chiefly are meant, for which a Plan has lately been sanctioned; but Tuhseels and Thannahs are also wanted. The Chief Commissioner says Deputy Commissioners' Cutcherries are urgently wanted both at Fyzabad and Gonda, and that he has authorized a commencement from the savings of the current year. This is to be regretted with regard to Gonda, as the vacation of the Barracks will make large buildings there available, and though the present Cutcherry is a deplorable structure, and possibly a dangerous one, shift might have been made to carry on for a year or two till the Barracks became vacant. The Chief Commissioner's attention has already been drawn to this. To meet the requirements of the Civil Administration as far as practicable an additional grant of Rs. 40,000 has already been promised, viz., Rs. 20,000 for Hawalats, Thannahs, Tuhseels, Rs. 26,000 for Cutcherries.

10. As before remarked a sum of 1 lakh of Rupees will be granted for Opium Buildings. The Designs and Estimates for these have been submitted, and have been referred to the Bengal Government for report. It may here be remarked that some confusion of ideas exists as to the way of providing for these buildings. It is, of course, just as necessary for the Oudh Administration to provide for the Opium Buildings in its Budget as to provide for the Military Buildings. Whether the Opium Revenue appears as an element of Oudh income or not has nothing to do with the matter. The Public Works assignment for Oudh, as for all other Provinces, is made from the Imperial Funds, and is to meet all the requirements of the Government for whatever purpose. The subject, however, will better be dealt with specially, and the Government of India will hereafter issue further orders to remove all doubts on this subject.

11. The total sum granted under this head will then be Rs. 3,26,000.

3.—Public Improvement.

12. Under this division the proposed expenditure is entirely on the main roads of the Province. The allotments, as finally proposed by the Chief Commissioner, after striking out certain amounts from the Imperial Budget, to be provided from the 1 per cent. Income Tax Fund, will be as follows :—

Item No. 13.—Road from Fyzabad to Allahabad.—Estimate Rs. 3,63,435; spent Rs. 2,81,861; proposed Rs. 75,439. This Road will be finished during the year (so far as it lies in Oudh), except the large bridges. Estimates of these are still wanted.

Item No. 14.—Road from Rae Bareilly to Dalamow and Futtehpoor, N. W. P.—Estimate Rs. 94,561; spent Rs. 50,000; proposed Rs. 44,561. This should also be finished.

Item No. 15.—Road from Lucknow to Fyzabad
Item No. 16.—Road from Lucknow to Byramghát

Estimates not submitted; spent Rs. 1,82,000; to be passed Rs. 1,50,000.

Item No. 17.—Road from Fyzabad to Gonda.—No Estimates; spent Rs. 40,000; to be passed Rs. 44,000.

Item No. 18.—Road from Lucknow to Seetapoor.—No Estimates; spent Rs. 15,000; to be passed Rs. 50,000.

The Estimates that are wanting, or parts of them for sections sufficient to go on with, are promised before long. No more delay should occur.

13. The total expenditure on these roads, including the proposed allotments from the Income Tax of 1861-62, will be as follows :—

	Budget revised.	1 per cent. 1861-62.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Fyzabad to Allahabad ...	75,439	40,000	1,15,439
Rae Bareilly to Dalamow ...	44,561	.....	44,561
Lucknow to Fyzabad and Byramghát ...	1,50,000	75,000	2,25,000
Fyzabad to Gonda ...	44,000	36,000	80,000
Lucknow to Seetapoor ...	50,000	24,000	74,000
	3,64,000	1,75,000	5,39,000

14. The total to be passed under Public Improvement, all being under Communications, will be Rs. 3,64,000.

15. And the total for Part I. will be Rs. 10,00,000.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

16. The total set down for Repairs is Rs. 2,10,000 against Rs. 2,00,338 last year. The sum allowed will be 2 lakhs only.

17. Military Repairs.—Rs. 1,01,184 certainly appear heavy for buildings which are nearly all built since 1858. But it seems difficult to reduce the amount, which is stated to be based on detailed Estimates; and it must be remembered that the pressure that was applied to hurry on the Military Buildings in Oudh caused some of them to be run up of inferior material; nearly half of the amount of the current repairs, Rs. 29,301, for improving the tiled roofs, is accounted for in this way. It is very difficult to establish a manufacture of good tiles at first, and it seems certain that much of the tiling should be renewed.

18. Civil Administration, Rs. 30,695, to be reduced to Rs. 25,695.

The chief item here is Rs. 25,000, put down in a lump sum for expenditure by the Civil Officers. It is very desirable that as much of the repairs as possible should be in their hands; but the sum should have been approximately distributed under Judicial and Revenue.

19. Public Improvement, Rs. 78,121, to be reduced to Rs. 73,121.

Rs. 78,121 is for road repairs, of which the bulk (Rs. 50,098) is for the Cawnpore and Lucknow Road. This is less than last year by Rs. 6,000, but still a great deal for 50 miles of road, though the traffic be very heavy, though the road has 20 feet width of kunker instead of 16 feet, as usual, on the Trunk Road. The Estimate for repairs on the Grand Trunk Road, in the North-Western Provinces Budget, is as follows:—

3rd Division	Rs.	1,29,839
4th ,, ...	,,	1,29,000
5th ,, ...	,,	86,550
6th ,, ...	,,	73,600
	Rs.	4,18,989
Add special repairs	,,	6,782
Total	Rs.	4,25,771

This is for 867 miles of Trunk Road, or at the rate of Rs. 491 a mile. Allowing one-fourth more for the greater width of metal on the Lucknow Road, this would be Rs. 614 a mile. And even after allowance for reduced expenditure on the Trunk Road, where the Railway relieves it, and for the concentrated traffic on the Lucknow Road, the charge is still too high. It will be expected that economy shall be exercised on this Item, and, as stated in the general observations, the subject of Repairs is one calling for special consideration.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

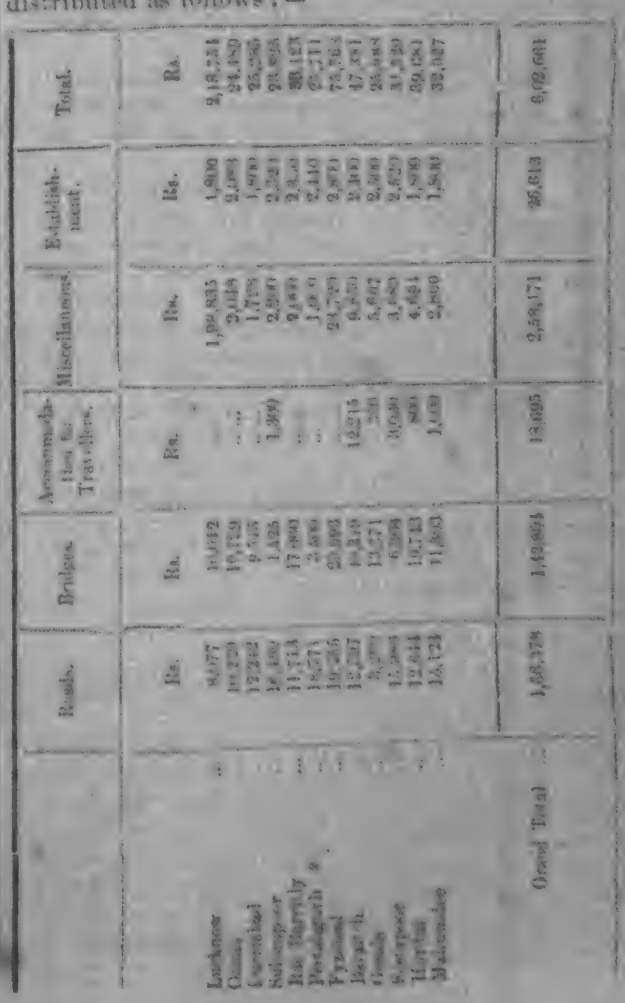
20. This is Rs. 2,50,000 against Rs. 2,24,850 last year; therefore, as the total Public Works assignment this year is lower by 2 lakhs, whilst the cost of Establishment has increased, Oudh loses the very economical position as to Establishments which it exhibited last year, though it is still moderate, 14·7 per cent. There has been an addition to the number of Assistants since the roads were commenced; also some promotion to provide for, as well as the provision of Military Pay and Allowances. The money to be spent from the 4 per cent. Income Tax Fund has not been taken into account in the above; if it were, it would reduce the percentage of Establishment charge materially.

21. It is pointed out by the Chief Commissioner that the appointment of Dr. Cannon as Inspector of Jails transfers his salary (which he has drawn as a temporary Executive Engineer) to the Civil Department, and reduces the Budget charge for Establishments by Rs. 9,000. It will, however, be as well to leave the sum set down for Establishments at Rs. 2,50,000.

22. This concludes the consideration of the Imperial Budget, the revised distribution of which will be as follows:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
Military.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Army ...	4,00,000	1,01,184	5,01,184
Total Military ...	4,00,000	1,01,184	5,01,184
Civil Administration.
Revenue ...	1,00,000	10,067	1,10,067
General ...	...	1,650	1,650
Ecclesiastical ...	...	1,850	1,850
Judicial ...	2,26,000	11,228	2,37,228
Total Civil Administration ...	3,26,000	25,695	3,51,695
Public Improvement.
Communications ...	3,64,000	73,121	4,37,121
Total Public Improvement ...	3,64,000	73,121	4,37,121
Total ...	10,90,000	2,00,000	12,90,000
Reserve ...	...	...	1,60,000
Establishment ...	...	...	2,50,000
Grand Total ...	...	...	17,00,000

23. The estimated expenditure from Local Funds amounts in all to Rs. 6,02,661. It is distributed as follows:—



24. The details of this expenditure, which refers to the year ending September 1862, have been submitted in a very confused manner, and no statement is given of the nature or amount of the funds from which the money is to be provided. The forms of the Accounts of Local Fund Expenditure, generally, require revision.

25. The distribution of the grant of the 1 per cent. of the Income Tax for 1861-62, amounting to 2¼ lakhs, has already been approved and need not be again commented upon No proposals have been sent up as to the allotment for 1862-63, but so large a sum will probably not be granted this year, the actual contribution of Oudh being far less than 1 lakh If 1 lakh be taken as the grant for 1862-63, an aggregate of say 3¼ lakhs may be available from Income Tax. The aggregate of Local Funds then will be Rs. 9¼ lakhs.

26. There is no Railway expenditure in Oudh.

27. The aggregate outlay on Public Works will therefore be—

Imperial outlay	17	lakhs
Local Funds, including Income Tax	9¼	„
Total ...	26¼	lakhs.

Secy. to the Govt. of India,
P. W. D.

FORT WILLIAM,
10th June 1862.

CENTRAL PROVINCES BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. The original assignment for the Province of Nagpoor was 9 lakhs. To this has been added 5 lakhs transferred from the N. W. P. assignment, on account of the Jubbulpoor Division, on its union with Nagpoor, to form the Central Provinces. The Chief Commissioner, however, considering the numerous wants of the united Provinces, hoped for an addition of 9 lakhs at least, and directed the Chief Engineer to prepare the Budget accordingly for 18 lakhs, with an additional column shewing what could be spent with the same Establishments. The proposed grants so augmented bring the amount of the Budget up to 25 lakhs.

2. On the first receipt of the Budget the proposed distribution of the expenditure was considered by the Government of India, and orders were issued by which the appropriation of the Funds was generally determined. Those orders could not be maintained without a large addition to the sum of 14 lakhs which had originally been assigned; and an extra grant of 3½ lakhs is therefore proposed, though it must be admitted that the sum is somewhat in excess of the share of the Imperial Funds to which the Central Provinces could otherwise have been considered fairly entitled. The Budget then will be dealt with on a total of 17½ lakhs.

3. From this sum will have to be provided the charges for the Military Station of Nagode, for which no provision was made in the original Budget; also for the repairs of the Great Deccan Road in Rewah beyond the limits of the jurisdiction of the N. W. Provinces.

4. The changes in the assignments to provide for the former orders and these additional charges will be considerable. Their general scope will be as follows:—

Under Original Works, Military (including Nagode), there will be a reduction of Rs. 64,413, under Civil a reduction of Rs. 32,500; and under Public Improvement of Rs. 21,204. For Repairs there will be a reduction of Rs. 660 under Military, and an addition of Rs. 36,445 for Public Improvement, or a net increase of Rs. 35,785. The amount for Establishment will stand, as proposed, at Rs. 3,69,619, and the Reserve will be reduced by Rs. 15,000. These changes will make a net reduction in the Budget of Rs. 57,332, reducing it from Rs. 18,47,332 to Rs. 17½ lakhs.

5. Items Nos. 1 and 2.—Draining and levelling in Kamptee Cantonment; Rs. 3,000 and 1,800.—The largest amount proposed, in all Rs. 4,800, may be passed.

Item No. 3.—Roads in Ditto; Rs. 3,100. Nothing proposed for the year.

Items Nos. 4 and 5.—Family Quarters at Kamptee.—Estimate Rs. 60,000; proposed Rs. 60,000. A Plan and Estimate for a double bungalow was sanctioned by the Government of India in November last, and authority was given to proceed with the work if funds could be provided from the Budget allotment of the current year. The correspondence then submitted shewed the urgent necessity that existed for providing the number of new quarters proposed. But it is now seen that this is only the beginning of a total renewal of all the family quarters at Kamptee, both of Artillery and Infantry, to the extent of 70 or 80, the present patcherries affording wretched accommodation, and being said to be in such a state as to be hardly safe. Under these circumstances it seems necessary to re-consider the sanction given to the Nagpoor Design, which costs not less than Rs 1,865 per man, a sum far more than can be considered essential, and which provides accommodation hardly less than that given to a Subaltern Officer. The limit per man to be fixed for such quarters in this locality should certainly not much exceed Rs. 1,000. Any buildings actually begun on the proposed plan, if they cannot be modified, may be allowed to be completed, but no more should be commenced. A sum of Rs. 32,000, providing, at the rate named, quarters for 32 families, the number that had been proposed originally, may be passed for expenditure in the present year.

Item No. 6.—Sanitarium at Mothoor.—Proposed Rs. 15,000. A collection of papers regarding the establishment, experimentally, of a small Sanitarium at Mothoor was received in August 1860, with an Estimate for Barracks, and a request to be allowed to spend Rs. 25,000 on the experiment. The papers include the Report of a Committee, who went up in May of that year to Mothoor, and who speak highly of its capabilities, but add that they would like further observations to be made after the rains. The position is central, being distant from Kamptee 105 miles, from Chundwarra 35 miles, Baitool about 60 miles, Saugor 90 miles. To make it accessible from these places roads would have to be made, which were roughly estimated at Rs. 56,512.

Copies of the same papers, or some of them, were at the same time sent through the local Military Officers to the Madras Government, and that Government referred the matter to the Military Department of the Government of India, in which it was decided to be impossible to sanction the plan at present, very desirable though it might be. A subsequent proposal of the Madras Government to employ Soldiers on the public works connected with the Sanitarium was also negatived on financial grounds.

The object of the present proposed expenditure is to test the fitness of the locality as a Military Sanitarium; and considering the importance of some such Establishment, not only in a Military, but in a general point of view; and having special reference to the inaccessible position of Nagpoor during a great portion of the year; and the great inconvenience and actual pecuniary loss to the State that arises from the prolonged absence of sick Officials in parts of the country far removed from their regular posts, it seems expedient to sanction the whole of the proposed sum of Rs. 15,000, to be applied when the idea has been properly approved by the Government of India in the Military Department, to which Department the proposal has been referred for orders.

Items Nos. 6.4. to 10.—Guard Rooms, Plunge Bath, and Fives Court at Kamptee.—May be passed, aggregating Rs. 14,235.

Items Nos. 11 to 13.—Buildings at Seetabuldee for European Detachment.—Disallowed, pending doubt as to the occupation of the post.

Items Nos. 14 to 16.—Military Buildings at Jubbulpoor.—Pass in all Rs. 5,200.

Item No. 17.—Orderly Room and Adjutant's and Pay-Master's Offices, Jubbulpoor; Rs. 4,000.—Disallowed. These Officers receive a special allowance for Office accommodation and are not entitled to receive it at the public expense.

Item No. 18.—Verandahs to end Rooms of Barracks, Sangor; Rs. 2,151.—Pass.

Item No. 19.—Two Temporary Barracks, Sangor; Rs. 32,000.—Disallowed, pending more full information as to their necessity.

Item No. 20.—Gun-Shed, Sangor; Rs. 1,624.—Pass.

6. For Nagode a Supplementary Budget for Military Works, amounting to Rs. 30,354, has been submitted. But as the continuance of the Field Battery there is doubtful, permanent buildings are not at present necessary, and a round sum of Rs. 20,000 may be passed.

7. This will bring the total assignment under the head Military to Rs. 94,990.

2.—CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.

8. Under Revenue may be passed in full Rs. 5,614.

9. Under General the only Item is—

Item No. 23.—Offices for Public Works Department at Seetabuldee; Rs. 10,000.—This is a proposal to convert one of the buildings lately occupied by the Irregular Infantry into Offices. A scheme for building Offices appeared in the Budget of 1861-62, but was deferred. The Committee was awaiting the arrival of the new Chief Engineer to take his views on it. They are now said by the Chief Engineer to be urgently required, but the Chief Commissioner merely details the nature and object of the work without noticing its urgency. Offices are at present hired at an annual rental of Rs. 1,620, or were when the last Budget was submitted. The allotment may be approved, with a remark that the subject requires consideration with reference to the general arrangement proposed for the Public Offices at Nagpoor.

10. Under Ecclesiastical is—

Item No. 25.—Church at Seetabuldee.—This building was sanctioned in the Budget of 1860-61 at an estimated cost of Rs. 10,082. In addition to the sum sanctioned by Government Rs. 6,456 has been raised by private subscription, and an additional sum of Rs. 2,000, or so, is expected to be made available, raising the whole amount applicable to the Church to Rs. 18,000, or Rs. 19,000. The estimate recently submitted amounts to Rs. 38,968, so that an additional grant of about Rs. 19,000 will be required from the Government. The propriety of making this grant, i. e., of allowing Rs. 29,000 in all, may be better considered in dealing with the Estimate in usual course. It will suffice now to set aside for the year the sum asked for, viz., Rs. 10,000, to be expended if the Estimate is approved.

It may be remarked with respect to this Church that it is anticipated that the number of Europeans will considerably increase at Nagpoor owing to its becoming the seat of the Government of the Central Provinces, and the influx of persons connected with the Railway.

Item No. 26.—Roman Catholic Chapel at Sangor.—Estimate Rs. 11,804; proposed Rs. 11,804. The Estimate has been sanctioned by the Government, N. W. Provinces. Application was first made for this building in October 1860 by the Vicar Apostolic of Hindostan, and a report was called for from N. W. Provinces. The Estimate and Plan are not submitted, and all information as to the number of persons to be accommodated is doubtless with them. The present papers are little more than an explanation of the delay that has taken place, and evidence from the Assistant Quarter-Master General and the Brigadier Commanding that the present building is small, old, and unsuitable. The sum may be allowed to stand, pending the receipt of proper information as to details.

The total under Ecclesiastical will be Rs. 24,304.

11. The ultimate requirements of these Provinces for Police purposes will be very heavy; but the Chief Commissioner purposes to provide them gradually, so that as much money as possible may be given for the early construction of roads. The Police buildings which it is wished to undertake within the year, are estimated as follows, but if the rates are found insufficient, which is very likely to be the case, the excess, it is said, will be provided next year.

Item No. 28.	Police Buildings at	Nagpoor	...	Rs. 11,000
„ 29.	„	„ Raipoor	...	„ 9,000
„ 30.	„	„ Chindwarra	...	„ 10,000
„ 31.	„	„ Chandah	...	„ 8,000
„ 32.	„	„ Bhandara	...	„ 7,000
„ 33	„	„ Sirencha	...	„ 3,500
„ 34.	Tahsildaree at	Nagpoor	...	„ 7,000
„ 35.	„ at	Raipoor	...	„ 6,000
„ 36.	„ at	Chandwarra	...	„ 6,000
„ 37.	„ at	Bhandara	...	„ 5,000
„ 38	„ at	Chandah	...	„ 6,000
„ 40	„ at	Patan	...	„ 5,000
„ 39	Lock-Up at	Belaspoor	...	„ 1,000
		Total Police	...	Rs. 84,500

The Tahsildarees should more properly have been under Revenue. The Police Buildings are to meet the requirements of the new Police already introduced into Nagpoor. The work should only be undertaken under the restrictions before laid down as to the N. W. Provinces, that is, on definite sanction of some complete arrangement by the Government of India in the Home Department. Meanwhile a sum of Rs. 50,000 may be generally given to meet emergent wants.

Item No. 41.—Court House at Bhandara.—Estimate Rs. 27,202; expended Rs. 21,002; to complete Rs. 6,200. May be passed.

Item No. 42.—Court House at Belaspoor.—Estimate Rs. 10,034; expended Rs. 3,500; to complete Rs. 6,534. This is under construction on the plan sanctioned for Kowta. May be passed.

Item No. 43.—Court House at Chandah.—Estimate Rs. 23,752; expended Rs. 10,000; to complete Rs. 13,752. May be passed.

Item No. 45.—Central Jail at Nagpoor.—Estimate Rs 3,86,078; proposed Rs. 50,000.

The Estimate for this has been returned for revision, the cost being excessive. The general question of the construction of the Jail has, however, been disposed of, and the sum of Rs. 50,000 may stand for expenditure.

12. The total under Judicial will be Rs. 1,31,386.

13. The total for Civil Administration will stand at Rs. 1,74,304.

§ 8.—Public Improvements.

14. This part of the Budget has been almost entirely re-constructed by the orders issued in this Department in No. 928, dated 8th March 1862. All that will be necessary here is to recite the scope of those orders.

15. Under Communications will come—

Item Nos. 63. and 64.—Bridges in the 1st Division, Great Deccan Road.—Proposed for the year Rs. 27,425; to be granted Rs. 1,00,000.

Items Nos. 56, 65, 67 to 70.—Road and Bridges, 2nd Division, Great Deccan Road.—Proposed Rs. 1,50,000; to be given Rs. 2,20,000.

Items Nos. 46 and 58.—Road and Bridges, 3rd Division, Great Deccan Road.—Proposed for the year Rs. 1,10,000; to be given Rs. 2,00,000.

Items Nos. 48 and 61.—Southern Road.—Proposed Rs. 60,000; Rs. 10,000 may be passed, the remainder to be provided from Income Tax Funds.

Items Nos. 47 and 60.—Eastern Road.—Proposed Rs. 60,000; Rs. 40,000 may be allowed for the year, the remainder being provided from Income Tax Funds.

Item No. 51.—Saugor and Calpee Road.—Proposed for the year Rs. 20,000; Rs. 30,000 may be passed.

Item No. 49.—Jubbulpoor and Nursingpoor Road.—Proposed nothing. Nothing given.

Item No. 50.—Jubbulpoor and Saugor Road.—Proposed Rs. 96,000. Nothing given.

Item No. 52.—Dumoh Road.—Nothing proposed or given.

Item No. 53.—Saugor and Mhow Road.—Nothing proposed or given.

Item No. 57.—Jubbulpoor and Raipoor Road.—Proposed Rs. 1,00,000. Disallowed.

Item No. 54.—Out-offices for Overseers' Chowkeys, Great Deccan Road.—Proposed Rs. 2,779; disallowed, its necessity not being admitted.

Item No. 55.—Improvement of Gwaree Ghât on the Nerbudda.—Proposed Rs. 2,245. May be passed.

Item No. 59.—Khanan Bridge at Kamptee.—Estimate Rs. 3,01,715; spent Rs. 30,000; proposed Rs 50,000; allowed Rs. 80,000.

Item No. 62.—Boodree Bridge near Chindwarra.—Nothing proposed or given.

Item No. 66.—Ratghur Bridge.—Estimate Rs. 54,723; proposed to complete Rs. 8,360.

Making a total for Roads and Bridges of Rs. 6,90,605.

16. The distribution of the road works as made above under the several heads of the Budget has been done in a very confused way; a similar want of method is generally to be observed in most of the Budgets, and some special instructions on this head may usefully be issued by the Inspector-General of P. W. Accounts.

The general scope of the above allotments will be as follows:—

1st Division, Great Deccan Road, N. W. P. Frontier to Jubbulpoor	Rs.	1,00,000
2nd Division, Great Deccan Road, Jubbulpoor to Korai ...	,,	2,20,000
3rd Division, Great Deccan Road, Korai to Nagpoor ...	,,	2,00,000
Southern Road, Nagpoor (Boree) Southwards ...	,,	10,000
Eastern Road, Nagpoor to Raipoor	,,	40,000
Saugor and Calpee Road ...	,,	30,000

But in addition the following sums were ordered to be appropriated from the Income Tax grant of last year to these same roads:—

2nd Division, Great Deccan Road...	Rs.	40,000
Southern Road ...	,,	1,10,000
Eastern Road ...	,,	1,00,000
Total ...	Rs.	2,50,000

On the whole, it is believed that the allotments for the main roads of these Provinces are as large as can readily be expended by the Public Works Officers, and are now distributed so as to concentrate the work as much as possible, and on the really important lines.

17. For Accommodation for Travellers may be passed in full Rs. 12,550.

18. The total for Communications will then be Rs. 7,03,155.

19. Under Telegraph may be passed Rs. 12,487, viz.,—

Item No. 74.—Telegraph Office at Chanda, Rs. 8,000, on approval by proper authority.

Item No. 76.—Out-offices to Telegraph Bungalows, Rs. 2,987.

Item No. 77.—Telegraph Office at Seroncha Rs. 1,500.

Item No. 75.—Line between Saugor and Jubbulpoor.—Rs. 25,000 is entered erroneously and will be struck out, such expenditure not being dealt with in the P. W. Department.

20. This concludes the entries under Public Improvement, amounting in all to Rs. 7,15,642.

21. And the total under Original Works will be Rs. 9,84,936.

Part II.—Repairs.

22. The sum entered in the Budget is Rs. 1,80,000, which is moderate. But an additional charge of Rs. 43,000 has to be met for the portion of the Great Deccan Road in Rewah, and Rs. 14,660 for the Military Buildings at Nagode, both of which have been left out of the Budget. After making allowance for these items, and introducing some small reductions to adjust the total of the Budget, the charge will be distributed as follows :—

Military ...	...	Rs. 92,147
Civil Administration	...	,, 20,593
Public Improvement	...	,, 1,17,705

The number of semi-permanent buildings to be maintained will account for the outlay under Military. More than half the charge for Current Repairs under Public Improvement is for the Great Deccan Road.

The aggregate to be passed is Rs. 2,30,445.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

23. The proposed charge is Rs. 3,69,619. The total assignment being 17½ lakhs, this amounts to about 21 per cent. on that sum, and over 25 per cent. on the actual expenditure on works.

The Chief Commissioner laments this high cost of Establishments, but says he does not see how it is to be remedied with the Department as at present organized. Major Chesney's Report on the subject of the P. W. Establishments in Nagpoor will be separately considered, and meanwhile the proposed allotment may stand as probably necessary.

24. This completes the review of the Imperial Budget, amounting in all to 17½ lakhs, and distributed as follows :—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
Military.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

25. No Budget of Local Funds has been sent up from Nagpore, though promised. It is understood that the available sum is large, Town Duties being levied in these Provinces.

26. The allotment of the Income Tax 1 per cent. Fund for last year, amounting to 2½ lakhs, has already been stated. Under the recent orders of the Government 1 lakh only will be assigned to the Central Provinces this year. The Chief Commissioner may be requested to submit his proposals regarding it for approval.

27. The available Income Tax allotments for the year will be—

For 1861-62 ...	...	2½ lakhs.

28. In addition to the above an assignment for the purchase of land for Railway purposes will be required as follows :—

,, G. I. P. Railway	,, 60,000
Total	... Rs. 1,00,000

There are no Consulting Engineers' Establishments, the business being transacted under the Bombay and N. W. P. Governments.

29. The expenditure of Guaranteed Capital in the Central Provinces cannot be ascertained now; but in future years the Commissioner may be requested to give an approximate Statement for the purpose of shewing the general distribution of the expenditure.

30. The total Public Works expenditure, therefore, in these Provinces, as far as known, may be taken at about ¼ of a million, of which will be—

Imperial outlay on Public Works Proper	...	17½ lakhs
For Railway land	...	½ ,,
Total	...	18 lakhs
Income Tax Fund	...	3½ ,,

HYDERABAD IMPERIAL BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. In past years the charges for Public Works to be met by the Imperial Revenues, and those to be met by the Revenues of the Nizam's Assigned Districts, were kept altogether separate; but under recent orders it has been determined that the latter also shall appear in the Imperial Budget. The Hyderabad Budgets for 1862-63, however, have been drawn out on the old system, and time not having been given this Department to consider whether any change of form is expedient, they have been dealt with separately as before.

2. The Imperial Assignment for Hyderabad was 5½ lakhs. The Budget is clearly drawn out, and is generally framed so as to call for approval.

Part I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—Military.

A. Army.

3. The charges under this head provide for the requirements of the Cantonments occupied by the Hyderabad Subsidiary Force, and will be ultimately debited against the Madras Revenues.

A full review of the requirements of the Troops at Secunderabad and Trimulgherry has lately been undertaken by a Special Committee, and orders have been issued which dispose of the mass of the requirements, and it will be expedient to get the necessary work done as early as possible.

4. The following remarks may be made on details:—

Item No. 1.—Blasting Rocks at Trimulgherry; Rs. 5,000.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. But having been recently sanctioned need not be disturbed.

Item No. 2.—Drains, &c., Trimulgherry.—Estimate Rs. 1,56,830; proposed Rs. 20,000. The project has been objected to generally, and no expenditure should be allowed until a proper plan has been approved. The allotment may however stand, and, if not otherwise disposed of, may be transferred to Item No. 7.

Item No. 4.—Bazar Necessaries, Secunderabad, &c.—Estimate Rs. 5,400; proposed Rs.1,500. The object in itself is proper, and the expenditure has been sanctioned by the Government of India. But it is understood that there is a rich Bazar Fund, from which such works would be properly provided. Enquiry might be made on this subject.

Item No. 5.—Wells, &c., Trimulgherry.—Estimate Rs. 25,600; proposed Rs. 17,000 to complete. May be passed.

Item No. 7.—Barracks at Trimulgherry.—Estimate Rs. 11,27,098; expended Rs. 5,04,530; proposed Rs. 2,50,000. May be passed. The works for which designs have been sanctioned will go on, and revised designs will be required for those not before approved. The Resident should be desired to call attention to the reduced strength of Regiments, and to see that every possible economy is introduced into the arrangements of the Buildings on this account. In respect to married men's quarters nothing should be done to provide accommodation beyond actual requirements, and the expense of the quarters should not be permitted to exceed some such sum as Rs. 1,000 per family.

Item No. 8.—Alterations to Dragoon Barracks.—Proposed Rs. 9,020. The allotment may stand, subject to special orders on the Estimate, which is now before the Government.

Item No. 11.—Shed in Arsenal; Rs. 1,730.—The Military Finance Department suggests that further enquiry should be made whether by the removal of obsolete or superfluous stores additional space might not be obtained. Subject to such enquiry the Item may be passed.

5. The other Items call for no remarks. The total under Military may therefore stand at Rs. 3,09,770.

2.—Civil Administration.

6. Under General may be passed Rs. 2,880 in full.

3.—Public Improvement.

7. Under this Section are several roads to be constructed in the Nizam's territories from Imperial Funds.

Item No. 14.—Aurungabad and Toka Road.—Estimate Rs. 1,12,890; spent Rs. 50,000; proposed Rs. 30,000. This is the main Road from Aurungabad to Poona. May be approved.

Item No. 15.—Aurungabad to Nundgaon Railway Station (G. I. P. Railway) and Dowlutabad.—Approximate Estimate Rs. 2,05,000; proposed Rs. 20,000. The assignment may stand The line to be selected is still under consideration, and it is not finally settled yet whether the British Government should carry out the work or the Nizam.

Item No. 16.—Renewing a portion of the Sholapoor Road.—Estimate Rs. 1,49,000. Nothing available for the present year.

8. The total under Public Improvement, Communications, will be Rs. 50,000, and may be passed [illegible].

9. The total for Original Works will be Rs. 3,62,650.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

10. The total charge as set down is Rs. 56,450, which may be passed; divided as follows:—

Military ...	...	...	Rs. 33,000
Civil ...	...	...	„ 1,450
Public Improvement		...	„ 22,000
Total		...	Rs. 56,450

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

11. The share of Establishment set down against the Imperial Budget is Rs. 75,000. The Executive Establishments are specially apportioned, Secunderabad and Jaulnah falling to the Imperial Budget, and Berar to the Assigned Districts. Striking out these special charges, the aggregate expenditure from Imperial Funds will be, say, 5 lakhs against 1½ lakhs from the revenues of the Assigned Districts. It will be, therefore, nearly correct to charge one-fourth of the general expenses of the Chief Engineer's Office to the Assigned Districts and three-fourths to the Imperial Funds. This would give say Rs. 11,000 to the former, and Rs. 32,300 to the latter. The proposed allotment is but slightly different from this, and may be allowed to stand.

12. Under recent orders the proportions in which the Revenues of India, Madras, and the Assigned Districts are to be charged for the joint establishment in adjusting the accounts of expenditure is to be determined by the Government of India at the time of giving the orders on the Budget. The division of the common charge between the Imperial Revenues and those of the Assigned Districts being settled as above, the further division of the charge on the Imperial Revenues between Madras and the Government of India will be made on the following basis:—The charges for Military Works, being all for Madras, may be taken at Rs. 3,85,000, and the rest, which are for the Government of India, at Rs. 90,000. The special Establishment chargeable against Madras for Secunderabad may be taken at Rs. 20,000, and against the Government of India Rs. 14,000 for Jaulnah, giving Rs. 4,11,000 and Rs. 1,04,000 for the approximate respective expenditures, and Rs. 35,000 as the divisible charge for the Chief Engineer's Office, &c. This will give one-fifth for the Government of India and four-fifths for the Government of Madras.

13. The divisible charge therefore will, for the coming year, be distributed as follows:—

One-fourth of the whole will be charged against the Assigned Districts.

Of the remainder one-fifth will be charged to the Government of India, and four-fifths to the Government of Madras.

This is equivalent to charging

- [illegible] to the Assigned Districts.
- [illegible] to the Government of India.
- [illegible] to the Government of Madras.

14. The proposed Budget allotments under Establishments may stand generally under the above detailed provisions for their adjustment.

15. The total sum to be charged against the Imperial Revenues will, then be, allowing

Rs. 55,900, or the Reserve, as follows, amounting in all to 5¼ lakhs:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
MILITARY.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Army ...	3,09,770	33,000	3,42,770
Total Military ...	3,09,770	33,000	3,42,770
CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.
General ...	2,880	...	2,880
Ecclesiastical ...	...	1,450	1,450
Total Civil Administration ...	2,880	1,450	4,330
PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.
Communications ...	50,000	22,000	72,000
Total Public Improvement ...	50,000	22,000	72,000
Total Works and Repairs ...	3,62,650	56,450	4,19,100
Reserve ...	...	...	55,900
Establishment ...	...	...	75,000
Grand Total ...	...	...	5,50,000

16. There are no Local Funds to be dealt with, and no allotment of Income Tax will be made, the collections only being from salaries of Government Servants residing in a Foreign Territory.

FORT WILLIAM,
3rd July 1862.

HYDERABAD ASSIGNED DISTRICTS BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

UNDER recent orders the charges against the Revenues of the Assigned Districts of Hyderabad are to appear in the Imperial Budget, but the change has been made since the Budgets were prepared and the old system will be so far followed as to deal with the two Budgets separately. The sum provisionally given for the Public Works expenditure in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts was 1¾ lakhs, and the Budget is framed to meet this outlay. It is clearly drawn out, and is generally to be approved. It would perhaps have been better if it had been submitted, for previous consideration, to the Foreign Department; but it is not now expedient to do this, as too much delay has already taken place.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—MILITARY.

ARMY.

2. The charges under this head are for the Hyderabad Contingent.

Items Nos. 1 and 4 for Roads at Oomrawutty and Aukolah, amounting to Rs. 2,970, seem questionably entered under Cantonments. Unless such works are specifically for Military Stations they should have been classed elsewhere.

Items Nos. 2 and 3.—Public Necessaries at Aurungabad and Hingolee, Rs. 1,870, are objects in themselves commendable, but probably more rightly chargeable against the Bazar Funds if sufficient.

Item No. 5.—Line for Treasury Guard at Aukolah, Rs. 13,450.—This is said to be necessary to re-place the old buildings lately burnt down. But unless the Nizam's Troops are, as a rule, provided with lines at the expense of the Government, this charge seems irregular. Enquiry should be made on this point.

3. With these remarks the whole sum, Rs. 18,290, under Military, may be passed.

2. CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.

4. Item No. 6.—Tahseeldarees in East and West Berar.—Estimated at Rs. 6,000 each. Twelve are said to be required, and Rs. 15,000 is proposed for expenditure this year. A caution may be given to take them up in such a way as to finish off a few each year, and not to have a large number in an incomplete condition for a long period.

Item No. 9.—Jail at Aukolah.—Estimate 1½ lakhs; proposed Rs. 20,000. A revised Estimate has been called for (D. P. W. No. 2091, dated 31st May 1862). The allotment may stand.

5. The total under Civil Administration, Rs. 36,375, may be passed.

3.—PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.

6. Under Agricultural is one project—

Item No. 11.—Annicut at Wagolee, Rs. 1,100.—May be passed.

7. Under Communications we have—

Item No. 12.—Tracing 483 miles, at Rs. 150 per mile, for Railway Feeders.—Estimate Rs. 72,450; proposed Rs. 20,000. It seems likely that by tracing is meant marking out and making roughly passable. Estimates, &c., are promised hereafter. Such a system of roads could not cost less than 20 lakhs of Rupees, and it is not very clear where such a sum of money is to come from. In the present Budget the road allotment is Rs. 26,000, at which rate the work would be done in 80 years. This proposal, therefore, may simply be negatived, and the Resident desired to apply the money in the manner pointed out in the letter from this Department, No. 392 of 31st January.

Item No. 13.—Nagpoor Dawk Road.—Rs. 6,135, to complete work under an old Estimate.

Item No. 14.—Travellers' Bungalows between Secunderabad and Nagpoor.—Six Bungalows are required at Rs. 2,280 each. Proposed Rs. 5,000 May be passed.

Item No. 15.—Sheds on the Nirmul Road (to Nagpoor).—Estimate Rs. 9,000; proposed Rs. 5,000. The Resident expresses considerable doubts as to the propriety of the outlay, and it may as well be disallowed, passing the sum to the roads.

8. This will leave the total as before Rs. 36,135.

9. And the total under Public Improvements will be Rs. 37,235.

10. And of Original Works the aggregate will be Rs. 91,900.

PART II.—REPAIRS.

11. The sum set down is Rs. 28,000, of which is Military, Rs. 5,000; Civil, Rs. 2,000; Public Improvements (Roads and Ferries), Rs. 21,000, and it may be passed in full.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

12. The special Establishments for the Assigned Districts cost Rs. 30,200, to which the share of the Chief Engineer's and Account's Office being added gives a total of Rs. 38,500, which may be passed.

13. The Reserve being put at Rs. 16,600 will bring the total to be passed to Rs. 1,75,000; distributed as follows:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Military.
Army	18,290	5,000	23,290
Total Military ...	18,290	5,000	23,290
Civil Administration.
Revenue	15,975	500	16,475
General	400	...	400
Ecclesiastical	...	500	500
Judicial	20,000	1,000	21,000
Total Civil Administration ...	36,375	2,000	38,375
Public Improvement.
Agricultural	1,100	...	1,100
Communications	36,135	21,000	57,135
Total Public Improvement ...	37,235	21,000	58,235
Total Works and Repairs ...	91,900	28,000	1,19,900
Reserve			16,600
Establishment			38,500
Grand Total			1,75,000

14. The Resident explains that the sum available from the General Revenues of the Assigned Districts for Public Works will only be Rs. 1,16,000, and that the remainder he proposes to provide by a transfer from his Local Funds. Under the peculiar conditions of these Districts this does not seem open to objection, the whole available assets being in fact Local, i. e., specially appropriated for expenditure in the Districts.

15. A Local Fund Budget is submitted, but it is based on a misapprehension. It seems to be a complete Local Budget, not merely the Public Works section of such a Budget. The entries under Police seem to be intended to apply to Police Establishments, not Buildings. The gross Local Fund Income is stated to be Rs. 2,03,800. Of this Rs. 98,080 is dealt with in the Local Budget, and Rs. 59,000 (originally Rs. 60,000, but reduced to bring the total charge for Public Works to Rs. 1,75,000) will be dealt with in the ordinary P. W. Budget, in all Rs. 1,57,080, leaving a balance of Rs. 46,720 still available. The portion of the Local Budget outlay applicable to Public Works cannot be ascertained in full; but Rs. 24,080 at least is for such objects, being allotted to District Roads.

16. There will be no allotment of Income Tax made for the Assigned Districts which are not British Territory.

17. The aggregate outlay on Public Works will, therefore, be somewhat over 2 lakhs of Rupees.

LEGISLATIVE.

FORT WILLIAM, THE 4TH SEPTEMBER 1862.

THE following Bill and Statement of Objects and Reasons accompanying it are published for general information by order of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council:—

No. 52 OF 1862.

A Bill to constitute Recorders' Courts for the Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein in British Burmah, and to establish Courts of Small Causes in the said Towns.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Resolution of the Governor-General in Council, dated the 31st January 1862, declares that, instead of a Judicial Commissioner for the whole Province of British Burmah, whose ordinary business can well be undertaken by the Chief Commissioner, and who, as Judge of a Special Court sitting at the Head-Quarters of each Division, could not possibly dispose of the causes arising at each place in a manner that would satisfy the suitors, or be consistent with the prompt and regular administration of Justice, there shall be established at Rangoon and Moulmein a Court to be presided over by a Barrister or Advocate of not less than five years' standing, with full powers of Civil and Criminal jurisdiction, analogous to those now exercised by the Recorders of Prince of Wales' Island and Singapore, with the exception of the power to try cases in which European British subjects are charged with capital offences, and whereas it is expedient to make provision for the establishment of such Court and of a similar Court for the Town of Akyab and also for the establishment of a Court of Small Causes in each of the said Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein, and to prescribe the procedure for the said Courts respectively; It is enacted as follows:—

Establishment of Recorders' Courts.

1. It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to establish Courts of Judicature for the Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein in British Burmah, or for any of the said Towns, which Courts, when so established, shall be called respectively the "Court of the Recorder of Akyab," "the Court of the Recorder of Rangoon," and "the Court of the Recorder of Moulmein." Such Courts shall be Courts of Record.

Appointment of Recorder.

II. The said Courts respectively shall be held before a Judge who shall be called "The Recorder" thereof, and who shall be appointed by the Governor-General in Council, and shall be a Barrister of not less than five years' standing. Every Recorder appointed under this Act shall hold his Office during the pleasure of the Governor-General in Council.

Recorder to make declaration.

III. Previously to entering upon the execution of the duties of his Office every Recorder appointed under this Act shall make or subscribe the following declaration before such authority or person as the Governor-General in Council may commission to receive the same:—

"I, A B., appointed Recorder of [ ], do solemnly declare that I will faithfully perform the duties of my office to the best of my ability, knowledge, and judgment."

Governor-General in Council may appoint one or more Recorders.

IV. The Governor-General in Council may appoint only one Recorder to be the Recorder of the said three Courts, or he may from time to time appoint a separate Recorder for any one or for any two of the said Courts.

If only one Recorder, Court to be held at each Town at stated periods.

V. So long as there shall be only one Recorder of the said three Courts, such Recorder shall hold his Court at each of the said three Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein at stated periods. He shall hold his Court in Rangoon at such times as may be necessary, in Moulmein at least once in every three months, and in Akyab at least once in every four months.

Recorder to notify the time of holding Court at each Town.

VI. The Recorder shall, on or before the 1st day of January in each and every year, or at such other convenient times as the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah shall direct, notify in the Official Gazettes of the Towns in which the Court is to be held the days on which he intends to hold his Court at the said Towns respectively during the then next ensuing twelve months; and a copy of such Notification shall be stuck up in a conspicuous part of the Court Houses in the said Towns respectively.

If Recorder be unable to hold Court at time and place notified.

VII. If the Recorder shall be unable to hold his Court at the time and place fixed in any Notification issued under the last preceding Section, he shall fix another period for holding his Court at such place, and shall publish notice of the same in the same manner, so far as circumstances will permit, in which a Notification under the said Section is directed to be published.

Recorder may hold Court at other than notified times.

VIII. Notwithstanding anything in Sections VI and VII of this Act contained, it shall be lawful for the Recorder to hold his Court at times other than those notified, as provided in the said Sections, when for any good and sufficient reason it shall appear to him necessary and proper to do so.

Sections VI to VIII how far applicable if there be one Recorder for two Courts.

IX. Whenever there shall be one Recorder for any two only of the said three Courts, the provisions contained in Sections VI, VII, and VIII of this Act shall be applied, so far as the same may be applicable, in respect of the sittings to be held by such Recorder within the Towns of the Courts of which he is Recorder.

Local limits of Civil jurisdiction of Recorder to be fixed and published.

X. The Recorders appointed under this Act shall have and exercise Civil jurisdiction, within such local limits in the said Towns of which they are respectively the Recorders and in the neighbourhood thereof as may from time to time be fixed by the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, with the approval of the Governor-General in Council, and the limits so fixed shall be published in the Official Gazettes of the said Towns. Provided that it shall be lawful for the said Chief Commissioner, with such approval as aforesaid, as often as he shall think proper to vary or alter the limits so fixed; and, save as this Act provided, no Court other than the Recorder's Court shall have or exercise any Civil jurisdiction whatever within the limits for the time being fixed as aforesaid.

Suits cognizable by Recorder.

XI. The Recorders appointed under this Act shall receive, try, and determine suits of every description, if in the case of suits for land or other immoveable property, such land or property shall be situate, or if in all other cases, the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall dwell or carry on business, or personally work for gain within the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of their respective Courts. Provided that the Recorders shall not have jurisdiction in any matter concerning the revenue or concerning any act ordered or done by any person by order of the Governor-General in Council, or of the Chief Commissioner, or concerning any act ordered or done by any Judge or Judicial Officer in the execution of his office, or by any person in pursuance of any judgment or order of any Court or any such Judge or Judicial Officer.

Proviso.

Transfer of cases to a Recorder's Court by the Chief Commissioner.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner to direct the transfer to any Recorder's Court of any case which shall have been instituted in any Court in British Burmah other than a Recorder's Court. Every case so transferred shall be tried and determined by the Recorder to whose Court it is transferred in the same manner and under the same rules as to procedure, and in all other respects as if the Recorder had originally had jurisdiction in the case, and the case had originally been instituted before him.

What suits cognizable by Recorder, if there be only one Recorder.

XIII. A Recorder, who is the Recorder of more Courts than one, shall, while sitting in any one of the Courts of which he is Recorder, ordinarily try no suits except such as shall have been instituted in such Court, or shall have been transferred to it by the Chief Commissioner as hereinbefore provided: but such Recorder may, if he think proper, try any suit instituted in any other of the said Courts of which he is Recorder, if the parties thereto shall join in an application to him (which shall be in writing, signed by all the parties to the suit or their Agents) so to try the same.

XIV. A separate seal shall be made under the direction of the Governor-General in Council for each of the said Courts, and all summonses, orders, and other process issuing out of the said Courts respectively shall be sealed or stamped with the seal of the Court issuing the same. The said shall be delivered to and kept in custody of the Recorder, but during any absence of the Recorder, or in case of the vacancy of the Office of Recorder, the same shall be delivered to and kept in the custody of the Registrar of the Court appointed as is hereinafter provided, and if there be no Registrar then it shall be delivered to and kept in the custody of the Deputy Commissioner.

Advocates and Pleaders to be licensed.

XVI. No person shall be permitted to appear or act as the Advocate, or to plead verbally or in writing, for any suitor in any Court held under this Act in any action or suit, or touching any matter whatever, unless such person shall have been previously licensed by the Recorder of such Court to act for the suitors of such Court generally or specially for the particular occasion, and it shall be lawful for the Recorder of every Court held under this Act to make rules for the qualifications and admission of proper persons to act as Agents in such Court.

Proviso.

Provided that nothing in this Section contained shall be deemed to prevent any person from appearing or acting as the Agent for the Secretary of State for India in Council, or to prevent any suitor from appearing, pleading, or acting on his own behalf, or on behalf of a co-suitor. Provided also that any person who for the time being is an Advocate, Vakeel, or Attorney at Law of any of the High Courts of Judicature in India shall be entitled without any license to act as an Agent for any suitor in any of the said Courts, and that any person for the time being licensed to act generally in any one of the said Courts, shall without further license be also entitled to act generally in any other of the said Courts.

XVII. The Recorder of any Court may for any sufficient reason withdraw or vacate any license which shall at any time be granted by such Recorder to any person to act generally or specially as an Agent under this Act.

All such rules and tables shall be published in the Official Gazettes of the said Towns, and shall thenceforth have the force of Law until repealed or overruled by any Act of the Legislature, or by any rule or table subsequently issued and published with the sanction and in the manner aforesaid.

Proceedings in Civil suits to be regulated by Code of Civil Procedure.

XXII. If, in any suit, any question of law or usage having the force of Law, or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision, shall arise, on which the Recorder shall entertain any doubt, the Recorder may either of his own motion or on the application of either of the parties to the suit draw up a statement of the case, and submit such statement, with his own opinion, for the decision of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

Recorder may refer questions of law, &c., for decision of High Court.

XXIII. The Recorder may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the said High Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the High Court on the point referred; but no execution shall be issued in any case in which a reference shall be made to the High Court until the receipt of the order of that Court.

XXV. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the High Court in person or by an Advocate or Pleader, and the High Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment under the seal of the Court and the signature of the proper Officer of the Court to the Recorder, who shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the High Court.

Code for making such applications. Provided also that in any case in which the Recorder may think it necessary to do so, he may, before granting a new trial or a review, require the party applying for the same to give sufficient security for the due compliance with the terms of the decree or order which it is sought to set aside or review.

Security from parties applying for new trial or review.

XXVIII. All cases and proceedings arising under Act XIX of 1841 (for the protection of moveable and immoveable property against wrongful possession in cases of successions), Act XXXV of 1858 (to make better provision for the care of the Estates of Lunatics not subject to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature), Act XL of 1858 (for making better provision for the care of the persons and property of Minors in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal) as amended by Act IX of 1861 (to amend the law relating to Minors) or Act XXVII of 1860 (for facilitating the collection of debts on successions, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons) may be received and disposed of by the Recorder of any Court established under this Act, (and by no other Court within the local limits of his jurisdiction) subject always to all the rules and provisions as to jurisdiction and otherwise in the said Acts contained respectively. Orders passed by the Recorder in cases arising under the said Acts shall not be open to appeal, but the parties shall be at liberty to contest such orders in a regular suit.

Recorder may receive and dispose of cases under certain Acts.

XXIX. For the trial of Civil suits under this Act the Recorder may constitute one or more persons Assessor or Assessors of the Court. Such person or persons shall attend during the trial of the suit, and shall deliver his or their opinion or opinions in writing to be recorded on the proceedings. But the decision of the case shall rest with the Recorder. No Officer of the Recorder's Court shall be appointed an Assessor under this Section, but this prohibition shall not extend to any other public Officer.

XXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor-General in Council to appoint to each or any of the Recorder's Courts established under this Act an Officer who shall be called the Registrar of the Court to which he shall be appointed.

Appointment of Registrar.

XXXI. The Registrar of the Recorder's Court shall be the Chief Ministerial Officer of the Court, and shall, subject to the provisions in the next following Section contained, receive all plaints presented to the Court, and in the absence of the Recorder shall issue notice of suit to the defendants, receive any documents which the parties may wish to put in, and issue process for the attendance of their witnesses: he shall also keep lists of all causes coming on for trial and shall fix such days for their being heard respectively as may seem to him fit, having regard to the period appointed for the Recorder's sittings.

Duties of Registrar.

XXXII. If the Registrar shall be of opinion that any plaint presented to the Court is defective in any of the particulars mentioned in Section 28, Section 29, Section 30, Section 31, Section 32, or Section 33 of the Code of Civil Procedure, he shall not reject the plaint, but shall point out to the plaintiff wherein the plaint is defective, and shall, with as little delay as possible, forward the plaint to the Recorder of the Court for his orders, together with any statement which the plaintiff may think proper to make, and such plaint shall be dealt with as the Recorder shall order. Provided always that if the defect in the plaint is capable of being cured under any of the said Sections, and the plaintiff shall be willing to amend it, it shall not be necessary for the Registrar to send the plaint to the Recorder, but such amendment may thereupon be made.

Procedure if Registrar consider a plaint defective in certain particulars.

Proviso.

XXXIII. The Registrar shall also receive applications for the execution of decrees passed by the Recorder of the Court of which he is the Registrar, and, subject to any orders which he may receive from the Recorder, shall execute such decrees in the same manner as the Recorder may execute them. No appeal shall lie from any order passed by the Registrar under this Section, but the Recorder may of his own motion reverse or modify any such order whenever he shall think it necessary to do so.

Execution of decrees by Registrar.

XXXIV. The Registrar shall have the powers of a Small Cause Court Judge in suits of the nature of those described in Act XLII of 1860 (for the establishment of Courts of Small Causes beyond the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter) arising within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of which he is the Registrar, provided that the amount or value of the claim shall not exceed 200 Rupees, but he shall exercise such powers subject to the general control of the Recorder. The Governor-General in Council may invest any Registrar appointed under this Act with jurisdiction to hear and determine suits of the nature cognizable by him as a Small Cause Court Judge under this Section in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed 500 Rupees.

Registrar to have powers of a Small Cause Court Judge in certain suits.

XXXV. The suits cognizable by the Registrar under the last preceding Section shall be set down for hearing before such Registrar and he shall hear and determine such suits and execute the decrees made therein in such manner as is prescribed in the said Act XLII of 1860, and subject to such rules as to procedure and otherwise in all respects as are in the said Act contained. Provided that the Recorder may call up any such suit to his own file and hear and determine the same.

Such suits how to be heard and determined.

XXXVI. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision made or passed by the Registrar in any case heard or disposed of by him under the last preceding Section, but in any case in which the Registrar shall entertain any doubt upon any question of Law or usage having the force of Law or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision, he shall be at liberty to state a case for the opinion of the Recorder in like manner as the Recorder may under Section XXII of this Act state a case for the opinion of the High Court of Judicature at Fort Recorder may refer certain suits to Registrar.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for the Recorder to refer to the Registrar of his Court any suit not falling within the description of suits contained in Act XLII of 1860, which shall be instituted in the Court of such Recorder, and the amount or value of the property in dispute in which shall not exceed 100 Rupees. Every suit so referred to the Registrar shall be heard and determined, and the decree made shall be executed by him under the same rules as to procedure and otherwise as are applicable to suits tried by the Recorder. In such suits the Registrar shall have no power to state a case to the High Court or to the Recorder, but an appeal shall lie on questions of Law and of fact from the Registrar's decision to the Recorder under the rules for regular appeals contained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The decision on the appeal shall be final, but the Recorder shall be at liberty to state a question of Law or usage having the force of Law or the construction of a document affecting the merits of the decision for the opinion of the High Court in the same manner as in cases originally tried by himself.

Recorder to exercise powers of Court of Session and to hold a gaol delivery for the trial of offenders.

XXXVIII. The Recorder shall exercise all the powers of a Court of Session, as defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure, within the territorial limits of the Civil jurisdiction of the Court or Courts of which he is Recorder, and shall at the place or places where such Court or Courts are held, hold gaol deliveries at convenient periods, of which due notice shall be given in the manner prescribed in Sections VI and VII of this Act, for the trial of all persons charged with offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code, who may be committed to take their trial before his Court as a Court of Sessions. Provided that the Recorder shall not have power to try any European British subject charged with an offence punishable with death under the said Code. The commitment of any European British subject charged with any such offence shall be made to the High Court of Fort William in Bengal. In all other cases the commitments made within the limits of the jurisdiction of any Recorder's Court for offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code shall be made to that Court.

Proviso as to European British subjects charged with offences punishable with death.

Commitment and trial of European British subjects charged with other than offences punishable with death.

XXXIX. If any European British subject shall be charged in British Burmah with any offence (other than an offence punishable with death under the Indian Penal Code) which a Justice of the Peace shall not be competent to punish, and there shall be sufficient grounds for committing him for trial, such European British subject shall be committed to take his trial before the Recorder, and shall be tried by the Recorder of the Court held within the division of British Burmah in which either such European British subject shall have been arrested, or in which the offence with which he is charged shall have been committed, that is to say, before the Recorder at Rangoon if the arrest took place or the offence were committed in Pegu; before the Recorder at Akyab if the arrest took place or the offence were committed in Arracan; and before the Recorder at Moulmein, if the arrest took place or the offence were committed in the Tenasserim Provinces.

Proceedings of Recorder as Court of Session to be regulated by Code of Criminal Procedure.

XL. The proceedings on trials held by the Recorder as a Court of Session under this Act shall be regulated by the Code of Criminal Procedure and shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act in so far as the same may be found applicable.

Sentences of death.

XLI. If on any trial sentence of death shall be passed by the Recorder, such sentence shall not be carried into execution until it shall have been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner. It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner in any case in which it shall seem proper to him so to do to commute a sentence of death to a sentence of transportation for life or for any shorter period not less than seven years.

No appeal from sentence of Recorder.

But Recorder may reserve points of law.

XLII. No appeal shall lie from any order or sentence passed by the Recorder in any Criminal case. But it shall be at the discretion of the Recorder to reserve any point or points of Law for the opinion of the said High Court.

High Court to review on certificate of the Advocate-General.

XLIII. On such point or points of Law being so reserved as in the last preceding Section mentioned, or on its being certified by the Advocate-General at Fort William that, in his judgment, there is an error in the decision of a point or points of Law decided by the Recorder, or that a point or points of Law which has or have been decided by the said Recorder should be further considered, the said High Court shall have full power and authority to review the case, or such part of it as may be necessary, and finally determine such point or points of Law, and thereupon to alter the sentence passed by the Recorder, and to pass such judgment and sentence as to the said High Court shall seem right.

Stamp Duties chargeable on Instruments and Writings in the Recorders' Courts.

XLIV. The Stamp Duties prescribed by Schedule B annexed to Act X of 1862 (to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Stamp Duties) for Instruments and Writings in the Sudder Court shall be chargeable on Instruments and Writings in the Courts of the Recorders established under this Act, if the amount or value of the claim exceed 1,000 Rupees, or if the case be an appeal. The foregoing limitation as to amount shall not extend to petitions of plaint. For such petitions whether the suit be tried by the Recorder or the Registrar of the Court, and for Certificates granted under Act XXVII of 1860 the duty prescribed by the said Schedule B shall be chargeable. For copies of decrees in suits in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed 1,000 Rupees, as well as for copies of judgments and orders, the same duty shall be chargeable as prescribed by the said Schedule B for copies of decrees, judgments, and orders passed or made by a Court below the Sudder Court. On Instruments and Writings in all other cases, as well in the Recorders' Courts as in the Courts of Registrars in cases cognizable by those Officers, on which a duty of 8 annas is prescribed by the said Schedule B, the duty chargeable shall be 8 annas.

Commissioners of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein to be ex-officio Judges of the Recorders' Courts.

XLV. The Commissioners of the Divisions within which the said Towns of Akyab, Rangoon, and Moulmein are respectively situated, shall be ex-officio Judges of the Recorders' Courts at the said Towns respectively. If there shall for the time being be no Recorder, or if the Recorder of any of the said Courts shall at any time from sickness or from being absent on leave or other cause be unable to attend to the duties of his office, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the Town wherein such Court is situate to sit in such Court and to exercise all the powers vested by this Act in the Recorder, but subject to all the rules, provisions, and limitations herein prescribed and declared. Provided that no Commissioner shall act as Recorder or exercise any authority under this Section without the sanction of the Chief Commissioner first obtained.

Registers and Books, &c., to be kept by the Recorder.

XLVI. The Recorder shall keep such Registers and Books and Accounts, and submit to the Chief Commissioner such Statements and Returns of the work done in his Court on the Civil and Criminal sides, as may be prescribed by the said Chief Commissioner with the approval of the Governor-General in Council. The Recorder shall also comply with such requisitions as may be made by the Governor-General in Council, or by the Chief Commissioner for records.

Interpretation of the word "Barrister."

XLVII. The word "Barrister" in this Act shall be deemed to include Barristers of England or Ireland or Members of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland, or Advocates of any High Court or Colonial Supreme Court authorized by Royal Charter to admit Advocates.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to give effect to that part of the Resolution of the Governor-General in Council, dated the 31st January last, relating to the administration of British Burmah, which declares that, instead of a Judicial Commissioner for the whole Territory, as had been proposed, there shall be established at Rangoon and Moulmein a Court, to be presided over by a Barrister or Advocate of not less than five years' standing, with full powers of Civil and Criminal jurisdiction analogous to the powers now exercised by the Recorders of Prince of Wales' Island and Singapore, with the exception of the power to try cases in which European British subjects are charged with capital offences.

The Resolution of the date abovementioned contemplates the establishment of a Recorder's Court only for the Towns of Rangoon and Moulmein; but it is considered advisable to give the Governor-General in Council power to establish a similar Court at Akyab if he should think proper to do so. The Town of Akyab has a large European mercantile community which seems likely to increase rapidly, and the arrangements which have recently been made for regular and frequent communications by Sea between that place and Rangoon and Moulmein will enable the Recorder to pay periodical visits to Akyab, and hold sittings there without difficulty, and with little inconvenience as regards his duties at other places.

The Bill empowers the Governor-General in Council to appoint a Recorder to each of the three Courts, which may be established under its provisions, or to any two of those Courts, or to appoint a single Recorder to the three Courts, and it provides for the manner in which the Recorder is to regulate his sittings in the Courts of the different Towns when he is the Recorder of the three Courts or of any two of them.

At first it is probable that only one Recorder will be appointed, whether his jurisdiction is confined to the Towns of Rangoon and Moulmein, as proposed in the Resolution of the 31st January last, or extended to the Town of Akyab also, and it appeared to be necessary, therefore, to make some provision for carrying on the current business in the several Courts during the absence of the Recorder on duty elsewhere. This consists, amongst other things, of the execution of decrees, the reception of plaints, and of any documents connected therewith which the parties may desire to file, the issue of notice to the Defendants and of summonses to witnesses, and the fixing of days for the trial of causes which will be necessary in order that, on the arrival of the Recorder, there may be always cases ready for hearing to the disposal of which he may immediately apply himself.

For the conduct of the current duties, inclusive of those above described, in each of the Recorders' Courts, the Bill empowers the Governor-General in Council to appoint a Registrar who is to be the Chief Ministerial Officer of the Court to which he is appointed. But as the current business would not be sufficient to give this Officer full employment, it is proposed that he shall be a Judge of Small Causes within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Recorder's Court of which he is Registrar, and that he shall in that capacity, subject to the control of the Recorder, determine all small causes of the nature described in Act XLII of 1860, in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed the sum of 200 Rupees, a power being given to the Governor-General in Council to enlarge the jurisdiction of any Registrar in cases of the like description as far as 500 Rupees. It is further proposed that the Recorder shall have power to refer for trial and decision to the Registrar any suit other than suits falling under the Act abovementioned, in which the amount or value of the claim does not exceed 100 Rupees. The decisions passed by the Registrar in the cases so transferred to him will be open to appeal to the Recorder, under the rules relating to appeal contained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The effect of these provisions will be to relieve the Recorder of a good deal of work which may very well be performed by an Officer receiving a smaller salary, and give him time for the disposal of the more important cases coming before him; they will also afford a speedy remedy in cases of small amount and generally of a simple character which is very desirable.

The Code of Civil Procedure will regulate the proceedings in all Civil cases instituted under the Bill, subject to the provisions of the Acts relating to Small Cause Courts, in cases of the nature described in those Acts, and the Law to be administered will be the Law administered in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal in the exercise of its ordinary original Civil jurisdiction.

On the Criminal side the Recorder will, within the local limits of his Civil jurisdiction, have all the powers of a Court of Sessions, as defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure, for the trial of persons not being European British subjects, and of the High Courts of Judicature for the trial of European British subjects charged with offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code except offences punishable with death. For such offences, when committed by European British subjects, the commitment will be made, as at present, to the High Court at Fort

William in Bengal. The procedure on trials held before the Recorder will be the procedure contained in Act XXV of 1861 (the Code of Criminal Procedure). In cases in which the Recorder may sentence any person to suffer death, the sanction of the Chief Commissioner will be necessary before the sentence can be carried into execution. It is proposed that the Chief Commissioner shall have power in any such case to commute a sentence of death to a sentence of transportation for life, or for any shorter period not less than seven years.

It will be in the discretion of the Recorder to reserve any point of Law arising in the course of a trial held before him for the opinion of the High Court at Calcutta, and on any point so reserved, or on its being certified by the Advocate-General that in his judgment there is an error in the decision of a point of Law decided by the Recorder, or that a point of Law which has been decided by the Recorder should be further considered, the High Court will have power to review the case and to pass such judgment and sentence as to it shall seem right.

The foregoing are the only provisions of the Bill which seem to call for particular notice.

MALACCA LIGHT.

The new Light at Malacca is exhibited from the ruins of the ancient Portuguese Church on the Hill, 146 feet above the level of the sea at high water. The old Light shewn from the same building was very dim, and not visible more than six miles from the Hooghly's deck, height of eye ten feet above the sea: the present one was seen at a distance of thirteen miles. The Light was much required; it is a capital guide to lead clear of the dangerous Water Islands, and will greatly assist Ships in navigating Malacca Strait.

The following Extracts from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Home Department, on the subject of levying Stamp Duty on receipts given for Salary and other Bills, and on receipts given on the Pay Abstracts of Government Establishments, are re-published for general information :—

No. 3867.

EXTRACT from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, under date the 31st July 1862.

Read a Telegram from the Acting Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated 11th June last, enquiring whether each receipt given on the Pay Abstract of a Government Establishment when the sum for which the receipt is given exceeds Rupees 20 should bear a one anna Stamp.

Read a letter from the Advocate-General, dated 3rd July 1862, stating that such receipts require a one anna Stamp.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council is of opinion that the general receipt given by the Head of an Office on the back of a Pay Abstract is not liable to a Stamp Duty, the receipt being executed, in this instance, by an Officer of Government in his Official capacity and acting on behalf of Government, but that when the amount of the Pay Abstract comes to be distributed the receipts of the payees for salaries exceeding 20 Rupees a month must have a Stamp of one anna affixed to each like other receipts given for the payment of money. The taking of such receipts on the back of a general Pay Abstract does not, in the opinion of His Excellency in Council, form any ground of exemption.

2. The question may arise whether, the Law being as above stated, such receipts should be specially exempted from Stamp Duty. The Governor General in Council sees no reason why they should. The Tax is one which has been purposely put at such a low uniform rate that it will hardly be felt as a burden by any one; and it therefore appears to His Excellency in Council to be very undesirable to admit of any exemptions from the Tax other than those provided for by the Law.

Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution, and of the Advocate-General's opinion referred to, be forwarded to the Government of Bombay for information and guidance in continuation of the Telegram issued yesterday.

Ordered also, that a copy of this Resolution and of the Advocate-General's Opinion be forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations, Departments, and Authorities noted on the margin, for information and guidance. The necessary communication to the Bank of Bengal will be made by the Financial Department.

Opinion by the Standing Counsel.

I have considered this question on several occasions, and am of opinion that Government Salary Bills do not fall within the exemption of instruments made, or executed by, or on behalf of Government in the Schedule A. to the Stamp Act, and that consequently receipts given for salary ought to be stamped as all other ordinary receipts.

2. I think the Bank of Bengal ought to require the affix of a Stamp in all these cases before making payment.

The 26th June 1862.

No. 3886.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department (Separate Revenue), under date the 31st July 1862.

Read letter from the Officiating Accountant-General to the Government of India No. 258, dated 28th June last, received under cover of a docket No. 4432, dated 5th July, from the Financial Department, on the subject of levying Stamp Duty on receipts given for Salary and other Bills.

Read also the Opinion of the Standing Council dated 26th June 1862, which was obtained by the Officiating Accountant-General, and which formed an enclosure of his communication, to the effect that "Government Salary Bills do not fall within the exemption of instruments made, or executed by, or on behalf of Government in the Schedule A. to the Stamp Act, and that consequently receipts given for salary ought to be stamped as all other ordinary receipts;" as also that "the Bank of Bengal ought to require the affix of a Stamp in all these cases before making payment."

Read also the Resolution No. 3867, passed this day by the Governor General in Council on the subject.

Resolution.—In the Resolution No. passed this day, the opinion of the Governor General in Council has been expressed in regard to the question of the requirement of the Law in respect of Stamps on receipts for salaries exceeding 20 Rupees. The Governor in Council sees no reason for exempting from the moderate Stamp Duty of one anna any of the Bills forwarded by the Officiating Accountant-General.

The opinion of the Standing Counsel, that "the Bank of Bengal ought to require the affix of a Stamp in all these cases before making payment," should be communicated, through the Financial Department, to the Bank of Bengal.

Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Financial Department, in order that the necessary communication may be made to the Bank of Bengal, and for communication to the Officiating Accountant-General with reference to his letter No. 258, dated 28th ultimo, the original enclosures of which are returned.

Ordered also, that a copy of this Resolution, and of the Standing Counsel's Opinion referred to, be forwarded to the Departments, Local Governments, Administrations, and Authorities noted in the margin, for information, in continuation of Extract No. 3867 of this day's date.

XXII. No part of the funds placed by these Rules at the disposal of the Commissioners shall be expended, except for the purposes within the limits of the City and Suburbs, unless sanction to such expenditure shall be given by a majority of votes at a general meeting of Proprietors.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 9th September 1862.

Notice to Claimants to Share in the Delhi and Lucknow Prize Properties.

PARTIES having claims on account of themselves, of those who served under them, of the Estates of deceased Officers and Soldiers, or of their Constituents to share in either of the above Prizes are requested to submit them, without further delay, accompanied by the necessary proofs, to the Prize Department of the Examiner's Office, No. 7, Middleton Row, Calcutta.

2. From the absence of the usual Rolls (the Returns during the period of the Mutiny reached very irregularly, and are, in very many cases, altogether wanting) it has been found impossible to compile a List of the parties entitled to share in the Delhie and Lucknow Prizes, and the Adjutant-General's Department has been unable to furnish a List of those entitled to additional shares by reason of their having held staff appointments and commands.

3. The number of persons entitled to share can therefore only be ascertained through the claims, supported by proofs, which are submitted. It is known that many claims have not been sent in (in the case of Corps and Detachments a report has been made to Government), and until the parties or their representatives submit them a final distribution of either the Delhie and Lucknow Prize cannot be made.

4. Each claim sent in must be supported by a Certificate shewing the dates between which the party was present at the operation for which the claim is made.

5. When additional shares beyond those of the Regimental rank of the party are claimed a Certificate from a Staff or Commanding Officer must be attached, shewing the nature of the service and the date on which the claimant took charge and relinquished the duty.

6. When claims are submitted by representatives a Power of Attorney must be sent, and in the case of Estates, when the President of the Committee of Adjustment or the Administrator-General does not claim, proof of the party being entitled to administer must be shewn.

7. It has been decided by the Law Authorities that there is no limit to the period during which claims can be submitted. It is therefore necessary to ascertain the number of probable claimants before a final settlement or even a second distribution can be made.

8. The distribution of the Pegu Prize is delayed by the absence of any Rolls of claimants of the Royal Navy. These have long since been applied for.

Public Works Budget for 1862-63.

BRITISH BURMAH BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. This Budget is very clearly arranged in accordance with the new forms, and will be easily dealt with.

2. The provisional assignments for the Provinces which have been combined with British Burmah were as follows:—

For Pegu	10¼	lakhs.
„ Tenasserim	2	„
To which has been added for Arracan...	1¼	„
Also for the Alguada and Double Island Light-houses	2	„
Total ...	15¼	lakhs.

The Alguada assignment is here entered for convenience of reference, as it is separately dealt with by Captain Fraser, the Superintendent of the Works, who is not under the Chief Commissioner of Burmah.

3. The provisional assignment available for British Burmah was therefore 13¼ lakhs. This amount has not been distributed among the three Provinces, in proportions corresponding with the amounts assigned to them before their union. Thus the Moulmein Division and Shoay Gyeen Division, which together represent Tenasserim and Martaban, were designed to get Rs. 1,67,733, which, if a tenth be added for reserve, will give Rs. 1,83,000 against 2 lakhs previously assigned. Also for Arracan only Rs. 56,146 is set down, which, with a tenth for reserve, will make about half the 1¼ lakhs that is assumed as the additional assignment on account of that District. This is here noted, but without any desire of interfering with the Chief Commissioner's distribution, or of suggesting that the proposed distribution is not equitable.

4. It is also necessary, before proceeding to consider the details of this Budget, to remark on the very small proportion of the funds set down to works of Public Improvement, viz., only Rs. 46,500, for original works (after deducting certain sums wrongly entered under this heading), out of a total of Rs. 6,87,520 for all original works; and even in the supplementary works marked A. the amounts for works of Public Improvement do not amount to one-third of the whole. The Chief Commissioner is quite conscious of this, remarking, in para. 37 of his Report, "that the necessity for the construction of the several buildings (Civil and Military) might at once be accepted as a self-evident fact, and a special annual allowance be separately made to meet, as speedily as possible, these simple primary necessities of the State, leaving the question of public works, in the real and true sense of the term, to be separately dealt with on its own merits, and according to the resources available." The apparent intention of the Commissioner is to express a hope that the Government of India would make special additional assignment from the Imperial resources for the Burmese Provinces, having in view the absolute necessity of providing for the obvious requirements of the administration; and would give, irrespectively of this grant, a certain sum for the prosecution of works of Public Improvement proportioned to the Revenues of the Province.

5. The propriety of dealing with these Provinces on any other system than that adopted towards the rest of India cannot, however, be admitted by the Government of India; and in truth the assignment already made has been based on a general consideration of the relative claims of Burmah and of the other Provinces of the Empire. At the same time it might liberate the Commissioner from importunities, which it is difficult for a Local Officer to resist, and strengthen his hands, were the Government to lay down a limit for expenditure on Military and Civil Buildings, say for the next three years. This plan has been adopted in other Provinces under somewhat similar conditions, and in this case may be recommended, because there is hardly one work among the Military or Civil Buildings entered in the Budget that can be said not to be required. The rejection of any must therefore be more or less arbitrary, and a fixed amount for each year's expenditure would be the most appropriate way of preventing these administrative demands from swallowing up nearly the whole amount available for original works as they do at present.

6. Where the reasons for expenditure, both in Military and Civil Buildings, are so sound as they are in Burmah, it will not be expedient to stint it for any unsubstantial reason like that of making a shew of reducing Military expenditure. The Force in Pegu has been carefully considered, and is not likely to be reduced lower: the expenditure on the permanent Military Buildings must come, and the sooner it takes place the greater saving will there be in repairs, losses from fire, and the no less important item of health and comfort to the Troops.

7. In the course of three years other pressing demands will doubtless arise under both heads; and, even if an allotment were now ordered that should provide for the completion of the present Estimates in three years, the whole would probably not, in fact, be completed at the end of that time, because of the intervention of these other more pressing demands. Nor, under any circumstances, can such a sum be allotted as would complete the Civil demands in three years. It will, however, not be advisable greatly to restrict the sums allotted to either branch of the service. Make-shifts in Pegu are very costly and very liable to fire.

8. The total of the Estimates now brought forward for Military works is ... ... Rs. 12,42,337 of which is calculated to be spent up to 30th April 1862 .. „ 4,64,449

Leaving a balance of... Rs. 7,77,888

The Total of Estimates for Civil works is ... „ 17,00,661
of which is calculated to be spent up to 30th April 1862 „ 1,06,680

Leaving a balance.... Rs. 15,93,981

The following scale of allowance may therefore be adopted:—

For Military Buildings.

In 1862-63	... ...	Rs. 2,75,000
„ 1863-64	....	„ 2,25,000
„ 1864-65	... ...	„ 2,00,000
Total	...	Rs. 7,00,000

This would, in three years, bring the bulk of present Military projects to a conclusion, barring contingencies of interference by more emergent works during the interval.

For Civil Buildings, a much longer interval must be allowed, and a maximum allotment of 3 lakhs may be fixed for each year. This would not complete the present demands even before the expiry of the sixth year.

9. This being determined, and an additional grant of ¼ lakh being given to Burmah this year, a sum of Rs. 1,35,163 can be made available for works of improvement in the present year, instead of Rs. 46,500; not much, but something gained. And to this should be added a large share of the Reserve, besides, of course, whatever be available from the Income Tax Fund, to which Burmah may justly be held entitled to a share in excess of its direct collections, in consideration of its enhanced Capitation Tax.

10. The modifications that are proposed to be made in the Budget allotments, in accordance with these remarks, will be as follows:—In Part I., under Military, there will be a reduction of Rs. 12,563, and an addition of Rs. 5,437 by transfer from the head Marine to Navy, making the total for Military expenditure Rs. 2,81,898. In Civil Administration there will be a reduction of Rs. 25,000, and the expenditure under this head will then stand at Rs. 3,00,439. In Public Improvements there will be a retrenchment of Rs. 26,557, and an addition of Rs. 88,663, or a net addition of Rs. 62,106, making the total expenditure Rs. 1,35,163, exclusive of the Alguada Light-house works, for which an additional ¼ lakh may be given, or 2½ lakhs altogether. In Part II., Repairs, there will be no change. Part III., Establishments, will be raised from Rs. 2,17,579 to Rs. 2,50,000 to meet the additional charge for Military allowances. From the Reserve set down at Rs. 1,54,901 there may be a reduction of Rs. 12,401. These changes will leave a net addition of 1 lakh, raising the assignment from 15¾ to 16¾ lakhs.

Part I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—Military.

A. Army.

11. Item No. 4.—Latrine for South Gate, Guard House, Thayet Myo; Rs. 2,010.—This is objected to by the Military Finance Department, but the work appears necessary and may be sanctioned.

Item No. 5.—Removal of Roman Catholic Chapel from inside of Redoubt, Thayet Myo; Rs. 8,563.—Will be disallowed for the present on account of shortness of funds.

Item No. 6.—Redoubt at Thayet Myo; Estimate Rs. 1,39,013; spent Rs. 1,19,129; proposed Rs. 19,884, to complete the work. May be sanctioned.

Item No. 7.—Cantonment Road Culverts, Rangoon; Rs. 4,000.—Does not seem emergent, and will be disallowed.

Items Nos. 12, 13, 17, and 31.—Shingling Roofs and extending Barracks for European Troops, Rangoon and Tounghoo.—The expenditure proposed is for completing the works now in hand, and may be passed.

Items Nos. 23 and 24.—Permanent Family Barracks for Artillery and Infantry at Thayet Myo.—The Estimates for the married men's Quarters, submitted from Burmah, are too high, and have been returned for re-consideration, but the sum set down may stand for expenditure on approval of a proper Design. The Chief Commissioner should be warned not to begin more Barracks than are absolutely required by married men actually present.

12. A small Item No. 81, Rs. 5,437, Master Attendant's Office and Store at Moulmein, should be transferred to the head Navy from Marine, and may be passed.

13. This concludes the review of the expenditure on Military Works, which will stand at Rs. 2,81,898.

2.—Civil Administration.

14. Under Revenue may be noticed—

Item No. 46.—Temporary Bonded Ware-house, Rangoon; Rs. 65,000.—This is the price of a building to be purchased for use while the Government building is in progress, the owner agreeing to take it back at the end of three years at the same price. Has already been approved.

Item No. 47.—Permanent Custom House and Bonded Ware-house, Rangoon.—Estimate Rs. 1,45,272; proposed Rs. 50,000. A Plan and Estimate were approved by Government in the Budget orders of 1857-58, but the work was postponed and a revised Design has been submitted, which has been returned for re-consideration, its arrangements not having been considered suitable, and its architectural character not having been approved. The allotment may, however, stand to enable materials to be collected, and a commencement made when a Design is approved.

These buildings are of much importance, and as the interests of Government and of the Port now suffer from the absence of proper accommodation, both allotments are approved.

Item No. 48.—Permanent Custom House, Bassein.—Estimate Rs. 7,068; proposed Rs. 5,000. This must be disallowed for the present from want of funds.

15. Under General, but wrongly entered in the Budget under Judicial—

Item No. 60.—Public Offices, Rangoon.—Estimate Rs. 3,18,831; proposed Rs. 1,00,000. This is a work of much importance. The dispersion of Public Offices is felt to be a great inconvenience in every Indian Capital. Approved.

16. Under Ecclesiastical is—

Item No. 52.—Grant-in-aid to Trinity Church, Town of Rangoon.—Estimate Rs. 13,452; proposed Rs. 20,000. Approved.

17. Under Judicial—

Item No. 54.—Police Guard-houses, Rangoon.—Estimate Rs. 33,611; spent Rs. 5,180; proposed Rs. 20,000. The expenditure for the year must, from want of funds, be reduced to Rs. 10,000.

Item No. 61.—Civil Court-house, Moulmein.—Estimate Rs. 1,39,006; spent Rs. 60,000; proposed Rs. 15,000. A large portion of the work will be done by convict labor. Rs. 10,000 may be passed as the outlay for the year.

Item No. 62.—Civil Court-house, Mergui.—Estimate Rs. 31,886; spent Rs. 7,000; proposed Rs. 10,000. The year's expenditure must be limited to Rs. 5,000; convict labor will also be employed on this work.

Item No. 70.—New Court-house for Deputy Commissioner, Khyouk Phyoo.—Estimate Rs. 24,650; spent Rs. 18,000; proposed Rs. 6,650, for completing the work. May be passed.

Item No. 73.—Local Jail, Bassein.—Estimate Rs. 1,00,000; spent Rs. 15,000; proposed Rs. 30,000. There are several important Jail projects entered in the Budget marked A, but the only one for immediate prosecution appears to be the Bassein Jail. May be approved for expenditure, but only on the sanction of a Design.

18. The total to be passed under Civil Administration will be Rs. 3,00,439.

3.—Public Improvement.

19. Under Municipal—

Item No. 78.—Tounghoo Bazar.—It is desired to give a loan of Rs. 30,000 to the Local Funds to carry out this work. There seems no sufficient reason for this in the face of the numerous urgent calls for works really essential for administrative purposes, which must be postponed for want of funds; and the proposal must be altogether negatived, the Commissioner being told to apply the Income Tax Fund, or the truly Local Funds, to such objects.

20. Items Nos. 79, 80, 81, and 82, entered under Marine, appear to be for administrative purposes entirely, and should have been placed under Navy. One only of these can be recommended at present, as already noticed under the head Navy.

Item No. 79.—Iron-roofed Coal Sheds, Rangoon; proposed Rs. 21,120; must stand over till funds become available. The other items are marked A, and no expenditure is proposed.

21. Item No. 84.—Alguada Light-house.—Estimate Rs. 4,64,000; spent Rs. 5,02,000; proposed Rs. 1,71,200. The above figures make it appear that a total expenditure of Rs. 6,73,200 will not complete the Light-house on the Alguada Reef. Captain Fraser does not say how much will probably remain to be done after the operations of 1862-63: it is only remarked that all the stone should be prepared, but not all put up; but under any circumstances, it is probable that 7 lakhs will be exceeded, if not 8 lakhs. On the other hand, it is stated that of this outlay upwards of 1 lakh will be represented by the "Plant," consisting of the Steamer Sittang and various Tools and Machines. Still, with this deduction, it seems likely that the Light-house will cost at least half as much again as was estimated. Captain Fraser's attention should be directed to this, and a revised Estimate called for without any further delay. By right it should have been submitted by Captain Fraser as soon as he foresaw that the original sanction was likely to be exceeded.

22. It may at the same time be remarked that the construction of a Light-house is an undertaking that can hardly be brought within the scope of an ordinary Estimate, and that there is of necessity a vast amount of apparently unprofitable labor and expense applied to produce the useful part of the result. It is believed that this is the first Marine Light-house that has been constructed by the Government of India, and without actual experience the cost of such structures can hardly be estimated. There should, however, now be comparatively good grounds on which Captain Fraser can proceed for the future, and it is to be hoped that his Estimates for his other works will be more within the bounds of fact than that for the Alguada Light.

23. The last accounts of the Alguada Light-house were up to the 15th April last, when the work was 14 feet above the Reef, and all difficulty in setting the stone past. This progress is less than had been expected. The diameter of the Tower at bottom is 42 feet, at top 16 feet, with a height of 120 feet. The work has been very arduous, and a Report on this season's work will be looked forward to with interest from Captain Fraser, who appears to be carrying out this undertaking with great spirit.

24. The sum passed for the year may be Rs. 1,70,000, a small reduction being necessary to bring the grant within the sum that can be allowed. The outlay for the current year includes the cost of the Light, which will be about Rs. 35,000. Captain Fraser calculates that the Light-house may be lighted in May 1864.

25. Double Island Light-house.—Estimate Rs. 1,37,000; spent Rs. 25.000; proposed Rs. 41,600. The Government has generally authorized the commencement of this work, though the Estimate submitted by Captain Fraser has not been approved. It was anticipated that a considerable reduction of cost might be effected. No further delay should be permitted in submitting a revised Design and Estimate. It is stated that this work may be finished about the same time as the preceding. The sum passed will be Rs. 38,400: a little reduction has been made for the same reason as before.

26. Cocos Island Light-house.—Captain Fraser has set down a sum of Rs. 45,600 for the commencement of this Light-house. But it seems hardly to have taken a definite shape yet, and to make an allotment for it would appear premature. The very great excess of expenditure on the Alguada Light also makes the Government incline to consider in as definite a manner as possible, what the cost is really likely to be before they commit themselves to an actual beginning of the work.

27. The total expenditure to be passed under Marine will therefore be Rs. 2,08,400, all of it being specially appropriated for the works under Captain Fraser.

28. Under Agricultural are entered several projects for re-claiming swampy ground by drainage, amounting to upwards of 1 lakh of Rupees. The policy of diverting the small means at the disposal of the Province, which must for a long time be confessedly inadequate to carry out anything not quite essential for the present execution of such works as these, seems open to serious doubt. For though they might probably add to the productive resources of the country by giving an additional area of culturable land, they are probably not in any way so essential to the general development of the wealth of the community at large as the improvement of the means of communication by land and by water. Resources already existing should certainly be developed to a fair degree of maturity before attempts are made to open up altogether new fields of industry. The available funds, therefore, it is recommended, should be exclusively applied for the present year to the improvement of these communications.

29. Under Communications will be—

Item No. 89.—Puzoondoung Road and Bridges, Rangoon District.—Estimate Rs. 15,000; proposed Rs. 15,000. This road is stated to be of much importance to the rice trade at Rangoon. The Estimate has been passed, but as the Road lies in the suburbs of Rangoon it is not clear that the cost should be borne by the Imperial Revenues. Enquiry has been made on this subject. The allotment may stand subject to revision on these grounds.

Item No. 90.—Moulmein and Amherst Road. Metalling a portion.—Rs. 1,500. Pass.

Item No. 91.—Yeh Road.—Estimate Rs. 40,000; proposed Rs. 27,563. This was entered in the Budget as the Moulmein and Amherst Road, but the Chief Commissioner desires that the road may henceforward be called the Yeh Road. Yeh is an important Town, about 132 miles (by the present circuitous route) south of Moulmein, with which communication is cut off during the monsoon, the only means of communication being by sea. Yeh is about half way between Moulmein and Tavoy, and the road may probably be ultimately prolonged to the latter place. This Item, though marked A, it is proposed to bring forward for execution and sanction provisionally, pending the approval of the Estimate.

Item No. 92.—Oboo and Nantay Road.—Estimate Rs. 10,000; proposed Rs. 5,000. Marked A. May be passed.

Item No. 93.—South Road, Tavoy District.—Proposed Rs. 10,000. An Estimate and Report on this project is promised by the Chief Commissioner, pending the receipt of which the allotment is sanctioned provisionally.

Item No. 94.—Road to the Aeng Pass, Arracan; proposed Rs. 12,000.—This Item, also marked A, may be sanctioned provisionally as before.

30. The total sum set down under Roads, metalled and unmetalled, was originally only Rs. 16,500. This has been increased to Rs. 71,063, a sum still exceedingly small; but no more projects are set down as in contemplation even. The Commissioner should be desired to form some general scheme for allotting a fair proportion of the funds, that will probably become available from year to year in the Imperial Budget, to works of improvement, to the gradual advance of Road-making where most required. The smaller the funds at his disposal, the greater the necessity for caution in bestowing them.

31. Under River Improvements are—

Item No. 95.—Improvement of the communication between the Pegu and Sittang Rivers—Proposed Rs. 30,000. Allowed conditionally on approval of a Design.

Item No. 96.—Improvement of water communication between Rangoon and Irrawaddy River—Estimate Rs. 4,01,905; proposed Rs. 64,670. A sum of Rs. 34,100 being available, may be passed for this project, conditionally as before.

The water communications of Burmah are doubtless more important to the Province than the Roads, and it is therefore most desirable that a comprehensive view should also be obtained of this subject, on which to arrange some definite plan for carrying out improvements gradually with the moderate sums that may be made available from the Imperial Funds. At the same time the Chief Commissioner is invited to apply the Income Tax Funds freely to the furtherance of any project of this nature, as for instance the Canal between Rangoon and the Irrawaddy, the general importance of which to the Province can be admitted, and the means for executing which cannot be altogether provided from the Imperial Budget.

32. The total allowed under Communications will be Rs. 1,35,163.

33. Under Public Improvement the sum for Burmah is Rs. 1,35,163, and the total, with the Light-houses, Rs. 3,43,563.

34. And the total of Part I. will be for Burmah Rs. 7,17,500; for the Light-houses Rs. 2,08,400; total Rs. 9,25,900.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

35. The amount proposed for repairs is Rs. 3,15,000, including Pegu, Tenasserim, and Arracan, as compared with 3 lakhs allowed last year. The Commissioner hopes that by the steady abolition of thatched roofs the sum may be reduced next year to Rs. 2,50,000. Temporary buildings unavoidably lead to high charges for repairs.

36. Military repairs amount to Rs. 1,31,250. The Military Finance Department remarks that for Shoay Gyeen is proposed Rs. 6,000, and that the only Regiment at this Station is understood to be the Pegu Sapper Battalion, which, so long as it is kept up, could hardly be more usefully employed than in working up materials for and repairing its own lines. This suggestion should be made.

A charge of Rs. 4,500 for Military Repairs appears at Moulmein, which is objected to by the Military Finance Department, as also the proposed grant of Rs. 11,000 for repairs in Arracan, it not being known what Military buildings are kept up. The incidence of the charge should be re-considered and explained. On the whole, however, the allotment need not be disturbed.

37. The Civil repairs are put down at Rs 57,350, and may be so passed.

38. For Public Improvement the repairs amount to Rs. 1,26,400. In this there is still a charge introduced for the repairs of roads in the Towns of Rangoon and Moulmein (Rs. 30,000 for Rangoon, and Rs. 15,000 for Moulmein). It is said—"It is hoped these charges will ultimately disappear from the Public Works Accounts; but in the meantime, and till the work can be taken over by Municipal Commissioners to be appointed under the Act now under consideration, some funds must absolutely be reserved for this purpose, as the Local Funds now existing are totally inadequate thereto." It is obviously not fitting for the State to undertake the repair of roads in wealthy Towns if the inhabitants will not pay for them. It is to be understood distinctly that this is the last time such a charge will be admitted, and this will give a year to make new arrangements.

39. A sum of Rs. 61,500 appears for road repairs.

40. The whole sum proposed may be passed, viz., Rs. 3,15,000.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

41. The original Estimate is taken at Rs. 2,17,579. But more has been since stated to be necessary to meet the charge for Military Pay and Allowances, recently made a charge to the Public Works Accounts, and the sum may be raised to Rs. 2,50,000. This applies to the Burmese Provinces.

42. For the Light-houses the estimated charge for Establishments is Rs. 41,600, which may be passed.

43. In all under this head will be Rs. 2,91,600.

44. This concludes the Imperial Budget of Burmah, aggregating a proposed expenditure of 16¾ lakhs, distributed as follows:—

Assuming that a like sum will be granted for 1862-63, the amount available from this source will be 3 lakhs; and if the whole amount of the Local Funds proper be also available for Public Works, the aggregate sum will become 7½ lakhs.

STRAITS SETTLEMENTS BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

1. The Budget for the Straits Settlements has come up in correct form. The provisional assignment was 4 lakhs, and this sum will be finally allotted.

2. It may be remarked that some inconvenience arises from the introduction of Dollars into the Budget Statements, owing to the Straits currency being the Dollar, whereas the whole of the other Budgets are reckoned in Rupees. To a certain extent the Dollars are converted into Rupees, but not completely, and it would be far more convenient if the Governor would drop the Dollars altogether in these documents, which are specially designed for the use of the Government of India, and deal only with Rupees. In the original papers kept for his own information at Singapoor the Dollars can of course be retained.

3. The attention of the Governor should also be specially directed to the orders regarding the submission of Projects and Estimates, which should not come up with the Budget if it can be avoided.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—MILITARY.

4. A great many projects are entered for which no expenditure is proposed. In the late uncertainty that existed as to the possible transfer of these Settlements from the Government of India, orders were given to restrain expenditure as much as possible, and no important Military work is proposed. Remarks, however, are made on the general subject of the defence of Singapoor, which may better be dealt with in the Military Department.

Item No. 5.—Solitary Cells, Fort Canning; Rs. 4,840.—Objected to by Military Finance Department, apparently from a misunderstanding. May be passed.

Item No. 6.—Guard Room, &c., Fort Canning; Rs. 2,992.—Objected to by Military Finance Department, but no cause assigned. May be passed. The work involves partitioning off part of an existing building.

Item No. 7.—Stables for Artillery Officers' Quarters, Fort Canning; Rs. 2,525.—Objected to by Military Finance Department. But may be passed as according to Regulation, even Subalterns of Infantry being allowed Stable-room in India.

Item No. 10.—Bath-rooms for Officers' Quarters; Rs. 1,760.—Objected to as above. But this also is regular and may be passed.

Item No. 14.—Barracks for 120 Sepoys at Malacca; Rs. 14,656.—This too is objected to as too expensive, being at the rate of Rs. 122 per man. In the Bombay Presidency it is said Rs. 18 per man is paid. A much larger sum was sanctioned in May 1860 by the Government of India for a like object, but the work has not been carried out. Further enquiry may be made as to the necessity of providing these men with quarters at the expense of Government, and meanwhile the allotment may stand for expenditure if the reply is satisfactory.

Item No. 16.—Stock Powder Magazine, Fort Canning.—Estimate Rs. 27,742; proposed Rs. 20,042. This is obviously necessary and may be passed, subject to approval of Design in regular course.

Item No. 17.—Converting Artillery Hospital on Pearls Hill into Commissariat Store; Rs. 9,504.—Has already been sanctioned by the Government of India. Passed.

5. With the above remarks the whole sum entered under Military, Rs. 79,387, may be passed

2.—CIVIL ADMINISTRATION.

6. The aggregate of several small items not calling for special remark is Rs. 7,913, and may be passed in full.

A revised Estimate and Design for a new Court-house at Singapoor, to be substituted for a Design formerly sanctioned and estimated at Rs. 41,338, is promised shortly.

3.—PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT.

7. Under Municipal is—

Item No. 22.—Singapoor Water Supply.—The Project and Estimate lately submitted have been returned for re-consideration. The allotment of Rs. 38,000 for the work may stand to be available after sanction is given.

8. For Marine is an entry of Rs. 3,300, which may be passed.

9. For Roads, several items, aggregating Rs. 39,805, which may be passed.

For Bridges, several items, aggregating Rs. 31,466, which may also be passed.

10. Under the two last heads the only works deserving special notice are—

Item No. 26.—North Campong Malacca Road at Singapoor; Rs. 15,019.—The object of this work is to reclaim land along the Singapoor River, and generally to improve the land in the vicinity, which was sold by the Straits Government in 1856, on the condition that the Government should do this. One-tenth of the purchase money of the land was paid up at once, and the rest was to be made good when the Roads were completed, which has not been done till now. Consequently the balance of Rs. 53,794 from the sale remains unpaid.

Admitting that this gives excellent reason for completing this work as soon as possible, the question is raised as to the system under which such sales of land take place, and whether the proceeds go into the Imperial treasury or not. If they are credited as local funds for local purposes, those funds should also pay for the work to be done. There is a Municipality at Singapoor. What are the limits of its jurisdiction, and to what extent is the Imperial Government to be expected to carry out works for the convenience of the Town? These questions call for a reply before the further expenditure of Imperial funds can be permitted at this place.

11. Under the head of Bridges are—

Item No. 35, A, B, C, Bridge at Singapoor Rs. 18,594; and Item No. 36, Magazine Bridge Rs. 4,983.—Both of these seem rather to be Municipal Works than Imperial, and if there be any special claim on the Government of India to aid in their construction, it is not set forth in the papers sent up. The recent formation of the Singapoor Municipality must, it is presumed, be held to abrogate any claims on the Imperial resources for Town Works that may have been formerly admitted, directly or indirectly, unless specially excepted

12. The other proposals seem quite unexceptionable; and, subject to the decision that may be come to on the incidence of the charges for the Town Works, the whole sum may be passed under Communications at Rs. 71,271.

13. The total under Public Improvement will be Rs. 1,07,571.

14. And for Original Works the aggregate will be Rs. 1,94,871.

PART II.—REPAIRS.

15. The total proposed outlay for Repairs is Rs. 74,116, divided as folllows:—

Military	Rs.	15,926
Civil Administration ...	,,	36,960
Public Improvement ...	,,	21,230

16. The proportion of charge for the Civil Buildings seems very high, being one-eleventh of the whole Budget allotment, which is five times as much in proportion as in Madras, four times as much as in Bombay, and twice as much as in Bengal, where the number of Civil Departments must be relatively vastly larger. In the remarks made by the Chief Engineer some allusion is made to a charge for Rents, which seems to indicate that such payments appear in his Repair Estimates. This is obviously wrong. Rents are not Public Works charges at all. On this and other grounds there is reason to think that there is much irregularity of procedure in the Public Works Accounts Department in the Straits, and there being no present prospect of an inspection of the Office being possible by a qualified Officer, it seems desirable that the whole of the Repairs Estimates for the current year should be submitted in extenso to this Department for examination.

It will not, however, be necessary to retrench anything from the allotments proposed, as in the aggregate the repair charge is not excessive.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

17. The estimated cost is Rs. 79,626, which is something short of 20 per cent. on the whole Budget, or 25 per cent. on the outlay on Works. A reduction has lately taken place in the salary of the Chief Engineer, which may reduce this part of the charge, but it is not possible to say whether this has been considered in drawing out the Budget. In one Division of works, Tanglin, it is observed that the Establishment costs Rs. 4,000 to superintend the expenditure of Rs. 7,700. This seems preposterous. In Penang the charge for Establishment is Rs. 12,638 to spend Rs. 25,564, which is also very objectionable. The Governor should be directed to report specially on the necessity for these Establishments, and to state whether the Civil Administrative Officers could not undertake petty outlay at minor Stations as is done in other places. The allotment may stand, the salaries being only paid on specific authority.

18. On the whole the total estimated expenditure may be passed for 4 lakhs, distributed as follows:—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.

MINOR ADMINISTRATIONS BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

AJMEER.

1. The entire sum proposed for expenditure in this Territory by the Lieutenant-Governor, N. W. Provinces, is Rs. 7,000 for Repairs, divided between Civil Administration Rs. 3,000, and Communications Rs. 4,000. It may be passed in full; or adding $\frac{1}{19}$th for reserve Rs. 8,000.

CENTRAL INDIA AGENCY.

2. The total sum asked for in the Budget of the Governor General's Agent for Central India is Rs. 27,664, divided into—

Original Works... ...	... Rs.	19,000
Repairs ...	... ,,	7,824
Establishment	... ,,	840
Total	...Rs.	27,664

3. The amount is further distributed locally as follows:—

Sirdarpoor	„	80
Nowgong	„	500
Goonah	„	500
Nimar	„	9,525

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS; Total Rs. 19,000.

4. 1. MILITARY—ARMY; Total Rs. 11,000.

Lines for Bhopal Levy at Sehore.—Estimate Rs. 35,976; spent Rs. 25,000; proposed Rs. 11,000. This work was sanctioned by the Government of India in August 1861.

5. 2. CIVIL ADMINISTRATION; Total Rs. 6,600.

Half cost Tuhseel at Zeinabad Rs. 1,000.—This is for the Pergunnah of the same name lately transferred to the British Government by Sindiah. Half the cost is charged to Judicial.

Police Chowkies, Indore Road ... ... Rs. 600

Half cost Thannah at Zeinabad ... ... „ 1,000

Roads in the Civil Lines at Nowgong, Rs. 500.—Wrongly entered under Municipal; should be General, Miscellaneous.

6. 3. PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT; Total Rs. 4,400.

Dâk Bungalow, Burwai ... ... Rs. 3,000
Serai at ditto ... ... „ 1,400

7. PART II.—REPAIRS; Total Rs. 7,824.

Civil Administration ... ... Rs. 5,999
Public Improvement ... ... „ 1,825

A rather obscure allusion is made to the manner in which the main road through Nimar from Beorhanpoor on the Bombay (G. I. P.) Railway to Indore viâ the Simrole Ghât is to be kept in order from Local Funds. A reference has since come up regarding this same Road, which it seems may, for some time to come, be the best way from Bombay to Agra. There is a good deal of confusion attending the P. W. Administration of these out-lying dependencies, and an effort should be made to bring them into a more regular condition.

8. PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS; Total Rs. 840.

This charge is stated to be for the Bhopal Agency. A sum of Rs. 756 for Dâk Bungalow Servants will be disallowed, as not being a Public Works charge. The bulk of the work is to be carried out under the Political Officers, a portion being under the Executive Engineer at Mhow.

BURWAI IRON WORKS.

9. Subordinate to this Agency also are the Burwai Iron Works, till lately directed by Major Keatinge, Political Agent in Nimar, now placed under the supervision of the Executive Engineer at Mhow. The estimated outlay for the year may be taken at Rs. 1,30,000, divided as follows:—

Original Works	Rs.	27,980
Working Expenses	„	74,600
Contingencies, say	„	15,420
Establishment	„	12,000
	Rs.	1,30,000

10. The sum entered as contingencies has been added to the Estimates submitted, as some such margin is almost certain to be required for the works, the operations of which should, as soon as possible, be placed on a determinate basis. Till now every thing has been pretty much left to be settled as it occurred: this cannot be permitted to go on any longer, and the Officers in charge must endeavor, at an early date, to submit some definite scheme for the future of the works. Unless some clear responsibility is established in the management of such a business, and a definite limit for the expenditure prescribed, the Government will be liable to be committed to a larger outlay than it will approve of.

11. The whole amount to be at the disposal of the Central India Agency will therefore be—

Agency Works	Rs.	27,664
Iron Works	„	1,30,000
Total ...	Rs.	1,57,664
To which add for Reserve, say	„	17,336
Grand Total ...	Rs.	1,75,000

RAJPOOTANA AGENCY.

12. The total amount entered in the Budget for 1862-63, submitted by the Governor General's Agent for the Rajpootana States, is Rupees 21,456. Some misapprehension existed at first as to the way in which the papers were to be drawn out, but finally a satisfactory document has been received, the only defect being that no Reserve has been added. This will be corrected now.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS; Total Rs. 14,161.

13. The only item is Hospital in Deolee Cantonment, Rupees 14,161. This expenditure has been sanctioned, and the allotment may stand.

It is remarked by the Military Finance Department that the Military expenditure for the Irregular Forces at Deolee and Erinpoora is paid by contributions from the Kotah and Joudhpoor States; and that the charges for these buildings and the Military Repairs should be met in a similar manner. This point may be referred to the Financial Department for consideration, the facts not being known in this Department. The expenditure will, under any circumstances, be necessary.

PART II.—REPAIRS; Total Rs. 7,007.

14. Of which Rupees 4,367 is for Military—Army, and Rupees 2,640, for Civil Administration. The Military Repairs at Deolee and Erinpoora amount to Rupees 979. The character of the buildings at the other Stations, not mentioned by the Military Finance Department, is not known, but any necessary adjustment of the charge can be made hereafter.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS; Total Rs. 285.

15. The charge seems for the same Troops, and its proper incidence would in like manner be doubtful.

16. Allowing Rupees 3,541 for a Reserve, the total sum to be passed for the Rajpootana Agency will be Rupees 25,000.

COORG TERRITORY.

17. The sum required by the Commissioner (who is also the Commissioner of Mysore) is Rupees 25,000.

PART I.—ORIGINAL WORKS; Total Rs. 14,000.

18. Includes Rupees 4,000, the unexpended balance of a sum of Rupees 20,000 already sanctioned for the Mercara Road, and Rupees 10,000 for Drain Bridges on the same Road, for which Estimates are promised.

PART II.—REPAIRS; Total Rs. 7,900.

19. Of which Rupees 1,000 is Military, Rupees 1,100 Civil Administration, Rupees 5,800 Public Improvement, chiefly for the restoration of neglected and decayed Tanks.

PART III.—ESTABLISHMENTS; Total Rs. 790.

20. It seems doubtful to what extent the Establishment proposed has been formally sanctioned. This must of course be done, a Budget sanction implying nothing more than an allotment for a purpose otherwise approved in a regular way.

21. The Commissioner remarks generally on the necessity that there is of doing more for Coorg in the way of Public Works than has till now been thought expedient. He has already been informed that any projects well digested for the improvement of the country will receive favorable attention, and perhaps will be aided by an extra grant. But the same remarks obviously apply to this small Budget as were made on that for Mysore, and the Commissioner will no doubt endeavor to correct what requires alteration.

22. The Reserve is Rs. 2,310. This gives in all Rs. 25,000 for Coorg, and may be passed.

PORT BLAIR.

23. The Budget Estimates for Port Blair are far too vague to be of any real value, and, under the circumstances of the case, it seems better to assume a round sum to be allotted for the wants of the Settlement, based on the demands made in the present papers. It is therefore proposed that the following allotments should be made:—

ORIGINAL WORKS.
Military ...	Rs.	5,000
Civil	„	30,000
			35,000
REPAIRS ...	Rs.		5,000
ESTABLISHMENT ...	„		1,000
RESERVE ...	„		9,000
Total	Rs.		50,000

24. It will certainly be expedient that the condition of the Settlement of Port Blair, in reference to its connection and that of its Superintendent with this Department, should at once be defined. From the fact that all convicts are sent to Port Blair to be kept to hard labor it seems important that a proper system should be introduced, at the earliest date, not only as to the management of the prisoners in applying them to labor, but as to the actual methods and operations of the work itself. For this it seems expedient that a certain number of skilled Artizans, and a properly qualified Chief Officer, should be entertained to direct the convict labor. The system on which this should be arranged would no doubt be settled in the Home Department; but it is probable that a Public Works Officer will be required, under the Superintendent, to manage details. From the character of the Drawings and Designs that have been sent up from Port Blair with the so called Budget, it is plain that, unless steps are taken to deal with this matter, great waste and disappointment are likely to be the result. As matters now stand, it seems hardly worth while to enter into any details as to the defects of the present Estimates.

25. Nothing is known of any Local Funds in any of the smaller Administrations, though they no doubt exist; and no allotment from the Income Tax Funds was made to them last year, or seems necessary now.

26. The aggregate of the assignments made from these Territories, &c., is as follows:—

Ajmeer	Rs.		8,000
Central India Agency ...	„		1,75,000
Rajpootana „ ...	„		25,000
Coorg Territory	„		25,000

R. STRACHEY, Lieut-Col., R. E.,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,
P. W. Dept.

FORT WILLIAM,
10th June 1862.

MYSORE BUDGET ORDERS, 1862-63.

The Budget as submitted amounts to Rs. 13,79,000, being considerable in excess of that for 1861-62, which stands at 10 lakhs. The allotment at first contemplated by the Officiating Commissioner was 12 lakhs, but it is now reported that the surplus Revenue of Mysore will enable him to provide for the increased amount without difficulty.

2. It may be remarked that the position of Mysore in relation to the P. W. Budget is very different from that of one of the Imperial Provinces. The assignment is of course made from the Mysore Revenues, and there being a large surplus accumulation, said to be about 80 lakhs, besides a regular surplus Revenue estimated at 14 lakhs, the expenditure need not be so rigidly restrained as in the case of the Imperial outlay. Still it will not be the less essential to enforce true economy; to apportion the outlay judiciously among the various services that have to be met; to prevent the dissipation of the funds by taking of a multitude of objects' or by making petty grants by which the execution of the larger works would be unduly protracted; to repress any tendency to enlarge Establishments out of proper proportion to the work done; and to keep down the charge for repairs to the lowest amount consistent with efficiency. The attention of the Commissioner should be specially directed to these main considerations, which are as applicable to the direction of the P. W. system of Mysore as to that of the whole Empire, and require, if possible, even greater attention, considering that the British Government holds Mysore in trust, and that a surplus Revenue too commonly tempts to extravagance.

3. It further seems necessary to call attention to the manner in which the projects have too often been entered in the Budget, without a reference to shew that Estimates have been prepared or sanctioned. There can be no doubt that the Mysore Public Works Department is behind hand with well digested projects. The Chief Engineer states plainly that many of the items are enterd by Executive Engineers in their Budget

Statements without proper report. He says, however, he has personal knowledge of their fitness. The Officiating Commissioner also vouches for the propriety of the expenditure proposed. But the whole aspect of the Budget shews that the Mysore authorities have been making provision for what they think probably may be good projects rather than asking for means to carry out what they know certainly to be so.

4. The system which seems to have been followed in putting the Budget together, so far as new works are concerned, is in short radically wrong. When the time arrives for framing the Budget the Commissioner has no right to make any entries for new works, excepting those for which he has before him matured Designs, (vide Budget Rule 17.) And it is the special business of his P. W. Officers to have the Designs for all really necessary works ready for the occasion. The Commissioner is now enjoined to take a general view of the requirements of the Province, both in respect to works required for Administrative purposes and for Public Improvement, and to issue suitable instructions to his Chief Engineer to deal with them in a systematic and complete manner. In this way the really essential wants of the Province will be fully considered and taken up in a prudent spirit as funds are considered to be available, and as the Department shews itself capable of submitting satisfactory Designs and of carrying them out with vigour.

The details of the Budget will call for few remarks.

I.—ORIGINAL WORKS.

1.—Military.

5. There is no Military expenditure.

2.—Civil Administration.

6. Under the head Revenue, with the exception of Rs. 560 for a Sandal wood Store at Shikarpoor, the entire expenditure is entered at Rs. 28,633, and is solely for Talook Cutcherries. Four, already commenced, will be completed during 1862-63, and three others the year following.

7. Under the head General, with a proposed expenditure of Rs. 1,12,800, the principal item is Public Offices at Bangalore, on which it is proposed to spend Rs. 1,00,000 during 1862-63. The entire Estimate for this work amounts to Rs. 2,40,000. Both Estimate and Design are revised ones. The originals were disapproved by the Government of India for various reasons, and those that have now been submitted are not such as to be approved. The Commissioner has expressed his intention of revising the Designs again, and of introducing certain obvious and essential alterations. The assignment, however, may stand. The other three items under this head are unimportant, aggregating Rs. 12,800 only.

8. Under Ecclesiastical the only entry is Wall to the Burial Ground at Toomcoor, Rs. 1,510.

9. Under Judicial is entered Central Jail, Bangalore. Estimate Rs. 2,00,000; proposed expenditure Rs. 50,000. A standard Design was sent from this Office, but the Estimate has not yet been submitted for sanction; the proposed sum may, however, stand for expenditure on approval of the Design.

Also Division Jail and Hospital at Shemogah. Estimate Rs. 44,300; spent Rs. 5,000; proposed Rs. 25,000. This sum may be allowed subject to sanction of Plan and Estimate. The commencement of the work without authority was irregular and may be noticed.

The attention of the Foreign Department may be called to the general observations regarding the unsatisfactory state of the Mysore Jails.

3.—Public Improvement.

10. Under Municipal is found Bangalore Cantonment and Bazar Drainage. The Government of India originally sanctioned the expenditure of Rs. 74,000 for this work. A supplemental Estimate for Rs. 51,857 has just been submitted and passed, raising the total estimated expenditure to Rs. 1,25,857. The work is an important one, and though costly, and imperfectly considered in the first instance, will, it is believed, be not really purchased at too large an outlay. It will cut off the sewage of the Bazar, which formerly discharged itself into the great Ulsoor Tank, and so secure for the population of the Cantonment of Bangalore a pure and abundant supply of water. The allotment proposed, Rs. 40,000, may be passed.

11. Under the head Agricultural it is proposed to expend Rs. 50,446 during the year on the improvement or extension of irrigation canals, and Rs. 24,800 on the restoration of tanks, or Rs. 75,246 in all. There are nine irrigation canal projects, and six tank projects. The only important work is Re-construction of the Muddoor Dam, Estimate Rs. 50,500; spent Rs. 25,000; proposed Rs. 25,500. All the projects are either within the powers of the Local Government, or have been duly sanctioned by the Government of India, except that for the Restoration of the Gullaly Tank and Feeder, Estimate Rs. 13,000; proposed expenditure Rs. 7,000. The project has been rejected, the data being insufficient, but the item may be retained in the Budget for execution on sanction of a proper Design.

12. Under the next head Communications, Metalled Roads, an expenditure of Rs. 31,500 is desired for 1862-63. Two items are within the powers of the Local Government. The remaining three items are—

	Total estimated expense.	Proposed expenditure during 1862-63.
	Rs.	Rs.
Road from Vediour to Sneblaspoor ...	72,000	10,000
Road from Chiroody to the boundary of the Banawar Road ...	68,850	9,000
Road from French Rocks to near Myasundra ...	36,000	5,000

There are no entries under any one of the items under this head to shew that the projects put forward have been received by the Commissioner, far less to shew that they have been sanctioned by him or the Government of India. This is altogether wrong, and the attention of the Commissioner should be specially directed to the rules on this subject. Again, there is some difficulty in conjecturing the circumstances under which it would be good economy to spend such small sums as Rs. 10,000, 9,000, and 5,000 per annum on roads which will eventually cost seven times those amounts. The operations of the Public Works Department in improving communications must be far more concentrated. With public works generally, but more especially with roads, carefully prepared projects should always precede expenditure, and when works are once sanctioned they should go on to completion without any such stint of funds as seems here contemplated. The total amount set down, however, may stand for approval.

13. Under the head Communications, Unmetalled Roads, it is proposed to expend Rs. 1,94,141 during 1862-63, including the sum of Rs. 25,000 for Railway Feeders. The following items are beyond the powers of the Local Government, and do not appear to have been properly estimated. In their case also the utmost that can be done is to accord provisional sanction.

	Total estimated cost.	Required for 1862-63.
	Rs.	Rs.
Item No. 39.—Road from Doddaballapoor to Durenhully ...	16,920	10,000
Item No. 40.—Road from Doddaballapoor to Yellahunka ...	10,396	5,000
Item No. 41.—Bridging and gravelling Road from Bangalore to Kankanhully ...	27,921	10,000
Item No. 48.—Completing the Boond Ghât ...	32,000	7,000
Item No. 51.—Road from Muddoor to Serisamoodrum ..	30,000	20,000
Item No. 55.—Road from Chickanayakanhalli to Cuddoor ...	12,000	7,000
Item No. 58.—Road from Mudgherry to Doddaballapoor ...	24,000	12,000
Item No. 59.—Road in the Pavugud Talook ...	17,600	10,000

The whole amount may, however, stand conditionally.

14. Similarly with Bridges. It is desired to spend Rs. 84,707 in 1862-63, yet no final orders can issue from this Office in case of the items noted below :—

	Total estimated cost.	Required for 1862-63.
	Rs.	Rs.
Item No. 65.—Bridges and Drains on the Mysore and Bellary Road ...	15,972	10,000
Item No. 66.—Masonry Bridge of seven arches across the Hemavutty ...	60,000	14,000
Item No. 67.—Ditto of five arches across the Yagachy ..	28,000	20,000

As before, however, the whole sums set down may be approved provisionally.

15. On Accommodation for Travellers it is proposed to spend Rs. 15,599. The items are all within the powers of the Commissioner, but four of the works are without note of an Estimate; and the sanction given must be conditional on these being duly submitted and approved.

16. The total proposed expenditure on Communications is Rs. 3,25,947; and the total of Original Works, Rs. 6,59,136. This may be sanctioned.

Part II.—REPAIRS.

17. It is proposed to spend Rs. 3,29,900 on Current Repairs, and Rs 70,100 on Special Repairs, or Rs. 4,00,000 in all. The allotment for Repairs of all sorts for 1861-62 was Rs. 4,51,100. The charge, however, compared with that for the other Provinces of the Empire, is very high, and may almost certainly be reduced. A sum of 3 lakhs might be allowed, and anything in addition to this should only be granted on a distinct statement shewing the precise nature and necessity for the outlay.

Part III.—ESTABLISHMENTS.

18. Rs. 1,98,029 is entered as the cost of Establishments. This amount may be allowed, subject to the general instructions recently given regarding the Mysore P. W. Establishments.

The charge for the Kalihaut Labor Corps, Rs. 20,000, may most conveniently be taken as a part of the Reserve. This body of men is an institution peculiar to Mysore, regarding which it might perhaps be as well to have more information.

19. This completes the review of the Mysore Budget, a classified Abstract of which will be found below :—

	Original Works.	Repairs.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Army	...	800	800
Total Military ...	...	800	800
Revenue	28,633	8,000	36,633
General	1,12,800	6,050	1,18,850
Ecclesiastical	1,510	...	1,510
Educational	...	700	700
Judicial	75,000	3,000	78,000
Total Civil Administration...	2,17,943	17,750	2,35,693
Municipal	40,000	3,000	43,000
Agricultural	75,246	1,32,550	2,07,796
Communications	3,25,947	1,45,000	4,70,947
Total Public Improvement...	4,41,193	2,81,450	7,22,643
Total	6,59,136	3,01,000	9,60,136
Reserve (including Kalihaut Labor Corps) ...			1,21,835
Establishment			1,98,029
Grand Total ...			12,79,800

20. There are probably no Funds in Mysore analogous to the Local Funds of the British Provinces—any how nothing is known of them. Further, there is no Income Tax.

21. The Railway expenditure is set down in the Madras Budget, but in a statistical point of view it might be as well for the Commissioner of Mysore, in future years to estimate the outlay that takes place in that Province.

22. It may also here be noted that Coorg being a British District, though under the Commissioner of Mysore, will be dealt with among the minor Administrations under the Government of India.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,—I HAVE to inform you that it has been resolved that an unemployed Major-General of the Staff Corps, although he may not have succeeded to the Colonel's allowance, shall be permitted to remain in this country without any limitation as to period of residence in the same manner as General Officers and Colonels of Regiments of the Indian Forces have been permitted to remain. During his residence such General Officer will be entitled to receive the rate of pay fixed by the Royal Warrant for General Officers out of India, viz., 25 Shillings per diem.

I have, &c.,

No. 869 of 1862.—The following Military Letter from the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, No. 270 of the 31st July 1862, is published for general information:—

MILITARY.

No. 270.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

MY LORD,—Para. 1.—I HAVE received and considered in Council your letters Nos. 60 and 130, dated, severally, 3rd March and 17th April 1862, the former forwarding copies of a letter from the Government of Bombay, No. 169 of 17th January 1862, enclosing a Memorial from Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, of the 25th Bombay Native Infantry, and the latter submitting a Memorial from Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, of the 10th Bengal Native Infantry, relative to the effect produced on the promotion of the Senior Officers of the Indian Army by the Rules laid down in my Despatch No. 320 of 10th August 1861, under which the names of the Lieutenant-Colonels who have accepted the annuities authorized in that Despatch are retained on the General List to regulate the succession to the Colonel's allowance.

2. Upon this point you observe that there can be no doubt that, as none of the Lieutenant-Colonels who have retired with their annuities can possibly give their Juniors a step unless by their death, the Rule must operate injuriously on the prospects of promotion of those more immediately below them.

3. The Government of Bombay, whose suggestions appear to be contained among the papers forwarded by you in a "draft of an intended letter," recommends that, instead of the system of succession recently prescribed by Her Majesty's Government, each Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel should receive promotion to the position of Colonel with Colonel's allowance after the expiration of ten years from the date of attaining his Regimental Lieutenant-Colonelcy.

4. Your Government, in general terms, recommended the case of the Lieutenant-Colonels to my favorable consideration.

5. The proposal to reduce the number of Colonels with Colonel's allowances, in the manner described in my Despatch No. 320 of 10th August, was made upon a consideration that a certain number must be withdrawn from the list of Colonels in a given ratio to the number of Officers appointed to the Staff Corps, and that some further reduction would have to be made in consequence of the reduction of the number of Regiments.

6. In consequence of the Mutiny nearly the whole of the Native Regular Regiments of the Army of Bengal have disappeared, and a smaller number of Irregular Regiments have been raised in their place; several Regiments also have been reduced in the other Presidencies.

7. These reductions were rendered necessary by considerations both of a financial and of a political character.

8. It is almost impossible, when a reduction of force becomes necessary, but that Officers, as well as men, should, in some degree, suffer from the consequences of a diminution of the strength of the Army.

9. In carrying out the measures which were necessary for this purpose in India men have been discharged in large numbers with gratuities or pensions.

10. Great consideration has also been shewn to the European Officers. They have been retained in their respective cadres on full pay, and with no alteration in the system of promotion to the higher ranks by seniority.

11. A considerable impulse has been lately given to promotion among the Officers generally by the retirements under the annuity scheme, but the Lieutenant-Colonels of date prior to 1st January 1860, who did not accept annuities, derived no such benefit; on the contrary, their prospects of promotion under the operation of that scheme would, as shewn by Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, be affected injuriously to some extent.

12. In order to remove any reasonable ground of complaint Her Majesty's Government have determined that all Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels remaining on the General List of the local Armies in the three Presidencies, whose Commissions as such date prior to the 1st January 1862, shall be considered entitled to promotion to the rank and allowances of Colonel when they shall have been twelve years in the rank of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel; provided, however, that no promotion under this Rule shall take place until those not in any way affected by the retention of the names of the retired Officers on the list shall have received the step in ordinary course (vide Note.*)

* Lieutenant-Colonel Browne stands at present fifth on the list of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels of the Madras Infantry. Two of those above him are effective Officers, and two are borne on the list in italics. When the Lieutenant-Colonel second on the list, viz. Lieutenant-Colonel Fitzgerald, succeeds to the Colonel's allowance, Lieutenant-Colonel Browne will become entitled to benefit by the Rule as to succession to the allowance after twelve years, but not before.

13. All Officers who may have held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel on the 1st January 1862 will also be entitled to promotion to the superior grade of Colonel with Colonel's allowances if the step come to them in ordinary course before the completion of twelve years' service as Lieutenant-Colonel; but when these Lieutenant-Colonels have been removed from the list, the promotion of those whose Commissions bear date on the 1st January 1862, or subsequently, will only be made, as in the Staff Corps, after twelve years' service in that Grade.

14. The names of the Officers of the Staff Corps, and those of the new Line Regiments, will be treated in a similar manner with those of the effective Officers on the list, with the exception that, in the case of the two former, their names, upon coming into the position of Colonel with Colonel's allowances under the operation of the above Rule, will be removed altogether from the General Regimental List of the Indian Army and promotion made in their places.

15. The principle upon which the succession to Colonel's allowances of Officers of the Indian Army who have not joined the Staff Corps or the new Line Regiments is to be hereafter regulated is to be considered as determined by this arrangement.

Secy. to Govt., Punjab.

Notification.

IN cancellation of Notification of this Department, under date the 9th March 1861, relative to the Stamps required on Powers of Attorney either for the realization of interest on, or for the sale of, Government Promissory Notes, notice is hereby given that Powers of Attorney executed after the passing of Act X. of 1862 must be on Stamped Paper of the value prescribed in Article 43, Schedule A. of Act X. of 1862.

Schedule A., 43.—"Letter or Power of Attorney not being of the kinds provided for in Schedule B." ... Rs. 4

"If the Letter or Power of Attorney be "for the performance of one act only, and "the value of the property to be dealt with "be expressed in the Letter or Power and "do not exceed Rupees 500 ... „ 1

Copy of the Standing Counsel's Opinion on the point, dated 10th September 1862, is subjoined.—

OPINION.

I entirely agree in the conclusions in the within letter of July 29th. It is very clear that Schedule B, Clause 8, does not in any manner relate to these Powers of Attorney, but only to such as are required in the conduct of cases before Courts of Justice or Revenue Authorities; therefore the Stamp to be required in all cases for Powers to draw interest executed after Act X. of 1862 should be of (4) four Rupees except in the excepted instance at the end of Clause 43 of Schedule A, in which it ought to be a Stamp of one Rupee.

J. I. HARVEY,
Offg. Accnt.-Genl. to the Govt. of India.

BOARD OF REVENUE;
Fort William,
The 9th September 1862.

Notice to Claimants to Share in the Delhi and Lucknow Prize Properties.

PARTIES having claims on account of themselves, of those who served under them, of the Estates of deceased Officers and Soldiers, or of their Constituents to share in either of the above Prizes are requested to submit them, without further delay, accompanied by the necessary proofs, to the Prize Department of the Examiner's Office, No. 7, Middleton Row, Calcutta.

2. From the absence of the usual Rolls (the Returns during the period of the Mutiny reached very irregularly, and are, in very many cases, altogether wanting) it has been found impossible to compile a List of the parties entitled to share in the Delhie and Lucknow Prizes, and the Adjutant-General's Department has been unable to furnish a List of those entitled to additional shares by reason of their having held staff appointments and commands.

3. The number of persons entitled to share can therefore only be ascertained through the claims, supported by proofs, which are submitted. It is known that many claims have not been sent in (in the case of Corps and Detachments a report has been made to Government), and until the parties or their representatives submit them a final distribution of either the Delhie and Lucknow Prize cannot be made.

4. Each claim sent in must be supported by a Certificate shewing the dates between which the party was present at the operation for which the claim is made.

5. When additional shares beyond those of the Regimental rank of the party are claimed a Certificate from a Staff or Commanding Officer must be attached, shewing the nature of the service and the date on which the claimant took charge and relinquished the duty.

6. When claims are submitted by representatives a Power of Attorney must be sent, and in the case of Estates, when the President of the Committee of Adjustment or the Administrator-General does not claim, proof of the party being entitled to administer must be shewn.

7. It has been decided by the Law Authorities that there is no limit to the period during which claims can be submitted. It is therefore necessary to ascertain the number of probable claimants before a final settlement or even a second distribution can be made.

8. The distribution of the Pegu Prize is delayed by the absence of any Rolls of claimants of the Royal Navy. These have long since been applied for.

F. D. ATKINSON, Lieut.-Col.,
Contlr. of Mily. Finance.

Abolition of Duties on Cotton within the Territories of the Rajas of Seetamow and Sillana.

From MAJOR R. J. MEADE, Agent, Governor General, for Central India, to COLONEL H. M. DURAND, C. B., Secretary to the Government of India,—(dated Indore Residency, 18th August 1862.)

SIR,—In continuation of my letter No. [illegible] of date 18th ultimo, I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, that the Chiefs as per margin have followed the example set by the Nawab of Jowra, and have abolished all Duties on Cotton within their respective Territories.

Raja of Seetamow.
" " Sillana.

2. I have addressed each of these Chiefs in suitable terms, commending their adoption of this liberal measure.

3. I take the opportunity of mentioning that many of the Chiefs under this Agency have begun to comprehend and appreciate the probable effects on, and advantages to this country of the present Cotton crisis in England, and that they have expressed a desire to increase the general cultivation of this staple to the utmost extent possible.

4. I have taken much pains, on every suitable occasion, to explain to all concerned the chief causes which have hitherto prevented Indian Cottons competing in price in the English market with that of America and other countries, which may be briefly stated as—

1st.—Inferior and careless cultivation and the use of inferior seed.

2nd.—Carelessness in gathering the crop, the bolls being allowed to fall on the ground and being collected therefrom, instead of being regularly plucked from the tree when ripe.

3rd.—The injurious method commonly adopted of extracting the seeds and partially cleaning the Cotton from the dirt and foreign substances which get mixed with it while lying on the ground, by which the staple is seriously damaged, and, to some extent, unfitted for the purposes of the Spinner and Manufacturer.

5. A general desire has been expressed by all the Chiefs to devote more attention and care to the cultivation of this article on the points adverted to above, so as to improve its quality so far as may be found possible; and the Nawabs of Jowra and Baoni, in Bundelkund, have requested me to endeavor to procure for them a supply of American Cotton seed, while many of the other Chiefs would also be glad to get some.

6. I am not aware if any arrangements have been made by the Manchester or any other Cotton Association for supplying good seed where such is thus applied for; but I think it is most important that the means should be available for promptly complying with such requests, and I trust it may be in your power to put me in the way of obtaining for the above purpose any quantity of good seed that may be required.

The sowing season has passed for this year, but it will be well to make betimes such arrangements in this respect as are requisite to ensure the issue of full supplies of seed for next season to those applying there for.

7. Next to good seed simple and cheap Cotton gins, or cleaning machines, and conveniently situated screw presses, for screwing and securing the bales for transit, are the things most urgently required to facilitate the despatch, in good condition, of carefully cultivated Cotton.

8. Several descriptions of cleaning machines have been invented, and efforts have been made by various Officers to bring them into general use; but none of them that I have seen are popular with the Natives, and they have not as yet, to any useful extent, in these parts at least, superseded the common Native gin, which has been employed for the purpose from time immemorial.

Extreme simplicity and lowness of price are essential to the general introduction of an improved cleaning machine, and it is quite hopeless to expect that the poor cultivators and cleaners of Cotton will pay 20 Rupees for such a machine when that ordinarily used by them does not cost one Rupee.

9. With respect to Cotton presses there is not, that I am aware of, a single one within the limits of this Agency. That formerly at Calpee has not, I am informed, been in use since the Mutiny.

It seems to me to be impossible to over-estimate the injury that huge loose unscrewed bales of Cotton must meet with while in transit on bullocks for considerable distances over dusty roads, many miles of which perhaps run through thorny jungles which abstract a portion of its contents from each bale; but for this there can be no remedy till local presses are established at the most generally convenient place in each Cotton District, and as such presses require a considerable outlay in the first instance, I see little present hope of their introduction by the Native Chiefs themselves.

Such a press is much required at Bhind, which is the Chief Emporium of the Cotton grown in the North-Eastern Districts of Gwalior, and from which there is a large and increasing export of this staple to Calcutta vid Etawah.

Government of India, Public Works Department.

Reports of progress of the Great India Peninsula Railway for the Quarters ending 31st March and 30th June 1862.

From R. W. Graham, Esq., Acting Chief Resident Engineer, to G. A. Barnett, Esq., Acting Secretary to the G. I. P. Railway,—(dated 3rd May 1862.)

Sir,—I have the honor to report upon the operations of the Engineering Department during the quarter ending 31st March 1862.

Concan Line.

2. The Permanent way has been kept in good order, but it has been found necessary to re-place a considerable number of sleepers owing to the increase of decay in the Eyne sleepers.

3. The repairs of culverts and openings and the under-pinning of bridges damaged by the floods of last year have been effected.

4. Of the extra works on Contracts 1 to 6 four culverts were finished, two had been altered, and the rest of the works were in progress at the end of the quarter.

5. The lifting of the Line on Contracts 3 and 5 was well advanced, and has been carried on without interruption to the traffic.

6. At the Goolbun Ravine the tunnel arches were about half finished and the earth-work about two-thirds.

7. The additions to Kussara Station were nearly half finished.

Contract No. 7.

Bhore Ghaut Incline.

8. The double line of Permanent way has been laid from Khandalla to the Reversing Station, and the sidings at the latter Station were nearly completed.

9. The double road has also been laid continuously for 1¼ miles below the Reversing Station, and the ballasting and rail-laying are going on actively between the 6 m. 40 chs. and 5 m. 11 chs., and between the 4 m. 16 chs. and 3 m. 73 chs.

10. At the date of my last report No. 1 viaduct was the only one remaining to be completed. All the arches of this viaduct are now turned, so that the whole of the heavy masonry on the Incline may be said to be finished.

11. The headings of all the tunnels are through, with the exception of No. 5, where about 6 lineal yards remain to be driven. This tunnel is composed of the hardest basalt. The bottoming up of the tunnels is going on rapidly.

12. The accompanying Table shews the state of progress of the tunnelling at the end of the quarter.

13. The average number of men employed on the works during the three months was about 24,000, and the total value of work executed during the quarter is Rupees 8,82,798.

Open Line from Khandalla to Sholapoor.

14. The Permanent way is in good order throughout the whole of the District, but the black soil banks require a constant and more than an average supply of ballast.

15. The Khandalla Station Booking Offices have been painted and the rooms white-washed.

16. At Lanowlee much inconvenience having been felt from leakage during the past monsoon an increased fall to the wood-work forming the gutters has been given, and felt laid up on them as a substitute for dammer and common dungree.

17. Additional accommodation for Guards at this Station has been applied for.

18. At Poonah and also at Kirkee Stations the platform flagging requires re-laying. The other Stations are in good repair.

19. At 278¼ miles the Permanent way is being raised about 3 feet, the original gradient having been found too low.

Contract No. 11.

Thull Ghaut Incline.

20. The earth-work generally on the Ghaut has progressed satisfactorily, especially in cutting No. 1, where a large amount of earth-work has been executed.

21. At the Rotoonda viaduct the arches are being turned and the Maunda Sheyt viaduct is completed, with the exception of part of the string course and parapet.

22. The progress of the masonry at the Bhegaon viaduct during the last three months has been quite extraordinary. The large girder piers have been raised 12 feet during the three months, making a total height of 84 feet of masonry built on each of these piers since the last rains

23. As a measure of precaution the work on these piers will be discontinued for the remainder of the season to allow of the thorough setting of this large mass of fresh work before any additonal weight is placed upon it.

24. I expect that the girder abutments and the abutments and piers of the arches of this viaduct will be brought to the same level as the girder piers before the rains.

25. The headings of the tunnels have progressed satisfactorily.

26. The accompanying Table shews the state of progress of the tunnelling at the end of the quarter.

27. The works at Egutpoora Depôt have been pushed on well during the quarter and are now nearly completed.

28. About 15,000 men have been employed on this Contract during the three months, and the value of works executed is Rupees 5,37,908.

CONTRACT No. 12.

Egutpoora to Bhosawul.

29. The maintenance of the Line between Egutpora and Deolalee was transferred from the Contractors to the Company in January last, and since then the road has been maintained in the good order in which it was handed over.

30. The new Station at Nandoor is nearly completed.

31. The Line from Deolalee to Challisgaum has been well maintained by the Contractors and they are now making up the banks very fully to the formation width.

32. The other works and Stations on this portion of the Line are in very good order.

33. The wells at Munmar, Nandgaon, and Challisgaum will have to be deepened to insure a sufficient supply of water next season.

34. At the end of the quarter under report the Permanent way was laid to within six miles of Julgaon, and since then the road has been laid into the Station ground.

35. The fencing is now being pushed on vigorously. Large quantities of material for it are brought by Engine from Challisgaum. The Stations, especially Julgaon, are behind hand, and will, I fear, prevent the opening of the Line at as nearly a date as I had anticipated.

36. The last pier of the Wangoor viaduct between Julgaon and Bhosawul has been founded and is being rapidly carried up. Most of the girders of this viaduct are upon the ground.

CONTRACT No. 13.

Bhosawul to Oomrawuttee.

37. During the quarter 36,360 cubic yards have been put into embankments, which brings up the earth-work executed to 96 per cent. of the total.

38. About 92 per cent. of the cuttings have been executed.

39. The progress of the masonry generally along the Contract is satisfactory; but, as I have pointed out in a Special Report, the Contractors have, through certain Districts, peculiar difficulties to contend with in the great scarcity of stone and the thorough unsuitableness of the soil of the country for the manufacture of bricks in the same localities.

40. The first abutment and 6 piers of the Mund viaduct are nearly up to import level, and No. 2. abutment and 14 piers have been founded.

41. About 56 miles of road is laid and linked in.

42. The total value of work executed during the three months is Rupees 4,74,519.

CONTRACT No. 14.

Oomrawuttee to Nagpore.

43. The Contractors are now at work generally along the Contract, and they have commenced the masonry at some of the principal points along the Contract.

44. 331,022 cubic yards have been put into embankments during the three months, and the total value of work executed during the same period is Rupees 2,24,803, of which Rupees 41,774 was due on masonry.

CONTRACT No. 15.

Bhosawul to Hurdah.

45. The setting of the masonry at the Taptee viaduct was not resumed till the middle of March, but by the end of that month a large number of men were on the ground, and there was every promise of active operations there during the remainder of the season.

46. The earth-work and masonry have been going on during the period under report on the first 60 miles of Line, which includes the rough unhealthy District of the Asseer Jungles.

47. The total value of works executed during the three months is Rupees 1,36,543, of which Rupees 64,288 is for masonry.

CONTRACT No. 16.

Hurdah to Sohagpore.

48. I have little to notice on this Contract since the date of my last report.

49. The Contractors' arrangements continue satisfactory, but they have not yet done any large amount of work.

50. About 190,700 cubic yards have been put into their embankments during the three months, making a total of 251,200 cubic yards executed up to 31st of March.

51. The total value of work done during the quarter is Rupees 1,45,042, of which Rupees 28,679 is for masonry.

CONTRACT No. 17.

Sohagpore to Jubbulpore.

52. Messrs. Norms and Weller continue to carry on their earth-work actively, but they have hardly yet commenced the masonry works on their Contract.

53. 214,912 cubic yards of earth-work have been thrown into embankments during the three months, making a total of 317,957 cubic yards of earth-work executed up to the 31st of March.

Bhosawul Depôt.

54. Messrs. Hill, Cutts, and Lund have pushed on their work with much activity. The materials supplied and the quality of work executed are highly satisfactory.

Electric Telegraph.

55. The extension of the Electric Telegraph from Bhosawul to Nagpore is going on rapidly.

56. At the end of the quarter under report the Line had been extended about 90 miles beyond Bhosawul.

From R. W. GRAHAM, ESQ., Acting Chief Resident Engineer, to G. A. BARNETT, ESQ., Acting Secretary to the G. I. P. Railway,—(dated 31st July 1862.)

SIR,—I HAVE the honor to report on the state and progress of the works during the quarter ending 30th June.

CONCAN LINE.

2. At Boree Bunder Station the shed-roofing for goods has been all but completed and the metalling is in progress. The piping has been laid for the Vehar Water, but some fittings for the hydrauts have yet to be supplied.

3. At the Byculla Depôt the new cottages are about half covered in. An Inspector's bungalow has been built at Narel, and one at Budlapore is about three-fourths completed.

4. At Campoolee a temporary tiled goods shed, about 60 feet × 34 feet, has been erected in place of the one lately burnt down.

5. Towards the end of May the water in the well at Khurdee suddenly failed, and although we sunk down nearly 14 feet no further supply could be obtained. The well at Athgaum was also nearly exhausted, but served to supply the Engines for ordinary traffic. It must be borne in mind, however, that there has been an unusual drain on these wells owing to Khurdee having been the Terminal Station, besides which the Ballast Engine for Goolbun Ravine consumed about as much as all the other Engines put together. Both wells have been lined and the Khurdee one deepened this season, and I believe they are together fully equal to the ordinary demands of the traffic. There was an ample supply of water at Kussara up to the end of the hot weather, but there was a much less draw upon it than usual. The bund across the Maunda Sheyt Nullah, for which sanction was obtained in January last, has been completed.

6. At the Goolbun Ravine the rails have been laid over the embankment and the Ballast Train will work across in a few days.

7. At Kussara Station nine-tenths of the extra Station works are completed.

8. The extra works on Contracts 1 to 6 and 10 are more than three-fourths finished, and all the extra openings most urgently required for the protection of the Line have been provided.

9. The Line and works have been maintained in good order and have sustained no damage from the rains.

SOUTH-EASTERN DACCA LINE.

10. With the exception of the extension at the reservior at the Lanowlee Depôt no new works of any importance have been commenced, and our operations have been chiefly confined to the completion of those works which were in hand at the date of my last report.

11. At Khandalla about 13,000 Jowlees have been provided for the repairs of the temporary goods shed, and metalling has been supplied and spread on the approach road to the goods Station.

12. The Over Bridge at Poona has been completed and is now used by the public.

13. At Barsee road a wire fence is being fixed round the Station yard.

14. At Sholapoor the works connected with the approaches to the cotton siding and the removal of the fence wall, &c., are in progress.

15. Between Barsee road and Sholapoor a considerable quantity of ballast and other material has been provided for making up the black soil embankments in which the settlement is very considerable. The whole of the Line is in very good working order.

16. The maintenance of the fence walling, especially in the black soil Districts, is a serious and constant item of expense; the reports of cattle straying upon the Line are nevertheless very frequent. These cases have always been most numerous in the quarter under report, when, during the dry season, the least patch of vegetation on the cess is sufficient to entice the cattle to jump the fence, or to induce their keepers to drive them through it. Without the co-operation of the Magistrates by punishing the owners of cattle in such cases of trespass I see little prospect of a stop being put to this serious evil.

CONTRACT No. 7.

Bhore Ghaut Incline.

17. With the exception of a small extent of walling and a few culverts and parapets the whole of the masonry on the Bhore Ghaut Incline is finished. The headings of all the tunnels are driven through, and 16 out of the 25 tunnels on the Incline are completed: the bottoming up of the remaining 9 is going on at a rate which, if continued without interruption, will ensure the completion of the whole by the end of the year.

18. Good progress has been made with the ballasting and rail-laying during the quarter, and an aggregate of 5½ miles only remains to be done.

19. The fence walling is about half done. About 150,000 cubic yards of earth-work remain to be put into embankments, and this will probably be the last work to be completed on the whole Contract.

20. The Contractors are preparing the roofs and timber work for the engine shed, tank houses, &c., at the junction, and the raising of the bund at Dyolee, which ensures an ample supply of water at this Station, was completed before the rains set in.

Thull Ghaut Incline.

21. Satisfactory progress has been made with the works on the Thull Ghaut Incline during the quarter. At the Ehegaon viaduct it was thought advisable to stop the work on the west girder abutment and both the girder piers during the hot weather, and allow the large mass of work which had been put into them in the previous quarter to settle. The west arch abutment and pier and east arch abutment have been brought up to springing level, and the east girder abutment and east arch pier are within a foot of plinth level.

22. In the tunnels 93 per cent. of the headings and 48 per cent. of main tunnel were completed at the end of the quarter.

CONTRACT No. 12.

Egutpoora to Bhosawul.

23. The opened portions of this Contract, both between Egutpoora and Nassick, which is in the hands of the Company, and between Nassick and Challisgaum, which is still in the Contractor's hands, have been maintained in good working order.

24. The sanction obtained for certain extra works in cuttings No. 20 and banks 13, 14, 15, and 24 will prove very valuable in the safe working of the Line. Cutting No. 20 and embankment No. 24 have been made secure, but the work was not sufficiently advanced on embankments 13, 14, and 15 to prevent a partial recurrence of the slips which took place there last year. It was necessary in consequence to work a Ballast Train to make them up, and I expect they will now stand the rains without danger or delay to the traffic.

25. A new Station at Nandoor, half-way between Egutpoora and Nassick, has been opened for public traffic.

26. The water supply at Egutpoora entirely failed in March, and that Station had to be supplied from a temporary tank erected at Gotee. The question of a sufficient water supply at Egutpoora is one of the utmost importance. I shall shortly submit to the Committee the measures which, I think, should be taken during the next fair season for providing it.

27. Beyond Chalisgaon the road is laid as far as Julgaon, and all the Station sidings have been laid in. The tanks, water columns, and signals are being fixed, but the Station buildings at Julgaon are still far from completion, and I am bound to say that ordinary energy has been wanting on the part of the Contractor in carrying on this part of the work. I have no doubt, however, that the Line to Julgaon will be ready for opening in September next.

CONTRACT No. 13.

Bhosawal to Oomrawuttee.

28. About 47¼ miles of road had been laid up to the end of the quarter, but the gaps caused by the backward state of the rock cuttings between the 11th and 16th miles, and the incomplete state of many of the bridges, have prevented the Contractors taking advantage of this length of road for their Engine. This part of the work is consequently much impeded for want of materials, the Contractors not having the means of carting their supplies from the junction where all the Permanent way materials are now being delivered by the Company.

29. The same observation with respect to carriage applies to the masonry on those Districts, where, owing to the total failure of the bricks, the Contractors have to cart their stone considerable distances.

30. No. 7 pier of the Mund viaduct, which had given much trouble owing to the quantity of water, silt, and boulders met with in excavating for foundations, has been successfully founded, and is now 10 feet above foundations and to water level. No. 14 pier and the east abutment have also been founded within the quarter and are within 8 feet of ground surface.

31. On Contract No. 14 cubic yards 404,300 have been put into embankments during the three months under report, and the Wurdah Dham and Kistna viaducts, as well as some of the smaller bridges, are in hand.

CONTRACT No. 15.

Bhosawul to Hurdah.

32. At the present rate of progress the embankments and cuttings will be completed by the end of the year, and the progress made with the masonry generally has been very nearly up to that required to complete it within the time agreed.

CONTRACT Nos. 16 and 17.

Hurdah to Sohagpore.

Sohagpore to Jubbulpore.

33. There is nothing to call for special remark on these Contracts in this Report. The total expenditure on masonry up to 30th June is and preparations for the prosecution of the heaviest masonry works on each Contract have been going on.

Contract No. 16, Rs. 86,193,
" " 17, " 44,545,

34. The following is a summary of the expenditure and the number of men employed on Contract works during the three months ending 30th June 1862 :—

Electric Telegraph.

35. On the opened Lines Nandoor Station has been included in the Telegraph circuit. The covering of Telegraph posts with a coating of tar between Bombay and Wassind and Bombay and Decksal has been completed, and about 150 miles of Telegraph posts between Wassind and Bhosawul have received a similar protection.

36. The whole of the Offices have been carefully inspected, and the instruments and lines have been maintained in excellent order.

37. On the Bhosawul and Nagpore Line an additional length of 21½ miles has been erected, making a total length of 94½ miles constructed on that section.

38. The progress of the work during this quarter has been much retarded owing to the inability of the Contractor to forward any quantity of Telegraph materials. Measures will be taken to expedite the transmission of these materials, so that our operations may not again be delayed from this cause after the opening of the working season.

No. 10G.

Read again the following papers regarding the grant of Gratuities to Public Servants:—

Financial Despatch from the late Court of Directors, No. 38 of 1856, paragraph 31.

Resolution, No. 1015, passed in this Department on the 26th February 1858, and published in Financial Notification No. 118 of the 10th July 1862.

Ditto No. , dated the 29th March 1862.

Resolution.—Under the orders above referred to, when an Uncovenanted Servant is discharged in consequence of the abolition of his office, he is not allowed a gratuity until he has been six months out of Government employ, and then he receives it on the condition that the period of service for which the gratuity is granted is not again to be reckoned as service qualifying for pension in the event of his being re-employed. But it has been represented that the former of these Rules is likely in some cases to operate with unusual hardship. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is therefore pleased to direct that, for the future, when an Uncovenanted Servant is thrown out of employ by the abolition of his appointment, his claim to gratuity shall at once be considered and decided on; but instead of receiving in one sum the whole gratuity which may be sanctioned, he shall continue after his discharge to draw his salary from month to month until the amount of the gratuity be exhausted. If he should, in the meantime, be re-admitted to the Government service he may be permitted either to draw the unexhausted balance of the gratuity on the understanding that his previous service will not be allowed to count towards pension, or to refund by convenient instalments the amount already paid to him, and thus to recover the privilege of reckoning his service.

Order.—Ordered, that the foregoing Resolution be published in the Government Gazette, and that copies thereof be forwarded for information and guidance to the Departments, Governments, and Officers mentioned below:—

Foreign, Home, Military, Public Works, and Marine Departments.

Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjaub, and the Straits Settlements.

ORDERS by the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR of BENGAL.

NOTIFICATION.

Sylhet, 30*th August* 1862.

The following Rules for the sale of unassessed waste lands, and for the redemption of the revenue of such lands already granted for a term of years, in the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal, are published for general information :—

Rule 1.—All unassessed waste lands in which no right of proprietorship or exclusive occupancy is known to exist, or to have existed and to be capable of revival, are available for purchase under these Rules, unless specially reserved under Rule 21.

2. No greater quantity of land than three thousand acres shall be sold in one lot except with the express sanction of the Government. If for special reasons, in particular localities, a lower maximum area than three thousand acres should be determined upon, it will be duly notified hereafter.

3. Every lot shall be compact and shall include no more than one tract of land in a ring fence; and when the land touches a Public Road or a Navigable River, the length of the Road or River frontage shall not exceed one-half the depth of the lot. No lot will be sold unless it has been previously surveyed and demarcated, or until it shall have been surveyed and demarcated in consequence of an application for purchase. The Survey need only be in sufficient detail to ensure the ready identification of the boundaries of the lot, and to ascertain its gross area. If on completion of the Survey it shall appear that the area of the lot applied for exceeds the prescribed maximum the excess shall be excluded.

4. Applications for the purchase of waste land shall be made to the Collector of the District, and every application shall contain the following particulars :—

1*st*.—The estimated area of the land applied for.

2*nd*.—The situation of the land and its boundaries as accurately as can be ascertained.

5. If the Collector be satisfied that the land applied for is available for purchase and within the conditions prescribed in Rules 2 and 3, and if it have been previously surveyed and demarcated, he shall advertise the lot for sale on a given day at an upset price of not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area. The advertisement shall be published in the Collector's Office, in the Court of the Principal Judicial Officer of the District, and at the Moonsiff's Court (if there be one) and Police Station within the limits of which the lands are situated.

6. If the Collector be satisfied as above and if the land have not been surveyed, he shall cause it to be surveyed and its boundaries demarcated, the estimated cost of such survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant. On the completion of the Survey the advertisement of sale shall be published as above.

7. The day of sale to be named in the advertisement shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication, and the sale shall be held at the Collector's Office. The sale may be postponed if in the Collector's judgment it be necessary, due notice being always given of the date on which the sale will be held.

8. If before the day of sale no claim of proprietory, or occupative, right in the land be preferred, the lot shall be sold by auction to the highest bidder above the upset price, or to the applicant at the upset price if there be no higher bid.

9. On payment of one-tenth of the purchase money and of all expenses of survey, demarcation, advertisement, and sale, the purchaser shall receive a Deed (in a form which will hereafter be issued by the Board of Revenue) signed by the Collector, conveying to him the lot, in full hereditary and transferable proprietory right, free for ever from all demand on account of Land Revenue, but subject nevertheless to all general taxes and local rates imposed by Law, and to any other claim whether of the Government or otherwise that may have been or may hereafter be established in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

10. If before the day of sale a claim of proprietory or occupative right in any part of the land be preferred, the Collector shall investigate the claim, and, if satisfied that it is groundless, shall reject it and proceed with the sale.

11. If on investigation any such claim should appear to be well grounded, the Collector may either reject the application for purchase of the lands, or refer it for the orders of the Commissioner. In the former case the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner.

12. The Commissioner may direct the Collector either to reject the application, or to proceed with the sale of the land, either unreservedly on the conditions prescribed in Rule 9, or, if any claim to right of proprietorship, occupancy, or use in any part of the lands be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, with a special reservation of such right, or exclusive of the area in which such right exists. If the application for purchase of the land be rejected, the amount deposited as cost of Survey will be forfeited.

13. On being put in possession of the lot, the purchaser shall be bound to erect as many substantial boundary marks of masonry as the Collector may think necessary.

14. If the land be purchased by any person other than the applicant, the estimated cost of Survey deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him.

15. The purchaser may, if he choose, pay the whole of the purchase money when the lot is sold or the Deed delivered to him. Or, if he choose, he may pay a portion, not being less than 10 per cent. at the time of sale, and the remainder in instalments at any future time, not being more than ten years from the date of sale. In the latter case simple interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. a year, will be charged on the unpaid portion of the purchase money, and the whole lot will remain hypothecated as security for the full discharge of the amount, including principal and interest, and be liable to sale by order of the Collector if the said amount be not paid within the stipulated period.

16. If the purchaser fails to pay one-tenth of the purchase money and all other expenses within three months from the day of sale, the lot will be put up to sale again on the same conditions as before, and sold at the risk of the first purchaser, whose deposit will also be forfeited.

17. The upset price will be calculated on the whole area of the lot without any deduction on any account whatever. Ordinarily the upset price will be 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre, but in special cases the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, may put a higher upset price on any lot, provided that the upset price of available waste lands shall in no case exceed 10 Rupees an acre.

18. If it should at any time be found that the same land has been included in more than one lot it shall be held to belong to the lot first sold, and all subsequent sales shall as regards such land become null and void. In the event of any dispute regarding the boundary of two or more adjoining lots, the Collector may, on the application of any one of the parties, re-adjust the boundaries of the lots, and his decision shall be final. The price paid by any subsequent purchaser for land thus excluded from his lot will be refunded to him with simple interest at 10 per cent.

19. All grants of waste land already made for a term of years under previously existing Rules, in which no right of occupancy or proprietorship exists, except that of the grantee or that derived from him, will be treated for the purposes of this Rule as if the land were permanently settled; and the grantees or their representatives may redeem the future land revenue of such grants or of any compact part of them in perpetuity for an amount equal to the present value of all future stipulated annual payments calculated at 5 per cent. interest, provided the said amount is not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area of which the revenue is redeemed.

20. All sales of waste land and all redemptions made under these Rules in each Division will be reported immediately to the Board of Revenue in such form as the Board may direct, but no sale of waste lands once made by a Collector in conformity with these Rules will be disturbed by any higher executive authority.

21. Reserves of grazing and forest land, of land for the growth of firewood near Towns and Stations, of building sites, parks, recreation grounds, and the like, and of land required for other special purposes, are not to be sold under these Rules without the express sanction of the Government. A list of these lands is under preparation by the Board of Revenue, and when it has been approved by the Government it will be published in the Gazette.

22. Lands for the purchase of which application has been made under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 will, if such application were duly registered, be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the said Resolution so far as the Law allows.

23. From and after the date of the promulgation of these Rules no fresh applications for grants of waste land under any previous Rules will be entertained.

By Order, &c.,

By Order of the Board of Revenue,
W. J. Herschel,
Offg. Junior Secretary.

Fort William,
The 12th Sept. 1862.

Notice to Claimants to Share in the Delhi and Lucknow Prize Properties.

Parties having claims on account of themselves, of those who served under them, of the Estates of deceased Officers and Soldiers, or of their Constituents to share in either of the above Prizes are requested to submit them, without further delay, accompanied by the necessary proofs, to the Prize Department of the Examiner's Office, No. 7, Middleton Row, Calcutta.

2. From the absence of the usual Rolls (the Returns during the period of the Mutiny reached very irregularly, and are, in very many cases, altogether wanting) it has been found impossible to compile a List of the parties entitled to share in the Delhie and Lucknow Prizes, and the Adjutant-General's Department has been unable to furnish a List of those entitled to additional shares by reason of their having held staff appointments and commands.

3. The number of persons entitled to share can therefore only be ascertained through the claims, supported by proofs, which are submitted. It is known that many claims have not been sent in (in the case of Corps and Detachments a report has been made to Government), and until the parties or their representatives submit them a final distribution of either the Delhie and Lucknow Prize cannot be made.

4. Each claim sent in must be supported by a Certificate shewing the dates between which the party was present at the operation for which the claim is made.

5. When additional shares beyond those of the Regimental rank of the party are claimed, a Certificate from a Staff or Commanding Officer must be attached, shewing the nature of the service and the date on which the claimant took charge and relinquished the duty.

6. When claims are submitted by representatives, a Power of Attorney must be sent, and in the case of Estates, when the President of the Committee of Adjustment or the Administrator-General does not claim, proof of the party being entitled to administer must be shewn.

7. It has been decided by the Law Authorities that there is no limit to the period during which claims can be submitted. It is therefore necessary to ascertain the number of probable claimants before a final settlement or even a second distribution can be made.

8. The distribution of the Pegu Prize is delayed by the absence of any Rolls of claimants of the Royal Navy. These have long since been applied for.

F. D. Atkinson, Lieut.-Col.,
Contlr. of Mily. Finance.

Notification.

In cancellation of Notification of this Department, under date the 9th March 1861, relative to the Stamps required on Powers of Attorney either for the realization of interest on, or for the sale of Government Promissory Notes, notice is hereby given that Powers of Attorney executed after the passing of Act X. of 1862 must be on Stamped Paper of the value prescribed in Article 43, Schedule A. of Act X. of 1862.

Schedule A., 43.—"Letter or Power of Attorney not being of the kinds provided for in Schedule B." ... Rs. 4

"If the Letter or Power of Attorney be
"for the performance of one act only, and
"the value of the property to be dealt with
"be expressed in the Letter or Power and
"do not exceed Rupees 500 ... „ 1

Copy of the Standing Counsel's Opinion on the point, dated 10th September 1862, is subjoined.—

Opinion.

I entirely agree in the conclusions in the within letter of July 29th. It is very clear that Schedule B, Clause 8, does not in any manner relate to these Powers of Attorney, but only to such as are required in the conduct of cases before Courts of Justice or Revenue Authorities; therefore the Stamp to be required in all cases for Powers to draw interest executed after Act X. of 1862 should be of (4) four Rupees except in the excepted instance at the end of Clause 43 of Schedule A, in which it ought to be a Stamp of one Rupee.

RULES

FOR THE

EXAMINATION AND CONTROL OF THE NEWLY-APPOINTED MEMBERS

OF THE

Bengal Civil Service.

THE following Rules are prescribed for the Examination of the newly-appointed Members of the Bengal Civil Service in the languages of India prevailing in the Presidency of Fort William, for their guidance and control, until declared qualified for the Public Service by knowledge of those languages, and for the discharge of other duties formerly performed by the Secretary and Examiners of the College of Fort William:—

I. There shall be a Board of Examiners in Calcutta, consisting of a President and as many Members, ex-officio or otherwise, as the Government may from time to time appoint, with a Secretary who may be also a Member of the Board.

II. For the more convenient dispatch of business the Board may form itself into Sub-Committees, each consisting of two or more of its Members, and the President shall appoint a Secretary to each Sub-Committee from among the Members of the Board and its Secretary. There shall be one Sub-Committee for the examination of Civil Servants by the qualification test and for honors, and for the performance of the other duties formerly discharged by the Examiners of the College of Fort William; and another Sub-Committee for the examination of Assistants. The correspondence and miscellaneous executive business of the Board shall be conducted by the Secretary acting under the orders of the President.

III. The President of the Board shall be the President of each Sub-Committee, and the act of each Sub-Committee shall be, and be described to be, the act of the Board.

IV. Every person appointed a Member of Her Majesty's Civil Service on the Bengal Establishment shall, immediately on his arrival in Calcutta, report himself in person to the Secretary to the Board.

V. Every such Civil Servant on his arrival in Calcutta, and until he is either attached to the Public Service or directed or permitted to proceed into the Interior, is under the orders and authority of the President of the Board of Examiners, and is bound to obey all orders, general or special, which he may receive from the President, either direct or through the Secretary to the Board. All such orders shall be regularly entered in an Order-Book to be kept by the Secretary.

VI. The newly-appointed Civil Servants will be allotted to the different Divisions of the Presidency in such proportions as may be determined from time to time by the Government of India. Applications for an exchange from one Division to another must be submitted to Government through the Board of Examiners.

VII. Every Civil Servant must qualify himself for the Public Service by knowledge of two languages according to the prescribed test. Those allotted to the Lower Provinces must qualify in Bengalee and Oordoo. Those allotted to the North-West Provinces, the Punjab, and Oude must qualify in Persian and Hindee.

VIII. There shall be a general monthly examination at the commencement of every calendar month, at which all unpassed Civil Servants, resident in or near Calcutta, are required to attend. Intermediate examinations are not to be held, except under peculiar circumstances, and with the express sanction of the President.

IX. Every Civil Servant is expected to pass the test of qualification in one language at or before the seventh general monthly examination, and in a second language at or before the thirteenth general monthly examination, after his arrival in India. Failing either of these expectations a Civil Servant will not be allowed to remain in Calcutta, but will be sent to complete his studies under some Civil Authority at a Station in the Interior.

X. On good cause being shewn a Civil Servant will be permitted to prosecute and complete his studies under some Civil Authority at a Station in the Interior.

XI. A Civil Servant who fails to pass the test in two languages within eighteen months from the date of the first monthly examination after his arrival in India (allowance being made for duly certified sickness) will, on the expiration of that period, be finally removed from the Service.

XII. No Civil Servant will be permitted to study for honors except in Calcutta, and unless he pass the test of qualification in two languages at or before the eighth general monthly examination after his arrival in India.

XIII. No Civil Servant will be permitted to continue studying for honors, of whom it is reported by the Board, in the General Examination Report of each month, that he is not making good progress, and is not likely, within the prescribed time, to obtain either a certificate of high proficiency or a degree of honor, as the case may be.

XIV. Twelve months from the first monthly examination after the date of arrival is the extreme period allowed for obtaining honors in one language, and eighteen months from the same date for obtaining honors in two or more languages.

XV. No Civil Servant who fails to obtain a certificate of high proficiency within eight months from the first monthly examination after arrival shall be permitted to study for honors in a second language.

XVI. The first language in which a Civil Servant will be permitted to study for honors in the vernacular language of the greater part of that Division of the Presidency to which he is allotted, that is to say, Bengalee for the Lower Provinces, and Hindee or Oordoo for the North-West Provinces, the Punjab, and Oude. After obtaining a degree of honor or a certificate of high proficiency in any one of these languages within the prescribed term, a Civil Servant may apply himself to the study of any other of the dead or living languages of India.

The examination for a degree of honor will be of a searching nature, and the exercises, both oral and written, must be performed with such excellence as distinctly to establish a claim to eminent proficiency.

XX. To every Civil Servant who gains a certificate of high proficiency there shall be awarded a donation of eight hundred Rupees, and a certificate under the signature of the President of the Board.

XXI. To every Civil Servant who gains a degree of honor there shall be awarded a donation of one thousand six hundred Rupees, and a Diploma under the signature of the head of the Government of India.

XXII. But two pecuniary rewards for the same language will not be given; and if, after obtaining a certificate of high proficiency, a Civil Servant becomes entitled to a degree of honor in the same language, he shall, on the second occasion, receive only the difference between the rewards attached to these two several distinctions.

XXIII. To every Civil Servant who passes the test of qualification in two languages at or before the fifth general monthly examination after his arrival, there shall be awarded a donation of eight hundred Rupees. To every Civil Servant who passes the test in one language with "marked proficiency" within the same time, there shall be awarded a Medal of Merit in that language, and if he passes also with "marked proficiency" in his second language at or before the eighth general monthly examination after his arrival, there shall be awarded to him a second Medal of Merit in that language.

XXIV. Certificates of high proficiency and Medals of Merit shall be delivered to those entitled to them by the President at a full Meeting of the Board. Degrees of honor will be conferred by the head of the Government in person.

XXV. When a Civil Servant has completed his course of study, and has been attached to one or other Division of the Presidency for employment in the Public Service, he shall receive from the Secretary to the Board of Examiners a certificate specifying the proficiency he may have acquired, the rewards adjudged to him, and the general tenor of his conduct while engaged in his studies.

XXVI. No Civil Servant unattached shall reside out of Calcutta or its vicinity, including a circle with a radius of five miles from Government House, without the permission of the Government. Every instance in which this Rule is transgressed shall be reported to the Government by the Secretary to the Board.

XXVII. Any young Civil Servant who may be guilty of any irregular or indecorous conduct which may not appear to call for a report to Government, shall be admonished by the President. But serious instances of wilful disobedience, or of disorderly and unbecoming conduct, shall be reported for the information and orders of the Government.

XXVIII. Whenever it may appear to the Secretary or to any Member of the Board of Examiners that a young Civil Servant is likely, from expensive habits, from idleness, or any improper indulgences to incur debt, or otherwise to disgrace himself and set an injurious example to others, a report shall be made to the President, and the President, after admonition, shall, if he think necessary, report the matter for the information of the Government.

XXIX. The contracting of debt by the Civil Servants of Her Majesty is prohibited. Those who enter the Public Service under pecuniary embarrassment, implying the contraction of habits of prodigality, will be held to be disqualified for employment of trust and confidence so long as those habits and embarrassments continue.

XXX. Every Junior Civil Servant shall supply himself, at his own cost, with Grammars, Dictionaries, and text-books. A supply of the books in use will be generally kept on sale at cost price in the College Library.

XXXI. The Accounts of the Office of the Secretary to the Board of Examiners will be kept, audited, and rendered in the same manner as those of the late College of Fort William.

XXXII. They are not permitted to quit the Station and its vicinity without the sanction of the Government.

XXXIII. The examination of unpassed Civil Servants in the Interior will be conducted as at present by means of written papers prepared by the Board, and forwarded under seal by the Board's Secretary to the Chief Civil Authority of the Station

XXXIV. Civil Servants will receive, from the date of their arrival in the country until they pass the test of qualification in one language, a salary of 250 Rupees a month, and so long as they remain in Calcutta an allowance of 80 Rupees for house-rent. After passing the test in one language they will receive, until attached to the Public Service, a salary of 300 Rupees a month, and, while they remain in Calcutta, 80 Rupees as house-rent.

XXXV. Native Teachers will be allowed to the young Civil Servants at the public expense. In Calcutta each Civil Servant will be at liberty to entertain a Moonshee or a Pundit according to the language he is studying, and every such Teacher will receive from the Secretary to the Board of Examiners the authorized allowance (30 Rupees a month) on the production of a certificate duly attested by the Student on whom he may have attended. An examination for admitting Moonshees and Pundits will be held by the Board from time to time, and only such as gain testimonials of qualification to teach shall be eligible for employment by the Students. A testimonial is to be given for each language in which, on examination, qualification is established, the test for such examination being the same as that laid down for a degree of honor including a fair knowledge of English. One Moonshee or Pundit will not be allowed to draw pay for more than three Students in one month.

XXXVI. In the Interior the choice of the Moonshee or Pundit will be subject to the approval of the Chief Civil Authority, and on the production of a like certificate, the authorized allowance will be paid by the Collector of the District and debited in his accounts to the Secretary to the Board of Examiners.

XXXVII. No medical certificate furnished by an unpassed Civil Servant in proof of inability either to prosecute his studies or to attend Examination shall be held to be of any effect, unless it distinctly states, from personal observation, the nature of the illness in question, as well as the symptoms by which it has been manifested, and the period during which it has existed and incapacitated the Civil Servant from study; nor unless it is signed by a Presidency Surgeon, or, in the case of a Student studying at a Station in the Interior, by the Medical Officer of the Station, and countersigned by the Superintending Surgeon; nor unless it is transmitted to the Secretary to the Board of Examiners within one month from the period of sickness to which it refers.

XXXVIII. Any unpassed Civil Servant who may be prevented by temporary indisposition, duly certified as above, from attending any Examination, having failed to pass at which, such Civil Servant would, under Section IX. of these Rules, be required to leave Calcutta, shall be required to undergo a special examination on the expiry of a period equal to that which is covered by his medical certificate.

ORDERS by the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR of BENGAL.

NOTIFICATION.

Sylhet, 30th August 1862.

The following Rules for the sale of unassessed waste lands, and for the redemption of the revenue of such lands already granted for a term of years, in the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal, are published for general information :—

Rule 1.—All unassessed waste lands in which no right of proprietorship or exclusive occupancy is known to exist, or to have existed and to be capable of revival, are available for purchase under these Rules, unless specially reserved under Rule 21.

2. No greater quantity of land than three thousand acres shall be sold in one lot except with the express sanction of the Government. If for special reasons, in particular localities, a lower maximum area than three thousand acres should be determined upon, it will be duly notified hereafter.

3. Every lot shall be compact and shall include no more than one tract of land in a ring fence; and when the land touches a Public Road or a Navigable River, the length of the Road or River frontage shall not exceed one-half the depth of the lot. No lot will be sold unless it has been previously surveyed and demarcated, or until it shall have been surveyed and demarcated in consequence of an application for purchase. The Survey need only be in sufficient detail to ensure the ready identification of the boundaries of the lot, and to ascertain its gross area. If on completion of the Survey it shall appear that the area of the lot applied for exceeds the prescribed maximum the excess shall be excluded.

4. Applications for the purchase of waste land shall be made to the Collector of the District, and every application shall contain the following particulars:—

1*st*.—The estimated area of the land applied for.

2*nd*.—The situation of the land and its boundaries as accurately as can be ascertained.

5. If the Collector be satisfied that the land applied for is available for purchase and within the conditions prescribed in Rules 2 and 3, and if it have been previously surveyed and demarcated, he shall advertise the lot for sale on a given day at an upset price of not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area. The advertisement shall be published in the Collector's Office, in the Court of the Principal Judicial Officer of the District, and at the Moonsiff's Court (if there be one) and Police Station within the limits of which the lands are situated.

6. If the Collector be satisfied as above and if the land have not been surveyed, he shall cause it to be surveyed and its boundaries demarcated, the estimated cost of such survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant. On the completion of the Survey the advertisement of sale shall be published as above.

7. The day of sale to be named in the advertisement shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication, and the sale shall be held at the Collector's Office. The sale may be postponed if in the Collector's judgment it be necessary, due notice being always given of the date on which the sale will be held.

8. If before the day of sale no claim of proprietory, or occupative, right in the land be preferred, the lot shall be sold by auction to the highest bidder above the upset price, or to the applicant at the upset price if there be no higher bid.

9. On payment of one-tenth of the purchase money and of all expenses of survey, demarcation, advertisement, and sale, the purchaser shall receive a Deed (in a form which will hereafter be issued by the Board of Revenue) signed by the Collector, conveying to him the lot, in full hereditary and transferable proprietory right, free for ever from all demand on account of Land Revenue, but subject nevertheless to all general taxes and local rates imposed by Law, and to any other claim whether of the Government or otherwise that may have been or may hereafter be established in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

10. If before the day of sale a claim of proprietory or occupative right in any part of the land be preferred, the Collector shall investigate the claim, and, if satisfied that it is groundless, shall reject it and proceed with the sale.

11. If on investigation any such claim should appear to be well grounded, the Collector may either reject the application for purchase of the lands, or refer it for the orders of the Commissioner. In the former case the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner.

12. The Commissioner may direct the Collector either to reject the application, or to proceed with the sale of the land, either unreservedly on the conditions prescribed in Rule 9, or, if any claim to right of proprietorship, occupancy, or use in any part of the lands be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, with a special reservation of such right, or exclusive of the area in which such right exists. If the application for purchase of the land be rejected, the amount deposited as cost of Survey will be forfeited.

13. On being put in possession of the lot, the purchaser shall be bound to erect as many substantial boundary marks of masonry as the Collector may think necessary.

14. If the land be purchased by any person other than the applicant, the estimated cost of Survey deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him.

15. The purchaser may, if he choose, pay the whole of the purchase money when the lot is sold or the Deed delivered to him. Or, if he choose, he may pay a portion, not being less than 10 per cent. at the time of sale, and the remainder in instalments at any future time, not being more than ten years from the date of sale. In the latter case simple interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. a year, will be charged on the unpaid portion of the purchase money, and the whole lot will remain hypothecated as security for the full discharge of the amount, including principal and interest, and be liable to sale by order of the Collector if the said amount be not paid within the stipulated period.

16. If the purchaser fails to pay one-tenth of the purchase money and all other expenses within three months from the day of sale, the lot will be put up to sale again on the same conditions as before, and sold at the risk of the first purchaser, whose deposit will also be forfeited.

17. The upset price will be calculated on the whole area of the lot without any deduction on any account whatever. Ordinarily the upset price will be 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre, but in special cases the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, may put a higher upset price on any lot, provided that the upset price of available waste lands shall in no case exceed 10 Rupees an acre.

18. If it should at any time be found that the same land has been included in more than one lot it shall be held to belong to the lot first sold, and all subsequent sales shall as regards such land become null and void. In the event of any dispute regarding the boundary of two or more adjoining lots, the Collector may, on the application of any one of the parties, re-adjust the boundaries of the lots, and his decision shall be final. The price paid by any subsequent purchaser for land thus excluded from his lot will be refunded to him with simple interest at 10 per cent.

19. All grants of waste land already made for a term of years under previously existing Rules, in which no right of occupancy or proprietorship exists, except that of the grantee or that derived from him, will be treated for the purposes of this Rule as if the land were permanently settled; and the grantees or their representatives may redeem the future land revenue of such grants or of any compact part of them in perpetuity for an amount equal to the present value of all future stipulated annual payments calculated at 5 per cent. interest, provided the said amount is not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area of which the revenue is redeemed.

20. All sales of waste land and all redemptions made under these Rules in each Division will be reported immediately to the Board of Revenue in such form as the Board may direct, but no sale of waste lands once made by a Collector in conformity with these Rules will be disturbed by any higher executive authority.

21. Reserves of grazing and forest land, of land for the growth of firewood near Towns and Stations, of building sites, parks, recreation grounds, and the like, and of land required for other special purposes, are not to be sold under these Rules without the express sanction of the Government. A list of these lands is under preparation by the Board of Revenue, and when it has been approved by the Government it will be published in the Gazette.

22. Lands for the purchase of which application has been made under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 will, if such application were duly registered, be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the said Resolution so far as the Law allows.

23. From and after the date of the promulgation of these Rules no fresh applications for grants of waste land under any previous Rules will be entertained.

By Order, &c.,

J. D. Gordon,

Offg. Junior Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

CALCUTTA,
The 15th September 1862.

Notice to Claimants to Share in the Delhi and Lucknow Prize Properties.

PARTIES having claims on account of themselves, of those who served under them, of the Estates of deceased Officers and Soldiers, or of their Constituents to share in either of the above Prizes are requested to submit them, without further delay, accompanied by the necessary proofs, to the Prize Department of the Examiner's Office, No. 7, Middleton Row, Calcutta.

2. From the absence of the usual Rolls (the Returns during the period of the Mutiny reached very irregularly, and are, in very many cases, altogether wanting) it has been found impossible to compile a List of the parties entitled to share in the Delhie and Lucknow Prizes, and the Adjutant-General's Department has been unable to furnish a List of those entitled to additional shares by reason of their having held staff appointments and commands.

3. The number of persons entitled to share can therefore only be ascertained through the claims, supported by proofs, which are submitted. It is known that many claims have not been sent in (in the case of Corps and Detachments a report has been made to Government), and until the parties or their representatives submit them a final distribution of either the Delhie and Lucknow Prize cannot be made.

4. Each claim sent in must be supported by a Certificate shewing the dates between which the party was present at the operation for which the claim is made.

5. When additional shares beyond those of the Regimental rank of the party are claimed, a Certificate from a Staff or Commanding Officer must be attached, shewing the nature of the service and the date on which the claimant took charge and relinquished the duty.

6. When claims are submitted by representatives, a Power of Attorney must be sent, and in the case of Estates, when the President of the Committee of Adjustment or the Administrator-General does not claim, proof of the party being entitled to administer must be shewn.

7. It has been decided by the Law Authorities that there is no limit to the period during which claims can be submitted. It is therefore necessary to ascertain the number of probable claimants before a final settlement or even a second distribution can be made.

8. The distribution of the Pegu Prize is delayed by the absence of any Rolls of claimants of the Royal Navy. These have long since been applied for.

F. D. ATKINSON, Lieut.-Col.,
Contlr. of Mily. Finance.

Notification.

IN cancellation of Notification of this Department, under date the 9th March 1861, relative to the Stamps required on Powers of Attorney either for the realization of interest on, or for the sale of Government Promissory Notes, notice is hereby given that Powers of Attorney executed after the passing of Act X. of 1862 must be on Stamped Paper of the value prescribed in Article 43, Schedule A. of Act X. of 1862.

Schedule A., 43.—"Letter or Power of Attorney not being of the kinds provided for in Schedule B." ... Rs. 4

"If the Letter or Power of Attorney be
"for the performance of one act only, and
"the value of the property to be dealt with
"be expressed in the Letter or Power and
"do not exceed Rupees 500 ... „ 1

OPINION.

I entirely agree in the conclusions in the within letter of July 29th. It is very clear that Schedule B, Clause 8, does not in any manner relate to these Powers of Attorney, but only to such as are required in the conduct of cases before Courts of Justice or Revenue Authorities ; therefore the Stamp to be required in all cases for Powers to draw interest executed after Act X. of 1862 should be of (4) four Rupees except in the excepted instance at the end of Clause 43 of Schedule A, in which it ought to be a Stamp of one Rupee.

J. I. HARVEY,
Offg. Acctt.-Genl. to the Govt. of India.

FORT WILLIAM ;
Loan Office.

Government of India, Home Department.

Report on the operation of the Collectorate Presses in Madras.

From T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department,—(No. 1671, dated 5th August 1862.)

WITH reference to Mr. Secretary Grey's letter of the 24th July 1861, No. 1407, I am directed to forward, for publication in the Supplement to the Calcutta Gazette, the accompanying Memorandum explaining the use and cost of the Collectorate Presses now in operation throughout this Presidency, with other general information on the same subject.

2. A Circular Order of the Board of Revenue, containing the forms in use for keeping account of the work performed and for submitting to the Controlling Authorities the working of the Presses, is also enclosed.

3. Under the instructions of His Excellency the Governor in Council, I have further the honor to enclose a specimen copy of one of the District Gazettes, which form the most remarkable and important use to which the Presses have been put.

MEMORANDUM.

1. A Printing Press is now in operation at the Head-Quarters of every Collectorate in the Madras Presidency.

2. The Presses and materials were supplied by Government at the public expense, but the working expenses were provided for by reductions in the Collector's Establishments. The Presses are chiefly used for the Collectors' Offices, but a considerable amount of work is also done for the other Public Departments in the Districts, viz., the Judicial, Public Works, Educational, Military, and Postal, and charged for at established rates. When not employed for Public Offices, the Presses take in work for private individuals who pay at the same rates, and the sums realized are credited in each District to a Fund, which is left at the disposal of the Collector for Press purposes, an Annual Report on the operation of the Press being submitted to Government through the Board of Revenue from each District.

3. THE OBJECTS WHICH THEY ARE MADE TO SERVE.—Of the objects which these Presses are made to serve the following are among the most important:—(1) The printing of Circular Orders issued by the Collector and Magistrate in the Revenue, Police, and Postal Departments to his various Subordinates. In former days the preparation of these Circular Orders, after the draft had been passed, was necessarily left to irresponsible volunteers, as the permanent Establishment were unable to spare time for the purpose. The work was consequently imperfectly performed, and the orders were despatched with numerous omissions and inaccuracies, a state of things which has now been completely remedied. (2.) The preparation of printed forms for letters of constant recurrence, and of the headings and forms for various periodical Returns, which not only ensures uniformity, but economises time and labor. (3.) The circulation of printed copies to every village of all Acts and Proclamations which materially affect the inhabitants, and which formerly it was all but impossible to make generally known. (4.) The preparation of printed forms for the various Public Departments. (5.) Re-printing such of the Collectorate Records as are of value.

4. But probably the most important use to which the District Presses are at present put is the publication of the District Gazettes, which are now issued in all Districts of this Presidency. These Gazettes are published under the authority of the Collector and Magistrate in diglott, one version in the Vernacular of the District and the English translation appearing in parallel columns. They are published weekly and contain appointments, promotions, returns from leave, dismissals, suspensions, punishments, deaths, resignations, &c., among the District Government servants, and other information likely to interest or prove useful to the people, such as Revenue, Police, and Magisterial Orders, Notifications of the sale of land for arrears of revenue, with the result of such sales, Advertisements of the sale and conditions of certain Government Farms, translations of the Circular Orders of the Board of Revenue and the Sudder Adawlut, and of the more important enactments, as well as of such sentences and decisions of the Courts as are of general interest. They are supplied gratis to a large number of the officials of the District, and copies are sent to the Collectors of other Districts as well as to the Government, Board of Revenue, and other Departments. The price to Subscribers is fixed at a very moderate rate, and Village Officers are allowed to subscribe on still lower terms.

5. ARRANGEMENTS UNDER WHICH THEY ARE WORKED.—As before stated the Establishment for the working of the Press was originally provided for by reducing the number of hands in those Departments where the work was diminished; but in the recent revision of Revenue Establishments a fixed Establishment, as permargin, has been provided, at a cost of Rupees 125 per mensem, or Rupees 1,500 per annum, for each Collectorate. The Head Compositor acts as Foreman, and the Department is placed under the immediate superintendence of the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury who never leaves Head-Quarters.

1 Compositor	25
2 Ditto, at 15 Rupees ...	30
1 Pressman ...	12

6. ORIGINAL COST OF ESTABLISHING THEM.—The original estimate for wooden Presses with materials was Rupees 1,000 for each District; but Government decided on a superior description of Press, and the estimate was raised to Rupees 1,500, as per margin, and the actual eventual cost to Government may be roughly stated at Rupees 2,000 for each District, for it was found that various articles not included in the original estimate were subsequently required.

English types, cases, &c... ...	350

7. COST OF MAINTAINING THEM.—The cost of maintaining the Presses may now be said to have been brought down to the minimum, for though at their first institution the charges in one or two Districts exceeded the receipts, the last General Report for 1860-61 on the subject shews that the gross income of the year exceeded the charges by Rupees 2,255, the balance of the previous year, Rupees 10,418, remaining untouched, and no credit being taken for any work done for Government. At the same time it should be stated that the cost of permanent Establishments is not included in these charges, having been originally met by a reduction in the Collector's Office, and being therefore considered as a set off to the salaries of the servants that were then abolished, which salaries are similarly excluded from the credit side of the accounts. The cost of the nineteen Presses in operation in 1860-61, on account of extra Establishment, stock, and contingencies, amounted in the whole year to Rupees 9,205, making an average for each of Rupees 484. Thus the actual expenses of each Press, including its permanent Establishment, may be computed at Rupees 1,984, but a large portion of this sum is recovered from the Press earnings. The Collectors have now been provided generally with the necessary supply of stock from the public funds, and in a financial point of view the Presses may be considered as self-supporting. Renewal of the Presses will of course be necessary hereafter; but against this there will be the set off of value of work done for, but not charged to, Government, and the saving of Establishment which, but for these useful appendages to the Collectorate Offices, would certainly have to be augmented, so greatly has public business increased of late years.

8. After a careful consideration of prices to be charged for printing, whether to private individuals or for the purpose of estimating the value of the work done for Government, the Board circulated the marginal table with reference to the rates charged in private Printing Offices, and these are the rates now charged, and the whole of the work done at the Collectorate Presses is calculated at these rates for the purposes of account.

9. It has been estimated that it will occupy a good Compositor about the same time to put in type a page of plain matter as it would take an ordinary writer to produce three copies by transcription; and the examination and correction of the copies may be estimated to occupy the same time as the correction of the Press and the striking off, so that if four copies are required of any document it may be assumed that the cost of printing it will not be in excess of that of making manuscript copies. The great advantages of print over manuscript as to the facility with which it is read, the saving of paper, lessening of weight for postage, and its superiority for purposes of record should all be considered in making a comparison of the relative advantages of the processes of copying or printing, though in the Collectorates the Presses are more particularly employed in printing forms than plain matter.

Sub-Secretary.

CIRCULAR.

No. 2016.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, DATED 25TH APRIL 1860.

READ the following Proceedings of Madras Government, dated 28th March 1860, No. 473, Revenue Department:—

(In Con. 30th March 1860, No. 1457.)

ORDERED, that copies of the Forms and of the 16th January 1860, No. 212. Board's Proceedings, as well as the above Order of Government, be circulated to all the Collectors, with a request that the new Forms, &c., be brought into operation from the commencement of the ensuing official year.

2. In estimating the value of Printing, whether private or public work, the Table attached to paragraph 4 of the Board's letter to Government will, in future, be used. The Board hope that this will greatly reduce the labor of calculation.

3. The Gazettes should in future be published only in the Vernacular District instead of in diglott; but under the head of Contents a clear and concise abstract of each article published in the Gazette should be given. When any important Notification or Circular Order is issued by the Collectors affecting the Revenue system or the interests of the Ryots a full translation of the same should follow the Vernacular, and in such cases the words "with English translation," should be added to the Abstract given under the head of Contents. The Collectors will be particularly careful to see that this is properly attended to.

4. A List of the Officers to whom the District Gazettes should be supplied gratis is given below. The Collectors will strictly adhere to it in the distribution of Gazettes from the ensuing official year:—

In Inland Districts one weekly* and six† monthly Returns only are applicable. Of the eight monthly Statements three‡ will be published in each of the two first issues, and two§ on the third issue. This should be done with regularity. If there is nothing to be entered in any of the Statements the circumstance should be mentioned in the proper place of the Gazette. A separate Statement of cultivation need not be sent to be Board as heretofore, as the one published in the Gazette will answer their purpose.

‡ C., D., and E. F., G., and H.
§ I. and J.

7. Blank Statements should be kept at the Press, and every month the figures only should be altered. By this means much labor will be saved and timely publication of the Returns ensured.

8. The Collectors will carefully attend to the instructions given in paragraph 8 of the Proceedings of Government, dated 20th September 1859, regarding the publication in their Gazette of the Civil and Criminal cases disposed of. Notices of the dates of preliminary and other hearings, decisions or sentences passed in important cases, translations of Circular Orders of the Sudder Adawlut, as well as translations of all important Acts, and notices of all intended Government sales of land, and the results of such sales should be also invariably published in the Gazettes. Whenever the Abkarree or other sources of Revenues are to be rented out notices should appear in them. The Board hope that every effort will be made to render the Gazettes really useful to the Public.

9. Another point to which the Board wish to call the particular attention of the Collectors is the printing of important and valuable Official Records for more convenient reference, as noticed by Government in paragraph 10 of the Order already quoted. The Board regret that, except in Ganjam and Malabar, nothing has been done yet in this respect, and the Collectors will call upon their Treasury Deputies to prepare immediately lists of such papers, and will submit the lists for the information of the Board.

10. The enclosure No. 2 contains six Forms, A. to F., of Registers, &c., to be kept by the Collectors in connection with the Press. These Forms have been filled up with hypothetical entries so as to render them easily intelligible. The necessary blank Forms will therefore be printed in the Collector's Press, and it will be the duty of the Deputy Collector in charge of Treasury to see that these Registers are correctly filled up and not allowed to fall into arrear. They should be introduced from the beginning of the next official year. The Returns marked C. and F. only are to be despatched to the Board. The Statements of the operations of the Presses in the several Districts for the official year 1859-60, just expiring, should be submitted to the Board in the new Forms with a brief Report from the Collectors, and should be despatched by the end of May next. Future Reports should be sent by the 15th of May, the date prescribed by Government.

11. The Board trust that the instructions given in these Proceedings will be promptly attended to by the Deputy Collectors in charge of Treasuries, and that these Officers will take particular care that the Presses placed under their charge are efficiently worked and improved.

No. 212.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th January 1860.

Read again the Proceedings of Government, dated 20th September 1859, Revenue Department, No. 1269.

(In Con. 21st September 1859, No. 4725.)

The Board proceed to reply to the several points noticed by Government in the above Proceedings, and to apply for their instructions on such other points as call for them.

2. In paragraph 2 the Government, with reference to the Abstract given by the Board of the value of work performed by each District Press, enquire whether it was estimated by the same scale in all cases, as great variation is observable in the several Districts. It is believed by the Board that this value is estimated everywhere with reference to the Paper of Instructions furnished by the Superintendent of Gazette Press, which was circulated to the Collectors with the Board's Circular, dated 10th September 1856.

Circular Order Book, page 83.

If the value of the work done in some Districts is much less than that of others, it must be owing to the more restricted operations of the Press. In some Districts the Establishment is small and the Press is confined to the Office work of the Collector. In others, as its operations are extended to other Departments, the work and its value are also considerably increased.

3. The Board, however, doubt whether the Paper of Instructions above alluded to can be of much use to the Collectors in calculating easily the value of work done. No fixed rates are given in it for each kind of work in a Foolscap page. It contains indeed the principles upon which the value of Printing is estimated at the Government Press Office, Madras. In paragraph 3 of this paper it is stated that the rate at which the work is estimated here is 10 annas per 1,000 letters for 250 impressions; but the Table annexed to the 4th paragraph contains various rates for 250 copies ranging from 1 to 5 Rupees, with an addition of one-eighth for every additional 50 copies. Paragraph 6 points out the mode in which the number of letters in a page can be obtained approximately, and paragraphs 7 to 10 shew what number of letters a solid Foolscap page is supposed to contain, what would be its supposed cost, and how the cost would be reduced in leaded pages. A solid page, with these allowances, is considered worth Rupees 3-3. At the end of paragraph 8 the Rule given is that when pages are double-leaded and spaced between paragraphs still more widely a further proportionate reduction must be made. In paragraph 11 the principle laid down for Statements is that they are charged at a higher rate than plain matter. In respect to Blank Forms the value should be calculated (paragraph 12) with reference to the amount of labor their production involves.

4. However valuable this paper may be for the correct understanding of the general principles observed in estimating the value of printing, it is, in the Board's opinion, not one that can be readily acted upon in the Provinces without much difficulty and thought. What is wanted is a simple Table shewing the rates which are to be charged for a full page, plain and tabular, of Foolscap paper, which is the size for the most part used in the Provinces. The Board have, with reference to the rates charged in private Presses, framed the following Table of Rates for different languages, which appear to be moderate. If the Government approve of it, it may be circulated for the guidance of the Collectors. The paper furnished by the Superintendent will generally assist them in determining approximately the fraction of Foolscap page when a portion only is printed, or when a page consists of both plain and tabular matter.

Table for estimating the value of printing a full page of Foolscap spaced out in the usual way.

Note.—For half-tabular Statements the cost of plain matter with an addition of one-third should be charged. Thus, if the cost of a page of plain matter be 2½ Rupees, the charge for a page of blank form will be Rupees 3-5-4. If they are merely blank form containing only headings across the page one-fourth should be added, then the charge would be Rupees 3-2-0.

5. With reference to paragraph 4 Collectors will be instructed to publish their Gazettes in future only in the vernacular of the District, and to give under the head of "Contents" in the last page a clear but concise abstract of each separate article.

6. As requested in paragraph 5 the Board beg to annex a list of the Officers in all Departments to whom the Gazette should, in their opinion, be supplied gratis. After it has been approved of by Government the Collectors will be directed to adhere to it. Even in Districts where there may be a number of Police Ameens, Salt and Sea Custom Superintendents, the number will not exceed 100.

7. The Board acknowledge the concession granted by Government in paragraph 6 respecting Gazettes subscribed for by the registered Heads of Villages and Karnams. The Board trust that this will prove the means of encouraging a wider circulation of the Gazettes in the Districts, and thereby diffusing much useful information among the people.

8. Adverting to paragraph 7 the Board observe that the rates of subscription for the District Gazettes range from 1 to 4 annas per mensem, and in three Districts the Gazettes are published only fortnightly. For the sake of uniformity, and for other obvious reasons, the Board propose to instruct all the Collectors to publish their Gazettes weekly on every Saturday without fail. The Board think that the rate of subscription should be so moderate as to encourage the largest possible number of the inhabitants of each District to make use of the paper. The paper is published chiefly for the use of Public Officers in the Districts, and is confined almost entirely to pure official matters; and it is a great object gained if it is widely circulated among the people concerned in its contents. On such considerations the Board think that a rate of 3 annas per month for subscribers other than the village servants, and 2 annas for the village servants, will be suitable. A higher rate than 3 annas per mensem to private individuals will probably deter subscribers, as they have also to bear the cost of postage. The reduced rate of 2 annas, without payment of postage, to village servants, will, it may be expected, induce many to subscribe. Spare copies will be charged at 1 anna each. The Board submit the proposition for the approval of Government.

9. The Board are of the same opinion as expressed by Government in paragraph 9, that much useless matter is often published in the Gazettes. The attention of the Collectors will be drawn to this point. In view to useful information being published in all the Gazettes periodically on a uniform principle, the Board have prepared a set of forms of Tabular Statements which they annex. They are ten* in number, of which two are weekly and nine monthly. In each issue three Statements may be published. The labor of composing these Statements every month can be saved by allowing the forms once composed to stand, and they will then require only the alteration of the figures. The Board think that the publication of such Statements will not only be found useful in the District in many respects, but also secure the observance of system and regularity in the transaction of public business. They, however, submit these Forms for the consideration and approval of Government. Besides these periodical Statements they also propose to instruct the Collectors to publish in their Gazettes notices of all intended Government sales of land, and also the results of such sales, and other similar information of public importance which may occur to them.

* In MS.

Enclosure 1.

10. Adverting to paragraph 13 the Board have prepared a set of forms† of Registers to be kept by the Collectors in connexion with the Press. The forms are so devised that their totals may, without intermediate calculation, form the entries for the annual Statements. Imaginary entries have been made in them to render them so clearly intelligible that there may be no excuse for mistakes. Of the first five forms copy of only one, marked C., is intended to be sent to the Board, which is the same as the Form No. 1 furnished by Government. The last Return, marked F., is to be prepared in the Collector's Office from the Registers D. and E., and despatched to the Board to enable them to compile the Statement No. 2 prescribed by Government. As these forms are, however, to be circulated to the Collectors with a Circular to be prepared after the receipt of the reply of Government to these Proceedings on several other points, the Board think it proper to submit them also for the approval of Government.

† In MS.

11. In the instructions set down at the foot of Statement No. 1 it is stated that the value in column 9 should include the subscription price for both the free and payment copies. The object of this is not apparent. The Board consider that the column in question should simply shew, as in other cases, the actual value of the printing of the Gazettes calculated according to the Table of Rates, and they beg to be informed if they are correct in this opinion.

12. In the foot-note of Statement No. 2, furnished by Government, column 7 is required to include the value of the paper actually used during the year. The Board are of opinion that the cost of the paper which is supplied by each Department, whether Revenue, Judicial, or any other, for which work is performed, does not properly form a part of the Press Contingent charges It is supplied from time to time, as occasion arises, from the general Stock purchased for the use of each Department, and the cost of the paper expended is included in the general Sadirwarid charges. The inclusion of a portion of this in the Press Contingent charges will unnecessarily swell this last item, and will not represent the bonâ fide charge of the Press. The orders of Government are requested on this point.

13 Immediately after the receipt of the instruction of Government on the several points noticed in these Proceedings a Circular containing full instructions will be issued to the Collectors on the subject with all the forms, and with such other orders as may appear necessary.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue :—

Replying to several points noticed by Government in their Proceedings of the 20th September 1859, Revenue Department, No 1269, relative to the working of the Collectorate Presses, and submitting for approval a set of Tabular Statements proposed to be published in the District Gazettes, and another set of forms of Registers to be kept by the Collectors in connection with the Press. } (Here enter 16th January 1860, No. 212.)

ORDER THEREON, 28TH MARCH 1860, No. 473

In these Proceedings the Board reply to the several remarks of Government in their Review* of the Annual Report on the working of the District Presses for 1857-58.

* Proceedings dated 20th September 1859, No. 1269.

2. In paragraphs 3 and 4 the Board point out that the Table of Rates for valuing Printing furnished to Collectors in September 1856,† is not one that can be used in the Provinces without much difficulty, and propose another in lieu. This latter, which values the work at so much for an entire Foolscap page, without any measuring and but little calculation, is certainly simpler and easier to use than the one formerly ordered, and the Government authorize its adoption accordingly.

† Board's Circular Order Book, page 83.

3. The list of Officers to whom it is proposed to furnish District Gazettes gratis, appended to paragraph 6 of the Board's Proceedings, is approved with a few exceptions, viz., Collector's Accountant, Sub-Inspectors of Schools, Talook Serishtadars and Chief Secretary to Government. The copy furnished to the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury will generally be filed and kept in the Accountant's Department, and a separate copy for the latter is not necessary; there will seldom be anything in the Gazettes that the Sub-Inspector of Schools requires to know; and the Tehsildar's copy must be available for the whole Talook Establishment, inclusive of Serishtadars.

4. In paragraph 8 the Board propose—

1*st.*—That the Gazette in every District be published every Saturday.

2*ndly.*—That 3 annas per mensem for Subscribers other than village servants, and 2 annas for village servants, be fixed as the subscription for the Gazettes; and

3*rdly.*—The spare copies be charged at 1 anna each.

These rates are approved.

5. The Government see no objection to the periodical publication of Statements, of which the Board submit forms. A few suggestions occur for the improvement of the forms; these will be be communicated to the Board in a separate Memorandum for their consideration.

6. The forms of Registers alluded to in paragraph 10 of the Board's Proceedings are approved.

7. With reference to paragraph 11 the Government observe that it is in column 10 and not 9 of Statement No. 1 that they desire the subscription for the free copies of the District Gazette to be included. They still adhere to that mode of valuation, for to arrive at a correct financial result of the working of the Presses, the Gazettes, as well as every work, should be charged to Government in the same manner as is done to private individuals.

8. The Government concur in the opinion expressed by the Board in paragraph 12, that the value of paper should be excluded from Press Contingent charges.

9. The other parts of the Board's Proceedings require no special remarks and are approved.

Government of Bengal.

Report on the experimental Cultivation of the Quiniferous Cinchonæ in British Sikhim.

From T. ANDERSON, ESQ., M. D., Officiating Superintendent, Botanic Gardens, Calcutta, to H. BELL, ESQ., Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal,—(No. 10, dated Darjeeling, the 6th August 1862.)

SIR,—I HAVE the honor to submit a Report on the experiment of cultivating the Quiniferous Cinchonæ, in British Sikhim, from the 24th March until the 1st August. The Report shews that the experiment was actually commenced on the 27th May, on which day there were 211 plants of the different species of Cinchona, and that on the 1st August there were in all 1,611 plants in the Nursery.

Report on the Cultivation of the Quiniferous Cinchonæ, in British Sikhim, from the 24th March to the 1st August 1862.

THE plants of Cinchona which had been collected in the Botanic Gardens, Calcutta, from Java and Ootacamund, as well as those raised from seeds in the Botanic Gardens during the previous year, were sent by Railway to Sahebgunge on the 24th March in charge of Mr. Thomas Stubbs, a European Gardener, accompanied by two Mallees from the Botanic Gardens. All the plants were contained in thirteen Wardian cases. Some of the plants were in earthen, others in bamboo pots; almost all those of Cinchona Succirubra were planted in the soil contained in the cases. The following Table shews the number of plants of each species despatched from Calcutta on the above date:—

No delay occurred at Sahebgunge; the plants were taken by the small Ferry Steamer across the Ganges to Caragolah Ghaut. They remained there until the afternoon of the 29th March. The distance from Caragolah Ghaut to Purneah, twenty-four miles, was performed very slowly. Some of the Wardian cases started from Caragolah on the afternoon of the 29th, not arriving at Purneah till noon on the 31st. This delay was caused by the inefficient Coolies provided for the transport of the cases. Many of them were children of twelve and fourteen years of age, who were not even tall enough to lift the cases from the ground. The result was that eighteen hours after the plants had started from Caragolah Ghaut, I found two of the cases at distances of four and six miles from Caragolah Ghaut fully exposed to the burning heat of the sun, the Coolies lying by them completely exhausted. Two carts were procured from a neighbouring village, but this means of conveyance was so slow that twenty hours more elapsed before the cases reached Purneah. The plants arrived flaccid and drooping from the effects of the exposure and the jolting; but, with a single exception, they all recovered before they left Purneah. At Purneah some delay occurred, but this I did not regret, as Mr. Robinson availed himself of it to procure a party of strong Dhanga Coolies who most materially assisted in getting the cases over the next long stage of forty miles to Kissengunge. The cases left Purneah on the 1st April, and arrived at Kissengunge on the evening of the 2nd. They reached Punkabarree, at the foot of the Hills, on the 7th April, four days after leaving Kissengunge. After two days the plants were removed to Kursiong, which I had fixed on as the most suitable place for keeping them until arrangements could be made for their final disposal. The cases reached Kursiong on the 9th, and were at once placed in the square of the barracks used as rest houses for the European Troops proceeding to Darjeeling. These barracks are about 4,500 feet above the level of the Sea. When the plants were carefully examined, on their arrival at Kursiong, eight were found to have perished since their departure from Calcutta. This is exclusive of casualties among the seedlings of C. Pahudiana. I look on this as a very small mortality, considering what the plants had undergone since leaving Calcutta. Mr. Stubbs deserves great credit for the unremitting attention he bestowed on the plants, and for the care with which he carried out my orders to give the plants as much air and as little water as possible. The exposure of the plants to air and light, and all changes of the weather was commenced soon after their arrival at Kursiong, and, after a few days' gradual inuring, they were left exposed night and day with great benefit to all the species.

While the Cinchona plants were left at Kursiong under the care of Mr. Stubbs, I was engaged in exploring the forests, in the neighbourhood of Darjeeling, for a suitable site for the permanent Nursery. I hoped to procure land near enough to Darjeeling to allow of the permanent propagating house and a temporary dwelling for the European Gardener being erected within two months. This I soon discovered was quite impossible, as all the land within several miles of Darjeeling had been purchased for the cultivation of tea, and that whatever piece of Government land I might select, a new road must be made to it before any buildings could be commenced. The nearest and most suitable tract of land I could obtain lay on the slopes of Sinchal, extending to the River Teesta, and which contained suitable land from heights of from 800 feet above the Sea to 8,600, the summit of Sinchal. The nearest point of this tract which had not been acquired by private individuals was not less than ten miles from Darjeeling, and was quite inaccessible from the dense forest with which it was covered. I was thus forced to seek for some temporary accommodation for the Cinchona plants. After consulting with Captain Fitzgerald, the Executive Engineer, it was agreed that the best plan would be to convert one of the empty Officers' quarters at Sinchal into a temporary propagating house, and to make over another as the dwelling house of the European Gardener. Two rooms were accordingly thrown into one, and a glazed roof substituted for the wooden one. A plan for heating the atmosphere of the house and for affording bottom heat to the plants was contrived. This was done by blocking up the chimney of the room and carrying the smoke and heated air through a horizontal flue of masonry, which, after passing through the room, ends in a short chimney outside. The plants were brought to Sinchal on the 5th May; they suffered more during the short journey of twenty miles from Kursiong to Sinchal than they did on the way from Calcutta to Kursiong. A serious accident occurred to the case containing the seedlings of C. Pahudiana; by the stumbling of one of the eight Coolies carrying the case it was upset, and all the plants were, more or less, uprooted. Although they were immediately replanted by Mr. Stubbs, and the case containing them was left for nine days near the spot where the accident happened under the care of an experienced Native Gardener, not one of them survived. On the 27th May the Conservatory was completed, and the Cinchona plants were at once moved into it from the room where they had been placed on their arrival at Sinchal. All had suffered greatly from the effects of their long journey and the unavoidable delay in preparing proper accommodation for them. There is, however, a very marked difference in the loss between the plants from Java and those from Ootacamund. Out of fifty-nine plants obtained from Java only one death occurred, while of the 170 plants from Ootacamund no less than thirty were completely lost. This difference in the healthiness of the plants from the two places becomes more striking when it is known that the plants from Java were brought by Coolies from the mountains in the interior of that Island to Batavia and thence by Steamer to Calcutta; while those from Ootacamund were transported in twelve hours by Railway over most of the land journey, and the sea voyage only lasted three days. The plants from Java were in addition exposed for two months longer than the others to the confinement of small pots and Wardian cases as they arrived in Calcutta two months before them.

The following Table shews the stock of Cinchona plants on the 1st June, and the number of deaths in each species from the time of their leaving Calcutta:—

The plants of the species marked * were obtained from Java. The seedlings of C. Pahudiana were raised in the Calcutta Botanic Gardens.

During the month of June the propagation of all the species, except C. Pahudiana, was successfully prosecuted, and the number of deaths was reduced to seven. The process of layering was the only method followed, and by it young well-rooted plants were procured in from twenty-one to thirty days, in the case C. Succirubra, C. Nitida, and C. Micrantha. The plants of C. Pahudiana could easily have been artificially propagated, but as they were all finely formed plants raised from seed, I was unwilling to do anything that might interfere with their attaining their full development, the more so as I had a large quantity of apparently good seed which I had sown in the end of May. The only seedlings among the other species were the few plants raised in the Botanic Gardens, Calcutta, and of these none were layered.

During June a few of the seeds of C. Pahudiana germinated. On the 1st July the return of the stock of all the species was as follows:—

Table III. shewing number of Plants of Cinchona on 1st July 1862.

In the following month, July, the increase was much greater, both by layers and seed. All the plants made a considerable growth and had acquired a much healthier appearance. On the 1st August most of the seedlings of C. Pahudiana had their two pairs of leaves well developed, and a few had formed their third pair.

This last Table is the return of the plants on the 1st August drawn up in the same manner as Table III:—

The rate of propagation will increase every month as in periods varying from three to six weeks; the new plants are ready to be artificially propagated in their turn, while the many shoots made by the plants that have already yielded new plants are likewise available for layers or cuttings.

On leaving Calcutta in March I placed four plants of C. Pahudiana and two of C. Succirubra under the charge of Mr. Scott, Head Gardener, Botanic Gardens, with directions to treat them like any other tropical plant, but to keep them in a rather shaded part of the Gardens. I was also obliged to leave fourteen cuttings of C. Succirubra, three of C. Nitida, and one of C. Micrantha, in the cutting beds of the Botanic Gardens. I received a Report on the condition of all these plants on the 22nd July. Up to that date the losses had been two plants of C. Pahudiana, eight cuttings of C. Succirubra, and the cutting of C. Micrantha. The two plants of C. Succirubra were in good health, one of them was then eighteen inches in height, and the stem immediately above the ground was one inch and six-tenths in thickness, while the leaves average six to ten inches in length and from five to seven inches in breadth.

The climate of Calcutta does not seem to be too hot for this species by far the most valuable of all the Cinchonæ.

MILITARY.

No. 288.

INDIA OFFICE,
London, 14th August 1862.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council,

My Lord,—With your letter dated 15th May 1862, No. 179, you transmit correspondence in which the Government of Fort St. George submit an enquiry, as to the terms upon which an Officer of the new Indian Artillery would join the Staff College at Sandhurst, with regard to pay and pension, if after competing successfully for admission he should be ordered to join the College.

2. On this subject I have been in communication with His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief.

3. It appears to me that an Officer of the new Royal Brigades of Artillery joining the Staff College, with the permission of the proper authorities, should be allowed to receive, while there, the rate of pay drawn by Officers of similar rank in the original Brigades of Royal Artillery whilst studying at the College, and that, as such period of service is allowed to be reckoned as service, both for pay and pension, in regard to Officers of the British Forces, he should also reckon, as service for retiring pension, the period of his residence at the Staff College in the proportion of one year for two years' residence; as laid down in the notification of the Government of India, dated 10th April, p. 65.

4. The General Commanding-in-Chief has expressed his concurrence in this view.

5. His Royal Highness however remarks that, as employment on the Staff in India is not open to Officers whose Regiments or Brigades are not serving in that country, even though they have passed the Staff College, he does not consider it fair to the Army at large to appoint to the Staff out of India any passed Officers who belong to Corps on the Indian Establishment, but His Royal Highness has no objection to Officers serving in India competing for, and entering the Staff College, if they wish to do so upon this understanding.

I have, &c.,

ORDERS by the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR of BENGAL

NOTIFICATION.

Sylhet, 30*th August* 1862.

The following Rules for the sale of unassessed waste lands, and for the redemption of the revenue of such lands already granted for a term of years, in the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal, are published for general information :—

Rule 1.—All unassessed waste lands in which no right of proprietorship or exclusive occupancy is known to exist, or to have existed and to be capable of revival, are available for purchase under these Rules, unless specially reserved under Rule 21.

2. No greater quantity of land than three thousand acres shall be sold in one lot except with the express sanction of the Government. If for special reasons, in particular localities, a lower maximum area than three thousand acres should be determined upon, it will be duly notified hereafter.

3. Every lot shall be compact and shall include no more than one tract of land in a ring fence; and when the land touches a Public Road or a Navigable River, the length of the Road or River frontage shall not exceed one-half the depth of the lot. No lot will be sold unless it has been previously surveyed and demarcated, or until it shall have been surveyed and demarcated in consequence of an application for purchase. The Survey need only be in sufficient detail to ensure the ready identification of the boundaries of the lot, and to ascertain its gross area. If on completion of the Survey it shall appear that the area of the lot applied for exceeds the prescribed maximum the excess shall be excluded.

4. Applications for the purchase of waste land shall be made to the Collector of the District, and every application shall contain the following particulars :—

1*st*.—The estimated area of the land applied for.

2*nd*.—The situation of the land and its boundaries as accurately as can be ascertained.

5. If the Collector be satisfied that the land applied for is available for purchase and within the conditions prescribed in Rules 2 and 3, and if it have been previously surveyed and demarcated, he shall advertise the lot for sale on a given day at an upset price of not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area. The advertisement shall be published in the Collector's Office, in the Court of the Principal Judicial Officer of the District, and at the Moonsiff's Court (if there be one) and Police Station within the limits of which the lands are situated.

6. If the Collector be satisfied as above and if the land have not been surveyed, he shall cause it to be surveyed and its boundaries demarcated, the estimated cost of such survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant. On the completion of the Survey the advertisement of sale shall be published as above.

7. The day of sale to be named in the advertisement shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication, and the sale shall be held at the Collector's Office. The sale may be postponed if in the Collector's judgment it be necessary, due notice being always given of the date on which the sale will be held.

8. If before the day of sale no claim of proprietory, or occupative, right in the land be preferred, the lot shall be sold by auction to the highest bidder above the upset price, or to the applicant at the upset price if there be no higher bid.

9. On payment of one-tenth of the purchase money and of all expenses of survey, demarcation, advertisement, and sale, the purchaser shall receive a Deed (in a form which will hereafter be issued by the Board of Revenue) signed by the Collector, conveying to him the lot, in full hereditary and transferable proprietory right, free for ever from all demand on account of Land Revenue, but subject nevertheless to all general taxes and local rates imposed by Law, and to any other claim whether of the Government or otherwise that may have been or may hereafter be established in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

10. If before the day of sale a claim of proprietory or occupative right in any part of the land be preferred, the Collector shall investigate the claim, and, if satisfied that it is groundless, shall reject it and proceed with the sale.

11. If on investigation any such claim should appear to be well grounded, the Collector may either reject the application for purchase of the lands, or refer it for the orders of the Commissioner. In the former case the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner.

12. The Commissioner may direct the Collector either to reject the application, or to proceed with the sale of the land, either unreservedly on the conditions prescribed in Rule 9, or, if any claim to right of proprietorship, occupancy, or use in any part of the lands be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, with a special reservation of such right, or exclusive of the area in which such right exists. If the application for purchase of the land be rejected, the amount deposited as cost of Survey will be forfeited.

13. On being put in possession of the lot, the purchaser shall be bound to erect as many substantial boundary marks of masonry as the Collector may think necessary.

14. If the land be purchased by any person other than the applicant, the estimated cost of Survey deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him.

15. The purchaser may, if he choose, pay the whole of the purchase money when the lot is sold or the Deed delivered to him. Or, if he choose, he may pay a portion, not being less than 10 per cent. at the time of sale, and the remainder in instalments at any future time, not being more than ten years from the date of sale. In the latter case simple interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. a year, will be charged on the unpaid portion of the purchase money, and the whole lot will remain hypothecated as security for the full discharge of the amount, including principal and interest, and be liable to sale by order of the Collector if the said amount be not paid within the stipulated period.

16. If the purchaser fails to pay one-tenth of the purchase money and all other expenses within three months from the day of sale, the lot will be put up to sale again on the same conditions as before, and sold at the risk of the first purchaser, whose deposit will also be forfeited.

17. The upset price will be calculated on the whole area of the lot without any deduction on any account whatever. Ordinarily the upset price will be 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre, but in special cases the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, may put a higher upset price on any lot, provided that the upset price of available waste lands shall in no case exceed 10 Rupees an acre.

18. If it should at any time be found that the same land has been included in more than one lot it shall be held to belong to the lot first sold, and all subsequent sales shall as regards such land become null and void. In the event of any dispute regarding the boundary of two or more adjoining lots, the Collector may, on the application of any one of the parties, re-adjust the boundaries of the lots, and his decision shall be final. The price paid by any subsequent purchaser for land thus excluded from his lot will be refunded to him with simple interest at 10 per cent.

19. All grants of waste land already made for a term of years under previously existing Rules, in which no right of occupancy or proprietorship exists, except that of the grantee or that derived from him, will be treated for the purposes of this Rule as if the land were permanently settled; and the grantees or their representatives may redeem the future land revenue of such grants or of any compact part of them in perpetuity for an amount equal to the present value of all future stipulated annual payments calculated at 5 per cent. interest, provided the said amount is not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area of which the revenue is redeemed.

20. All sales of waste land and all redemptions made under these Rules in each Division will be reported immediately to the Board of Revenue in such form as the Board may direct, but no sale of waste lands once made by a Collector in conformity with these Rules will be disturbed by any higher executive authority.

21. Reserves of grazing and forest land, of land for the growth of firewood near Towns and Stations, of building sites, parks, recreation grounds, and the like, and of land required for other special purposes, are not to be sold under these Rules without the express sanction of the Government. A list of these lands is under preparation by the Board of Revenue, and when it has been approved by the Government it will be published in the Gazette.

22. Lands for the purchase of which application has been made under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 will, if such application were duly registered, be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the said Resolution so far as the Law allows.

23. From and after the date of the promulgation of these Rules no fresh applications for grants of waste land under any previous Rules will be entertained.

By Order, &c.,

J. D. GORDON,

Offg. Junior Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 3294.

The 7th August 1862.

By Order of the Board of Revenue,

FORT WILLIAM :
Board of Revenue,
The 12th Sept. 1862.

Notice to Claimants to Share in the Delhi and Lucknow Prize Properties.

PARTIES having claims on account of themselves, of those who served under them, of the Estates of deceased Officers and Soldiers, or of their Constituents to share in either of the above Prizes are requested to submit them, without further delay, accompanied by the necessary proofs, to the Prize Department of the Examiner's Office, No. 7, Middleton Row, Calcutta.

2. From the absence of the usual Rolls (the Returns during the period of the Mutiny reached very irregularly, and are, in very many cases, altogether wanting) it has been found impossible to compile a List of the parties entitled to share in the Delhie and Lucknow Prizes, and the Adjutant-General's Department has been unable to furnish a List of those entitled to additional shares by reason of their having held staff appointments and commands.

3. The number of persons entitled to share can therefore only be ascertained through the claims, supported by proofs, which are submitted. It is known that many claims have not been sent in (in the case of Corps and Detachments a report has been made to Government), and until the parties or their representatives submit them a final distribution of either the Delhie and Lucknow Prize cannot be made.

4. Each claim sent in must be supported by a Certificate shewing the dates between which the party was present at the operation for which the claim is made.

5. When additional shares beyond those of the Regimental rank of the party are claimed, a Certificate from a Staff or Commanding Officer must be attached, shewing the nature of the service and the date on which the claimant took charge and relinquished the duty.

6. When claims are submitted by representatives, a Power of Attorney must be sent, and in the case of Estates, when the President of the Committee of Adjustment or the Administrator-General does not claim, proof of the party being entitled to administer must be shewn.

7. It has been decided by the Law Authorities that there is no limit to the period during which claims can be submitted. It is therefore necessary to ascertain the number of probable claimants before a final settlement or even a second distribution can be made.

8. The distribution of the Pegu Prize is delayed by the absence of any Rolls of claimants of the Royal Navy. These have long since been applied for.

Notification.

IN cancellation of Notification of this Department, under date the 9th March 1861, relative to the Stamps required on Powers of Attorney either for the realization of interest on, or for the sale of Government Promissory Notes, notice is hereby given that Powers of Attorney executed after the passing of Act X. of 1862 must be on Stamped Paper of the value prescribed in Article 43, Schedule A. of Act X. of 1862.

Schedule A., 43.—"Letter or Power of Attorney not being of the kinds provided for in Schedule B." ... Rs. 4

"If the Letter or Power of Attorney be for the performance of one act only, and the value of the property to be dealt with be expressed in the Letter or Power and do not exceed Rupees 500 ... „ 1

Copy of the Standing Counsel's Opinion on the point, dated 10th September 1862, is subjoined.—

OPINION.

I entirely agree in the conclusions in the within letter of July 29th. It is very clear that Schedule B, Clause 8, does not in any manner relate to these Powers of Attorney, but only to such as are required in the conduct of cases before Courts of Justice or Revenue Authorities; therefore the Stamp to be required in all cases for Powers to draw interest executed after Act X. of 1862 should be of (4) four Rupees except in the excepted instance at the end of Clause 43 of Schedule A, in which it ought to be a Stamp of one Rupee.

RESOLUTION.—The 22nd September 1862.

READ Act No. V. of 1861.

Read Resolution of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Home Department, dated the 4th November 1861, No. 2005.

The Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to prescribe the following Rules for regulating the administration of the Police in those Districts to which Act No. V. of 1861 has been, or may hereafter be, extended:—

1. The administration of the Police throughout the local jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the District is vested in the District Superintendent of Police under the general control and direction of the Magistrate. The District Magistrate has no authority to interfere in the internal organization and discipline of the Police Force, but in other respects his position in relation to the Police is not materially changed. The District Superintendent is in effect an aid to the Magistrate for the superintendence of the Police of the District.

2. The Commissioners of Divisions will continue to exercise the same supervision over the Magistrates in respect to the administration of Police and Criminal Justice which they have hitherto exercised as Superintendents of Police; but they will not in any way interfere with the details of the organization of the Police. Commissioners of Divisions must bear in mind that they are responsible, as heretofore, for the entire executive administration of their Divisions.

3. The Inspector-General will confine his attention principally to the general control, and the Deputy Inspectors-General to the inspection and discipline, of the Police Force. The Inspector and Deputy Inspectors-General should be moving about from District to District for at least eight months in the year.

4. The District Superintendent is the Head of the Police Force employed in the District. He is, therefore, responsible to the Magistrate for the efficient performance of the duties devolving upon the Force. It is his duty to see that all orders of the Magistrate, or other competent authority, are promptly and correctly carried out.

Communication between Magistrates and Police.

5. All Reports which the Law requires to be made to the Magistrate of the District, or to a Magistrate having jurisdiction, must generally be made by the subordinate Police to the District Superintendent or Officer acting on his behalf; and it will be the duty of the Superintendent or other Officer either to pass orders thereon, or, if beyond his competence to deal with, to lay all such Reports, and all information and Returns, before the Magistrate. The subordinate Police may, however, report direct to the Magistrate when necessary.

6. All orders of the Magistrate to the subordinate Police will be conveyed to the Head Officer of Police in attendance in the Court of the Magistrate for communication to the subordinate Officers concerned. The orders of the Magistrate will either be in the shape of Warrants, Summons, Subpœnas, or other process, or will take the form of specific instructions on special points.

7. All orders other than Warrants or other processes will be entered in an Order Book to be kept for the purpose in each Magistrate's Court. They will thus come regularly under the notice of the District Superintendent, who should, if possible, have his Office in the Magistrate's Cutcherry. Warrants or other processes will be entered in the Register in a form to be prescribed by the Inspector-General.

8. In communicating orders to the District Police it is not necessary that separate orders or Perwannahs should be addressed. All that is requisite is to send each Inspector an extract from the Order Book containing all orders applicable to him that have been issued during the day. These extracts, when received by the Police Officer to whom they are addressed, will be entered, according to date of receipt, in his Station Order Book, and, as soon as the orders have been carried out, the extract will be returned with a brief endorsement shewing the manner of execution.

9. It will be necessary to bear in mind the distinction between the "Magistrate of the District" and "a Magistrate." The "Magistrate of the District" is the Chief Officer charged with the Executive Administration of the District in Criminal matters; "a Magistrate" includes all persons exercising any of the powers of a Magistrate, such as Joint, Assistant, and Deputy Magistrates.

10. The District Superintendent will, without delay, inform the Magistrate of the District of any circumstance within the knowledge of the Police likely to lead to a disturbance or breach of the peace. Should any difference of opinion, on any question relating to Police Administration, arise between the District Superintendent and the Magistrate of the District, it is the duty of the District Superintendent to carry out the Magistrate's instructions and to request the Magistrate to refer the point under dispute for the orders of the Commissioner, who will decide all such references, communicating, when necessary, with the Inspector or Deputy Inspector-General. Any Officer of the Police who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner may submit his case to the Inspector-General.

11. It must be borne in mind that, with the exception of the Magistrate of the District, no Magisterial Officers, whether in charge of a Sub-Division or not, are vested with any controlling authority over the Police. As Judicial Officers they will try all cases brought before them by the Police, and will issue processes in the manner above described in such cases, or in cases instituted before them on the formal complaint of a private party. If a subordinate Magistrate is of opinion that, in any case coming before him, the proceedings of the Police have been illegal, or evince negligence, or want of intelligence, he will report the matter for the information of the Magistrate of the District.

12. Every Prisoner must be forwarded from a Police Station direct to the nearest Magistrate having jurisdiction, and must not be sent to the next superior Officer of Police.

Powers of Police Officers.

13. The several Deputy Inspectors-General, and District Superintendents of Police, are hereby vested with the powers of a Magistrate within all the Districts comprised in the Commissioner's Division within which they serve. The powers thus conferred upon the abovenamed Officers, and the powers of a Magistrate vested by Law in the Inspector-General, will be exercised, so far as may be necessary, in the absence of a Magistrate, only for the preservation of the peace, the prevention or detection of crime, or the apprehension or detention of offenders, and also for the trial of cases under Section XXIX., Act. No. V. of 1861. Provided that in all cases in which persons not belonging to the Police Force are concerned, and in cases in which a Police Officer is charged with offering any unwarrantable personal violence to any person in his custody, the trial shall not be held by an Officer of the Police Force. District Superintendents may also exercise the powers of a Magistrate under Act No. XX. of 1856.

Police Superannuation Fund.

14. The Police Superannuation Fund shall be formed from the following items:—

1*st*.—A deduction of half an anna in the Rupee from the monthly pay of all Police Officers of a class not entitled to a pension under the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

2*nd*.—Savings from the pay of Police Officers absent from sickness or on leave; such savings are, however, only available for the Fund after the deduction of all acting allowances.

3*rd*.—Fines imposed for neglect or misconduct of Police Officers under Sections VII. and XXIX. of Act V. of 1861; and fines imposed by Magistrates on drunken persons, or on persons convicted of assault on Police Officers.

4*th*.—Proceeds of sale of useless and worn-out equipments or articles of clothing provided for the use of the Police by the State.

5*th*.—Proceeds of unclaimed property sold under Section XXVII., Act V. of 1861.

15. No fines imposed on Police Officers by their superior Officers, in cases in which an appeal is allowed, shall be credited to the Superannuation Fund until the orders imposing them have been confirmed by the Inspector-General.

16. It will be the duty of all Magisterial Officers to keep up a separate Register of all fines imposed by them under the third head. The fines realized will be sent to the Collector of the District, who will credit the amount, under its proper heading, to the Police Superannuation Fund as hereinafter directed. At the close of each month the Magistrate of the District will send to the District Superintendent an Abstract from the Registers shewing all the fines thus imposed in his District. No fines can be credited to the Fund until the money has been actually realized; and when the order is appealable, until the appeal has been finally disposed of.

17. In like manner the Magistrate of each District, at the close of each month, will deposit with the Collector the nett amount realized by the sale of unclaimed property during the month after deducting the usual commission (not exceeding 5 per cent.), which should be allowed to the persons employed to conduct the sale.

18. The Magistrate shall transmit to the District Superintendent a monthly Return of all sums deposited with the Collector on account of the Fund.

19. No charges on the Superannuation Fund are to be made without the sanction of the Government previously obtained. Rules as to the period of service and other conditions entitling Members of the Force to Pensions or Gratuities from the Fund will be published separately.

20. Officers in charge of Treasuries will credit deposits with all sums deducted from Pay Abstracts by the Civil Pay-Master on account of the Police Superannuation Fund. These deductions should be noted on the Pay Abstracts by the submitting Officer, but checked by the Civil Pay-Master in the same way as those of other service Funds. Collectors will also credit to the same head all other monies of the nature described in Section XI. remitted to the Treasury by any Officer either of Police or of the Magistracy.

21. Any refunds of assets so credited must be charged to deposits, and if the actual deposit has been remitted to Calcutta, the charge must be made against the next deposit which is placed at credit of the Fund.

22. Collectors will, at the close of each month, remit the balance in their hands to the Secretary to the Bank of Bengal by transfer receipts, filling up the form thus—

"To be transferred to credit of the Police Superannuation Fund at the Bank of Bengal as per particulars on the reverse—

Deductions.
Savings.
Fines on Police.
Fines by Magistrate.
Sale of clothing, &c."

23. The Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General will prepare from the Bank's account a Statement in the annexed form (A.) shewing the state of the Fund at the close of each month, and send it to the Inspector-General of Police for information.

24. When there is an accumulation of Funds sufficient for investment in Treasury Notes, the Deputy Auditor and Inspector-General will make a joint application to the Auditor-General (accompanied by a Certificate in the prescribed form B.) for the issue of a Treasury Note in their favor for the amount of the Certificate in even hundreds of Rupees, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum from the date of the Certificate, which, for convenience of calculating interest, should always be the 1st of a month.

25. On the issue of the Treasury Notes by the Auditor-General of India the Deputy Auditor-General, Bengal, and Inspector-General of Police will lodge them with the Bank of Bengal, for safe custody, in their joint names. A Memorandum of the Treasury Notes should be appended to the Bank's account.

26. Interest on the Treasury Notes will be drawn by the Deputy Auditor and Inspector-General of Police every half-year, and the amount carried to the credit of the Fund in the Bank's accounts.

27. Upon the allotment of a pension the usual note or Certificate will be issued by Government, upon which the Collector will pay the amount, charging it to "Advances Re-payable" and forwarding the payee's receipt to the Inspector-General of Police, who will prepare a monthly Abstract of the pensions and transmit it, together with a Memorandum of the amounts disbursed by each Officer, to the Auditor-General, through the Deputy Auditor of Bengal, for concentration and adjustment of all the payments in the accounts of the Bank of Bengal.

28. Upon the receipt of the Pension Abstract the Secretary to the Bank of Bengal will remit the amounts to the several disbursing Officers by transfer receipts, and debit the charge in his account under the head of Police Superannuation Fund, supporting it with the Pension Abstract and the receipts.

29. The Collector will credit the amount of the transfer receipts to "Advances Re-payable" by debit per contra in his Cash Account in the usual manner.

30. As soon after the close of each year as possible an Abstract Account shewing the receipts and expenditure of the Fund, and the nature of the vested securities, will be published in the Calcutta Gazette for the information of the Police.

31. The General Police Fund will be composed of all sums received for Extra or Special Police under Sections XIII., XIV., and XV., all sums received on account of Municipal Police furnished by the Force, and all sums realized under Section XLI. of Act V. of 1861.

General Police Fund.

32. No special Guard shall be supplied to private persons without the authority of the Magistrate of the District, who shall at once report to the Commissioner the circumstance under which he sanctions any such Guard. Before such Guards are furnished the District Superintendent must require the deposit of a sum of money sufficient to defray their cost, provided that, if such Guards are required for any period in excess of one month, the deposit of one month's pay in advance will suffice.

Special Police

33. All Cities, Towns or Unions in which Act XX. of 1856 is in force shall defray so much of the cost of the Police allotted to them as shall be determined on by the Inspector-General in communication with the Magistrate of the District, the balance being met from the Police assignment. The Magistrates of Districts must be careful to provide adequately for this demand upon their Municipal Funds. The Municipal Fund of a City, Town or Union will, under no circumstances, contribute more towards the General Police Fund than is actually paid for the Police employed within its limits, and the amount contributed shall not ordinarily exceed what would be sufficient for the Watch and Ward contemplated by Act XX., 1856. The surplus will, as hitherto, be employed for Conservancy and other Municipal purposes. If in any City, Town or Union a majority of the rate-payers object to the abolition of the old Watch and Ward, the new Police shall not be substituted for the Municipal Chowkeydars, except under the special orders of Government. Care must be taken that, when Municipal Police are employed out of the City, Town or Union for which they are appointed under Act XX. of 1856, they shall not be paid out of the rates levied under the said Act for that City, Town or Union.

34. All payments on account of Municipal Police must be made to the District Superintendent or Head Officer of Police in the District within fifteen days from the close of the month for which the pay is due.

35. A similar course in every respect must be followed in regard to payments from Bazar and Cantonment Funds for the Police employed in Military Bazars or Cantonments.

36. When Police are supplied to any Public Department or Office for duties not coming within the scope of ordinary Police duties proper, the District Superintendent shall charge to such Department the actual pay of the grades furnished, with an additional charge of 10 per cent. on the amount of the Bill towards the expense of European supervision, cost of Arms and Accoutrements, Clothing, &c. The same rule will be observed in regard to the pay of special Guards supplied to private persons.

37. Bills for the cost of Police supplied to any Public Department or Office will be presented to the Head of the Office employing them at the end of every month, and such Bills shall be paid in cash on or before the 10th of the ensuing month.

38. The whole number of Police employed and paid, and their cost, will be shewn in the monthly Police Abstracts, and the sums to be received from the different Departments will be deducted from the Abstract, the balance only being drawn from the Treasury.

39. Cash payments are essential as a check upon Departments employing Police; no Bill for Police supplied, though passed by the Head of an Office, will therefore be accepted as a voucher for a charge. The Police Abstract, though exhibiting the whole number of the Police employed on every description of duty during the month, will only be passed for the fixed amount allotted by Government, cash receipts being shewn for all additional Police supplied to other Departments.

40. The strength of permanent Jail Guards will be determined by the Inspector-General of Police in communication with the Inspector-General of Jails and Officers in charge of Jails.

Jail Guards.

41. The Guard will be hereafter furnished from the Police Force by the District Superintendent, to whom payment of the cost thereof will be made by the Magistrate or other Officer in charge of the Jail on or before the 10th of each month for the month preceding.

42. Officers in charge of Jails having been specially authorized to draw advances from the Treasury to meet this and other Jail charges, subject to adjustment by audited bills, will have no excuse for deferred payment, and the District Superintendent will report to the Deputy Inspector-General all instances in which delay may occur.

43. The District Superintendent, before distributing pay to the Police forming the Jail Guard, will make the deductions on account of contribution to the Police Superannuation Fund, and will credit the same in his accounts of that Fund.

44. The District Superintendent will include the pay of the Jail Guard in the Pay Abstract of the Police Force belonging to his District, the object being to keep in view the entire strength of the Police Force attached to each District; but, before submitting the Abstract for audit, he will deduct from the total amount thereof the sum received from the Officer in charge of the Jail on account of the permanent Guard.

45. Whenever extra or special Guards are required on occasions of emergency, such as the escort of Prisoners under transportation, the Officer in charge of the Jail will indent for such special Police party, in the form prescribed by the Inspector-General of Police, paying in cash the cost of the Police thus furnished.

Treasury Guards.

46. No Departmental payment will be made by the Revenue Department for permanent Treasury Guards; the Guards will be furnished by the Police Reserve, each Treasury being debited in account with the cost of its own Guards.

47. Wherever the new Constabulary is sufficiently organized the duty of serving processes will be made over to them, all fees levied on this account, and all rewards and forfeitures of the nature described in Section XLI. of Act V. of 1861, will be transmitted weekly by the Magistrate to the Collector, who will place all sums received on this account to the credit of the General Police Fund. A weekly account of all such deposits will be furnished by the District Magistrate to the District Superintendent.

Guards over Prisoners under trial.

48. The duty of escorting offenders under trial from the Jail to the Magistrate's Court, and of guarding them whilst there, will henceforth devolve upon the Police. Whenever the trial of a person, who is detained pending the result of such trial, shall for any reason be adjourned, a day shall be fixed by the Magistrate for the re-hearing of the case, and it will be the duty of the District Superintendent to ensure the punctual attendance of the Prisoner on the day fixed. By these means the inconvenience and unnecessary labor imposed upon the Police of conveying day by day to the Magistrate's Court a number of Prisoners whose attendance is not required will be avoided.

Other Guards.

49. With the exception of the Thannah Police, River Police, and Treasury Guards no part of the Force can be charged against the Police assignment. Funds for the payment of all other Guards, Special Escorts, Local Police, &c., must be altogether provided by the Departments to which they are furnished.

Pay Abstracts.

50. The District Superintendent will keep an account of all payments which he may receive on account of the General Police Fund under the separate heads, Cantonment Police, Municipal Police, Permanent Jail Guards, Temporary Guards, Escorts, Special Police, &c.

51. The Pay Abstract as noted above will include the pay of the whole permanent Force whether chargeable to Special Departments or to the Police assignment. The Collector will give an advance of the pay of the permanent Force, which will be adjusted, as regards the former, from the deposits made by the District Superintendent, and as regards the latter by the audited Pay Bill.

52. Temporary Special Police will not be included in the Pay Abstract but will be paid at once in cash by the Superintendent, the accounts being audited by the Inspector-General. The surplus after payment of salaries will be deposited with the Collector to the credit of the General Police Fund.

53. The General Police Fund is absolutely the property of Government and is applicable solely to the maintenance of the Police Force and to no other purpose.

Accounts.

54. The Inspector-General will, in communication with the Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General to the Government of Bengal, draw up a simple form of account to be kept by the District Superintendent, shewing all sums received and expended on account of Police, and all deposits made by other Departments in the Collector's Treasury on account of Police. Monthly accounts must be furnished by each District Superintendent to the Deputy Inspector-General, and quarterly accounts must be furnished by the Deputy Inspector-General to the Inspector-General, who again will furnish half-yearly accounts to Government.

55. No deposits shall, on any account, remain in the hands of District Superintendents beyond the day, or the day following that, on which they are paid. These Officers will deposit all such sums with the Collector.

General duties.

56. The general duties of the Police are detailed in Sections XXIII., XXV., XXX., and XXXI. of Act V. of 1861. Detailed instructions as to the manner in which those duties are to be performed will be issued by the Inspector-General.

Establishments.

57. The Inspector-General must take care that men are not unnecessarily withdrawn from their proper duties of Police to act as Writers, &c. He will accordingly fix the Establishment of each Deputy Inspector, District Superintendent, and Assistant in charge of a District at once. No other Officers require Office Establishment. Great care should be taken that unpaid apprentices are not allowed by the subordinate Officers of the Police to hang about the Stations and Out-stations.

58. The distribution of the Force of a District should, as far as possible, be so arranged that not more than twenty to twenty-five written Reports should have to be disposed of by a District Superintendent during the day. No District Superintendent ought to spend more than two hours a day at his desk in examining Reports and passing orders upon them; but this duty he must regularly perform wherever he may be, whether in a Station or in Camp.

Examinations.

59. Every Officer of the Police, above the Grade of Police Inspector, and below that of Deputy Inspector-General, is expected, within one year from date of appointment, to pass an examination in Act V. of 1861, and in Chapters IV., V., VI., VII., VIII., and IX., Act XXI. of 1861, which define the mode of procedure in matters cognizable by the Police.

60. Every such Officer as above is also expected, if not previously so qualified, to pass within twelve months from the date of his appointment by the First Standard in the Oordoo or Bengalee language, and six months afterwards by the First Standard in the second language. He is required, within two years from the date of his appointment, to pass by the Second Standard in both the Bengalee and Oordoo languages.

61. In the event of any Officer failing to pass the last mentioned test within the prescribed period an additional six months will be allowed him, as a special case, if he is reported by his official superior to be efficient in other respects, but otherwise his services will be dispensed with.

62. The Inspector-General will prescribe the Books and Registers which will have to be kept by District Officers and at each Police Station. The following will suffice at first for Police Stations :—

Books and Registers.

I. Register of charges taken.
II. Ditto ditto refused.
III. Ditto of property stolen and recovered.
IV. Unclaimed property found.
V. Absconded criminals and escaped offenders living or having connection within Station Circle.
VI. Register of Convicts released on expiry of sentence and notorious bad characters.
VII. Register of unnatural deaths reported.
VIII. Ditto of Villages forming Constables' beats in the Circle, with the names of the Constables.
IX. Village Chowkeydars within the Circle.
X. Station Diary Book.
XI. Inspection Report Book.
XII. Station Order Book.
XIII. Conduct Book.

63. Too great importance cannot be attached to the Diaries. Copies of Diaries will be regularly submitted from each Station to the District Superintendent, and from each Superintendent to the Inspector-General: these Journals must never be allowed to be a day in arrear; they should be a concise, but at the same time a complete record of all that has been brought during the day under the notice of the compiling Officer. The Station Diary will comprise an abstract of all Out-station Diaries, and the District Diary will contain an abstract of all worthy of note in all the Station Diaries and Reports received during the day. Special Reports should be avoided as much as possible.

64. The Inspector-General will lose no time in drawing up a set of periodical Returns and Statements to be submitted to him by his Subordinates.

Periodical Returns.

65. Commissioners of Divisions will continue to submit to Government, as heretofore, the Annual Police Reports of their Divisions.

66. The Inspector-General will submit to Government an Annual Report shewing the administration of his Department in all those Districts in which Act V. of 1861 is, or may be, in force. The materials for this Report will be obtained from the Reports of his Subordinates.

67. The Inspector-General must exercise great discretion in the issue of Circular Orders. No Circular should be issued unless it has been ascertained that directions upon some particular point are actually required. Circulars founded upon isolated cases, or to meet contingencies which may never arise, should be avoided. The Inspector-General will submit to Government two copies of each Circular issued by him to his Subordinates.

Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Inspector-General for information and guidance and for communication to his Subordinates, to all Commissioners of Divisions, to all Magistrates of Districts, to the Civil Pay-Master, and to the Deputy Auditor and Accountant-General of Bengal.

Ordered also, that a copy be sent to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, for information.

Ordered also, that the Resolution be published in the Gazette.

Sale of unassessed Waste Lands, and the redemption of the Revenue of such Lands already granted for a term of years.

From J. D. GORDON, Esq., Officiating Junior Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue,—(No. 377T., dated the 30th August 1862.)

I AM directed by the Lieutenant-Governor to forward, for the information of the Board of Revenue, copy of the "Rules for the sale of unassessed waste lands, and for the redemption of such lands already granted for a term of years," which have been approved and promulgated by the Lieutenant-Governor under the instructions contained in paragraph 2 of the letter No. 4206, dated 15th instant, from the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Home Department, published in the Calcutta Gazette of 16th August, together with the Despatch from the Secretary of State, regarding the sale of waste lands and the redemption of the land revenue.

2. In preparing these Rules the Lieutenant-Governor has had the advantage of referring to the draft Rules of Procedure which the Board submitted to the late Lieutenant-Governor with your letter No. 914 of 28th December, in conformity with paragraph 20 of the Resolution of the Supreme Government, dated 17th October 1861. Those Rules of Procedure had been revised by Sir J. P. Grant, and forwarded for the sanction of the Supreme Government. With the assistance of these documents the Lieutenant-Governor has now drawn up a new set of Rules in which the amendments and modifications prescribed by the Despatch of the Secretary of State have been introduced. These Rules will be immediately published in the Calcutta Gazette, and the Board are requested to issue them as quickly as possible in the form of a Circular, with such supplementary instructions for the guidance of public Officers as may appear to be necessary.

3. The Lieutenant-Governor desires to draw the attention of the Board to the following points in the Rules which are either new in themselves, or require further action to be taken by the Board.

4. In Rule 2 it is provided that if, for special reasons in particular localities, a lower maximum area than 3000 acres should be determined upon it will be duly notified hereafter. This has reference to lands other than those to be reserved under Rule 22, which, from their vicinity to Stations, or other peculiar local circumstances, it may be desirable to dispose of in smaller lots. A list of any sites coming under this description should be prepared by the Board for notification hereafter.

5. In Rule 3 it will be seen that survey and demarcation are held in conformity with the views of the Secretary of State to be the first essential preliminary, and no lot can be advertised for sale until the process of survey and demarcation is complete. This Rule, the Board will observe, renders it imperatively necessary that a competent Surveyor should be at once appointed in each District where applications are made for tracts of unsurveyed lands.

6. In Rule 7 power is given to the Collector to postpone the sale of any lot if he deems it necessary to do so. Such a contingency might arise where any delay had occurred to prevent the adjudication of claims preferred to the lot before the day orginally fixed for sale. But the sale should always be held, if possible, on the day first advertised, and if postponed, due notice should be given of the day on which it will actually take place. A form of advertisement should be prepared and circulated by the Board.

7. A draft of the Deed of Conveyance to which Rule 9 refers should be prepared by the Government Solicitor in communication with the Board, and circulated to the several Collectors for their use and guidance. In all cases where only one-tenth of the purchase money is paid the Deed should provide for the hypothecation and sale of the lot in case of failure to pay the full value in ten years as provided in Rule 15. In the preparation of this Deed due attention must be given to the principles laid down in paragraphs 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated 17th October 1861, and to the several points mentioned in the Rules. It should be expressly stipulated that a strip of land, twenty feet in width, shall be reserved as a towing path along each bank of every navigable river or stream.

8. Rules 11 and 12 provide for the interference of the Commissioner of the Division in cases where any claim to a right in the land is established by a third party. In respect to Darjeeling the Board of Revenue will exercise the power which is vested in the Divisional Commissioners elsewhere.

9. Rule 17 provides that the ordinary upset price shall be 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre, no deduction being made on any account from the total area of the lot. There will not be many cases in which it will be necessary to raise the upset price to the maximum of 10 Rupees an acre, as such, specially valuable land, would doubtless find its true value at public auction. But the power of raising the upset price to 10 Rupees an acre should be maintained for the protection of the interests of Government.

10. In Rule 19 the conditions are laid down on which grants of waste land made under previously existing Rules may be redeemed. The Board are requested to explain to Collectors the Rule for calculating the present value of such grants, subject to the limitations laid down. Illustrations of the mode of calculation would be most instructive to the Local Officers.

11. The Board are requested to submit, for the information of the Government, a Quarterly Statement, commencing from 1st September, of all transactions which are reported to them under Rule 20.

12. A list of the lands in each District, which it is proposed to reserve altogether from sale for the purposes specified in Rule 22, should be obtained by the Board from the Local Authorities without any delay, and, after careful revision of the whole, these lists should be combined by the Board in one general list, and submitted, with their remarks, for approval and publication.

13. Rule 23 has reference to those applications which were made on the faith of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated 17th October 1861. As such applications form a class of cases which must be dealt with separately on their own merits, and in accordance with the terms of the Resolution, so far as is consistent with Law and a due regard for public interests, it is not desirable to enter into further discussion regarding them here. A special Report on them must be prepared as soon as possible in accordance with the 76th paragraph of the Despatch of the Secretary of State.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor will now briefly notice two of the points raised in your letter No. 914 of 28th December 1861, to which reference has been already made in the 2nd paragraph of this letter.

15. It appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that the Register proposed by the Board in their draft Rule No. 2 should be prepared by the Collectors for their own use and information, as as well for the information of intending applicants who may all be allowed to have access to it. But it is not necessary that the Rules should provide for the compilation of such a Register. The form of the Register should be the same as that of the report of sales made to the Board: the Report in fact might be in the form of an Extract from the Register. With regard to the question whether one individual may purchase more than one lot of 3,000 acres in adjacent localities, it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that there is nothing to prevent such a contingency. The spirit of public competition will suffice to keep any such speculative purchases within their due limits.

16. The Board will observe that the Clause in the Rules which provides for the redemption of prospective revenue in grants of waste land already made does not apply to the case of grants made under the old Darjeeling Rules, these grants being in fact not grants, but sales of land at an upset price of Rupees 10 an acre.

NOTIFICATION.

Sylhet, 30*th August* 1862.

The following Rules for the sale of unassessed waste lands, and for the redemption of the revenue of such lands already granted for a term of years, in the Lieutenant-Governorship of Bengal, are published for general information:—

Rule 1.—All unassessed waste lands in which no right of proprietorship or exclusive occupancy is known to exist, or to have existed and to be capable of revival, are available for purchase under these Rules, unless specially reserved under Rule 21.

2. No greater quantity of land than three thousand acres shall be sold in one lot except with the express sanction of the Government. If for special reasons, in particular localities, a lower maximum area than three thousand acres should be determined upon, it will be duly notified hereafter.

3. Every lot shall be compact and shall include no more than one tract of land in a ring fence; and when the land touches a Public Road or a Navigable River, the length of the Road or River frontage shall not exceed one-half the depth of the lot. No lot will be sold unless it has been previously surveyed and demarcated, or until it shall have been surveyed and demarcated in consequence of an application for purchase. The Survey need only be in sufficient detail to ensure the ready identification of the boundaries of the lot, and to ascertain its gross area. If on completion of the Survey it shall appear that the area of the lot applied for exceeds the prescribed maximum the excess shall be excluded.

4 Applications for the purchase of waste land shall be made to the Collector of the District, and every application shall contain the following particulars:—

1*st*.—The estimated area of the land applied for.

2*nd*.—The situation of the land and its boundaries as accurately as can be ascertained.

5. If the Collector be satisfied that the land applied for is available for purchase and within the conditions prescribed in Rules 2 and 3, and if it have been previously surveyed and demarcated, he shall advertise the lot for sale on a given day at an upset price of not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area. The advertisement shall be published in the Collector's Office, in the Court of the Principal Judicial Officer of the District, and at the Moonsiff's Court (if there be one) and Police Station within the limits of which the lands are situated.

6. If the Collector be satisfied as above and if the land have not been surveyed, he shall cause it to be surveyed and its boundaries demarcated, the estimated cost of such survey and demarcation being first deposited by the applicant. On the completion of the Survey the advertisement of sale shall be published as above.

7. The day of sale to be named in the advertisement shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication, and the sale shall be held at the Collector's Office. The sale may be postponed if in the Collector's judgment it be necessary, due notice being always given of the date on which the sale will be held.

8. If before the day of sale no claim of proprietory, or occupative, right in the land be preferred, the lot shall be sold by auction to the highest bidder above the upset price, or to the applicant at the upset price if there be no higher bid.

9. On payment of one-tenth of the purchase money and of all expenses of survey, demarcation, advertisement, and sale the purchaser shall receive a Deed (in a form which will hereafter be issued by the Board of Revenue) signed by the Collector, conveying to him the lot, in full hereditary and transferable proprietory right, free for ever from all demand on account of Land Revenue, but subject nevertheless to all general taxes and local rates imposed by Law, and to any other claim, whether of the Government or otherwise, that may have been or may hereafter be established in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

10. If before the day of sale a claim of proprietory or occupative right in any part of the land be preferred, the Collector shall investigate the claim, and, if satisfied that it is groundless, shall reject it and proceed with the sale.

11. If on investigation any such claim should appear to be well grounded, the Collector may either reject the application for purchase of the lands, or refer it for the orders of the Commissioner. In the former case the applicant may appeal to the Commissioner.

12. The Commissioner may direct the Collector either to reject the application, or to proceed with the sale of the land, either unreservedly on the conditions prescribed in Rule 9, or, if any claim to right of proprietorship, occupancy, or use in any part of the lands be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, with a special reservation of such right, or exclusive of the area in which such right exists. If the application for purchase of the land be rejected, the amount deposited as cost of Survey will be forfeited.

13. On being put in possession of the lot the purchaser shall be bound to erect as many substantial boundary marks of masonry as the Collector may think necessary.

14. If the land be purchased by any person other than the applicant, the estimated cost of Survey deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him.

15. The purchaser may, if he choose, pay the whole of the purchase money when the lot is sold or the Deed delivered to him. Or, if he choose, he may pay a portion, not being less than 10 per cent., at the time of sale, and the remainder in instalments at any future time, not being more than ten years from the date of sale. In the latter case simple interest, at the rate of 10 per cent. a year, will be charged on the unpaid portion of the purchase money, and the whole lot will remain hypothecated as security for the full discharge of the amount, including principal and interest, and be liable to sale by order of the Collector if the said amount be not paid within the stipulated period.

16. If the purchaser fails to pay one-tenth of the purchase money and all other expenses within three months from the day of sale, the lot will be put up to sale again on the same conditions as before, and sold at the risk of the first purchaser, whose deposit will also be forfeited.

17. The upset price will be calculated on the whole area of the lot without any deduction on any account whatever. Ordinarily the upset price will be 2. Rupees 8 annas an acre; but in special cases the Collector, with the sanction of the Commissioner, may put a higher upset price on any lot, provided that the upset price of available waste lands shall in no case exceed 10 Rupees an acre.

18. If it should at any time be found that the same land has been included in more than one lot it shall be held to belong to the lot first sold, and all subsequent sales shall as regards such land become null and void. In the event of any dispute regarding the boundary of two or more adjoining lots the Collector may, on the application of any one of the parties, re-adjust the boundaries of the lots, and his decision shall be final. The price paid by any subsequent purchaser for land thus excluded from his lot will be refunded to him with simple interest at 10 per cent.

19. All grants of waste land already made for a term of years under previously existing Rules, in which no right of occupancy or proprietorship exists, except that of the grantee or that derived from him, will be treated for the purposes of this Rule as if the land were permanently settled; and the grantees or their representatives may redeem the future land revenue of such grants or of any compact part of them in perpetuity for an amount equal to the present value of all future stipulated annual payments calculated at 5 per cent. interest, provided the said amount is not less than 2 Rupees 8 annas an acre on the whole area of which the revenue is redeemed.

20. All sales of waste land and all redemptions made under these Rules in each Division will be reported immediately to the Board of Revenue in such form as the Board may direct, but no sale of waste lands once made by a Collector in conformity with these Rules will be disturbed by any higher executive authority.

21. Reserves of grazing and forest land, of land for the growth of firewood near Towns and Stations, of building sites, parks, recreation grounds, and the like, and of land required for other special purposes, are not to be sold under these Rules without the express sanction of the Government. A list of these lands is under preparation by the Board of Revenue, and when it has been approved by the Government it will be published in the Gazette.

22. Lands for the purchase of which application has been made under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861 will, if such application were duly registered, be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the said Resolution so far as the Law allows.

23. From and after the date of the promulgation of these Rules no fresh applications for grants of waste land under any previous Rules will be entertained.

By Order, &c.,

J. D. GORDON,

Offg. Junior Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

From the HON'BLE A. EDEN, Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue,—(No. 2039, dated the 17th September 1862.)

IN continuation of the Junior Secretary's letter No. 377T., dated 30th ultimo, I am desired to say that, in dealing with applications for waste lands which were made and registered on the faith of the Resolution of the Governor General in Council, dated 17th October 1861, the Board must be careful that all the conditions prescribed in that Resolution are strictly fulfilled.

2. The advertisement required in paragraph 17 of the Resolution must be especially insisted on, so that an opportunity may be given to other intending purchasers, who may perhaps have been waiting for the issue of the Rules, to compete for the same land; and also that persons claiming to have proprietary rights, or rights of occupancy, may be enabled to come forward and state their claims with a view to their being dealt with under the terms of the Resolution; the application for the land being rejected where such claims cannot be legally set aside.

3. Where there is more than one applicant for the same land the lot must be put up to auction, and the terms of sale will then be those laid down in the Rules published under the Notification of the 30th ultimo, a copy of which was forwarded to the Board in the Junior Secretary's letter of the same date.

4. I am further to suggest, for the Board's consideration, whether much inconvenience to intending purchasers, and interruption to ordinary public business, would not be obviated by fixing and notifying periodical dates for the sale of all lots of land applied for under the new Rules. For the present, however, the sales should not be less frequent than once a month.

From the HON'BLE A. EDEN, Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to C. B. STEWART, ESQ.,—(No. 2120, dated the 19th September 1862.)

I AM directed to forward to you the orders passed by the Lieutenant-Governor on each of the four questions which you have submitted to His Honor in regard to the Rules for the sale of waste land published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 17th instant.

2. I am at the same time to inform you that the Rules, which provide for the redemption of prospective revenue in grants of waste land already made, do not apply to the case of allotments made under the old Darjeeling Rules, these allotments being in fact not grants but sales of land at an upset price of Rupees 10 an acre.

QUESTIONS.	ANSWERS.
1. Comparing the 6th Rule with the latter part of the 12th Rule, How is an applicant to make sure that no claim of proprietorship or occupative right exists in the land he applies for? and if such claims are established, will the cost of survey required to be deposited by the applicant under Rule 6 be forfeited, as set forth in Rule 12, if the application for the purchase of the Lot be rejected?	1. There are two classes of waste lands:— (a). Those which have already been surveyed by the Government, and of which a correct Map is in the hands of the Collector. In this case the lands applied for can be marked off on the Map and advertised for sale, and the applicant will be put to no expense. (b). Those which have not yet been surveyed by the Government. In respect to these lands (which must ultimately be regularly surveyed by the Government), if an applicant desires a preliminary survey with a view to purchase, it is but fair that he should bear the expense, and that the risk of the land being adversely and successfully claimed should be borne by him. The cost of the preliminary survey (which is to be a rough survey sufficient to ascertain gross area and identify boundaries) will not be great; and the applicant, with the assistance of the Collector, who also must be satisfied (under Rule 6) that adverse claims do not exist, may easily ascertain whether such claims are likely to be made, and admitted, or not. It is only when an application for waste lands is absolutely rejected that the deposit is to be forfeited; but, under Rule 12, applications may be conditionally complied with, and the projected Law will afterwards render the sale of adverse rights compulsory.

2. By the old Rules one-fourth of the whole area of a grant was permitted to be held rent-free in perpetuity as an allowance for unculturable land. I presume under the 17th Rule of the Notification no such deduction will be allowed.

2. No deduction will be made on account of unculturable land.

3. What interpretation does the 19th Rule bear as regards holders of old grants in Bengal?

I apprehend that the redemption of the Land Revenue of such old grants will be regulated on the principle upon which deferred annuities are calculated.

Will the amount of purchase money or price of redemption be ascertained on the calculation of the interest that would accrue from the amount paid up equalling the rate of assessment during period of twenty years? or how?

3. The redemption of future payments of revenue will be calculated precisely as an Actuary would calculate the present value of a deferred annuity with interest at 5 per cent.

Thus, if a beegah of land is held rent-free for twenty years, at 4 annas a year for the next twenty years, 8 annas a year for the next twenty years, and at 12 annas a year thereafter in perpetuity, the amount for which all future payments may be redeemed at once would be calculated thus:—

Present value at 5 per cent. of a deferred annuity of 4 annas from the 21st to the 40th year ...	0	0	0
Ditto ditto of 8 annas from the 41st to the 60th year...	0	0	0
Ditto ditto of 12 annas from the 61st year for ever	0	0	0

The amount will be found to be very small.

4. With reference to the 22nd Rule, How will it apply in the following cases?

In the case of all Companies or individuals who applied for the redemption of their grants under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861, whose applications were registered by the Local Authorities, and Deposits received, but subsequently returned to the applicants?

In the case of those who applied, under the Resolution of 17th October 1861, for the redemption of their grants, whose applications were registered by the Local

4. 1st Case.—Registration is enough to bring these applications under the Resolution of 17th October 1861. Return of Deposit makes no difference.

2nd Case.—The same Registration alone is sufficient.

But it will be found that the terms of redemption offered by the new Rules are more favorable generally than those given by the Resolution.

3rd Case.—Those who applied under the Resolution, but whose applications were not received or registered, have Authorities, but whose Deposits tendered at the time were refused to be received?

In the case of those who applied for grants under the Resolution of the 17th October 1861, but whose applications would neither be received or registered by the Local Authorities in terms of that Resolution, and whose applications, on such refusal, were put in under the old Rules, and granted under those Rules?

no claim to receive lands under the Resolution of 17th October. The Resolution neither authorized persons to apply, nor warranted Collectors in receiving, and registering, applications, till Rules should be issued by the Local Government, and no such Rules ever were issued. Still where an applicant has been led to expect, by the act of a Collector, that his application would be complied with in the terms of the Resolution, he is not to be disappointed.

Grants under the old Rules may be commuted under Rule 19.
